A bill has been introduced in Congress for the creation of a Bureau of Public Health which would have charge of all matters pertaining to the health of the public at large. Of course this bill is being bitterly opposed by the "patent medicine" interests as its passage would result eventually in reducing their bank accounts to a very low ebb.

We can all help in putting the fakirs out of business—first, do not buy their products; next, influence your druggist to rid his shelves of such things and ask him not to assist in their advertisements by recommending them to cure; next influence your daily papers to run a vacuum cleaner over their columns.

EL-MORA COUNTRY CLUB TO BUILD FINE HOME

Elizabeth, June 24.—The El-Mora Country Club, of Elizabeth, which will erect a fine clubhouse, filed articles of incorporation Saturday at the county clerk's office. The club will provide for and encourage athletic games and sports among its members and also promote social intercourse among them.

Its affairs will be managed by a board of ten governors. Those chosen for the first year are: Joseph W. Doolittle, of Manhattan, and from Elizabeth; F. Gerard Smith, Royal S. Cleaves, Alexander G. Meeker, F. M. Broadhead, Julian A. Lyon, Ruppert Goddard, Walter F. Cawthorne, C. Edward Wheelwright, John P. Clark. The incorporators are: Messrs. Smith, Cleaves, Broadhead, Meeker and J. W. Doolittle.

AUTO TRANSIT LINES FOR WASHINGTON, N. J.

Washington, N. J., June 24.—Instead of waiting for the long expected trolley, Washington and Belvidere will shortly be connected by an automobile passenger and freight line, if the present plans are carried out.

The Perkiomen Valley Transportation Company, which is backed by New York capitalists, now has several lines connecting Pennsylvania towns. On June 28 four big automobile trucks, each with a capacity of sixty passengers, will be placed in service between Easton, Pa., and Martin's Creek, Pa.

Following this, and probably before the first of August, the company will place four cars in operation between Washington and Belvidere and Washington and Clinton. The idea is to have the automobiles take the place of a cross-country trolley.

The cars will be closed in winter and heated by electricity. It is also planned to connect Delaware Water Gap, Stroudsburg and other Pennsylvania towns. A line to Hackettstown is also proposed. If the present plans are carried out Washington will be the central point for three lines, with Belvidere, Clinton and Hackettstown as terminals.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

It is the unexpected surprises in "Officer 666" that furnish the appeal in this farce which has succeeded in focusing the attention of New York theatregoers on the Gaiety theatre for the past twenty-one weeks. At the same time it is a forceful play with an interesting plot and plausible story succinctly told by a clever company. The story is all about an over-zealous policeman that you laugh at immoderately, and when the thief he is trailing makes his getaway you laugh all the heartier. Not because of the escape of the gentlemanly Raffles, but at the manner of his disappearance. "Officer 666" is nearing its seventh month at the Gaiety, and when New Yorkers laugh and go again to see a show for that length of time, it is, in the idiom of the day, some play. 174th to 181st performance this week.

APPOINT CUSTODIAN.

Bernardsville, June 24.—The Board of Education Friday night appointed Township Treasurer Fred E. Ballentine custodian of school funds, beginning July 1, to succeed Tax Collector Robert Kay. John A. Whitnack, chairman of the special committee on the new school building at Far Hills, reported that no word had been received from Attorney-General Wilson and no further action could be taken in the matter before the legality of the election, which was held at Far Hills some time ago, is assured. The board granted the firemen a permit to use two rooms of the High School for an exhibition which will be given during their carnival on June 28 and 29.

MOTHER AND SON MARRIED BY SAME PASTOR, SAME DAY

Mrs. Alice Lawrence Peel, who obtained a divorce from her husband a few months ago, was married Saturday afternoon at her home, 117 Washington street, to Hugh Nichols of 53 Clinton avenue, and in the evening her son, William Peel, was married to Miss Lillie Wilson, of North Plainfield. Rev. Evarts C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, of which the bride is a member, officiated at both the wedding of Mrs. Peel and that of her son.

Only the relatives and a few friends attended the wedding of Mrs. Peel and Mr. Nichols in the afternoon. William Peel and Miss Wilson were married at the home of the officiating clergyman on East Second street, and the members of Mr. Conover's family were the witnesses.

JOLLY DANCE AND PARTY IN THE Y. M. H. A. HALL

The Young Men's Hebrew Association held a successful shirtwaist dance and package party in its hall on Grove street, last night, the affair being largely attended. The women brought packages of every description, containing novelties, and these were sold to the highest bidder. The proceeds were used to meet the expenses of the affair.

Naylor's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, which was continued until 12 o'clock. Refreshments were served during an intermission. The committee in charge comprised A. H. Richards, R. G. Peshkin, Harry Siegel and Max Bernstein.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Home Department of Trinity Reformed church will hold a cake sale at the church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The annual excursion of Trinity Reformed church and Bible school to Asbury Park will be held on Thursday, August 1.

The Lord's Supper will be observed at the Crescent Avenue church next Sunday morning, instead of on first Sunday in July, and the preparatory service will be held in the church Wednesday night.

The Epworth League of the First M. E. church will hold a picnic in the grove back of the home of Mr. Crawford on Myrtle avenue, Saturday afternoon and evening. Those interested to go are requested to take the 3:30 trolley from the Watchung avenue stand.

C. E. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The executive committee of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union will meet tomorrow night at the home of the vice president, A. R. Taintor, in Elizabeth. Plans for the summer work of the union will be discussed.

GAYNOR WORRIES THEM.

Eleventh Hour Boom For New York Mayor Has All Guessing.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

TAFT CONGRATULATED.

Reads Newspapers, Then With Sons Attends Divine Service.

Washington, June 24. — President Taft received many messages of congratulation upon his nomination at Chicago by the Republican convention. They came from every state and territory of the Union and from many foreign countries. The president answered as many of them as possible.

Among the several thousand messages received included one from George Harvey, the New York editor, the original Wilson man. Some of the messages, it is understood, were from rulers of European nations. One of the first to reach the president was one from Vice President Sherman at Utica, N. Y.

The president continued his course of the past week, securing himself in his family circle. After looking over the morning newspapers and his messages he attended religious service, as usual, at All Saints' church, accompanied by his sons, and Mrs. Taft, accompanied by Miss Taft, attended St. John's church.

T. R. MEN START ORGANIZING.

"Roosevelt Stronger Than Ever Before," Says Frey of Ohio.

Springfield, O., June 24.—Upon his return here from the Chicago convention George H. Frey began immediately to work up sentiment for the organization of a progressive party here.

"Roosevelt is stronger this very minute than he ever has been in his life," said Frey. "There never was a time when he was more needed by the people than now. Even the vote showed that Taft is losing ground. I firmly believe that a progressive party is bound to come. I feel that I will be able soon to send Chairman Brown a telegram announcing our intention.

"I look for such headway that a convention will be called along in August. It will mean the placing of Roosevelt at the head of the ticket by acclamation."

HUGHES SILENT ON RESULT.

Gets News From Convention at His Camp, but Won't Comment.

Lake Placid, N. Y., June 24.—Charles E. Hughes, associate justice of the United States supreme court, sat on the porch of his summer residence and received the news from the convention hall in Chicago. To newspaper men who asked him for a comment on the result his only words were:

"I have nothing to say."

Justice Hughes and his family will remain at Camp Abenaki, their home here, all summer, and the justice has declared to friends that he intends to give the time over to complete rest. He is very fond of roughing it, however, and will probably undertake several fishing trips and long tramps through the mountains.

T. R. IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

On Way to Church With Mrs. Roosevelt Steering Gear Breaks.

Chicago, June 24.—The steering gear of the automobile in which Colonel Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt started for church broke while the machine was traveling at a good rate of speed, and what might have been a serious accident was averted only by the quick action of the chauffeur.

Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt were riding in Alexander H. Revell's car and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Revell. They were on their way to Grace Reformed church.

The Roosevelt party was transferred to another car and went on to church.

SHERMAN IS PLEASED.

First Time In Seventy-five Years Vice President Has Been So Honored.

Utica, N. Y., June 24.—Vice President James S. Sherman, at his home in this city, made the following statement when told of his renomination:

"I am not unmindful of the honor conferred by the nomination by the Republican national convention as the party's candidate for vice president. To appreciate its full significance one must remember that not for three-quarters of a century has a renomination been accorded to any one for this office."

—Hubbubs—"See that foolish hen cackling just because she laid an egg." Subbubs—"Yes, I just laid a carpet, and I'm not cackling about it."

ASA R. DILTS' FUNERAL.

Somerville, June 24.—The funeral of Asa R. Dilts took place Saturday afternoon from his home in Raritan. Mr. Dilts was widely known throughout this vicinity, where he had been a carpenter and contractor for more than seventy years, and was actively engaged in business up to the time of his death. He was eighty-nine years old. For more than sixty years he was one of the pillars of the First Baptist church of this place, and had served in various official capacities. Mr. Dilts was also credited with having built more churches than any one man in New Jersey. Besides a widow, Mr. Dilts leaves six sons, Eugene, Charles and Holcomb D., all of Raritan; Oliver, of Flemington; Asa R., of Lowell, Mass., and George, of Somerville.

MRS. S. L. STITT.

Mrs. Sarah Louise Stitt, aged 51 years, wife of William H. Stitt, of Mountain avenue, Westfield, who had been in Muhlenberg Hospital for the past three days under treatment for pneumonia, died this morning. The body was taken to the late home in Westfield later in the day.

Also a Scientific Inquiry Into the Cause of High Cost of Living.

The Republican party, assembled by its representatives in the national convention, declares its unchanging faith in government of the people, by the people, for the people. We renew our allegiance to the principles of the Republican party and our devotion to the cause of Republican institutions established by the fathers.

It is appropriate that we should now recall with a sense of veneration and gratitude the name of our first great leader, who was nominated in this city and whose lofty principles and superb devotion to his country are an inspiration to the party he honored, Abraham Lincoln. In the present state of affairs we should be inspired by his broad statesmanship and by his tolerant spirit toward men.

The Party Record.

The Republican party looks back upon its record with pride and satisfaction and forward to its new responsibilities with hope and confidence. Its achievements in government constitute the most luminous pages in our history. Our great advance has been made during the years of its ascendancy in public affairs. It has never been either stationary or reactionary.

It has gone from the fulfillment of one great pledge to the fulfillment of another in response to the public need and to the popular will.

We believe in our self controlled representative democracy, which is a government of laws, not of men, and in which order is the prerequisite of progress.

Confidence In the Future.

The principles of constitutional government which make provision for orderly and effective expression of the popular will, for the protection of civil liberty and the rights of men and for the interpretation of the law by an untrammeled and independent judiciary have proved themselves capable of sustaining the structure of a government which after more than a century of development embraces 100,000,000 of people scattered over a wide and diverse territory, but bound by common purpose, common ideals and common affection to the constitution of the United States. Under the constitution, the principles vitalized by it, the United States has grown to be one of the great civilized and civilizing powers of the earth. It offers a home and an opportunity to the ambitious and the industrious from other lands. Resting upon a broad basis of a people's confidence and a people's support and managed by the people themselves, the government of the United States will meet the problems of the future as satisfactorily as it has solved those of the past.

Legislative Program.

The Republican party is now, as always, a party of advanced and constructive statesmanship. It is prepared to go forward with the solution of those new questions which social, economic and political development has brought into the forefront of the nation's interest. It will strive, not only in the nation, but in the several states, to enact the necessary legislation to safeguard the public health; to limit effectively the labor of women and children and to protect wage earners engaged in dangerous occupations; to enact comprehensive and generous workmen's compensation laws in place of the present wasteful and unjust system of employers' liability, and in all possible ways to satisfy the just demands of the people for the study and solution of the complex and constantly changing problems of social welfare.

Dealing with this question, it is important that the rights of the individual to the freest possible development of his own powers and resources and to the control of his own justly acquired property so far as those are compatible with the rights of others shall not be interfered with or destroyed. The social and political structure of the United States rests upon the civil liberty of the individual, and for the protection of that liberty the people have wisely in the national and state constitutions put definite limitations upon themselves and upon their governmental officers and agencies. To enforce these limitations, to secure the orderly and coherent exercise of governmental powers and to protect the rights of even the humblest and least favored individual are the function of independent courts of justice.

The Republican party reaffirms its intention to uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, both state and federal, and it will ever insist that their power to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate.

Duty of the Courts.

An orderly method is provided under our system of government by which the people may, when they choose, alter or amend the constitutional provisions which underlie that government. Until these constitutional provisions are so altered or amended in orderly fashion it is the duty of the courts to see to it that when challenged they are enforced.

That the courts, both federal and state, may bear the heavy burden laid upon them to the complete satisfaction of public opinion we favor legislation to prevent long delays and the tedious and costly appeals which have so often amounted to a denial of justice in civil cases and to a failure to protect the public at large in criminal cases.

Against Recall of Judges.

Since the responsibility of the judiciary is so great the standards of judicial action must be always and everywhere above suspicion and reproach. While we regard the recall of judges as unnecessary and unwise, we favor such action as may be necessary to simplify this process by which any judge who may be found to be derelict in his duty may be removed from office.

Together with peaceful and orderly development at home the Republican party earnestly favors all measures for the establishment and protection of the peace of the world and the development of closer relations between the various nations of the earth.

It believes most earnestly in the peaceful settlement of international disputes and the reference of all justiciable controversies to an international court of justice.

The Anti-monopoly Law.

The Republican party is opposed to special privilege and to monopoly. It placed upon the statute book the interstate commerce act of 1887 and the important amendments thereto and the anti-trust act of 1890, and it has consistently and successfully enforced the provisions of these laws. It will take no backward step to permit the re-establishment in any degree of conditions which were intolerable.

Experience makes it plain that the business of the country may be carried on without fear or without distrust and at the same time without resort to practices which are abhorrent to the common sense of justice.

New Trust Legislation.

The party favors the enactment of legislation supplementary to the existing anti-trust act which will define as criminal offenses those specific acts that uniformly mark attempts to restrain and monopolize to the end that all who obey the law may have a guide for their action and that those who aim to violate the law may the more surely be punished. The same certainty should be given to the law prohibiting combinations and monopolies that characterize other provisions of commercial law, in order that no part of the field of business may be restricted by monopoly or combination; that business success honorably achieved may not be converted into crime and that the right of every man to acquire commodities and particularly the necessaries of life in an open market uninfluenced by the manipulation of trust or combination may be preserved.

Federal Trade Commission.

In the enforcement and administration of federal laws governing interstate commerce and enterprises impressed with a public use engaged therein there is much that may be committed to a federal trade commission, thus placing in the hands of an administrative board many of the functions now by necessity exercised by the courts. This will promote promptness in the administration of the law and avoid delays and technicalities incident to court procedure.

The Tariff Plank.

We reaffirm our belief in a protective tariff. The Republican tariff policy has been of the greatest benefit to the country, developing our resources, diversifying our industries and protecting our workmen against competition with cheaper labor abroad, thus establishing for our wage earners the American standard of living. The protective tariff is so woven into the fabric of our agricultural life that to have a tariff that would destroy many industries would throw millions of our people out of employment. The products of the farm and of the mine should receive the same measure of protection.

We hold that the import duties should be high enough, while yielding a sufficient revenue, to protect adequately American industries and wages.

Reduction Recommended.

Some of the existing import duties are too high and should be reduced. Readjustment should be made from time to time to conform to changing conditions and to reduce excessive rates, but without injury to any American industry. To accomplish this correct information is indispensable. This information can best be obtained by an expert commission, as the large volume of useful facts contained in the recent reports of the tariff board has demonstrated.

The Tariff Board.

The pronounced feature of modern industrial life is its enormous diversification. To apply tariff rates justly to these changing conditions requires closer study and more scientific methods than ever before. The Republican party has shown by its creation of a tariff board its recognition of this situation and its determination to be equal to it. We condemn the Democratic party for its failure either to provide funds for the continuance of this board or to make some other provision for securing the information requisite for intelligent tariff legislation. We protest against the Democratic method of legislating on these vitally important subjects without careful investigation.

Democratic Bills Criticised.

We condemn the Democratic tariff bills passed by the house of representatives of the Sixty-second congress as sectional, as injurious to the public credit and as destructive to business enterprise. The steady increase in the cost of living has become a matter not only of national but of worldwide concern. The fact that it is not due to the protective tariff system is evidenced by the existence of similar conditions in countries which have a tariff policy different from our own, as well as by the fact that the cost of living has increased while rates of duty have remained stationary or been reduced.

The Republican party will support a prompt scientific inquiry into the causes which are operative, both in the United States and elsewhere, to increase the cost of living. When the exact facts are known it will take the necessary steps to remove any abuses that may be found to exist in order that the cost of the food, clothing and shelter of the people may in no way be unduly or artificially increased.

Banking and Currency.

The Republican party has always stood for a sound currency and for safe banking methods. It is responsible for the resumption of specie payments and for the establishment of the gold standard. It is committed to the progressive development of our banking and currency system. Our banking arrangements today need further revision to meet the requirements of current conditions. We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of this country by producing constant employment.

We need better currency facilities for the movement of crops in the west and south. We need banking arrangements under American auspices for the encouragement and better conduct of our foreign trade. In attaining these ends the independence of individual banks, whether organized under national or state charters, must be carefully protected, and our banking and currency system must be safeguarded from any possibility of domination by sectional financial or political interests.

Loans to Farmers.

It is of great importance to the social and economic welfare of this country that its farmers have facilities for borrowing easily and using the money. It is important that financial machinery be provided to supply the demand of farmers for credit. Therefore we recommend and urge an authoritative investigation of agricultural credit societies and corporations in other countries and the passage of state and federal laws for the establishment and capable supervision of organizations having for their purpose the loaning of funds to farmers.

The Civil Service.

We reaffirm our adherence to the principles of appointment to public office based on proved fitness and tenure during good behavior and efficiency.

The party stands committed to the maintenance, extension and enforcement of the civil service law, and it favors the passage of legislation empowering the president to extend the competitive service as far as practicable. We favor legislation to make possible the equitable retirement of disabled and superannuated members of the civil service in order that a higher standard of efficiency may be maintained.

We favor the amendment of the federal employees' liability law so as to extend its provision to all government employees as well as to provide a more liberal scale of compensation for injury and death.

Corporation Campaign Funds.

We favor such additional legislation as may be needed more effectually to prohibit corporations from contributing funds, directly or indirectly, to campaigns for the nomination or election of the president, the vice president, senators and representatives in congress. We heartily approve the recent act of congress requiring the fullest publicity in regard to all campaign contributions, whether made in connection with primaries, conventions or elections.

We rejoice in the success of the distinctive Republican policy of the conservation of our national resources for their use by the people without waste and without monopoly. We pledge ourselves to a continuance of such a policy.

We favor such fair and reasonable rules and regulations as will not discourage or interfere with actual bona fide homeseekers, prospectors and miners in the acquisition of public lands under existing laws.

Parcels Post Recommended.

In the interest of the general public, and particularly of the agricultural or rural communities, we favor legislation looking to the establishment, under proper regulations, of a parcels post, the postal rates to be graduated under a zone system in proportion to the length of carriage.

We approve the action taken by the president and congress to secure with Russia, as with other countries, a treaty that will recognize the absolute right of expatriation and that will prevent all discrimination of whatever kind between American citizens, whether native born or alien and regardless of race, religion or previous political allegiance. The right of asylum is to be neither surrendered nor restricted.

For an Adequate Navy.

We believe in the maintenance of an adequate navy for the national defense, and we condemn the action of the Democratic house of representatives in refusing to authorize the construction of additional ships.

We believe that one of the country's most urgent needs is a revived merchant marine. There should be American ships and plenty of them to make use of the great American interoceanic canal now nearing completion.

The Mississippi Floods.

The Mississippi river is the nation's drainage ditch. Its flood waters, gathered from thirty-one states and the Dominion of Canada, constitute an overpowering force which breaks the levees and pours its torrents over many million acres of the richest land in the Union, stopping mails, impeding commerce and causing great loss of life and property. These floods are national in scope, and the disasters they produce seriously affect the general welfare. The states unaided cannot cope with this giant problem; hence we believe the federal government should assume a fair proportion of the burden of its control so as to prevent disasters from recurring floods.

We favor the continuance of the policy of the government with regard to the reclamation of arid lands, and for the encouragement of the speedy settlement and improvement of such lands we favor an amendment to the law that will reasonably extend the time within which the cost of any reclamation project may be repaid by the land owners under it.

Rivers and Harbors.

We favor a liberal and systematic policy for the improvement of our rivers and harbors. Such improvements should be made upon expert information and after a careful comparison of cost and prospective benefits.

We favor a liberal policy toward Alaska to promote the development of the great resources of that district, with such safeguards as will prevent waste and monopoly. We favor the opening of the coal lands to development through a law leasing the lands on such terms as will invite development and provide fuel for the navy and commerce of the Pacific region.

Philippines Policy.

The Philippines policy of the Republican party has been and is inspired by the belief that our duty toward the Filipino is a national obligation which should remain entirely free from partisan politics.

Immigration.

We pledge the Republican party to the enactment of appropriate laws to give relief from the constantly growing evil of induced or undesirable immigration which is inimical to the progress and welfare of the people of the United States.

Safety at Sea.

We favor the speedy enactment of laws to provide that seamen shall not be compelled to endure involuntary servitude and that life and property at sea shall be safeguarded.

Republican Accomplishment.

The approaching completion of the Panama canal, the establishment of a bureau of mines, the institution of postal savings banks, the increased provision made in 1912 for the aged and infirm soldiers and sailors of the republic and for their widows and the vigorous administration of the laws relating to pure food and drugs, all mark the successful progress of Republican administration and are additional evidence of its effectiveness.

We commend the earnest effort of the Republican administration to secure greater economy and increased efficiency in the conduct of government business. Extravagant appropriations and the creation of unnecessary offices are an injustice to the taxpayer and a bad example to the citizen.

We call upon the people to quicken their interest in public affairs, to condemn and punish lynchings and other forms of lawlessness and to strengthen in all possible ways a respect for law and the observance of it. Indifferent citizenship is an evil from which the law affords no adequate protection and for which legislation can provide no remedy.

We congratulate the people of Arizona and New Mexico upon the admission of those states, thus merging in the Union, in final and enduring form, the last remaining portion of our continental territory.

Republican Administrations.

We challenge successful criticism of the sixteen years of Republican administration under Presidents McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft. We heartily reaffirm the indorsement of President McKinley contained in the platform of 1900 and of 1904 and that of President Roosevelt contained in the platform of 1904 and 1908.

We invite the judgment of the American people on the administration of William Howard Taft. The country has prospered and peace under his presidency is in vogue.

We appeal to the American electorate upon the record of the Republican party and upon this declaration of its principles and purposes. We are confident that under the leadership of the candidates here to be nominated our appeal will not be in vain; that the Republican party will meet every just expectation of the people, whose servant it is; that under its administration and its laws our nation will continue to advance; that peace and prosperity will abide with the people and that new glory will be added to the great republic.

Proposals Made Easy — Acceptance Assured

We Are Making It Easy For Young Folks to Wed

You know that many a worthy young man hesitates a long while—all too long sometimes—about proposing. He feels that he cannot just yet afford to furnish a home, therefore he will not ask his sweetheart to marry him. Yet he has a good income, a steady job, with every assurance of advancement, perhaps.

And the young lady stands, figuratively, waiting at the church, wondering why he does not say the word.

Now we are making it easy for young men and others to take the step that leads to bliss. We relieve their minds of the thought of laying out a greater sum of money to furnish the home than they are prepared to spend. We make it easy to buy the furniture, the floor coverings, upholsteries, linens, pictures, refrigerators, sewing machines, and other things necessary to the rightful equipment of a modern home.

Our Club Plan, which is unique with this establishment, enables any steady-going wage earner to buy a reasonable amount, and necessitates only the payment of a fraction of the cost at the time of purchase. The rest is made easy so that it may be paid out of the weekly wage without touching building and loan or other savings. If you want to know more about the Club Plan come in and let us explain it to you. Any Third Floor salesman will give you the particulars.

THIRD TICKET IS PLANNED FOR T. R.

May Hold Convention In Chicago Aug. 3.

AWAITING LEGAL ADVICE.

Platform Will Be In Hands of Committee of Seven—Trying to Figure Out How to Get Presidential Electors on Roosevelt Ticket.

Chicago, June 24.—The movement for a third ticket in the field by Colonel Roosevelt's supporters is making headway. Governor Johnson of California has been empowered by a mass meeting of delegates to confer with Colonel Roosevelt and prepare a plan and platform.

No definite announcement of the plan was made, and the date of the convention is still to be decided. It was rumored that it might be held here in Chicago on Aug. 3 and also that an attempt might be made to call the Roosevelt progressives together at Asbury Park. In general, the plan seems to be to utilize the Roosevelt machine in states that the colonel carried at the primaries and in other states to present a complete progressive ticket.

In New York, for instance, if the plans talked for are carried out there will be progressive candidates for governor and other elective offices that may be open when the contests begin.

In Pennsylvania it may be that William Flinn's plan of having the regular Republican voters cast their vote for Roosevelt, who, of course, is certain to be the candidate of the new party, may be carried out. In Minnesota it is planned to have the electors who favor Roosevelt resign and then to reappoint them by petition in order to make their positions secure.

Await Expert Legal Advice.

The plan of action in these and other states depends upon expert legal advice, which is still to be had. At present everything connected with the new movement, except the expressed intention of the colonel and some of his leaders to make a fight, is up in the air. The Roosevelt delegates, steam rollered and otherwise, to the number of two or three hundred, met in the Florentine room of the Congress hotel to inaugurate the new party. Governor Johnson presided at the meeting. At his side were Medill McCormick, James R. Garfield and Senator Clapp of Minnesota. Governor Stubb of Kansas came in, but went out again before the meeting got down to business. Cecil Lyon of Texas had a front seat. Few if any of the other prominent Roosevelt men were present.

Later James R. Garfield, who had been appointed by Governor Johnson to give such details as were possible concerning the new movement, met the newspaper men. He said that it might be some time before the personnel of the organization committee was decided upon, but that the progressive rank and file were going to work immediately "to carry to a successful termination the movement begun." He said that throughout the country presidential electors would be for Roosevelt and whoever was to be his running mate.

When asked about what stand had been taken by the so called Roosevelt governors and other Roosevelt leaders he said that each man must speak for himself. He seemed to have no doubt whatever that most of the governors would follow the colonel in his bolt from the Republican party.

Problem of Electors.

Mr. Garfield said that one of the first problems which Governor Johnson's committee would have to solve would be how to get presidential electors on the Roosevelt ticket. As for the financing of the new party, Mr. Garfield said that there was not the least doubt but that plenty of money would be forthcoming.

Mr. Garfield said further that of course the committee and other leaders would not be able to decide on definite plans for a vice presidential candidate and on many other matters until the result of the Democratic convention at Baltimore is known.

"We mean business," said Mr. Garfield. "Those who may think that this movement will end in a flash in the pan will find that they are badly mistaken."

When asked for an estimate of the present strength of the new party Mr. Garfield said that it might be in a way measured by the delegates who sat silent in their places, refusing to vote.

FIRST BAPTIST BOYS WIN THIRD STRAIGHT

Hope and Monroe Tied for Second Place in Sunday School League.

Saturday's struggles in the Sunday school league sent Park Avenue to fourth place by their heartbreaking defeat by the score of 3 to 2 at the hands of the champion Monroe Avenue team. First Baptist still retained her unblemished record when she overwhelmed Temple Baptist for a count of 17 to 5. Hope Chapel secured a leg on second place when she scored 20 runs against South Plainfield's seven.

TAIL-ENDERS BUMPED

The tail-end Temple Baptist team were easy for the strong First Baptist team who are at present leading the Sunday-school League, with a good margin to spare. The final score showed a total of seventeen runs against the two made by the losers. The Front street nine took the field with a wealth of good material, headed by Smith and Stine, the old Borough High School battery, who held the situation well in hand at all stages of the fray. The Temple Baptist lads hit the ball consistently, but were ragged in the fielding department. Bouten, of the losers, chalked up a trio of pretty hits, which included a three bagger and a two bagger. Smith, Bailey and Coombs also had extra base hits to their credit.

NINETEEN ERRORS

The formidable Hope Chapel baseball team journeyed to South Plainfield Saturday afternoon and took the Sunday-school League team of that place into camp by the score of 20 to 7. Schott was in fine fettle and pitched a splendid game for the winners, allowing the opposition but four scattered bingles. Melick, who pitched for the 'Plainers, was given very poor support by his team-mates, who piled up a total of 19 misplays behind him. Captain Grisley led his team at the bat with three singles to his credit and also played a fast game around the second station.

MONROES WIN FAST GAME

In the fastest game that has yet been played in the Sunday-school League, the champion Monroe Avenue nine managed to nose out a 3 to 2 victory over the Park Avenue Baptist lads. The game was marked by fast fielding, the losers making but one misplay against a trio by their opponents. "Shake" Clark was on the mound for Park Avenue and pitched one of the best games of his career. He allowed but six scattered hits and struck out five. Hess and Brown also held the hit column down to six and fanned six between them. Hess helped the score of the winners materially by his timely two base hit and single.

A feature of the game was a sensational catch made by Fielder Brown in the ninth, when he pulled down a liner that was ticketed for a three bagger and would have meant a game for the Park Avenue boys.

STAR FACTORY LEAGUERS SHUT OUT AT 'PLAINS

Scotch Plains had no trouble in defeating the all-star team from the Manufacturers' League in the game at the 'Plains yesterday, the score being 4 to 0. Only one man on the all-stars was able to reach third base and two reached the second bag, the game being a one-two-three affair. Nevertheless it was an interesting contest as Frederickson was on the mound for the All-Stars, being pitted against old "war horse" MacLaughlin. The Stars did little damage to Mac's delivery, four scattering hits being their entire harvest. The 'Plains found Frederickson for seven hits, the majority being put out at the right time, which told the tale, as both pitchers received good support.

GLENNEYS WILL MEET IN JUNE CUPS FINALS

The semi-finals for the June cups, both classes, was the only event at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday. In Class A, W. Lester Glenney beat A. J. Watson, 2 up and 1 to play, and Will T. Glenney beat H. R. Stockton, 5 up and 4 to play. This will bring the Glenney brothers together in the finals, and should result in a match of extraordinary interest. Both players are putting up a strong game and the outcome of the match will be watched closely by golf enthusiasts.

In Class B, S. T. Perrin beat R. B. Corey, 8 up and 6 to play, and George M. Holstein beat J. V. Beekman, 2 up and 1 to play.

PARK CLUB TENNIS BETTER THAN ELIZABETH BRAND

The tennis players of the Park Club engaged in a tournament on their courts, Saturday afternoon, with representatives of the Elizabeth Town and Country Club, and were successful in winning five out of the seven matches played. There were men's singles and doubles and one mixed doubles. The Parks have arranged a similar tournament with the Morristown Field Club to be played on the local courts July 20, and one with the Plainfield Country Club on September 21. The results of Saturday's matches follow:

Men's singles—A. B. Beers, Parks, defeated Mr. Thomas, Elizabeth, 6-2, 7-5; Wm. Barlow, Jr., Parks, defeated Barrett Littell, Elizabeth, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5; Mr. Tomlinson, Elizabeth, defeated Ted Gavett, Parks, 6-3, 1-6, 6-2.

Men's doubles—A. B. Beers and Wm. Barlow, Jr., defeated Mr. Thomas and Barrett Littell, Elizabeth, 5-7, 6-2, 6-2; H. L. McGee and Warner Mulford, Parks, defeated Mr. Weeks and Mrs. Harrison, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4; Mr. Cissell and Mr. Tomlinson, Elizabeth, defeated Edward aDniel and Charles Boice, Parks, 6-4, 6-3.

Mixed doubles—Mrs. Morris J. Dumont and Ralph Schoonmaker, Parks, defeated Mrs. Church and Mr. Cissell, 6-2, 6-2.

YANKEES' OWNER RATES MARTIN AS COMING STAR

After an absence of nearly two weeks from the Yankee's lineup Jack Martin returned to the fold Saturday and celebrated his reappearance by pulling off an unassisted double play. He failed to garner any bingles but walked three times in the second game of the double header. Martin is at his best about this time of the year and barring any further misfortunes he should shine in coming contests.

President Frank Farrell, of the New York American League baseball team, in speaking of the wealth of young material he now has at his disposal, says "Jack Martin, in our opinion, will be one of the best shortstops in either one of the big leagues within a year."

GOOD ENTRY LIST FOR JUNIOR GOLF TOURNEY

Between Thirty and Fifty Boys Register, Which is Considered Fine.

Between thirty and forty entries have been received up to date for the Metropolitan Junior Golf Tournament at the Plainfield Country Club on Tuesday. This is a fine entry considering that it is the first tournament of the kind ever held in this district. The committee has decided not to close the entries until late to night. Each entry should state that the boy has not reached his nineteenth birthday, and if possible should also give a few of his best practice scores this season at his home club. Ann entries should be mailed to Plainfield Country Club, Woodland avenue.

Parents need not hesitate to allow the younger boys to enter, as the home club will be responsible for their entertainment. Every boy who is interested in golf is wanted, whether he is golf rusty or not. The purpose of this tournament is to stimulate interest in the game by giving the boys a good day's golfing and a good time.

The entries to date:

Lowis C. Boelting, Wykagl; Richard Banks, Briarcliff; John D. Beals, Jr., Wykagyl; Hulbert B. Bassett, Baltusrol; Leonard Church, Plainfield; Philip Carter, Nassal; Stuart Connelly, Rockland; Artur Crunden (invited), St. Louis; Hayward Frickson, Plainfield; Carlos Fetterolf, Upper Montclair; Edmund B. Grier, Jr., Suburban; W. Harrington, Plainfield; H. Clay Irons, Plainfield; W. G. Irons, Plainfield; Seward Lyon, Plainfield; W. Lansing, Haworth; Morel T. Lewis, Flushing; Roger D. Mellick, Plainfield; M. R. Marston, Cranford; Edmund de C. Nash, Apawamis; Harley H. Noyes, Wykagyl; A. D. Prentiss, New Brunswick; D.C. Philips, Plainfield; John F. Potter, New Brunswick; Richard Potter, New Brunswick; Nicholas E. Smith, Scarsdale; J. P. Stevens, Plainfield; Frederick Turrell, Baltusrol; Buel Trowbridge, Flushing; Sherman Trowbridge, Flushing; Edward Wallace, Plainfield; John W. Zerega, Plainfield; F. W. Butler, Jr., Plainfield.

MRS. FARLEE CHAMPION.

Mrs. Hart S. Farlee won the tennis championship, women's singles, at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday, defeating Miss Barbara Fleming in the finals, 6-3, 6-4. The matches were among the best in the tournament and were closely contested from start to finish. Miss Fleming made a strong bid for the honors, but Mrs. Farlee played just a little better game.

Mrs. William Bacon and daughter, Evelyn, of Park place, the borough, are visiting Mrs. Bacon's sister at Bayonne. They will return home on Wednesday.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The defeat handed to the local ball tossers by the Lincoln Giants Saturday afternoon was the first that Plainfield has suffered this year on her home grounds.

There is some consolation in being beaten by a twirler of Redding's calibre as he is one of the best in the game.

John McGraw is responsible for the statement that if Redding could be made over into a white man he would be pulling $30,000 in either big league today.

He has terrific speed and this together with his fine assortment of curves forms a combination that will stand any batsman on his head.

If heighth and appearance count for anything Redding should be a world beater. He stretches out to the extent of six feet five inches and tips the scales close to the double century mark.

This physically perfect giant is enough to give any batsman the rattles in his knees.

The two batteries announced by the "Ump" to begin the fray consisted of men all over six feet two inches in height and all were excellent examples of the finished athlete.

Dent, the twirler secured from Newark by Dorflinger to do duty against the minstrels, had rough sledding in his initial appearance on the oval and taken as a whole his curtailed debut was not altogether impressive.

He was hit rather freely by the dusky swatsmiths, and this together with an occasional error thrown in to vary the monotony and give the fans something to kick about, gave the visitors nine counts during his six rounds stay on the mound.

The local hitters looked as if they were handling greased bats and all were a trifle peeved in regard to their afternoon's batting average.

When Frederickson entered the box in the sixth the team took on a new lease of life, and when he retired them in order and held the side scoreless for the first stanza in the game, he was given an ovation by the enthusiastic crowd.

Three of his backers five hits were made during his administration on the mound and two of these were two baggers.

He held the Giants scoreless during the sixth, seventh and ninth rounds and struck out four of the opposition while his team were garnering their lone two tallies of the fray.

A record-breaking crowd attended Saturday's game on the oval and the bleacherites gave a minstrel vaudeville show on the side which was a novelty in itself and made a decided hit with the crowd.

LARGE FIELD AND CLOSE MATCHES AT PARK CLUB

The weekly competition for the President's and Golf Club cups attracted a large field to the Park Golf Club, Saturday afternoon, and the matches were generally close and exciting. Dr. H. K. Carroll, won the first three points for both cups, his score being 85, 9-76. The following scores were posted:

Dr. H. K. Carroll, 85, 9-76; H. H. Woodland, 108, 28-80; P. C. Sweeny, 93, 12-81; R. V. Carpenter, 97, 14-83; C. B. Morse, 101, 17-84; H. L. Moodey, 103, 17-86; A. M. Morrell, 100, 12-88; J. H. Greene, Jr., 104, 14-90.

OVERDOSED WITH STRONG PITCHING

Colored Athletes Got Ample Revenge For the Defeat They Suffered on Their First Appearance Here—Hit Wallace Hard.

The Plainfield baseball team yielded to the slants of Redding, the Lincoln Giant pitcher, on the Oval Saturday afternoon for a 11 to 2 count. The local lads were never in it from the start and the dusty twirler's terrific delivery seemed to have them standing on their heads in every one of the nine rounds. This is the first defeat Plainfield has suffered on its home grounds and only the second losing contest in the eight played.

Their is some consolation in the fact that the Queen City bunch walloped the Lincoln Giant aggregation in their first meeting and this defeat only evens up matters. The game was played before one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds of the season and the rivalry was keen between the two factions for the visitors were not lacking in supporters.

Wallace, the new twirler secured by Manager Dorflinger from Newark, had everything on the sphere, but also had the unexcusable fault of grooving his throws so that they were promplty returned transformed into healthy bingles by the opposing batters. His support was rather faultering during the opening innings and this helped along the cause materially, so that the visitors were able to chalk up nine runs and one less hit during the six innings he occupied the box.

The Giants began their run harvest in the initial round when Francis, the dimitive long distance hitter of the team, promptly laced the first one over the pan to deep centre. He stretched this into an extra base through Marter's misjudgement of the ball and raced home on a clean two-bagger by Dunbar.

In the second and third rounds the visitors tallied four more runs on two-base hits by Francis and Santop, and scorching singles by Bradford, who came up to bat in both innings and registered a hit in each, and Loyd.

After the husky Redding had whiffed in the fourth, Francis again came to the bat amid the loud applause of admiring fans and replied with his third straight hit, a three-bagger to right field. He made good another count on Emery's error.

Francis again pushed his stick work to the front in the fifth, when after Wright and Bradford had secured berths on bases, he dropped one into the garden which matured into a two-bagger.

Frederickson was sent in to relieve Wallace in the sixth and when he retired the side in order for the first blanking of the game, as far as the visitors were concerned, the crowd went wild. When Freddy, just to demonstrate his ability along this line, repeated the trick in the seventh he was given an ovation and someone in the bleachers began to grow hopeful of a "won in the ninth" victory, but did not dare to express his opinion so that they would in any way disturb the peaceful followers of the dusky aggregation.

Plainfield seemed to pull together after Freddy went in to twirl and just by way of variation, got in a little stick work which netted them three hits and their two lone tallies.

BOUND BROOK WINS TIGHT GAME IN 9TH

Slocum Pitches Finely for Victims, and McLaughlin Suffers From Support.

Bound Brook won an exciting and nerve-racking contest from Dunellen at Bound Brook Saturday afternoon. For five full innings neither side was able to send a man across the rubber, but Bound Brook finally broke the ice in the sixth when they scored thrice on a base on balls, a single and a double and an error which were topped off by Powers' clean steal of home. Dunellen tried to duplicate it in their half of the sixth but fell one shy of doing so. They managed to get two runs across on three clean singles in rapid succession by Barnes, McLaughlin and Alberts. The visitors came near scoring again in the ninth on a three base hit by Barnes and a sacrifice fly by Alberts. Bound Brook pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth on a single, a double and a pretty bunt.

Slocum was in the box for Bound Brook and pitched a fine game. He had entire control of his large assortment of benders and kept the situation well in hand at all stages of the game. McLaughlin was given poor support by his backers who scored four costly errors behind him.

COMMERCIALS' INITIAL DEFEAT

POUNDED BY R. G. E.

Public Service Wallops Saurers, 10 to 8, and the Banks Push Spicers Down Into the Coal Parlor and Raise Themselves.

Two of the closest games in the Manufacturers' baseball league so far were played Saturday afternoon when the Banks took an 8 to 7 fall out of the Spicer leaguer's, and the Public Service defeated the Saurer bunch by 10 to 8. Perhaps the most surprising result was the fall taken out of the Commercial team, who are at present leading the league, by the R. G. E. combination. This game was the high score contest of the afternoon, the winners piling up thirteen runs to their opponents five. By virtue of their win over the Spicer team the Bankers rose to third place in the league standing, at the same time lowering the Spicer nine to the cellar.

Results of Saturday's games:
Public Service 10, Saurer 8.
R. G. E. 13, Commercial 5.
Banks 8, Spicer 7.

HARD-FOUGHT GAME

The Public Service took a hard-fought game from the Saurer aggregation Saturday by the score of 10 to 8. The game was a characteristic pitchers' duel and both moundsmen were ably supported. Although the winners were in the lead all through the game they never led by more than two counts and the Saurer bunch had many opportunities to even the score.

A feature of the game was Mullin's three bagger with two men on the bases. Winters and Garretson also did some good stick work for their respective teams.

JOINTSMITHS LOSE

After playing the part of runner-up during the first seven rounds the Banks pushed a trio of points across the rubber in the eighth and won by an 8 to 7 score over the Spicer team. In the first round the Spicer men got to Ricketts for three healthy wallops, a base on balls and a hit batter, which netted them five runs and a comfortable lead. Ricketts settled down after this initial bad inning and held the Joint Makers to six scratch hits during the remaining eight rounds. Dolan pitched a good game for the losers but was given some very poor support by his teammates who went to pieces in the fourth and eighth stanzas.

A number of grandstand catches were made by the fielders, which were probably caused by the large number of the fair sex who attended the game.

COMMERCIALS CHECKED

The Commercials, league leaders, were forced to swallow their first defeat of the season at the hands of the R. G. E. combination Saturday, by a 13 to 5 count. The game was attended by a large crowd of enthusiastic fans who had been expecting just such an outcome when these two teams should meet again. VanZandt twirled a masterful game for the losers but his support was faltering, and this added to the array of the league's best hitsmiths who were pitted against him, gave the opposing side thirteen counts. George Linke, who has just returned from Lehigh University, was behind the bat for the Commercials and held up VanZandt in big league style.

Limbloom, as usual, handed in his contribution of two base hits and three runs resulted. He also secured a three bagger and Banks pounded out a home run.

Clothes That'll Take Age Off Any Man.

Four centuries ago Ponce de Leon sailed towards the West in quest of a Fountain of Youth.

Just think of the distance he had to cover, the expenditure—and then the slim chance of success. All of this goes to show the benefits of "up-to-date civilization."

Today at my clothes-shop you can get a suit that will make you look more youthful than a thousand fountains of youth.

And all you have to pay for this suit is

IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY

AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $447,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

NAME OF GIRL IN AUTO COLLISION KEPT SECRET

Elizabeth, June 24.—A young woman, whose name is withheld at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and Stephen Livingston, of Aberdeen road, were severely injured when hurled out of a speeding auto in Lyons Farms Friday night. Herman Scharwerth., of North Broad street, who owned the car, was at the wheel when the accident occurred. He escaped unhurt.

When the machine struck a large rock at the side of a dark road it nearly upset, and young Livingston and his companion, who were in the tonnean, were thrown to the pavement.

The woman had four teeth knocked out, her face lacerated and her body badly bruised. No bones, however, were broken, but she is suffering from shock.

Livingston was injured internally and was unconscious when picked up. The hospital physicians say, however, he will recover.

URGES STATE PRISON SENTENCE FOR BROTHER

Metuchen, June 24.—That he wants a State prison sentence imposed on his brother Tyler, who, he believes, is a bigamist, was made clear in a letter written by Milton Gibbs, a Rochester lawyer, to Truman T. Pierson, of this place, who aided in the arrest of the accused, at Newark.

In spite of Milton Gibbs' attitude, Mrs. William H. Bennett and her daughter, Delaphine, the bride of Tyler, feel sure that the marriage is legal. They are sticking by the bridegroom, who, it is alleged, has a wife living at White Plains, N. Y. In his letter to Pierson, Milton Gibbs, after urging that the Bennett family and the State authorities should co-operate to put Tyler in State prison, added that that was the only proper place for him.

Late Friday afternoon an application made by Frank M. McDermit, of Newark, Tyler Bibbs' counsel, for a reduction of bail in the alleged bigamist's case was refused by Justice of the Peace C. C. Weber, before whom he was arraigned on the bigamy charge. The court denied the request.

Gibbs, when he appeared in Justice Weber's court Friday, was accompanied by McDermit. The latter asked that the bail of $5,000 be reduced on the ground that it was excessive. He wanted the amount set at $1,500. Rev. James G. Mason pastor of a Presbyterian church here who married Gibbs to the Bennet girl, opposed any reduction of the bail bond.

"In my estimation," said the clergyman, "the bail is not too heavy That man," pointing to Gibbs, "didn't tell the truth when I performed the marriage ceremony for him."

The court said the bond would stand until July 9, when a formal hearing will be given the prisoner. Gobbs' bondsman is Frederick C. Van Keuren, of Newark.

Mr. McDermit said that he would appear in Justice Weber's court either Saturday or today with a new bondsman.

After the court proceedings Friday Gibbs and his counsel drove to the Bennett house, where Mrs. Bennett extended a hearty welcome to her new son-in-law. The second Mrs. Gibbs rushed into her husband's arms.

"So far as I know," said Mrs. Bennett, "Mr. Gibbs' marriage to my daughter was legal. I expect to stick to him, because he has done right since he has been in the family.

Gibbs declares that in a few days he will produce the record of a decree of divorce from the White Plains Mrs. Gibbs.

TO ASK FOR CHANGE IN THE PENSION LAW

Jersey City, June 24.—That the Pikaart Assembly investigating committee, which is inquiring into the civil service and pension laws of the state, will recommend changes in the statutes seems reasonably certain. What the changes will be the committee is not prepared to say, but there is said to be a feeling that the law should be so amended that a police officer, for instance, who has served twenty years on the force, and who is physically able to continue that line of work, should not be retired on a pension.

The committee held another session Friday afternoon in Chancery chambers here. When the meeting opened Mr. Pikaart was the only member of the committee present, but later Assemblyman Beard appeared. It was expected that Assistant Secretary of State Job H. Lippincott, who was a former police commissioner of this city, would be on hand, but he failed to appear. Corporation Counsel Warren Dixon was present in behalf of Jersey City, although he did not cross-examine the several pensioned Jersey City police officers, who were placed on the stand by former Judge William I. Lewis, counsel for the investigating committee.

It was announced that the next session of the committee would be held in Trenton at the call of the chairman. At that time the workings of the law, as applying to civil service, will be considered.

Lieutenant John F. Gannon testified that he had served twenty-three years on the police force and that he retired voluntarily. He declared that Mr. Lippincott had asked him to remain in the police service, but he felt that he had had enough of it.

Lieutenant John Nugent, who had retired after serving twenty years, said that he was physically able to continue in service at the time he got out of the department, but he wanted a rest and quit. Asked what he was now doing, he said

"Nothing. I'm in the real estate business."

Others put on the stand were Patrolmen Charles O'Neill, August Hertle, Patrick Walsh, W. W. Tallman, Henry Tuite and William Reed and Lieutenant Samuel Graiz. Their testimony was practically alike, in that they swore that they retired from the department at their own volition, and were not forced out.

PIANO PUPILS PLEASE WITH ANNUAL RECITAL

The junior pupils of Miss Alice M. Quinn and Miss Katharine Quinn, of West Fifth street, gave their annual recital to a large and appreciative audience in the old Knights of Columbus Hall on Saturday evening. The program consisted of twenty-three numbers and occupied two and a half in presentation. The faultless manner in which the children performed their different selections was commented upon and reflected high credit upon their tutors. Several vocal selections were also rendered, the "Jolly Romp" and "Dolly's Lullaby," by little Mary Maher proving highly acceptable. The rendition of "A Gipsy Maiden I," (Parker), by Miss Grace Norman, was vociferously applauded and an imperative encore demanded. Miss Norman possesses a soprano voice of much quality and sweetness. Other numbers that especially pleased were the "Dance Chorus," from the opera of Hansel and Gretel and the Boys' Quartet "La Capriciese."

The program was as follows:

Part I.—Duett, "March," Von Blon, Masters E. McKeon, C. Brown; "Alpine Hut," Krentzlin, Miss Katharine Schuefer; "Jolly Romp," Horvath, Miss Mary Maher; "A Little Song of Italy," Sartorio, Miss May Connolly; "The Fairy," Streabbog, Master Edmund Kiely; Chorus, "The Dance," Humperdinck, from the Opera of Hansel and Gretal; Vocal, "Dolly's Lullaby," Spaulding, Miss Mary Maher; March, "Happy Little Folks," Louis, Master Francis Connolly; "Evening Serenade," Lichner, Miss Marguerite Traynor; "Home, Sweet Home," Thalberg, Miss Charlotte McIntyre; Quartet, "Dance of the Fairies," 1st piano, Misses G. Brown, T. Kreger; 2nd piano, Misses M. Gallagher, M. Butscher.

Part II.—Boys' Quartet, "La Capricieuse," Eggeling, 1st piano, Masters E. McKeon, C. Brown; 2nd piano, Masters J. Gallagher, H. Keenan; "Gipsy Dance," Lichner, Miss Rose Clark; "The Swallow," Gobbaerts, Miss Katherine Hughes; "Softly Sings the Brooklet," Wenzel, Master Harold Keenan; "Diavolina," Lange, Miss Margaret McGinley; Vocal, "A Gipsy Maiden I," Parker, Miss Grace Norman; "The Merry Dance," Wolff, Master Harold Whitford; "Gipsy Music," Krentzlin, Miss Mary Butscher; Violin, "Spring Song," Mendelssohn; Master Daniel Kreger; "Cachoucha," "Spanish Dance," Raff, Master Elisha McKeon; "Valse," Op. 18, Chopin, Miss Grace Norman; Quartet, "Spring Breezes," Bohm, 1st piano, Misses M. Bantle, K. Hughes; 2nd piano, Misses E. Pilger, F. Russ.

Next Saturday the senior pupils will give their recital.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Men's Conference Class of the First Baptist church will hold its annual camp-fire Thursday night on the mountains, just west of the end of the Somerset street trolley line on Interhaven avenue.

A home-made cake sale will be held by the young women members of Mrs. Lewis Matlack's Sunday-school class, at a special counter at Scheuer's grocery store, Saturday, all day. The proceeds will go toward providing a baby-crib for the Day Nursery.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold its last meeting for the season tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John G. MacLaughlin on Arlington avenue. Miss Harriett R. Halloway will give echoes from Northfield and Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong will have charge of the devotional exercises.

VETERAN DEFENDS PENSION SYSTEM

RECALLS DARK DAYS

Something, He Contends, is Due the Veterans in Compensation for What They Suffered — Not Ashamed of the Pension Received.

In defense of the pension system, Major W. D. W. Miller, who served with distinction in the war between the States, has written the following reply to the editorial recently contributed by Councilman George S. Clay:

Editors, Plainfield Daily Press:

My attention has been called to an editorial contributed to the Daily Press by Councilman George S. Clay, of which the following is an extract:

"In my opinion, it rests with the veterans themselves to clear us of this National disgrace brought about by the abuse of a worthy cause. Let them give some thought to the reason for their service. Do men volunteer in case of war because of the compensation they will receive or because they may be pensioned after the war is over? No. Do they enlist because they wish to preserve the property and homes of those who must remain at home? Of course not. It is purely and simply from a sense of loyalty, of duty to their country. The loyal soldier is never a mercenary. He is always a volunteer. The armies of a republic are mobilized not by a draft, but by a call. As a loyal veteran of the Civil War has said: 'The true rewards of loyalty cannot consist in recompense, gifts, compensations, or remunerations. The duty of loyalty is a moral obliga-

FIRST OF THE EXCURSIONS WILL BE A HEAVY ONE

The first of the excursions to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove goes next Thursday. The Sunday-schools of Crescent Avenue, Grace, Seventh Day Baptist, Holy Cross, Heavenly Rest, St. Stephen's, Dunellen Presbyterian and New Market Baptist churches and Bethel chapel will make the trip, and as usual the friends of the scholars and the general public are invited to accompany the members of the schools. The fare is the usual church excursion rate.

The excursion will be run in two sections. The first section leaves Dunellen at 8:04, making stops at Clinton Avenue at 8:06, Grant Avenue at 8:08, and the main Plainfield station at 8:15, but does not stop at Netherwood. The first six cars of this section are reserved for the members of Bethel Chapel and the Grace colored Sunday-schools and their friends. The second section will leave just behind the first, stopping at Plainfield and Netherwood only. The return from the shore will be made at 6:30 and both sections will stop at all stations from Netherwood to Dunellen. Each train will have a combination baggage car attached so that bicycles, baby carriages, and other light baggage can be taken along by the excursionists.

OFF FOR CAMP.

J. Raymond Manley and James Herrman will leave for the Y. M. C. A. State camp at Lake Waywayanda tomorrow morning to remain the rest of the summer. They will be met in New York by C. William Bingeman, who will be the assistant camp director. Manley will be placed in charge of the camp honor system and Herman will manage the general store at the lake.

MRS. POLLOCK BURIED.

Mrs. Sarah Pollock, of Mount Hober, died on Sunday afternoon in her seventy-sixth year. She leaves a son Edmund L. Pollock and daughter Eliza Pollock. The funeral took place at eleven o'clock this morning from her late residence, Rev. William McRorie pastor of Mount Horeb Methodist church, officiating. The interment took place in Greenwood cemetery.

CAMPERS SNAPPED.

A photograph of the 1912 Y. M. C. A. boy campers was snapped by Paul R. Collier at the association this morning. The largest group ever sent out from the local Y. M. C. A. were in the picture and totaled forty.

TO HONOR MEMORIES OF FORMER PASTORS

Crescent Avenue Church Will Place Bronze Tablets at Pulpit's Sides.

The members of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church have decided, following the adoption of a report of the decoration committee, to place memorials in the church in recognition of the long and faithful services of the late Rev. Dr. John C. Bliss and Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, former pastors. The report of the committee provides for two handsome bronze tablets to be placed on either side of the pulpit. The committee has been authorized to proceed with the erection of the memorials and to receive contributions from the members of the congregation for that purpose.

The cost of the tablets will be about $1,000 and in order that a great many of the members may take part in these memorials it is desired that no subscriptions of over $10 shall be offered. George P. Mellick, of 218 East Seventh street, will receive pledges or subscriptions.

Rev. Dr. John C. Bliss was one of the earlier pastors of the church, and Rev. Dr. William R. Richards served the church as pastor for about eighteen years, preceding the present incumbent, Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie. After leaving the local church, Dr. Richards became pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York. During the past year or so several memorial windows have been placed in the church for honored members of the congregation.

PARENTS AND BOYS ENJOY Y. M. C. A. CAMP RECEPTION

An informal reception was held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening for the parents and friends of the forty boys who will go to the Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Lake Wawayanda. The hall was prettily decorated by the Women's Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. F. G. Hubbard. The color scheme was green and red and a profusion of rambling roses produced a noteworthy effect.

Nearly all of the boy campers and their parents were in attendance to listen to the remarks made by Boys' Secretary C. William Bingeman, who will be Charles R. Scott's assistant in conducting the camp this year.

It was the third annual affair of the kind held in the Y. M. C. A. and Mr. Bingeman, in the course of his talk, outlined the growth of the Association camp movement in this city. When he took charge of the work in 1909, eight boys took the initial trip with him. In 1910 the number more than doubled. Last year twenty-seven boys spent their vacation at camp. The 1911 group came within one point of capturing the handsome trophy offered for the most points scored in the athletic competition and Joseph Sattels repeated his previous year's performance by walking off with the silver cup offered for the quoit championship.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the women in charge.

PARTY IN CENTRAL PARK.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Sweeny, of 102d street, New York City, gave a birthday party for their daughter, Dorothy A. Sweeny, on Saturday afternoon in Central Park. Miss Sweeny was three years old. About fifteen little tots had a very pleasant afternoon.

FIRE DOES $2,000 DAMAGE TO MADISON AVE. HOUSE

Damage estimated at $2,000 was caused by a fire this afternoon in a house at 410 Madison avenue, belonging to John Hetfield, of Belvidere avenue. The house was unoccupied but had just been newly papered and painted.

It is thought that some sparks, from a stove in which a fire had been lighted by workmen this morning, may have caused the ignition. The alarm was given at 2:30 and the fire companies, under the direction of Chief Doane, had the flames speedily extinguished, but not before the building was badly damaged.

KIDDIES SPENDING HAPPY AFTERNOON AT BOYNTON

Twenty automobiles carrying about 130 poor children of the city, left the Charity Organization Society headquarters in the Babcock building at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon, on the annual outing, the objective point of which was Boynton Beach. In each car there was a chaperone. An abundant supply of refreshments were taken along to satisfy the hungry youngsters and it was planned to serve them with ice cream at Boynton Beach.

Among those who were responsible for the outing were W. L. Smalley, Morris C. VanArsdale, H. W. Marshall, Allan B. Laing, Alexander Milne and H. A. Todd and they interested other autoists to the extent of persuading them to loan their cars for the affair.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT RETURNS TO NEW YORK

New York, June 25.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt returns brim-full of fight. The Twentieth Century Limited brought him into the Grand Central station, New York, at 9:25 o'clock this morning.

The colonel was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Frank Munsey, Regis Post and E. A. Van Valkenburgh, of Philadelphia.

In a week, it was said, Col. Roosevelt will gather together in New York city as many members of his new party committee as possible. Then definite plans for the coming campaign will be discussed.

TWO CASES ADJOURNED.

Helen Schneiderbeck, of Monroe avenue, and Teresa Venutello, of Race street, who were arrested yesterday for fighting on West Front street, where they had been attending a bargain sale, appeared in the city court this morning before City Judge William G. DeMeza and their case was put over to tomorrow morning. The case of Charles Hill, of 52 Pearl street, North Plainfield, for drunken disorderliness and entering the house of Nathan Meyers, 121 Watchung avenue, at an early hour this morning, was likewise adjourned.

AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

William L. Saunders, former mayor of North Plainfield and an ardent political admirer of Woodrow Wilson, is attending the Democratic National convention at Baltimore. Frank Shattle, Councilman P. J. Reville and D. J. Courain are also among the Plainfielders attending the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cutter, of Sandford avenue.

FIFTH REGIMENT ARMORY, BALTIMORE, SCENE OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, JUNE 25.

IT WAS A STEAL SAYS MR. KNAPP

Union County Delegate Praises Conduct of Col. Roosevelt at Chicago.

MOY MUCH IMPRESSED

Plainfield's Mayor Moved by Great Demonstration for the Colonel at Convention and at "Progressives" Big Mass Meeting.

Edgar A. Knapp, of Elizabeth, the Roosevelt delegate, and Mayor G. W. V. Moy, the alternate, to the Republican National Convention from Union county, returned yesterday. Knapp declared that the renomination of President Taft was the "greatest political fraud ever perpetrated on the American people." Mr. Knapp, with Mayor Moy, left Chicago on the "Press Special" and says the newspapermen he met on his way home were almost unanimous in expressing the opinion that Mr. Taft's renomination was a "deliberate steal." He declares that Senator Root and all of the other men who forced the selection of the President are politically dead and believes the Republican party is also in its last throes.

Mayor Moy was as enthusiastic as if Roosevelt had been nominated by acclamation, when seen today by a Press reporter. He declared that it is impossible to give expression to the scenes of enthusiasm of the T. R. men throughout the convention, adding that the demonstration of the Progressives' loyalty at the Progressive mass meeting on Saturday night was indescribable. For the average Easterner, he stated, it was almost impossible to realize how the middle west and the far west are heart and soul for Roosevelt. He is very optimistic of the outcome of the new party movement in November.

Mr. Knapp said that the nominating speech of Comptroller Prendergast, of New York city, was one of the most remarkable addresses he ever heard. Practically all the Jersey delegates attended the independent convention, at which the Union county men estimates that there were about 400 delegates.

In speaking of the plans for the future in this State Mr. Knapp said that the delegates would find out the sentiment in their respective districts and probably report their findings to Colonel Roosevelt in the near future. He saw few people today, but said that even the Taft men he interviewed expressed the opinion that the President could not be re-elected.

Mr. Knapp was loud in his praise of Colonel Roosevelt's conduct in Chicago. He said the greatest pressure was brought to bear on the former President to get him to bolt, but he firmly refused to do so. The California delegates were particularly insitsent that the colonel take his followers out of the convention.

PLAINFIELDER WILL JOIN IN A LONG AUTO JAUNT

Elmer Hale, of McAllister, Oklohoma; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Harvey, of Tulsa, Oklohoma, and Miss Opal Harvey, of Eldon, Missouri, were guests yesterday of Samuel Rothberg, of this city. They are touring in Mr. Harvey's automobile from New York to Oklohoma and expect to cover 2,280 miles from here. They are now in Atlantic City, where they will remain until tomorrow. They will return here and be joined by Harry Rothberg on their trip.

The journey westward will include Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Columbus, Dayton, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Detroit, Battle Creek, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Eldon, Missouri, the home of Miss Harvey, and Tulsa; thence to McAllister. Mr. Hale is secretary and treasurer of the Hale-Halsell Grocery Company, and well-formerly attended John Leal's School. known by many Plainfielders. Harry Rothberg is a salesman at the Muskogee branch of the concern, which has branches in McAllister, Muskogee, Durant, Coolgate and Tulsa.

FIRST MESSAGE FROM DAILY PRESS TOURISTS

The first message from the Plainfield Daily Press tourists since they left Philadelphia last Saturday, came this morning on a postal card from Miss Mabel Vail, and it indicates that the party is having a fine time, with every comfort and convenience. The postal, which was sent off by the pilot that accompanied the ship to the Delaware breakwater, is postmarked June 24, and reads as follows:

"We are all very luxuriously settled in our steamer chairs on board this lovely boat. Mr. Anderson and another gentleman met us at the dock and showed us every courtesy. We were introduced to Captain Hill and are enjoying every minute to its fullest. We had excellent accommodations at the Colonnade and enjoyed it there so much.

"Mr. Fisher met us at the hotel and showed us the Evening Bulletin. They have an excellent plant. We all extend our heartiest thanks to the Plainfield Daily Press for their many kindnesses to us. Your telegram reached us at breakfast. We are now busy writing cards to send off with the pilot at 4:30. With best wishes for the Plainfield Daily Press.

"Sincerely,

"MISS BABEL H. VAIL."

CONSIDERING PLANS FOR PUNISHING N P. H. S. CLASS

The question of debarring the class of 1913 from school athletics as punishment for marking the class numerals in paint on the school building during a recent outburst of class rivalry, was raised by E. S. Boyer at last night's meeting of the North Plainfield Board of Education. He was of opinion that the punishment would have a wholesome effect.

Several of the members demurred at this drastic suggestion, which they considered would lower the athletic prestige of the school, and Allan B. Laing moved that the damage be assessed and that the class pay. Objection was offered to this on the ground that it was only a few of the class that were offenders and it would not be just to punish all. Mr. Boyer did not think a fine would have the desired effect. He also mentioned that a house in Fairview avenue had been broken into and a pennant stolen. Mr. Laing declared that that was a matter for the police to attend to, and was outside the jurisdiction of the board.

A further suggestion was made that the ringleaders be given opportunity to confess, and if they did not, the whole class be debarred. This suggestion appealed to Mr. Boyer, but not to Dr. J. H. Cooley, who suggested that the appropriation for the class day exercises be withheld. After more talk action was deferred until September.

EXCURSION PLANS.

Representatives of the Temple Baptist and First Baptist churches met in the parlors of the First Baptist church last evening to complete arrangements for the joint excursion to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Saturday, July 27. James D. Macnab was elected to take charge of the ticket department. He will be assisted by U. B. Crane, L. W. Randolph and Frank Jones.

LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION PICNICS AT WILLOW GROVE

The Willard Loyal Temperance Legion held its annual picnic yesterday, at Williow Grove Lake on the vonOhl farm. The children met at the W. C. T. U. in the morning from which place they took the trolley to Randolph road. They then walked to the vonOhl farm, where they spent the day. Games of all sorts were played, while some of the children enjoyed boating on the lake. At noon a basket luncheon was served. Mrs. George Thomas, superintendent, was in charge.

The grounds were attractively decorated with American flags, and Mrs. von Ohl thoughtfully spread carpet in a grove near the lake, where the children had their dinner. In the afternoon some of thec hildren engaged in running and jumping races and a tug-of-war resulted in lots of fun for everyone.

Mr. vonOhl took the children out for a boat ride and an amusing incident not on the program, was the jumping of Mr. vonOhl in the lake. At 3 o'clock all the children and guests were served with ice cream and a photograph of the group was taken. Before departing for home at 6 o'clock the party gave three cheers for Mrs. vonOhl and members of her family who helped to entertain.

SAVE $1 A TON ON COAL BY BUYING IN NEW YORK

The awarding of the coal contract was taken up by the North Plainfield Board of Education, last night. Bids were received from local dealers, and one from Pattison & Bowns, of New York, through their local agent, Herbert S. Rogers. The prices quoted were much below the local offers and it was decided to close with them on the following terms:

300 tons of pea at $2.65, 100 tons stove at $3.90; freight per ton, pea, $1.40; stove, $1.55. The carting of the coal at 50 cents per ton was awarded to Mobus Bros. By accepting the offer the Board announced they were affecting a saving of one dollar per ton, as the lowest local bid was, pea, $5, and stove, $6.50.

TO HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC.

The Plainfield Graded Union of Sunday school teachers at the weekly meeting, yesterday afternoon, decided to hold the annual picnic on the mountains on Thursday. The members will take the 10 o'clock trolley from Watchung avenue, going to the end of the Somerset street line, from which point the place of holding the picnic is but a short distance. The union has also decided to continue its meetings every week during the summer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONFERENCE

The second general conference district Epworth League Institute will be held at Drew Theological Seminary, Drew Forest, Madison, July 6-14. Among those who will take part in the program is Rev. ELIMINATE MR. BRYAN

Conservatives Claim They Will Crush Nebraskan In Vote On Temporary Chairman - - - Hot Fight Against Parker Now On.

Baltimore, June 25.—The Democratic National Convention was called to order at noon today by Chairman Mack. After the opening prayer by Cardinal Gibbons, the temporary roll of delegates was adopted.

After the adoption of the roll the fight between the "progressives" and the "conservatives" was opened with a bang over the selection of a temporary chairman.

(American Press Association.)

Alton B. Parker, of New York, was announced as the national committee's choice for temporary chairman. William Jennings Bryan named United States Senator J. W. Kern as a candidate to oppose Parker. Senator Kern declined to run and he nominated Bryan. At this point Chairman Mack ordered a roll call.

It was announced at Bryan headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning that Senator J. W. Kern, of Indiana, had been agreed upon as the progressive candidate for temporary chairman in opposition to Judge Parker. Bryan will place his former running made in nomination for the chairmanship.

This is where Bryan expects to make his great effort to swing the convention. If he had been the candidate he wouldn't have had a chance to get his oratory to work.

The selection of Senator Kern was announced by Harvey C. Garber, National committeeman from Ohio, after a conference today with Mr. Bryan and his brother, Charles W. Bryan; Senators Luke Lea, of Tennessee; Kern, Thomas P. Gore, of Kklahoma, and Francis Newlands, of Nevada.

Mr. Bryan said before the convention assembled that he was going in to make the speech of his life in defence of his attitude and against the big interests he declared were opposinghim. He was in deadly earnest, as his visitors testified, and some said there were tears in his eyes as he spoke.

Judge Parker was calm and undisturbed, saying he did not know who would lead the fight for him, but that the matter was entirely in the hands of the National Committee, which had ratified his selection last night.

The Murphy - Sullivan - Taggart-Heart combination has more than 650 votes, and only 547, or a majority of the 1,092 delegates, is required to elect a temporary chairman.

So. Mr. Belmont and Mr. Ryan and the other employers of Mr. Parker are smiling softly today and are figuring that the election of the ex-judge is a mathematical certainty.

Their success in arraying the Clark faction against the Wilson faction on this issue, they believe, cinches the certainty of the defeat of Bryan.

The anti-Bryan people claim that Champ Clark will be nominated for President on the second or third ballot.

ROUND OF ENTERTAINMENT.

Mrs. T. W. T. Maxwell, formerly of this city, who has been living in Cincinnati, is spending a few days in town preparatory to going to her new home at Detroit. During her stay here she has been the guest of honor at several social functions. Yesterday a bridge whist was given in her honor and Mrs. Lamar Van-Syckel, of Hobart avenue, gave a luncheon for her. This afternoon Mrs. W. H. Scott, of West Seventh street, is giving a luncheon and tonight Mrs. Maxwell will be given a dinner.

SANITARIUM FLAG.

Freeholder J. Hervey Doane has acknowledged the receipt of a letter and resolution from Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, in which the members have offered to give an American flag to be displayed at Bonnie Burn Sanitorium. The Board of Governors of the sanitorium will fix a date for the presentation and arrange an appropriate ceremony in connection therewith. Watchung Council has not yet decided who will make the presentation speech.

T. R. NAMES HIS STRATEGY BOARD

Declares He'll Fight Battle Through Till End.

WILL IGNORE BALTIMORE.

His Position Will Not Be Influenced by Any Action Taken by Democrats, He Says—Senator Root Admits New Party Problem Is Knotty.

New York, June 25.—The fight to form a third party is now on in earnest. Theodore Roosevelt is back in Oyster Bay to map out his plans, after announcing that the mass convention to nominate him would be held not earlier than three weeks from today or later than six weekks. It is probable that either Chicago or St. Louis will be selected as the place. Before he left Chicago Colonel Roosevelt said:

"My position will not be influenced by any action of the Baltimore convention. I will not depart from what I said Saturday night. I shall accept the progressive nomination on a progressive platform, and I shall fight the battle through to the end."

Colonel Roosevelt changed his mind about giving out the names of the men already selected to undertake the organization of his new party and decided to make them public along with his statement.

The committee as now instituted consists of Governor Hiram Johnson of California, Gifford Pinchot, James R. Garfield of Ohio, Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, Senator Dixon of Montana, Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, Governor C. Aldrich of Nebraska, Governor V. R. Vessey of South Dakota, A. Van Valkenberg of the Philadelphia North American, Colonel W. R. Nelson of the Kansas City Star, Richmond Pearson of North Carolina, Comptroller William A. Prendergast of New York, William Allen White of Kansas, Judge Ben Lindsey, the only Democrat so far selected; Matthew Hale of Massachusetts, George L. Record of New Jersey, Charles H. Thompson of Vermont and E. C. Carrington of Maryland.

New Party Difficulties.

This is to be called the committe on organization. It is not complete. It is known that Colonel Roosevelt will get into communication at once with prominent progressives, and such of them that care to join his banner will be added to the list of organization committee. The Democratic progressive wing is not expected to declare itself until after the Baltimore convention.

It was admitted on both sides that this problem of building up a new party overnight bristles with difficulties in which legal complications play a great part. The problem of pre-electors is essentially a legal one for example.

Both the Roosevelt and Taft leaders have given this problem of the electors a great deal of thought since the Orchestra hall meeting. The Taft leaders, including Senators Root, Crane and Penrose, have gone over it at some length. One of those who were present at this talk said that none of the lawyers seemed to be of the same opinion on any one point, even Senator Root admitting that the matter was a knotty one.

ROOSEVELT PRAISED.

English Newspaper Says Revolt Means Great and Permanent Change.

London, June 25.—The Pall Mall Gazette praised Roosevelt's action in launching a new party in the United States, saying:

"There is every reason to believe that the future will justify the action of Roosevelt and his friends. The division of American politics into the Republican and Democratic parties is doomed because it has developed a system which is cynical, perfunctory and largely corrupt.

IS AFRAID OF THAW.

Wife Says He Will Kill Her if He Is Released.

White Plains, N. Y., June 25.—The hearing into the present sanity of Harry K. Thaw, which was continued before Supreme Court Justice Keogh, brought out a statement from Evelyn Nesbit Thaw that her husband had made threats against her and that she feared if he should be released he would kill her. She said this while Clarence J. Shearn, the chief counsel for Thaw, was cross examining her as to a statement he alleged she made to her physician, Dr. Silo, that she had no desire to keep Thaw in the asylum.

"I never said anything of the sort!" Evelyn exclaimed in a loud voice as she leaned over the witness box and waved her arms. "Go and ask Dr. Silo some of the things Thaw said about me."

Field Marshal White Dies.

London, June 25.—Field Marshal Sir George Stuart White, governor of Chelsea hospital, London's home for aged soldiers, and one of the most distinguished soldiers in the British army, died in his seventy-seventh year.

—H. A. Stone's trained animal show exhibited here last Friday. The show travels by wagon and was late arriving. There is not much of the show, but what there is is all right.

SEVEN SHOT IN RIOT.

Victims Include Mother With Infant In Her Arms.

Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., June 25.—Seven persons, one of them a woman who was carrying an infant in her arms, were shot and perhaps mortally wounded in a clash between the strikers and the special deputies in front of the National Conduit and Cable company's works.

The woman was hurried to the hospital, where it is said she will probably die and that there is very little hope for her child. The others who were shot were a small boy, who was playing in the streets, and four strikers or sympathizers.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH.

Such a thing as a dull holiday is unknown to Plainfield for there is a fine bill of outdoor attractions on such occasions, golf, baseball, tennis, horse racing and motorcycle and bicycle races being chief among the events. But the next holiday, the Independence Day, promises to eclipse what we have been accustomed to for a "safe and sane" Fourth celebration is being planned on a big scale. All that is needed to make the undertaking a great success is a liberal response to an appeal issued by the committee for funds to defray the necessary expenses. That the contributions will be forthcoming promptly we have not the slightest doubt for our people are always quick to answer a call for money where good will be done.

The Playgrounds Commission, in co-operation with a few public spirited citizens, has arranged a program for both afternoon and night and Parker Field will be the scene of the demonstration. In the afternoon, athletic events and a band concert will be the attractions. At night there will be a large display of fireworks and another concert. In the athletic carnival it is expected that over 200 amateurs will participate. No admission will be charged either in the afternoon or at night for all the expense will be provided for, it is hoped, by voluntary contribution before that date.

Contributions may be sent to H. H. Coward, at the City National Bank, and they will be promptly acknowledged in this paper. How much will you give?

New Jersey has just cause to be proud of the showing it makes in the school census bulletin just issued by the Federal government. This is because the proportion of its children attending school is far above the average of any State in the Union. From six to fourteen years is popularly considered the school age and exactly 81.4 per cent. of the children of those years in the United States attend school. In New Jersey the percentage is 88.6 per cent. In this State there are 420,000 persons, aged six to fourteen years, inclusive, and of this number 372,760 are in school.

Rides on the scenic railway and the loop-the-loop are enjoyable sports at Coney Island. Young people here in Plainfield can experience the same thrills by making a trip on the Netherwood trolley line for the small price of five cents—they won't want a return ticket. The bodies of these cars have an historic interest for they were originally horse cars—that's many years ago. They are equipped with the antiquated single truck which furnishing the rolling and swinging sensation, furnishing all the excitement needed for the passenger.

One way by which boys and girls may render patriotic service is to hold sales and fairs on private lawns for the benefit of the fund being raised by Continental chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for a memorial at Washington Rock. The Fourth of July will be an especially appropriate date for such parties of the little folks. One dollar contributed in this way will be welcomed by those in charge of the undertaking.

John D. Rockefeller has reduced the number fo his autmobiles since the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company. Gee, isn't it tough to have to economize.

The contributing editor for next Saturday will be a New York lawyer who has shown his interest in all matters concerning the welfare of the community.

The scene has now shifted from Chicago to Baltimore.

Will "Bryan and Bolt" be the Baltimore slogan?

ADVENTIST TENT CITY SPRINGS INTO BEING

Making Ready for the Big Camp Meeting Near the Hospital.

The annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh-Day Adventists will be held on Thursday next and last to July 7. The camping ground selected is a plot at the corner of Park avenue and Randolph road. About forty tents have been erected and more are being put up. It is anticipated that four hundred people will occupy them.

This is the first time in the history of the Adventists that a conference has been held in Plainfield and the local church members are much pleased. A. R. Sandborn, president of the New Jersey Conference, is in charge of the camping arrangements.

On Thursday night the first meeting will be held. At this meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected. There will be sermons and illustrated lectures each day by ministers from the local and general conference and also foreign missionaries. There will also be special song services. On Thursday evening the topic will be "Inspiration of the Bible. Is It Still the Voice of God?"

The daily routine at the camp will be: 5:30 a. m., rising bell; 6:00-6:45, devotional service; 7:00, breakfast; 8:30-9:00, district worship, children's meeting; 9:15-10:45, conference; 11:00-12:00, sermon; 12:30 p. m., dinner; 2:30, Bible study; 4:00-5:00, children's meeting, young people's meeting; 6:00, supper; 7:30, song service; 7:45, sermon; 9:30, retiring bell; 10:00, silence.

NEW CLUB WILL BE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

As a result of the address delivered by J. D. Kenyon, vice president of The Sheldon School, at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce in March, a club has been organized by the prominent business men of Plainfield to study the getting and building of busines on a scientific basis. The first meeting will be held Thursday night, June 27, in the Plainfield Business College auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Kenyon will address the meeting and in addition the club has been promised later, lectures on "Advertising" and "Management," both subjects to be treated by the best experts procurable.

The first meeting will be open to interested business men who are invited to be present. B. S. Wright, of The Sheldon School, is at the Queen City Hotel with several assistants who are posted on the aims and objects of this movement, and they will gladly supply any information desired by those who favor the project.

QUICK RECOVERY.

A Cleveland lawyer and a Cleveland railroad man went to a theatre in that city. The railroad man saw a flashily dressed, red-faced, sporty looking citizen sitting in one of the boxes.

This man was the no-account cousin of the attorney, but the railroad man didn't know it.

"Who is the tough person sitting in the box?" the railroad man asked pleasantly. "He looks like a drunken burglar."

"That," said the attorney, "is my cousin."

The railroad man gasped a couple of times, but soon got a grip on himself and remarked genially: "Well, I went straight to headquarters for information, didn't I?"—Saturday Evening Post.

ON EASY STREET.

A man who gets a job nowadays under the civil service has to work. It he doesn't, he is fired and a real man is put in his place. But it was not like this in the good days of old. Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, tells the story of a man he met on the street in Washington years ago when civil service in the government had just been established.

"Well," said the man, "I've been working myself to death for the last three months trying to get a civil service appointment, but you can bet your life I'm going to take it easy now."

"Well, I suppose you failed through lack of influence," sympathized the Senator.

"No," said the man, "I got the appointment."—The Popular Magazine.

—"How dare you kiss me?" she exclaimed, indignantly. "Oh," he replied, "I've kissed a lot of worse-lookers than you."—Detroit Free Press.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DIRECT NOMINATIONS

At the Coming Primaries—Republicans Are in a State of Upset.

Trenton, June 25 (Special).—New Jersey voters will have the chance this fall for the first time in their history of nominating their candidates for Congress by direct vote at the open primary. If Governor Wilson shall be nominated for President and shall resign as Governor, the state will elect a Governor next November and the candidates for this high office will also be chosen at the September primary. These facts will add an element of unusual interest to the campaign just opening and political leaders in both parties are giving careful study to the situation to take the best possible advantage of the new nominating method.

While for several years members of the Legislature and candidates for lesser offices have been nominated at the primaries, this is the first year that there have been so chosen candidates for an office higher than those of a single county. That the new method is likely to upset things considerably is shown by the result of the Presidential preference primary May 28, at which the regular Republicans were defeated handily and the Roosevelt forces scored a decisive victory.

As far as the Republicans are concerned, it is practically certain that in several of the congressional districts in the state the Progressives will put congressional candidates in the field, and this is giving the regular Republican leaders considerable concern. With the old style convention method of nominating the congressional candidates it would have been easier for the regular party leaders to have handled the situation through the choice of delegates at the primaries, but with the evidence of Progressive tendencies, as shown by the recent voting, the leaders hardly know where they stand.

The Geran act, which brought about the change in the method of nominating congressmen, provides that not less than 200 voters of any party in any congressional district comprising more than one county, may file with the Secretary of State a petition endorsing any member of their party as a candidate for Congress. This petition must be filed at least thirty days prior to the primary election. The names of 200 voters must also be on the nominating petition in a congressional district laying out wholly within a single county, but in these cases the nominations must be filed 25 days prior to the primary election. Petitions nominating candidates for Governor must be signed by not less than 1,000 voters of the party making the nominations. It is the hope of the regular Republican leaders to win back some of the congressmen from this state which were lost in 1910. The last congressional election was quite a Waterloo for the Republicans in this state, as they carried only three out of the ten congressional districts, while previous to that only two or three of the districts had been held by Democrats. This year there are twelve congressional districts under the apportionment made based on the 1910 census. The congressional redistricting bill passed by the last Legislature was so framed as to give the party 9 out of 12 districts. The work of the regular Republican congressional campaigners will be to prevent, if possible, the jeopardizing of party success by the nomination of Third party tickets. The Regulars are planning to put strong tickets in the field and will wage an earnest campaign to nominate and elect them.

COURT SUSTAINS STATE'S CRUSADE FOR PURE FOOD

Trenton, June 25 (Special).—The crusade of the State Board of Health against adulterated food products is sustained in an opinion just filed by the Supreme Court reversing the decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland county in the suit brought by the State Board against the Whitall-Tatum Company, large glass manufacturers and operator of large general stores in connection with their factories. The suit was brought on a charge that the company had sold adulterated vinegar to an inspector of the State Board. The Cumberland County Court directed a verdict for the defendant company, following the exclusion as evidence of an analysis of a sample of the vinegar sold. The Supreme Court finds that there was a delivery of the vinegar to the purchasers and the proof of the analysis, should, therefore, have been received in evidence. On this ground the decision below is reversed.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

SOME BLACKBERRY DAINTIES.

BLACKBERRIES are not only delicious, but they are exceptionally wholesome. They act as a tonic and have been known to do much good in cases of liver trouble.

The fresh berries, with powdered sugar, may be served at any meal. Eaten as the first course at breakfast they are most hygienic.

A Handsome Dish.

Blackberry Cream.—Take half a pound of fresh firm berries, cover with water, add sugar to sweeten and stew until soft; then pour into a buttered baking dish. Set aside some of the juice.

Take a pint of hot milk, add two well beaten eggs and stir into it about six tablespoonfuls of cream.

When the berries are cold pour the egg and milk mixture over them and bake in a slow oven. Pour a little of the strained juice on top of the dish and sprinkle with dried and crushed cake crumbs and finish with a decorative layer of sweetened whipped cream.

Berries and Cornstarch.

Blackberry Trifle.—Put a cup of blackberries in a pint of water. Boil slowly for ten minutes. Do not stir or you may break the berries. Moisten two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch with a little water. Pour this on the boiling blackberries, add sugar and stir until it thickens. Set aside to cool. Serve with sugar and cream.

Made With Gelatin.

Blackberry Sponge.—Soak one-half box of gelatin in a half cupful of water. Wash one quart of blackberries and add to them one-half cupful of sugar. Boil together for twenty minutes another half cupful of sugar and the same amount of water. Rub the berries through a fine sieve, add the gelatin to the boiling sirup and after removing from the fire add the berry juice. Place the dish in a pan of ice water and beat with the egg beater for fully five minutes; then add the beaten whites of five eggs and whip until the mixture begins to thicken. Pour into wet molds and set on ice. Serve with cream.

A Baked Pastry.

Blackberry Cobbler.—This is a dish which is prized in southern households. To make it take a pudding dish, line which has been rolled thin, doubled together and gashed with a knife. Open it and spread over the berries and press the edges down with a fork.

Bake slowly for half an hour. Serve with cream or with butter and sugar to suit the taste.

Anna Thompson.

Cookery Points

Demon Cake.

Cream three-quarters of a cupful of butter with one cupful and a half of brown sugar. Add two eggs and a cupful of sour cream in which half a teaspoonful of soda has been dissolved. Sift three cupfuls of flour with a teaspoonful of baking powder, two level teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of cloves and half a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg. Stir the other mixture into these dry ingredients, and when a smooth batter has been formed mix with a paste previously prepared by melting a square of chocolate and then mixing it with a quarter of a cupful of light brown sugar and a quarter of a cupful of hot water. Cook this mixture till it is smooth before adding it to the batter. Just before putting the batter into the pans add a cupful of chopped nuts and fruit—almonds, raisins, citron and so forth, according to the richness desired. This cake may be used as a layer cake or in a shallow loaf form. It does not need a rich frosting, the batter being rich. Creamy sour milk may be used instead of sour cream, but it is wise to add a little extra butter. The almonds should, of course, be blanched and cut in thin strips and the citron into thin shavings.

Mock Game.

Cut some slices of beefsteak into pieces half an inch thick and square. Lay a piece of raw bacon on each and dredge well with flour. Roll up the beef and skewer it in position. Melt some dripping in a saucepan, put in the meat and brown nicely, then add a finely chopped onion, half a teaspoonful of capers, a wineglassful of vinegar and the same quantity of stock. Cover and stew all together very slowly till tender.

Place the meat on a hot dish. Strain the gravy, thicken it with browned flour. Season with pepper and salt and a tablespoonful of red currant jelly. Pour the gravy over and around the meat and garnish with sippets of toast and pieces of red currant jelly.

Angels' Food Cake.

Take the whites of ten eggs, one cupful of flour, one and a half cupfuls of sugar and one teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Sift the sugar four times, with a teaspoonful of cream of tartar added also a pinch of salt. Beat the eggs until light and dry and add the sugar lightly, then the flour and vanilla. The secret of success is in the mixing and baking. Put together in the order given. Do not use a spoon or beat hard. Beat the eggs with a wire egg beater and use the beater to mix the cake. Bake in ungreased angels' cake pan for forty minutes to one hour. Let the cake cool in an inverted position before removing from the pan. The oven must be a moderate one.

Compote of Apples.

Large and rather tart apples are the best for this purpose. They should be pared and cored and cut into equal parts. Make a sirup with half a pound of lump sugar and a wineglassful of sherry and another of water. Bring it to boiling point.

Drop the apples into this and cook them till perfectly tender, but do not let them break. Lift them out on a plate as soon as done.

When all the apples are cooked boil the sirup a little longer to reduce it and deepen the color by the addition of a few drops of cochineal. Then pour over the apples and serve in a glass dish.

French Cucumber Salad.

Take four medium sized fresh cucumbers, half a cupful of sweet cream, a quarter of a cupful of vinegar and two tablespoonfuls of salt.

Peel the cucumbers and slice thin layers lengthwise until the seeds are reached. Place a layer of cucumber slices in a dish, then sprinkle with a layer of salt. Repeat until all sliced cucumbers are used. Allow to stand several hours on the ice. When ready to use remove cucumbers from the liquid, spread on towel and wipe dry. Place in a bowl and add, alternately, cream and vinegar. Serve on head of lettuce or cress.

Curry Soup.

Peel and slice three apples and three onions. The onions should be sliced from the top to the bottom. Place them in a saucepan with two ounces of dripping and a tablespoonful of curry powder and fry gently without discoloring for about half an hour.

Stir occasionally. Pour in two quarts of plain or fish stock and cook for half an hour. Add enough flour to thicken the soup and boil for three minutes. Season with pepper, salt and a dash of lemon juice and serve with boiled rice.

BORO SCHOOL BOARD CUTS DOWN PHYSICIAN'S SALARY

Allan B. Laing reported to the members of the Borough Board of Education last night that the teachers' committee had written A. B. Vosseler, the new supervising principal, upon the advisability of appointing an assistant and librarian at $700.

The board appointed Miss Maud Casselle at a salary of $700 as teacher in the seventh grade.

A letter was read from the State Commissioner of Education stating that Herbert N. Morse, chief inspector of school buildings, would visit the High School on Thursday to report on the necessary repairs recommended.

Dr. A. H. Dundon, who has been school physician for the past three years, made application for a further term of a year. An application was also received from Dr. Francis E. DuBois. A member pointed out that Dr. Dundon had got an increase from $200 to $250 and it was presumably on the basis of the latter salary that he made application. Consequently a resolution was moved and carried that the salary be reduced to $200. No appointment was made.

The board received a letter from Albert Steiner withdrawing his application for reappointment as district clerk. Mr. Steiner has served with efficiency for the past seven years and is teller of the Plainfield Trust Company. The name of Charles M. Dolliver, the borough clerk, was put before the meeting by Allan B. Laing, but it could not be entertained as the law provides that the vacancy must be advertised and application made.

WIFE ABANDONS HOME WHILE HUSBAND FISHES

Glen Gardner, June 25.—When Edward Hornbaker, of this place, came home from a few hours' fishing trip the other night he found a letter from his wife on the parlor table.

The note explained that Mrs. Hornbaker had gone away and that her husband should not hunt for her. Mr. Hornbaker has made no effort to locate her. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hockenbury. The couple were married about two years ago. They have two children, which the mother left.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS AT MONROE AVE. CHURCH

The official board of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church at a meeting last night, decided to install a new organ in the church by September 1 so that it will be in readiness for the opening of the fall and winter work. The organ will not be an especially large one, but sufficient to meet the growing needs of the church.

The board has also decided to recarpet the church and erect a new altar rail in front of the pulpit platform. This is all a part of the plan of reorganization which has been in progress since Rev. F. J. Hubach, the present pastor came here.

ALLEGED WIEF SLAYER LIKELY TO BE FREED

Mays Landing, June 25.—Released from a thirty-year term in State Prison, of which he has served one year, fulfilling his own prediction that he would not remain there long, William H. Strong, the aged Nesco farmer, convicted on the testimony of Pauline Elder, a fortune-teller, of having murdered his wife on their lonely farm, was brought back to the county jail today by Sheriff Robert H. Ingersoll. The Court of Errors and Appeals reversed judgment on the ground that certain photographs used against him were inadmissible and that the testimony of the Elder woman was improperly admitted. It is believed the indictment will be nolle prossed.

CHANCE TO LAND JOBS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE

The Civil Service Commission yesterday announced the schedule of examinations for positions in the department for the month of July. The bulletin of dates and examination, positions and salaries open to all residents of the State is as follows:

July 17.—Prison keepers. Medical and physical examination, New Jersey State Hospital, Trenton. Salary, $77 per month at outset. Written test will be held July 31st. Open to the State.

July 17.—Chief organizer (salary, $1,200 per annum, with allowance of $25 per month for expenses).

Assistant organizer (salary, $1,000 per annum, with allowance of $25 per month for expenses).

Office clerk and stenographer (salary, $75 per month).

Emancipation proclamation commission. Open to citizens of the State.

July 24.—Inspector (structural iron expert), department of labor (salary, $1,600.) Open to the State.

July 31.—Written test, prison keeper. Open only to those who passed the medical and physical examinations on July 17.

SEEKS TO FORCE ACTION ON HER FATHER'S WILL

On the application of Winfield S. Angleman, counsel for Mrs. Lottie Anson, Judge Atwater, yesterday, made an order that Eugene W. Chamberlin and Mrs. Maud S. Chamberlin show cause why they should not forthwith proceed to take the necessary steps to establish the will of the late William C. Chamberlin, who at the time of his death was a contracting painter of this city, or on their failure to do so to show cause before the Union County Orphans' Court on July 10, why administration should not be granted to some suitable person on the estate.

Mrs. Anson is a daughter of the late Mr. Chamberlin and on her father's death a year ago, filed a caveat against his will. Eugene W. Chamberlin is an uncle of Mrs. Anson and was named as executor in the will. Mrs. Maud S. Chamberlin is the widow. No steps have been taken to prove the will during the year, and the present proceedings, which are very unusual and make a precedent in this county, have resulted.

According to the will, Mrs. Anson was beneficiary to a very small extent and at the time its contents became known, it was understood that the instrument would be contested. Former Assemblyman Lloyd S. Thompson, of Westfield, is counsel for the executor of the will.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGee and daughter, Miss Elizabeth McGee, of the borough, are planning to spend the summer in Maine.

FIRST WEAKFISH.

John Meyers, of Union street, Newark, fished from one of Acker's boats with shedder crab bait and landed the first weakfish of the season at 4:15 a. m. June 23.

The Standard Automobile and Tire Company, of 38-40 Somerset street, North Plainfield, has just now on exhibition a consignment of Mora meter power wagons. These wagons are strongly and compactly made and fitted up with the very latest appliances and are well adapted for delivery purposes.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

"Nibs" Hand, the Scotch Plains backstop, will be out of the game for a short time because of an injury to his foot.

Henry Alberts is subbing for him and will take charge of the receiving department until the injured member returns.

Lou Slocum, the local twirler, who is taking care of the Bound Brook box work, pitched eighteen innings during the week-end without allowing a single base on balls. Eleven hits were garnered off his delivery and he caused eleven hopefuls to fan.

Entries are being received daily for the Safe and Sane Fourth of July celebration to be held on Parker Field.

The prizes will be on display in the Ritz Company's window during the latter part of this week.

The local athletes who were entered in the State Y. M. C. A. meet at East Orange Saturday failed to gather any points.

John T. Blossom, 1914, short stop on Yale's varsity baseball team, has been elected captain for the next year.

New York has sold Jim Vaughn, the left-hander to Washington. Wolverton asked for waivers on Vaughn but Griffith refused to pass him up as he needs a southpaw just at present and he thought Long Jim could fill the bill.

Reports from the steamship Finland say that the American Olympic athletes are training aboard the ship daily. Aside from a few minor accidents all are in the best of physical condition and still claim a cleanup in the coming International meet at Stockholm.

Carroll Taylor and William Taylor, two of North Plainfield High School's athletes who were graduated from that institution last month, have announced that they will return to school next year as post-graduates.

This will probably mean another basketball victory over Plainfield in the fall.

Y. M. C. A. TRACK MEN GET BUSY ON PRACTICE WORK

The Y. M. C. A. track team, under the leadership of Jack Fritts, is holding regular practice in preparation for the big meet, on Parker Field July 4. There are a number of events closed to local athletes and the Y. M. C. A. lads have high hopes of landing some of them. The meet will bring forth some of the best amateurs in the metropolitan district and the Plainfield prospectives will have to be at their best in order to cope with them.

As the time for the big affair is beginning to draw near it is up to the local lads to get busy and get some of the pointers Fritts is handing out. The runs will be held several nights a week from now on and the spacious association gym will afford an ample opportunity for the field men to practice their jump.

MUIR TO START FOR HIS CAMP VIA CANAL TOMORROW

Thomas M. Muir, accompanied by his brother, Joseph Muir and William Jaeger and George Leland, will leave Newark at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning in Mr. Muir's motor boat, "Marie M.," for Lake Hopatcong, where he will open Camp Rams Horn for the sixth season. The trip to the lake, which will take two days, will be made through the Morris Canal, it being planned to start the journey just as soon as the locks ar eopened in the morning. Mr. Jaeger will be the skipper and pilot on the trip.

The party expect to reach Boonton tomorrow night, where they will spend the night camping out. Lake Hopatcong will be reached some time on Thursday. The distance by the water route is sixty miles and the young men will be obliged to go through twenty-one planes and nineteen locks before reaching Lake Hopatcong. A number of people from this city are planning to spend their vacation this summer at Mr. Muir's camp and the latter is looking forward to one of his most prosperous seasons.

FEAR GIBBS WILL TRY TO KIDNAP GIRL

Metuchen Police and Citizens Guard Home of Ex-convicts Duped Bride.

Metuchen, June 25.—Fearing an attempt will be made to kidnap Josephine Courtlandt Bennett, seventeen-year-old daughter of William H. Bennett, of Metuchen, who on June 1 married Tyler M. Gibbs, only to learn he is an ex-convict and claimed as husband by another woman, Chief of Police Flaherty, of Metuchen, and several young men of the village are guarding the Bennett home nightly.

That there had been a plot to kidnap the girl unless she consented to join Gibbs was discovered by Chief Flaherty yesterday morning.

Early Sunday night four men in an automobile stopped near the Bennett home, where the girl has been living since she was forced to leave Gibbs. To John Meagher and Frank Robinson, neighbors of the Bennetts, one of the men in the car, after inquiring about the location of the Bennett home, asked how many policemen were on duty at night. On being told he inquired:

"Any motorcycle policeman on duty here, and is he fast enough to catch a speeding automobile?"

The presence of these men was reported to Chief Flaherty. An hour later he found the automobile with two men in it near the Bennett house.

"The lights on the car had been extinguished," said Chief Flaherty, "and the actions of the two men were so suspicious I began to watch the Bennett house, aided by some young men. I knew Miss Josephine and her mother were alone. Then, too, I had reasons to believe an attempt was to be made to either force or coax Miss Josephine to get into the automobile. Of course, if the girl was willing to go with Gibbs I could not interfere.

"It was my impression Gibbs intended to get the girl to go for a walk with him and to force her into the car. The young men on guard with me had to be restrained. They were for tar and feathering Gibbs, who could be seen in the house.

"At 1 o'clock Gibbs and another man left the Bennett home. I flashed my electric lamp in their faces. Gibbs was in an ugly mood and refused to explain his presence there.

"This is not the first time Gibbs has paid a midnight visit to the Bennetts. Abraham Van Sickle, the eighty-year-old grandfather of Miss Josephine, threatens to take the law in his own hands, and neighbors of the Bennett family are much disturbed."

Although Gibbs' past has been repeated to Mrs. Bennett, and she knows the claim made by Mrs. Edith Sammis Bennett, of White Plains, that Gibbs married her and deserted her, she says her daughter loves Gibbs and she proposes to stand by him until his guilt is proved.

DR. EVANS SURE THAW IS PERSECUTED MAN

New Jersey Official Also Sends Sarcastic Letter to W. T. Jerome.

Morris Plains, June 25.—"I consider Harry Thaw a persecuted man. If I thought I could be of any aid to him in his just fight for liberty I would cross into New York or any other State in the Union," declared Dr. Britton D. Evans in the office here of the New Jersey Hospital for the Insane, of which he is medical director, yesterday. "The $100, or $125, a day the State would pay me does not weigh against the man's right to liberty.

"I would go on the stand if Jerome really wished it, but he doesn't. He is merely posing for the newspapers. He would like to make his alleged difficulty in securing my attendance the excuse for putting off the trial until the conventions are over and the newspapers will restore him from the fourth or fifth page to the first. My purpose is to aid Harry Thaw not only to get out of Matteawan, but to have the support of public sentiment, by letting this last attempt at liberty stand upon the testimony of new alienists who could not be, as I might be, charged with undue sympathy with himself and his family, because of my close acquaintance with them in their sorrow. I have no wish to cater to the vanity of an already dangerously inflated prosecutor, who would abridge and distort the ten commandments to make a minor point in law.

"This letter, a copy of which was sent Mr. Jerome on June 12, shows my willingness to give a deposition of the facts if he wants them. To this letter there has been no reply."

The letter reads:

June 12, 1912.

William Travers Jerome, Esq., New York:

My Dear Mr. Jerome—I have had a conversation with Clarence J. Shearn, Esq. He agrees with you that it is proper that I should make a deposition in the Harry K. Thaw case. In deference to the good judgment of both of you, I told Mr. Shearn over the 'phone that I would be in my office at this institution on Friday, the fourteenth instant, after 11 o'clock a. m.

I take the liberty of saying to you, Mr. Jerome, that I would much prefer you to be present rather than another member of your firm. I do not mean to presume in this matter, and make this as a simple suggestion of preference. A word by 'phone from you or Mr. Shearn as to the exact train upon which you will reach Morris Plains will be graciously appreciated by me. I take the liberty of enclosing to you a timetable of the Lackawanna, which gives the Morris and Essex division. You may, by the Hudson terminal or tube reach Hoboken under the river and save time if you desire.

If you should determine to take a train which does not go so far as Morris Plains, but which stops at Morristown, you will be able to get a trolley at Morristown which will bring you up to this institution. You and Mr. Shearn being equipped with the usual qualities and qualifications of American citizens inured to travel about, will have no difficulty in obtaining every information necessary to find this somewhat isolated spot in which the population is principally of unsound mind.

Yours very truly,

BRITTON D. EVANS.

The Men's Association of the Church of the Heavenly Rest will hold its last meeting of the season, Thursday night.

The Baptist Young People's Union will meet at the Mt. Olive Baptist church tonight at 8:30 o'clock and at 9:30 there will be baptism.

The Women's Guild of the Church of the Heavenly Rest will hold its final meeting for the season in the parish house Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Rev. James B. Cochran, missionary of the Presbyterian Board at Hwai Yuen, China, occupied the pulpit of the Crescent Avenue church, Sunday morning, and Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Carter, of this city, preached in the evening.

IT HAPPENED THAT THE COMPOSER WAS IN THE ROOM

OFFICIAL MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union was held at the Courthouse, Elizabeth, New Jersey on Thursday May 2, 1912, at 2:30 p. m. Director Cady and all members present.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur the reading of the minutes of meetings April 4 and April 12, was dispensed with and they were adopted as per printed copies on members' desks.

Communications.

A communication from the Auto Club of Elizabeth protesting against the manner in which the Public Service Corporation are at present relaying Frelinghuysen avenue and making temporary crossings at Fairmount avenue, North avenue and Waverly place, at which places proper care has not been taken to insure safety to the automobile traveling public, was read, and on motion by Freeholder Smith, this protest was referred to the County Road Committee.

Elizabeth, N. J., April 18, 1912.
Edw. Rowe, Esq., Clerk Board of Freeholders:

Dear Sir—I enclose copy of resolutions adopted at the meeting of the City Council held April 15, 1912.

Respectfully,
JOHN F. KENAH, City Clerk.

Whereas, it is the intention of the Board of Chosen Freeholders to pave Newark avenue from North Broad street to the city line, and Westfield avenue from Morris avenue to Bayway, and

Whereas, Those streets are main city streets over which most of the vehicular traffic of the entire county is carried, and are connecting links between many of the municipalities of the county, and this and other cities, and it appearing that the maintenance of said streets in good condition is of general importance, therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Freeholders be requested to cause said streets to be paved to the full width thereof, over the entire distance selected for the improvement.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolution and preamble be forwarded by the city clerk to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union.

Adopted April 15, 1912.

I, John F. Kenah, clerk of the City of Elizabeth, hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a resolution adopted at the meeting of the City Council of said city, held April 15, 1912.

(Seal) JOHN F. KENAH, City Clerk.

On motion by Freeholder Krouse this matter was referred to the County Road Committee.

Cranford, N. J., April 30, 1912.
Board of Freeholders of Union County, N. J.:

Gentlemen — The Township of Cranford wishes to put down curb and gutters of concrete construction on North avenue from the Central Railroad to the Rahway River on the south side of said avenue, and from Alden street to the Rahway River on the north side of the same.

As the county controls the rights in county road between the curb lines, we hereby ask your permission to lay such curb and gutter, which will extend beyond the curb lines 18 inches.

Respectfully,
EDWARD MOSHER, Township Engineer.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this request was referred to County Road Committee.

Cranford, N. J., May 1, 1912.
Honorable Union County Board of Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the Township Committee held this date I was directed to request your honorable board to consider the application made about a year ago by the Township Committee to continue the amiesite road through Springfield avenue, Union avenue and Walnut avenue, thus making a continuous county road through this township, and connecting the systems now built on the west and south of Cranford Township by the county.

Yours very truly,
A. R. DENMAN, Township Clerk.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this request was referred to County Road Committee.

Lyons Farms, N. J., April 5, 1912.
To the Honorable, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—The Township Committee of the Township of Union, in the County of Union, desires to construct a sidewalk along the southwesterly line of Morris avenue, to extend from Stuyvesant avenue to Park terrace, and as it appears that chapter 124 of the laws of 1909 requires that such walk cannot be laid without the consent of your honorable body, hereby asks that such consent be given.

By order of the Township Committee,
GEORGE COMPTON, Township Clerk.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this request was referred to County Road Committee.

Plainfield, N. J., May 1, 1912
Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—I beg to inform you that I some time ago made application to the court for a new trial in the case of Park vs. The Board, and a new trial has been granted. It will probably come on at the May term.

I beg also to inform you that some weeks ago I recived a summons issued by W. H. Wilson, Esquire, counselor at law, as attorney for a lady residing at Westfield, who claims to have been injured some year or so ago; said injury alleged to have been occasioned by reason of some imperfection in the county road. No declaration as yet has been filed. Attorney Wilson has promised to send me a copy as soon as the same is filed, and until it is filed I, of course, cannot get the particulars. The matter will be taken care of when it comes up. The action is for $5,000 damages, but figures in summonses do not count for much. I beg to remain

Very respectfully yours,
W. R. CODINGTON.

On motion by Freeholder Krouse ordered placed on file.

To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, in the State of New Jersey:

The petition of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey most respectfully represents:

1. That it owns and operates a team railroad from the City of Jersey City, in the County of Hudson, to the Town of Phillipsburg, in the County of Warren, which runs through the Township of Cranford, in the County of Union, paralleling and 200 feet from North avenue, which is a public county road under the charge and control of your honorable body.

2. Your petitioner is about to make a number of improvements on its right of way and adjoining lands lying adjacent to said North avenue, and it becomes necessary, to enable it to use its property to the greatest advantage, to arrange a system of drainage for surface water in order to effectually take care of and carry off the same.

3. It is not feasible to drain said surface water from the land of your petitioner into the surface and gutter of North avenue, but it should be taken care of and carried off by an underdrain under the surface of said avenue to the Rahway River.

4. Your petitioner desires and requests permission to construct an underdrain for surface water, longitudinally in North avenue, consisting of vitrified pipe 18 inches in diameter, on the grade and in the manner, and with such manholes as indicated and laid down on plan No. 6793-A-3, dated April 22, 1912, hereto attached and made a part of this petition.

5. Your petitioner agrees to dig the trench and construct said underdrain of the material named and in accordance with the detail shown on said plan, and fill in the trench, all in good and workmanlike manner, and will leave the surface of the avenue in as good condition as it was prior to its being opened, at its own cost and expense, and turn the same over to your honorable body for the use of the County of Union, to be thereafter maintained at the cost and expense of said county, providing your petitioner is permitted without further cost and expense to it, to drain the surface water from all its right of way and lands lying between the Rahway Valley Railroad right of way to the Cranford Signal Tower.

6. Your petitioner therefore prays that your honorable body will take such appropriate action as may be necessary to grant such permission to build and construct said underdrain in North avenue as proposed.

And your petitioner shall every pray.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY OF NEW JERSEY.
By JOS. A. OSGOOD, Chief Engineer.
(Seal) Attest: G. O. WATERMAN, Secretary.

May 1, 1912.

On motion by Freeholder Krouse this request was referred to the County Road Committee with power.

Mr. John N. Cady, Director Union County Board of Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Dear Sir—In accordance with the law passed at the recent session of the Legislature, and entitled "An act for the establishment of county masquito extermination commissions, and to define their powers and duties," I am submitting herewith a statement as to the funds that will be requested in the coming year for carrying on the mosquito extermination work in Union County:

Salaries of chief inspector, 12 months at $100	$1,200.00
Salaries of deputy inspectors, five for 8 months at $83.33	3,333.33
Wages of laborers, 46 for 150 working days at $1.75	12,075.00
Oil	2,500.00
Horse Hire	2,000.00
Tools	500.00
Office expenses	500.00
Salary of stenographer, 12 months at $60	720.00
Cleaning salt marsh area	3,000.00
Pamphlets and circulars	1,000.00
Engineering and contingencies	1,171.67
Total	$28,000.00

The above estimate is based on the one submitted to me by the Mosquito Extermination Commission of your county. Each item was carefully considered, and some of the items were modified in order to provide the minimum funds necessary for prosecuting the mosquito extermination work with maximum efficiency.

Yours sincerely,
JACOB G. LIPMAN, Director.

Committee Reports.

May 2, 1912.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, County of Union:

Gentlemen—I herewith beg leave to submit a report of the work of the Department of Weights and Measures for the four months since its organization on January 1, 1912.

Owing to the delay of the manufacturers in shipping the equipment necessary for the proper maintenance of the office, no official inspection could be made until March 11, so that there were less than two months for actual field work.

Every municipality in the county has been visited and warnings circulated so that the users of weights and measures could become acquainted with the State law governing their use, and the fact of the establishment of the department for their inspection in the county.

There were 1,433 inspections made divided as follows: Counter scales and balances, 347; weights, 980; measures, 60; wagon and automatic scales, 46. There were 78 confiscations of scales and 27 condemnations, making a total of 105 found defective. One hundred and eighty-two incorrect weights were confiscated and 49 liquid measures. Of the wagon scales inspected 42 were found correct and 4 condemned.

I submit herewith a table showing localities visited and conditions as found therein. An inventory of the equipment of this department to date is also attached to this report.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to the director of the board, the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings, the Stationery Committee, and to every individual member of your honorable board for the personal interest manifested in the proper conduct of this office and for me.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. SCHWARTZ.
Superintendent Weights and Measures.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file.

On motion by Freeholder Smith this report was received and ordered placed on file.

Report of Committee on Recovering Springfield Avenue Bridge, Cranford, New Jersey.,

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on above named work would report that bids have been received for the work, and the contract let to Karl Teichmann, of Cranford, at $390, he being the lowest bidder.

Signed by the Committee,
GEO. G. TELLER,
J. LOGAN FAY,
C. A. SMITH.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this report was received and ordered placed on file.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above bridge would report that the site has been visited and it was found that a small wooden bridge now exists over the stream, it being in such bad repair that it is closed to traffic.

Your committee would recommend the construction of a new bridge of steel and concrete, 60 feet long by about 13-foot span, the cost not to exceed the sum of $1,200.

HENRY KROUSE,
J. LOGAN FAY,
BURTON P. HALL.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

Report of Committee on Clarkson Avenue Bridge, Elizabeth, N. J.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above named bridge would report that this street has been partially improved by the City of Elizabeth, and that steps are being taken to further grace and improve it. The bridge in question is wanted at the crossing of Calf Pasture Creek, near Summer street. There is no bridge at this place at all at present.

Your committee would, therefore, recommend the construction of a new steel and concrete bridge or iron pipe, 60 feet long by about 4-foot span, the cost not to exceed the sum of $500.

THOS. J. PIERSON,
C. A. SMITH,
W. H. RANDOLPH.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

Report of Committee on Bridge over Rahway River at Vreeland's Mills, on the Raritan road, Cranford Township.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above named bridge would respectfully report that they have visited and examined the site and find two bridges over different branches of the stream at the point mentioned. Both of these bridges are narrow and of light construction. The more easterly one of the two has very poor foundations, which must shortly be rebuilt.

Your committee would recommend that a new steel, or steel and concrete, bridge be erected in place of the present easterly bridge, the dimensions to be about as follows:

Span, 36 feet, and width, 28 feet. The new bridge also to have new [illegible] abutments. The cost of the work not to exceed the sum of $3,000.

The present westerly bridge to remain as it is until future date.

GEO. G. TELLER,
HENRY KROUSE,
W. A. BOURDON.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

May 2, 1912.

To the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Your committee appointed on the culvert at the intersection of Morris and Springfield avenues, in the City of Summit, would respectfully report that they, with the County Engineer, examined the conditions of the present culvert at this point and find that it is entirely inadequate to carry water in times of heavy rain, and would therefore Recommend that a new culvert be constructed at approximately 154 feet in length, dimensions of which to be as follows: 93 feet to be 42 inches by 24 inches and 61 feet to be 30 inches by 24 inches.

We would also recommend that this committee be empowered to receive bids and proceed with the work as per plans and specifications prepared by the County Engineer. Cost of the work not to exceed the sum of $1,200.

WILLIAM I. McMANE,
M. H. ACKEN,
ELSTON DARBY.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on County Roads find a culvert which has been broken and partly washed away, crossing Raritan road near Martine avenue, Fanwood, N. J. This culvert must be replaced at once, and the cost of the work will be $239. Your committee is also of the opinion that a new culvert should be placed across Martine avenue, in the northerly gutter line of South avenue, at Fanwood, N. J., to take care of the water at that point. The cost of this work is $243.

Your committee would therefore introduce the following resolution:

Resolved, That the County Road Committee be empowered to proceed with the erection of a new culvert across the Raritan road near Martine avenue, at a cost of $239, and also to proceed with the construction of a new culvert across Martine avenue at South avenue, Fanwood, at a cost of $243.

Signed by the Committee,
HENRY KROUSE,
PETER H. MEISEL,
CHAS. A. SMITH,
THOS. J. PIERSON,
S. P. T. WILBUR.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this report was received and ordered placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

Report of Committee on Culverts at Russel Road and Hunter Avenue, Fanwood, N. J.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above named work would report that bids have been received for the same, and that the contracts were awarded as follows:

Culvert at Russel road, $315, to Charles H. French, he being the lowest bidder; culvert at Hunter avenue, $385, to Charles H. French, he being the lowest bidder.

Respectfully submitted,
BURTON P. HALL,
CHAS. A. SMITH,
J. LOGAN FAY.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—The undersigned committee would respectfully report that in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of the act entitled "An act authorizing the establishment of county hospitals for the care and treatment of patients suffering from tuberculosis, and providing for the maintenance of the same," approved April 4, 1910, the time has now arrived when in the judgment of your committee a board of managers of the Bonnie Burn Sanitarium should be appointed by this board. Your committee would further report that they have canvassed the county with a view of selecting five citizens of said county qualified and capable of performing the duties devolving upon them, and your committee would recommend the following names for the terms respectfully herein specified:

Dr. William H. Murray, of Plainfield, for four years.

Dr. Norton L. Wilson, of Elizabeth, for three years.

Wm. J. McCloud, of Elizabeth, for two years, and William Howard, of Rahway, for one year.

Respectfully submitted,
J. HERVEY DOANE,
HENRY KROUSE,
S. P. T. WILBUR,
J. LOGAN FAY,
ADOLPH H. GRUENER.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file.

Report of Committee on New Culverts at North and South Avenues, near the Rahway River, Cranford, N. J.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above named work would respectfully report that they have examined the site of the same. A new street is being opened underneath the railroad track, from North to South avenue, at this point. Your committee would recommend the construction of a street basin on North avenue to connect with a new storm water sewer which is to be laid by the railway company. Your committee would also recommend the construction of new culverts at South avenue at this place to care for the water there.

The total cost of all the work contemplated to be not more than $500.

GEO. G. TELLER,
BURTON P. HALL,
W. A. BOURDON.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were, on roll call, adopted unanimously.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Your Committee on Appropriations recommend the adoption of the attached resolution as its report.

CHAS. A. SMITH,
AARON D. CRANE,
BURTON P. HALL,
J. LOGAN FAY,
BRANFORD JONES.

Resolved, by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, that the sum of four hundred fifty thousand, four hundred ($450,400) dollars be raised by tax for the use of the said county for the year 1912, for the following purposes:

On motion by Freeholder Smith the adoption of the accompanying resolution was laid over and taken up under new business.

New Business.

On motion by Freeholder Smith the resolution authorizing and providing for the appropriations for the current year, adopted at the meeting of the board held January 4, 1912, were reconsidered.

On motion by Freeholder Smith the resolution authorizing the said appropriation at said meeting was rescinded.

Freeholder Smith then moved that the resolution submitted by the Finance Committee in its report providing for certain appropriations, as recommended by said committee, be adopted, said motion being seconded by Freeholder Wilbur.

Chairman Smith of said committee then explained to the board the reasons for the additional items contained in said report, made necessary by the requirements of recently passed laws, and called on County Collector Leavitt, who explained as to the cost of the maintenance of the various county offices. After further inquiries by Freeholders Pierson and Hennessy as to the increase of the National Guard and county road appropriations, and the explanations offered by Freeholders Smith and Krouse and County Engineer Bauer, as to the necessity for said increases, the motion to adopt said report covering said appropriations for the current year was on roll call adopted.

Nineteen (19) ayes and 0 nays.

Freeholder Acken present, but not voting.

By Committee on St. Mary's Avenue Bridge, Plainfield, N. J.:

Resolved, That the bill of Charles A. Peterson of $70, being the balance still due him on account of this work, be paid when properly audited by the committee.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Pierson:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine into the advisability of constructing a wing wall on the south side of the bridge on Rahway avenue, over the Elizabeth River, Elizabeth, N. J., and report the probable cost of same at the next meeting.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Pierson, Teller and Wilbur.

By Freeholder Acken:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine into the condition of the bridge across the Robinson branch of the Rahway River at the Middlesex Waterworks in Clark Township and report back at the next meeting of the board their recommendations as to repairs to same and the probable cost of same.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Acken, Krouse and Smith.

By Freeholder Darby:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine one of the bridges on Mountain avenue in the Borough of Mountainside, and report back as to the necessity of widening and rebuilding same, together with the probable cost of same.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Darby, Perry and Pierson.

By Freeholder Randolph:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed with power to arrange for the construction of a culvert across St. George avenue and Hazelwood avenue, Rahway, to eliminate the surface water flowing from this avenue to Milton Race.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Randolph, Gruener and Hennessy.

By Freeholder Meisel:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the bridge over the Rahway River on Turkey road, between Springfield and Union Townships. In case the committee shall decide that the bridge can be repaired with new planking and other minor repairs, the committee to be empowered to proceed with work. In case the committee shall decide that it would be advantageous to construct a new bridge at this point, then the committee is to report back to this board at a subsequent meeting thereof as to the character and approximate cost of the work.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Meisel, Crane and Fay.

By Freeholder McMane:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to confer with a committee of the Morris County Board of Freeholders for the purpose of investigating as to the advisability of replanking and repainting the line bridge known as the Stanley Bridge, between Morris and Union counties, and report at a subsequent meeting of this board, together with the probable cost of the work.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders McMane, Hall and Jones.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Whereas, Heretofore on August 3, 1911, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union adopted a preamble and resolution respecting the making of excavations, tunnels, etc., for the purpose of laying, replacing, repairing of water, gas or sewer pipes and for other purposes; and,

Whereas, It is deemed advisable that the deposits to be made by the applicants for permits should be made to the County Collector rather than to the County Engineer, as in said resolution provided, therefore, be it

Resolved, That said resolutions be amended to read as follows:

Whereas, The Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union have constructed and improved many roads, streets and avenues within said county, and which the said county of Union is now charged with the repairs and maintenance of said roads, streets and avenues; and,

Whereas, It is desirous on the part of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union that said roads, streets and avenues should be protected against promiscuous excavations, tunnels, etc., for the purpose of laying, replacing or repairing of water, gas or sewer pipes, or for any other purpose, therefore, in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act concerning roads," approved April 16, 1907, be it

Resolved, (1) That it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to make any excavation in, or tear up the surface of any road or street in the county of Union (which road or street has been improved by the Board of Chosen Freholders of the county of Union and for which the said Board of Chosen Freeholders is charged with repairs), for the laying, replacing or repairing of water, gas or sewer pipes or for making any drain, or for any other purpose, without a written permit being first had and obtained from this board.

(2) That application for such permit shall be made to the county engineer, in writing, signed by the applicant, specifying the place, kind, size of excavation and time required.

(3) And that applicant shall agree to keep such opening properly guarded and at night to have lights placed thereat, and in doing the work to interfere as little as possible with the travel along such street; and to open no greater part of such street than shall be allowed by the County Engineer, and to fill such opening promptly, and in the manner directed by the County Engineer, and to pay any and all damages resulting from negligence in making, guarding or filling such opening.

(4) The issuing of permits shall be subject to the approval of the Road Committee.

(5) Where the roadway is paved with ordinary macadam pavement, the applicant shall, at the time of making said application, and receiving permit, deposit with the County Collector twenty-five (25) dollars, which deposit shall be retained by the County Collector until the replacing of the road is completed in a manner satisfactory to the County Engineer and County Road Committee, and then returned to the applicant. Should the applicant fail to satisfactorily replace the road bed so disturbed within five days after notice so to do, the County Road Committee may cause the same to be done, and deduct the cost thereof from the deposit so made by the applicant, and the balance, if any, remaining in the hands of the County Collector be returned to said applicant.

(6) Where the roadway is paved with pavement other than ordinary macadam, the applicant shall, at the time of making said application, deposit with the County Collector the sum of twenty-five (25) dollars.

Out of this sum of twenty-five (25) dollars there shall be retained by the County Collector the following sums, to wit:

For roadways paved with lithic pavements, three (3) dollars per square yard of pavement disturbed, but in no case less than fifteen (15) dollars.

For roadways paved with amiesite pavements two (2) dollars per square yard of pavement disturbed, but in no case less than ten (10) dollars.

For roadways paved with any material other than the above, such a sum per square yard and such a minimum sum as may from time to time be determined by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

The work of trenching, removing the old pavement, replacing the materials up to the subgrade for the pavement, tamping, etc., shall be done by the applicant, under the supervision of the County Engineer, and at the cost of the applicant.

The work of replacing the pavement shall then be done by the Board of Chosen Freeholders, and the cost therof shall be met by the above-named payments to be made by the applicant to the County Collector.

Upon the completion of the work by the applicant, to the satisfaction of the County Engineer, there shall be returned to him the difference between his deposit of twenty-five (25) dollars and the sum retained as above by the County Collector to pay the cost of replacing the pavement.

This sum so due the applicant, however, may be used by the County Road Committee in replacing the trench filling, etc., as provided in Clause 5 of this resolution.

(7) And in addition to said deposit, whenever deemed necessary, the County Road Committee may demand from the applicant a bond in such amount as to them shall seem necessary to indemnify the county of Union against damages by reason of imperfect work.

(8) The applicant shall in every instance be responsible for all damages to the traveling public.

(9) That this board hereby prescribes a penalty by a fine not exceeding one hundred (100) dollars for the violation of this resolution or any section thereof.

Dated May 1, 1912.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Doane:

Whereas, This board, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 88 of the Laws of 1910, have heretofore determined to establish a hospital for the care and treatment of persons suffering from tuberculosis; and, whereas, a site has been acquired therefor and contracts have been awarded for the necessary buildings and improvement thereon; therefore be it

Resolved, That, in accordance with the requirements and revisions of the act above referred to, the following named gentlemen be appointed, who shall constitute a board of managers of said hospital for the terms hereinafter specified.

Edward C. Holmes, of Summit, for five years; Dr. William H. Murray, of Plainfield, for four years, Dr. Norton L. Wilson, of Elizabeth, for three years; William I. [illegible] of Elizabeth, for two years, and William Howard, of Rahway, for one year.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously and the clerk of the board directed to notify them of their appointment as a board of managers of said hospital.

By Freeholder Wilbur:

Whereas, The Board of Chosen Freeholders and various county officials of the county of Union, from time to time, hire for their use, in connection with their said business as such officials, automobiles, and,

Whereas, The prices charged for cars so used by them is somewhat varied, the proprietors of some garages charging more than others for apparently the same service; and,

Whereas, The proprietor of the Blue Ribbon Garage of the city of Elizabeth, N. J., has made a proposition to this board to furnish cars for the use of the board, and the various officials authorized under the law to hire cars for necessary use in connection with the business of the county from time to time; and,

Whereas, The proprietor of the Blue Ribbon Garage has proposed:

A 5-passenger car at $2.50 per hour, a 7-passenger car at $3 per hour, a 5-passenger car at $17 per day of ten hours, a 7-passenger car at $20 per day of ten hours, and trips to Morris Plains, N. J., and return, not exceeding ten hours; a 5-passenger car for $12.50, a 7-passenger car for $15; therfore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this board that inasmuch as cars can be had at the price above named from A. L. DeRaismes, proprietor of the Blue Ribbon Garage, that the members of this board and such other county officials as are authorized to hire cars at the expense of the county, that they be and are hereby requested to arrange for the use of cars required by them, on terms not exceeding the above prices mentioned.

Dated May 2, 1912.

On motion by Freeholder Doane this resolution was adopted and the clerk of the board directed to send a copy of said resolution to each Freeholder and county official.

By Freeholder Smith:

Resolved, That the bond of John N. Cady, Henry Krouse and Bradford Jones, in the sum of twenty-five thousand (25,000) dollars each, as sinking fund commissioners of this county, be accepted and filed with the county collector.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was adopted unanimously.

Courts—Edward S. Atwater, $500; C. Addison Swift, $500; Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., $208.33, $17.10; A. J. deRaismes, $28, $12; Harry M. Shedd, $94.50; Harry Dill, $20; Francis V. Lowden, $17.40; John A. Gallatian, $80.05, $35.31, $125; Francis V. Lowden, $100; Henry J. Schoppe, $100; William H. Wright, sheriff, $573.40; Robert L. Eaton, $37.50; Robert Lightfoot, $187.50, $2, $3.60; James C. Calvert, $17; C. W. Irwin, $158.50; William B. Hamilton, $105.29; Anna Rahl, $50; Henry Cook, $3.50; James Crann, $88.60; Henry G. Harris, $47.85; John Seeland, $55; Joseph R. Buckley, $64.76; Thomas L. Carey, $65.45; Edward H. Sherwood, $83.24;

HURRY ALONG!

IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY

AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $447,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

DEFENDS PENSION SYSTEM

tion. The true reward of loyalty must be a moral satisfaction—honor.' With what a proud sense of satisfaction the brave policemen in New York city must have received from Mayor Gaynor the medals for valorous acts in the performance of their duty. Imagine their feelings if he had handed them ten-dollar gold pieces!"

I will thank you for an opportunity to present to your readers the other side of the question.

Did any one ever hear of one so recreant to the Government's obligations that they questioned the propriety and need of our Government paying its bonds in gold, dollar for dollar and interest in the same coin? Now for a few figures:

In 1902 I obtained from the department in Washington, the amount paid for pensions from 1856 up to that date, also the amount of payment on account of interest. Disbursements for pensions up to that date were $2,836,755,061, for interest $2,868,391,250.98, showing a large excess on account of interest. Referring to the pension attorneys, there is absolutely no necessity of employing one. In January of this year an old soldier died. I took the matter up with the department and after correction of some matters, all the claims of back-pay widows' pension was arranged without any cost.

I am pleased to say that I am enjoying a special pension of $1 per day or $30 a month, and I am not ashamed of the fact. Is that too much for one who was wounded in two distinct battles; who was carried home from the battlefield of Gettysburg so badly wounded that Dr. Hammond, of the Regular Army, said my life was saved by about the thickness of a sheet of paper; my own physician said had I eaten a hearty dinner, that I would have been a dead man. Hearty dinners were not served on that day.

Is no note to be taken of the large pay we privates receive—$13 per month, clothes and rations, including whiskey and quinine? It is to be remembered that a vast majority of men who enlisted were under twenty years of age. I have taken pains to ascertain the motives which induced these young men of our city to enlist, with the following result: Two were largely influenced by patriotism and a sense of loyalty to their country. One who is one of our best citizens said, 'I was but sixteen when I enlisted, but swore I was eighteen years of age and nothing of any higher motive influenced me." Another, "I was but twenty, all my friends were going and I went." Another, "I was eighteen and my brother sixteen and we got the fever and enlisted." Another, whose brother died not very long since said, "I was twenty, my brother eighteen and we were moved by the wave of enthusiasm which bolted over the country." Another, the oldest, "I was in a militia regiment which went to the front and I could not remain at home." The writer was a not a mere boy at that time. I was on a business trip to the South during 1859, '60 and '61. At Durant, Mississippi, for no cause, I was nearly assassinated and I wished to try and even up that account. At New Orleans, I attended a slave auction and the sight I witnessed turned my heart to gall. A young mother sold as if she were an animal, after which she pleaded, "O, massa, do buy my boy, do buy my boy," a fine little fellow of about ten years of age. Think of that, you mothers of Plainfield. I prayed God ever after that, that the war should never end until slavery were abolished.

Did I enlist for $13 a month or for patriotism? No, a thousand times no. Did it ever occur to such writers of the sacrifices we made? Good business positions given up and while we were at the front, our friends and neighbors at home forged along successfully in the battle of life. But how about the officers? It took about all the pay of the young officers to live.

I am pleased that the writer does not protest against the whole system of pensions. Do not let us forget the swamps of Chickahominy and other foul streams, breeding fever from which many never recovered but some of the hearty ones recovered and because they were hearty and took up life's battle as men, are they to be mocked and denied this advantage of pension Do not forget the low wearing fevers which kept us in the hospital for months. Do not forget the heart-sickness which caused the deaths of some.

Soon after my return from the service I was in pursuit of work and twice on the same day was told that I could not obtain a good salary because I had forgotten all I ever did know. Thank God I was not dazed by that but refused to go to work until my terms were acceded to.

As the pension account dates from 1856, it includes all the veterans of all the wars since and including the War of the Revolution.

Do not forget that all the officers paid a tax of 5 per cent. or over for the support of the Government.

That there is an has been great abuses of the pension system I admit. Ex-President Grover Cleveland, of noble form, thought so and appointed a commission to investigate the facts and it was determined that the frauds were a negligible quantity and the whole matter was dropped. How about the graft all over the country from Boston to New Orleans, through to the city of San Francisco? How about Atlantic City? The Bible says that when the carcass is there the eagles are gathered together. It is as true today as when it was written? "Lest we forget, lest we forget" is the reason for my writing this.

BABY CAMP FUND STARTS WITH $22

RESPONDING TO APPEAL

Subscriptions Sent to This Office Will Be Acknowledged Promptly —Six Hundred Dollars is Needed by Union's Committee.

Following its annual custom, the Plainfield Daily Press today starts a fund for the Baby Camp conducted by the City Union of The King's Daughters. As has been the case ever since this annual subscription feature was begun by this paper five or six years ago the Ladies' Christian Work Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist chruch is the first to contribute. Its donation is $5.

Clarence B. Vail's class in the Friends' Sabbath School, composed of boys, gives $2.50. Other contributions total $15.

Acknowledged:

Seventh-Day Baptist Church Ladies' Christian Work Society	$5.00
Charity Circle's King's Daughters	5.00
C. B. Vail's School Class in Friends' Sabbath School	2.50
Another Friend	5.00

Provided the necessary funds may be raised to defray the annual expense, the Baby Camp, where the poor little tots are cared for, will be opened during the first week in July. To conduct the institution for a period of seven weeks means an outlay of $600. There are four babies, who are ill, reported to the Union's committee as needing the care and comforts to be obtained at the Camp and there are a score of other babes of the poor who will be benefitted in health if placed at the Camp.

Contributions sent to the Plainfield Daily Press for this purpose will be promptly acknowledged in these columns and transmitted at once to the Camp Committee.

RECITAL AT TRINITY CHURCH BY MISS DAY'S PUPILS

The piano pupils of Miss Irene Day, assisted by Miss Beatrice Cameron, soprano, and Archibald LaRue, violinist, gave a pleasing musicale at Trinity Reformed church last night. The affair was under the auspices of the Young Women's Mission Band of the church and members of that organization were in charge of the sale of ice cream, candy and cake, which followed the musicale.

The leeture room, where the affair was held, was well filled with the parents and friends of the pupils, including many friends of Miss Day in Dunellen and New Market. The program as announced in these columns a few days ago, was followed, with the omission of a piano solo by Miss Mary Bennett and a piano trio by the Misses Mary Bennett, Margaret Smith and Miss Irene Day. There were twelve-hand and eight-hand selections, piano solos and duets and piano duos, in which the pupils acquitted themselves with credit.

A feature was the soprano solos by Miss Cameron, of Bound Brook, a young woman who has a promising voice, and the violin selections by Archibald LaRue, of Bound Brook. The piano selections by Miss Helen Woodruff and Miss Margaret Smith, of the borough, were well received.

Mrs. Leonard Smith was general chairman of the affair. Miss Lillian A. Force, Mrs. F. S. Cutter and Miss Etta Raybert were in charge of the candy booth, while Mrs. George Mantz, Miss Cora Gano, Mrs. A. B. Cole, Mrs. Cornelius W. Higgins, Mrs. Harry Cooke, Mrs. Ada Krymer, Mrs. A. T. Runyon and Mrs. Arthur Stevens were in charge of the ice cream and cake. The reception committee comprised Miss Helen Bogart, Miss Edna Dilts, Miss Edith Richards and Miss Lena Bohan.

GUARDS KILL STRIKER IN A RIOTOUS CLASH

Perth Amboy, June 26.—Rioting was renewed between the strikers and the guards at the plant of Williams & Clark at Roosevelt last night. One striker, John Urban, was killed and two others, Paul Batazkak and John Urbok, were shot through the legs.

The rioting began shortly after 8 o'clock and lasted fully an hour. The strikers made several attempts to rush the guards and each time the guards frightened them off by firing over their heads. In the final rush the guards were out-numbered and many of them were forced inside the plant, while others fired into the crowd to defend themselves. Several guards were hit by bricks and stones. The strikers have been in an ugly mood ever since they decided at a meeting yesterday to stick it out and they began by stoning the automobile of J. E. Waring, superintendent of the American Agricultural Chemical Company.

Deputy Sheriff Houghton at New Brunswick has been asked to send more men, and it is understood that Mayor Heymann, of Roosevelt, has protested to factories against bringing Sheriffs' Deputies upon the scene.

Five hundred striking clay miners marched on the brick and tile factory of N. D. Valentine & Co., at Metuchen yesterday and persuaded 275 employes to walk out. The augmented force then advanced to the clyfields, where 55 more men were recruited. The next move was to Fords, where the factory of William Ostrander & Co. is situated. Here 140 strikers were added to the small army. Next Brinkman's terra cotta works were visited and 60 men quit. In all, up date, ten brick and tile plants have shut down and more than 1,200 hands are on strike.

Sheriff Bollschweiler became anxious last evening at the large walkout and sent fifty Deputy Sheriffs to the strike regions. The deputies went down to Bonhamton, a small town entirely inhabited by the strikers, and took one prisoner on the charge of inciting a riot.

MUSIC A FEATURE OF HOME DEPT. SOCIABLE

A social attended by about seventy persons was held by the Home Department of the Netherwood Reformed church Sunday-school in the church parlors last evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with the Home Department colors which are purple and white, and the following program of music was given by members of the Sunday-school:

Duet by Miss Iona Wood and John Bolsterle; vocal solo by Miss Dufford; piano solo by Miss Mabel Whitmas; vocal duet by Mrs. F. A. Cooper and daughter, Mary; vocal solo by Miss Mary Cooper; piano and violin duet by Mr. and Mrs. Borrup.

The pastor of the church extended a short address of welcome to those present and Sunday-school Superintendent Gonod gave a few words of greeting.

COURT'S ORDER OUSTS EXECUTOR

Arrowsmith, Still Jailed, Removed from Management of Liscomb Estate.

HINT OF SETTLEMENT

Prisoner Refused to Come Into Court When Sent For Until Sheriff Was Dispatched For Him—Bonds In This City?

James L. Arrowsmith, of West Seventh street, who has been in jail for several weeks in Elizabeth in default of a $15,000 bond, demanded by an order from the Court of Chancery, has been removed as executor of the estate of Mrs. Sarah Liscombe. The order of removal was made by the Orphans' Court at Elizabeth this morning. Ralph Lum, of Newark, has been appointed administrator of the estate.

It was expected yesterday that a virtual settlement of the case would be effected, but Arrowsmith's attitude prevented it. Arrowsmith was still evidently in a contentious mood today, because he refused to come into court when first sent for. Judge Atwater sent the sheriff after him. Several weeks ago Arrowsmith was arrested on a capais.

There was talk after a conversation by his counsel, H. P. Davidson, had with Arrowsmith and counsel for the heirs that a settlement might be effected next week. If a settlement is reached Arrowsmith will be released.

It is understood that several orders have been issued in connection with the original Chancery action and that one of them forbade the removal of $11,000 worth of bonds from a safety deposit vault in New York.

It is alleged by the heirs that counsel for Arrowsmith in New York has removed the bonds and that there are some of them at the present time in the Plainfield Trust Company in this city. The rest are said to be in a New York bank. There is talk of contempt proceedings in connection with the alleged removal of the bonds.

There will be a further hearing on the case next week.

PRISONERS BEGIN THEIR STATE PRISON TERMS

Three prisoners, two whose cases have been determined and one as yet undecided, were taken from the county jail at Elizabeth yesterday, where they have been confined for several weeks. Andrew Strasko, of Plainfield, and Antonio Logastrado, of Summit, went to the state prison to start serving the sentences imposed by Judge Atwater last Wednesday. William Freeman, colored, of Rahway, was taken to Chester, Delaware county, Penn., on extradition papers to answer an indictment charging larceny and burglary.

Strasko pleaded guilty to an atrocious assault on Stephen Sibo. Lagastrado was found guilty of complicity in the operation of a disorderly house in Summit. Strasko was sentenced to not less than one year nor more than twelve. Lagastrado is to serve not more than three years nor less than one.

BOUGHT 63 BEERS A DAY AND LET WIFE STARVE

Morristown, June 26.—Adolphus G. Hagan, of Boonton, whom a jury has compelled to pay a weekly sum to his wife, declared on the stand yesterday that he had spent $725 on beer in 227 days. In that time he gave his wife nothing, she said, and she had become a charge on the community.

At 5 cents a glass, Hagan's beer investments stand for a total of 14,500 glasses, or 63 8-10 glasses a day. The total for the 227 days is 189 cubic feet of beer, and, allowing 9 feet for "collar," it would fill a pool 6 feet wide, 15 feet long and 2 feet deep, enough to float a motor boat of ordinary size nicely.

HIS HORSES ALL RIGHT.

Thomas TenEyck, of 35 West Thirty-fifth street, New York, was on his way to South Plainfield yesterday evening, with two loads of camping outfit when a comjlaint was lodged against the condition of his horses by John W. Jackson, of 329 West Fifth street. Mrs. S. P. VanHoesen, agent of the S. P. C. A., looked the animals over and pronounced them all right. TenEyck has a plot of ground at South Plainfield and he will camp there during the summer.

HOW MILITANT SHOPPERS CLASHED TOLD IN COURT

Two "bargain hunters," Helen Schneiderbeck and Teresa Venutello, were arraigned this morning in the city police court on a charge of disorderly conduct by fighting on Monday in front of a store where a bargain sale was in progress. Patrolman Vanderweg testified that he saw Schneiderbeck rush at the other woman and strike her. Then the Italian woman got a strangle hold which would have quickly put her assailant out of commission had not the officer intervened.

The manager of the store described how he was selling large glass bowls when he reached one down between both they grabbed it simultaneously and began to pull. The Italian woman proved the victor in this tug of war and the vanquished immediately swatted the victor on the nose. This so infuriated Venutello that forgetting all about the bowl that she had obtained after such a strenuous contest she hit her opponent over the head with it, smashing it into fragments. Then the combatants were ushered out, where the fight was renewed on the street.

The testimony of Mrs. Schneiderbeck was to the effect that some one had bitten or pinched her in the arm early in the forenoon; that Venutello had first struck her and that she had retaliated in self defense. Venutello's story was that she acted in self defense. City Judge William G. DeMeza credited the Italian woman's story and discharged her, and placed the other woman under a suspended sentence of $50 or fifty days.

J. D. MACNAB DIES SUDDENLY

High School Teacher Found Lifeless in Bed at High Point.

DEMISE UNEXPECTED

He Suffered From Abscess of Stomach But No Serious Result Was Feared—Went to High Point On Business.

James D. Macnab, who for the past eleven years has been the head of the commercial department of the Plainfield High School, was found dead this morning in bed at a hotel at High Point, Barnegat, Ocean county. He had been suffering for several weeks with an abcess of the stomach and this is believed to have caused his death. Mr. Macnab left here early yesterday morning for High Point to look after some property he owns at that place and prepare to open several cottages. He expected to be away but a few days.

The news of Mr. Macnab's death was a great shock to his many friends of this city. Lindsey Best, principal of the High School, in speaking of Mr. Macnab's death, said that he was generally beloved and esteemed. He said that there seemed to be no limit to the sacrifice he was willing to make in his school work and added that his death would mean a great loss to the Plainfield schools.

Mr. Macnab was graduated from Bucknell University in the Class of 1899, and for two years taught in the South Jersey Military Institute at Bridgeton, which was the home of Mrs. Macnab. In 1901 Mr. Macnab came to Plainfield, taking the position as head of the commercial department in the High School. He was unusually successful in his work.

Mr. Macnab was an active member of the First Baptist church and for several years was a most efficient secretary of the Sunday-school. He was also a member of Court Union, No. 3277, Independent Order Foresters. He is survived by a wife and four children, three daughters and one son. Dr. Marcus L. Clawson, the family physician, left early this afternoon for High Point to make arrangements for bringing the remains to the home in this city. Mrs. Macnab is prostrated over the death of her husband, and could not be seen when a reporter called at the home this afternoon.

DEEDS OF INTEREST TO PLAINFIELD INVESTORS

The following property transfers of interest to Plainfielders have been recorded in the office of the county registrar:

TOO MUCH PEACH BRANDY.

Too liberal a dose of peach brandy mixed with whiskey was responsible for the appearance of Charles Hill, of 52 Pearl street, before City Judge William G. DeMeza this morning in the city police court. Nathan Meyers, who was the complainant, deposed that at 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning he saw Hill coming out of a bedroom in which several of his children were sleeping. The man appeared to be under the influence of drink. He 'phoned up police headquarters and had him arrested.

Hill stated that he had been up with a chum who rooms in Meyers'; that they had some peach brandy and whiskey; and that during the morning he mistook the rooms and wandered into the wrong one. He was discharged after the judge had administered the pledge to him for a year.

CELEBRATES HER BIRTHDAY WITH PINK AND GREEN TEA

Mrs. Alfred Aitken, of 732 Webster place, gave a tea at her home, yesterday afternoon, in celebration of the twenty-eighth anniversary of her birthday. The decorations were attractive, pink and green being the prevailing colors. During the afternoon there were piano selections by Mrs. William H. Cook.

Those present were Mrs. Willard H. Cook, Mrs. Doig, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Mehlenbeck, Mrs. Carl Gesswein, Miss Rose Gesswein, Miss Sharp and Mrs. Alfred Aitken.

GIVE A DANCE IN HONOR OF HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE

Joseph R. Schuck, George Latourette, Horace VanArsdale and Horace Schmeyer, of the Owl A. C., gave a graduation dance at the Fanwood fire-house, last night, in honor of Miss Ruth Wahlig. There were fifty couples in attendance. The hall was elaborately decorated, the chief colors being red and white, with the 1912 class banner given a prominent place.

The grand march was led by Miss Wahlig and Joseph R. Schuck at 12 o'clock, and at the conclusion refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Music for the affair was furnished by Naylor's orchestra.

NEW YORK GIRL BRIDE OF EVERETT K. HARTLEY

In the presence of seventy-five relatives and friends Everett Ketcham Hartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gascoyne M. Hartley, of 73 Rockview avenue, North Plainfield, and Miss Alice Ray Whittington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Whittington, of New York, were married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremony took place in Grace Church chantry, Broadway and 10th street, New York. The groom's brother, Gascoyne D. Hartley, of this city, and Godwin Beard, of Dunellen, were the ushers.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hartley started on a two weeks' honeymoon trip. They will be at home at 73 Rockview avenue, North Plainfield, from July 15 to September 15, after which time they will reside in New York. The groom is well known both in this city andthe borough and holds a good position in the executive offices of the United States Motor Co., New York, having been connected with that concern practically since its incorporation.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harvey Morrison Hobbs, who were recently married in this city, have returned from a wedding trip, and are now on their way to Fort Houston, where Lieut. Hobbs is stationed.

GAYNOR NOW LOOMING BIG

(American Press Association.)

Baltimore, June 26.—The Democratic National Convention convened at 12:21 and marked time until 2:30, during which interval speeches were made by famous Democrats. At

Who will be Permanent Chairman.

2:30 the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight to await the reports of the resolutions and the credentials committees.

The credentials committee heard contests this afternoon in eight States, chief among which was Illinois. This committee will report at tonight's session.

When W. J. Bryan refused to be chairman of the resolutions committee J. W. Kern was chosen and the committee will finish its work this afternoon. But a motion put by W. J. Bryan and carried by the convention will postpone action on the platform until the candidates are named.

Senator Ollie Janmes was selected today as permanent chairmen of the convention.

Baltimore, June 26.—Refusais were in order today before the Democratic National Convention was called to order. W. J. Bryan was offered the chairmanship of the resolution committee and refused. Senator Culberson, of Texas, was offered the permanent chairmanship and declined, pleading his health could not stand the strain.

The selection of Ollie James, Senator-elect from Kentucky, tantatively agreed upon last night, did not seem to have met with wide approval today. In fact, opposition to his name was raised. But the understanding was when the convention came to order that a progressive was to take the gavel as permanent chairman.

Wants to Wait for Nomination.

Mr. Bryan's attitude as regards the platform was that it should be held back until a candidate was named, it was learned. This would upset precedent, but Mr. Bryan was represented as arguing that it would be useless to write a progressive platform if the conservatives control the convention. It had been expected that, following the lines of Judge Parker's keynote speech, the platform would be broad enough to afford footing for any Democratic candidate.

Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, was later chosen chairman of the resolution committee.

While the business of the convention today was to fix the permanent roll, receive the credentials committee report, the report of the rules committee, the committee on permanent organization and the resolutions committee reports, gossip was swinging back to the candidates for the Presidential nomination, the general consensus of opinion being that Cramp Clark went into the convention with a distinct advantage over the others, although the day's events would effect his support to a marked extent.

Champ Clark and his cohorts were largely responsible for the overthrow of William J. Bryan. Today they demand their pound of flesh in the way of a reward. They started by insisting on obtaining the Presidency, but when the convention met today they would be satisfied with second place on the national ticket.

But still 579 feet short of 728, the two-thirds necessary to nominate, and the efforts of the party's masters were bent toward corralling the ad-

PLAINFIELD'S NEIGHBORS

New Providence.

Messrs. W. J. Bell and H. A. Julie, of the Union County Mosquito Extermination Commission, will work in conjunction with the local Board of Health to exterminate the mosquitoes in this borough. They will meet with the board next Tuesday night. It is planned by the inspectors to make a thorough inspection of the breeding places of the mosquitoes in the borough and the first treatment will be of oil wherever stagnant ponds or pools are found. Cellars and cisterns will next be inspected for treatment. This will be the first attempt in the borough to rid itself of a most annoying nuisance.

The Gun Club and a team from the Jr. O. U. A. M., will clash for the first time this evening and as the teams will be composed of baseball stars of bygone days, a most interesting game is anticipated by a large crowd of rooters on both sides. Chief of Police Jacob G. Miller, with a large force of deputies, will maintain order.

The local assessor is on his last lap and reports that the valuations, both personal and real, will foot up to about $600,000 this year.

The management of the New Providence A. A. will meet tonight at the residence of Professor Arthur G. Balcom.

PLANS FOR WORK OF COUNTY C. E. UNION

Executive Committee Hears Them Outlined by President at Meeting.

Representatives from all parts of Union county attended the meeting of the executive committee of the county Christian Endeavor Union held last night at the home of A. L. Taintor in Elizabeth. Plans for the county were outlined by George Mingus, of Rahway, county president, and reports from the various committees were received. The committees, time and place of conferences as arranged by President Mingus are as follows:

Junior Committee—Miss Nell C. Greene, chairman; the Misses Hazel Hepler, Elsie Gernert, Bessie Fowler, Cora Jones, Matilda Wood. This conference will be held in the Springfield Presbyterian church, November 22, 1912. Missionary Committee—Miss Julia Kerr, chairman; the Misses Alice Smith, Sue Valentine, Bessie Allison, Louis Grote, Carrie Mathar. This conference will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Plainfield, October 18, 1912.

Efficiency Committee—Miss Nellie K. Foote, chairman; the Misses Vera Day and Nell C. Greene and Purdy Benedict. This conference will be held at the Greystone Presbyterian church, Elizabeth, December 13, 1912. Good Citizenship Committee—Clarence B. LaRue, chairman; Miss Flora Day, Samuel Lumm, Rev. A. E. Francke, George W. Ross and Walter L. Edwards. This conference will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Rahway, January 24, 1913.

Press and Information Committee—Harry H. Pennoyer, chairman; Miss Edna Fink, Miss Ethlyn Terry, Arthur Hazeltine. This conference will be held in the Congregational church, Westfield, February 14, 1913. Fresh Air Committee—Fred C. Lounsbury, Jr., chairman, and committee of eighteen members will hold a conference in the Third Presbyterian church, Elizabeth, March 14, 1913.

The annual meeting will be held on May 9, 1913, in the Second Presbyterian church, Rahway, and there will be three executive committee meetings as follows: September 17, 1912, at the Central Baptist church, Elizabeth; December 3, 1912, at the residence of Samuel Lumm, of Union; March 18, 1913, at the residence of Miss Lena Bohan, of this city.

R. L. Stevens, president of the Hudson County Christian Endeavor Union, was present last night and told of the activities in that county of which fresh air work, Chinese missions and the efficiency campaign are the most important. Mr. Stevens congratulated Union county on giving to the state organization two efficient officers, Frederick Mintel, of Rahway, the newly-elected chairman of the press and information department, and Miss Nellie K. Foote, of Elizabeth, who has just succeeded Miss Ida B. Stevens, of Hackettstown, as state secretary.

It was voted that the flag won by the county union at Atlantic City last summer for the highest percentage in the increase campaign be presented to the Endeavorer's fresh air camp on the mountains back of Plainfield. The county union through Fred C. Lounsbury, Jr., of this city, has just acquired title to four acres of land on the top of the mountain and the camp will be opened July 1.

PLAINFIELD ANGLER LANDS FIRST WEAKFISH AND $5

Local fishermen who make Boynton Beach their headquarters every season will be gratified to learn that weakfish are showing a tendency to become better acquainted with anglers. It fell to the lot of a Plainfielder, Adolph Kohler, of 1223 West Fifth street, to win the five dollar prize this season which is annually offered by Captain Howard Tappen to the angler who succeeds in hooking the first "weakie." Mr. Kohler performed the feat last week. According to Captain Tappen, Kohler is the luckiest angler who fishes at the beach. Last year Kohler won considerable attention from anglers by making the largest catch of a single day by hooking fifty-five members of the finny tribe on July 4. Another successful angler is Robert Griglietti, of Newark, who is 77 years of age. Last Sunday he caught three weakfish and three eels.

FILES ACCOUNTING OF ESTATE AFTER 5 YEARS

The heirs of Mrs. Dorothy S. Clark, who died about five years ago in this city, applied to the Union County Orphans' Court for a rule to show cause why William H. Clark, husband of the dead woman, who was made executor of the estate, should not make an accounting. It was alleged that no accounting had ever been made. W. A. Coddington, counsel for Mr. Clark, appeared in court with an accounting today. It is said to be satisfactory.

The accounting was filed, but the court adjourned the hearing until July 31, when the question of removing Mr. Clark as executor may be argued.

The testimony of a Plainfield citizen

Can be easily investigated.

What better proof can be had?

Mrs. S. Driscoll, 1009 South Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "There was a dull pain across the small of my back and in my sides that clung to me constantly and any hard work made my condition worse. I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells, especially when stooping or lifting and I felt weak and run down. I tried plasters and various other remedies but nothing helped me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's drug store. They did such good work in correcting my trouble that I heartily recommend them." (Statement given August 25, 1908.)

Re-Endorsement.

Mrs. Driscoll was interviewed on January 29, 1911, and she added to the above: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as I have been for the past five years. They made a lasting cure in my case."

TO TEACH AT BEDMINSTER.

Whitehouse, June 26.—Supervising Principal H. A. Meyers, of the Public Schools of Bedminster Township, has been re-engaged in that capacity for another year by the Board of Education. He has also engaged as the principal of the Public Schools of Peapack and Gladstone to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John A. White, who will go elsewhere. The following teachers have been decided on for the grades at Peapack and Gladstone: Eighth grade, Miss Beatrice Chadwick; sixth and seventh grades, vacant; fourth and fifth grades, Miss Anna Tiger; second and third grades, Miss Lillian Brown; first grade, Miss Eva Moke; kindergarten, Miss Frances Benjamin. Miss Myra Fisher resigned the sixth and seventh grade to go to Mt. Pleasant to teach. The pupils of the school who passed the eighth grade examinations are John Conover, Leslie Apgar, Juliett Tiger, Alice Smith, Hazel Lunger, Marion Forsythe, Etta Myers, Madeline Booth, Ethel Reynolds, Palmer Wels, Arthur Elliott, Myrtle Burd, Alvah Simons, Frances Vliet and Raymond Dalrymple. This class has organized by the election of John Conover, president; Alice Smith, vice president; Etta Myers, secretary, and Hazel Lunger, treasurer.

MUNSON WOULD BE SENATOR.

Franklin Furnace, June 26.—Induced by many Democratic friends to enter the Senatorial race to succeed Senator Jacob C. Price of Branchville, Samuel Munson, for years a Democratic leader in Hardyston Township, yesterday announced his candidacy for that office. Mr. Munson, who is about thirty-six years old, has been prominent in the councils of his party for years, and under his leadership the work in his district has been regarded by his friends as effective. He has served as collector of Hardyston Township, and one year was assistant clerk of the Assembly, receiving the appointment from former Assemblyman Levi H. Morris. He will shortly enter upon an active campaign for the nomination.

—"What is the proper thing for a man to do when his wife asks him for money and he hasn't any?" queried Newed. "Oh, there isn't any proper thing to do in those circumstances," replied Oldwed. "Anything he does will be wrong."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

ASBURY PARK TO COST $248,187 COMING YEAR

Asbury Park, June 26.—The Common Council of this city adopted a budget for the forthcoming year of $248,187.35, an increase of $10,835.40 over that of last year.

Of this total, $50,000 is provided by a special school tax, thus leaving the municipal tax $198,187.35. With the county tax, the total figure last year was $313,745.31.

FATHER HURT, SON IS SHOCKED IN AUTO CRASH

Westfield, June 26.—Hiram L. Fink and his son, H. C. Fink, automobile dealers in this town, were out in one of their cars Monday, when the front tire exploded, causing the steering wheel to swerve to one side. The car ran up on the sidewalk, striking a telephone pole and throwing both men out.

The elder man struck the sidewalk head first and was unconscious when picked up, while his son escaped serious injury, although he was in a highly nervous state for several hours. His father was taken to his home on Walnut street. He is suffering from concussion of the brain, as well as other internal injuries. The car was completely wrecked.

REQUIRED 43 STITCHES TO SEW UP CUT WOUNDS

High Bridge, June 26.—Patrick Tigh, about thirty-five years old, is in a critical condition at the home of his mother, in Mine street, from loss of blood and injuries received at the hands of an unidentified Italian at the Union House late Saturday night.

In the course of an altercation Tigh was cut on the face, neck and abdomen, necessitating forty-three stitches to close the wounds. Dr. John F. Rufe dressed the injuries.

MAN HIT BY AEROPLANE IN COURT FOR DAMAGES

Freehold, June 26.—Said to be the first suit of the kind in this country, trial of the case of Morris Gorsuch, of Asbury Park, for $15,000 damages against the Asbury Park Aero and Motor Club and the Wright Brothers, was begun before Judge Nelson Y. Dungan and a jury here yesterday.

Gorsuch, who was selling programs on the Asbury aviation grounds during the exhibition there in August, 1910, was struck by an aeroplane, driven by Walter Brookins, who made an unexpected descent. Gorsuch sustained a broken arm and other injuries.

The plaintiff is represented by Hahn & Newman, of Newark, and former Judge Wilbur A. Heisley, of Asbury Park; John S. Applegate & Son, of Red Bank, and Durand Ivins and Carton, of Asbury Park, appear for the defendants.

POURED AMMMONIA ON AGED MAN AS A JOKE

Newton, June 26.—As the sequel to a supposed practical joke yesterday morning, Nelson C. Smith, eighty years old, a veteran of the Civil War, is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Van Horn, 143 Spring street, temporarily blinded and suffering intensely, while a warrant is out for the arrest of Thomas Boyer, a porter at the Park Hotel.

Mr. Smith entered the bar of the hotel. Boyer is alleged to have slipped up quietly behind him and emptied the contents of a bottle of ammonia over the old man's head. The fiery liquid streamed down the veteran's face and a good deal of it got into his eyes, leaving him completely blind and inflicting severe pain.

Friends came promptly to the aged man's assistance and took him to his daughter's home, where he was given medical assistance. His daughter is at present out of town, and neighbors agreed in consequence, to remain with the suffering veteran until she could be summoned.

TO VOTE ON NEW SCHOOL.

High Bridge, June 26.—L. W. Dorland, clerk of the local Board of Education, has posted notices for a special meeting of the legal voters of the local school district to be held in Liberty Hose House July 2 to vote upon the following resolutions: To authorize the Board of Education to replace the condemned heating, ventilating and sanitary appurtenances in the present school building and to erect a new schoolhouse on the present property which shall contain a heating and sanitary equipment for both buildings. The cost of the work shall not exceed the sum of $35,000, and to authorize the Board of Education to borrow the money ordered to be raised by issuing bonds and notes.

THE OLD-FASHIONED 4TH.

Those who oppose the "Safe and Sane Fourth of July" idea and who cling to what they call the "old-fashioned" way of celebrating Independence Day should read a little dissertation sent out by the National Fire Protection Association for it is a sound argument against the present stupid, reckless and somewhat heathenish custom. Here is reproduced what is contained in the pamphlet:

"Independence Day is coming; day of powder-poisoning and lock-jaw; day of hospitals and ambulances; day of mutilation and fire and death. If there is anything that is sane in the American people it is the growing revolt against our insane manner of celebrating the Fourth of July.

"It might be called "Incendiaries' Day," for on that day the fire fiend runs riot. No man having any publiv responsibility fails to dread it. No fire department gets through the day and the nights on both sides of it, without exhaustion. It is doubtful if on some fifth of July an entire city may not complacently burn itself up in the faces of firemen and fire horses too exhausted by silly firecracker fires the day before to cope with it. The fire fighting apparatus of our cities and towns is so overtaxed by the numberless calls which begin on the evening of July 3 that response to possible summons for help by neighboring towns or cities is impossible.

"What fire chief would dare allow even a hose wagon to go beyond immediate recall while alarms in his own city are coming in at ten-minute intervals? Even the large number of false alarms, due to the reckless use of the day, have their dire significance, for they tire out the horses and the men, and reduce the ability of the department to cope with actual fires. When the gong begins to ring at headquarters, its call is as imperative for a rubbish heap ablaze as it is for the home of a citizen. The wear and tear of the apparatus, and even the injury to the horses during thirty-six hours of almost constant runs, may be as great for false alarms as for real ones.

"It seems a sort of folly almost too unspeakable to relate, but there are instances where American firemen have been killed in runs to fires on July 4 by being thrown from trucks by frightened horses swerving from their course at explosives thrown under them as they galloped past. Never an 'Independence' Day but scores of human beings are made dependant for life."

BUILDING AND LOAN.

One of the biggest conventions of the year for Atlantic City will be that of the United States League of Local Building and Loan Associations which is called for Tuesday, July 9. At that time it is expected that there will be 2,500 delegates in attendance, representing some 6,000 local organizations. These associations represent a combined membership of 2,250,000, mostly heads of families in moderate circumstances. The grand total of assets of these associations is over $100,000,000.

Pennsylvania leads the country with over 1,400 local associations and $180,000,000 in savings in local bodies. Ohio is second with 700 associations, nearly 400,000 members and about $175,000,000 in assets. New Jersey stood third a year ago with 178,622 members and $86,602,650 in assets. Illinois was fourth, Massachusetts fifth and New York sixth. Kentucky had ninety-seven associations, 41,417 members and $15,395,504 in savings invested.

One of the most important matters to be taken up at this year's convention, aside from discussion of legislative measures to exempt the savings of thrifty citizens from taxation by the Government under the income act, will be the formulation of plans for further warfare upon get-rich-quick schemes of every description which prey upon the poor. The association is expected to go upon record with a bill which will be sent to every State Legislature where protective laws have not yet been put in force.

Banking commisssioners of many States will attend the convention to discuss measures for uniform accounting and the officers having charge of the wealth of the local associations. There has been a surprising absence of defalcations, due probably to the fact that association officials are themselves shareholders and serve for honor rather than the salary atached to their offices.

With the funds entrusted to their care the building associations have been able to do very effective work in building up communitties by assisting working men to become home-owners. The movement has had an uninterrupted run of prosperity and the associations are now recognized as an important factor in the business life of the country.

Just one week after the Beef Trust's clearing house notified Attorney-General Wickersham that it would dissolve, the price of beef advanced two cents yesterday and it is expected to soar higher today. The prices are higher now than at any time since the Civil War and the stereotyped excuse, scarcity of beef cattle, is given as the reason by the packers.

By an unanimous vote the 2,800 striking waiters in New York have decided to return to work. They received no sympathy from the public upon whom they graft for a living.

When you go away this summer, have the Daily Press follow you.

THE TEMPERATURE.

Following is the record of the thermometer as furnished by the State Trust Company: 9 a. m., 77 degrees; 11 a. m., 82 degrees; 1 p. m., 87 degrees.

AGED MAN OVERCOME BY HEAT ON GREENBROOK RD.

An aged man while walking along Greenbrook road this morning was overcome with the heat and went into a fit similar to epilepsy. He was assisted to the lawn of William L. Smalley's residence at Greenbrook road and West End avenue, where restoratives were applied by Mrs. Smalley. At first it was thought that the man was dying, but first-aid remedies soon brought him to. Mr. Smalley was summoned, but by the time he reached home some one came along with a horse and wagon and took the sufferer home.

The man was so feeble that he was unable to give his name, but it was said that he lived near the foot of the mountains near the farm of the late A. P. Voorhees in North Plainfield Township. It is said that he is subject to fits and for that reason is seldom allowed to go out alone.

COURT REFUSES TRANSFER OF ELK LIQUOR LICENSE

Former Judge William A. Coddington, representing Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., appeared today in the Union County Court and applied for a transfer of the liquor license held by the Elks from its old clubhouse on Watchung avenue, which was recently demolished, to the former club rooms in the Plainfield theatre building. A new clubhouse is being erected on Watchung avenue.

The application for the transfer was denied on the ground that it was not made on the opening day of court, when all licenses are acted upon. Because of their failure to apply at the right time, the Elks will have to forego the privileges of a liquor license until fall.

OUTING OF COAL MEN.

The local coal dealers with their wives and friends left this morning by the 9:29 train for Atlantic City, for an outing. The coal dealers from Dunellen, Bound Brook and Somerville accompanied them on the trip, and will be their guests. The party after taking in the sights will return tomorrow night.

ditional votes needed to perfect their grip and complete their victory of yesterday by compelling the Democratic party to offer to the people a reactionary candidate on a progressive platform.

The achieving of this result with Harmon did not appear so likely today, and Gaynor loomed larger than at any stage of the game.

One of the stories that came out of Baltimore last night, apparently on good authority, was that the boom for Mayor Gaynor was advancing by leaps and bounds. It was said Charles F. Murphy had decided to support Gaynor on the first ballot and as long thereafter as he had any chance for the nomination. It was said that Murphy would have the support of Governor Marshall's Indiana delegation if it appeared that there was no chance for Marshall. The Gaynor boomers in Baltimore are very active.

MARTINE BUBBLES OVER WITH W. J. B. ENTHUSIASM

Baltimore, June 26.—There were four delegates who sat yesterday with the other 24 from New Jersey in the opening of the Democratic National Convention who felt rather good at the result of the first skirmish of the reactionaries and progressixes. Former Senator Smith and former State Chairman Nugent were not in what might be called the best of spirits as the convention opened, and the usual scenes of animation marked the gathering of the big crowds. Theirs was a position not to be envied. Only two years ago one was the acknowledged leader of the party of his state, the other his lieutenant and manager. The two were standing as representatives of the last fragment of what was once a power in New Jersey politics, but later repudiated and cast out by the great voice of the people. The fact that Governor Wilson, figuring strongly as a candidate for the Presidency, has come out so plainly for Bryan was enough to align the Smith crowd, if there had been no other reason against the Nebraskan.

Thus, while Smith and Nugent and the other two delegates from the two Essex county districts sat with the Jerseymen who represented the sentiment of the people of the state, they were not cordial, nor what might be called friendly, and they were exceedingly glad when the announcement came that Parker had 579 votes, while Bryan commanded but 510, Nugent could not help indulging in one of his characteristic thrusts at the other delegates who stood solidly for Bryan for temporary chairman, believing that was the only thing they could consistently do in view of Governor Wilson's stand.

Now the Jerseymen are wondering how far Bryan is willing to go in behalf of the Jersey candidate, and whether there is to be serious defection from the Wilson cause by reason of the lineup of the Clark and Underwood forces with the Parker program.

United States Senator James E. Martine, as an old-time friend and earnest advocate of Bryan, was in the seventh heaven of delight when the Nebraskan was given such a marked welcome to the convention. The other delegates found it diffcult to hold the Senator down at times because his enthusiasm would bubble over and start him going on an attempted speech which nobody could hear. After the close of the session Senator Martine seemed to feel good, in spite of the Nebraskan's overthrow.

"I hope," he said, "that this has taught Bryan something; opened his eyes and showed him some things of which he was in ignorance before. I shall talk to him before the night is over and endeavor to bring him around to see that there is no further use for fight. It is all over now. The choice of Judge Parker was made unanimous. We want it to stay unanimous, to wipe out all of the old scores and start anew with a grand party sure to win the great victory in November."

The Jerseymen were greatly gratified by the long and lusty cheers which came from the thousands of throats as the chairman of the delegation, former Judge John W. Wescott, announced the vote of the state on the question of the temporary chairman. The Jersey hosts realized that for the first time they were occupying a foremost place in the eyes of the nation.

They were sent into a spasm of delight in the first few minutes of the convention by the appearance on the floor, near the rostrum, of a grizzled old man bearing aloft as high as he could raise it, and waving it to the music of the band, a white silk banner bearing the legion: "Texas—40 votes—for Woodrow Wilson—the people's choice." The sight of the banner caused one of the first demonstrations of the gathering, and the Jersey boomers were just that much more gratified.

As one after another of the states voted, and it was evident that the Bryan following was sticking hard and fast, they were keenly alert, expecting that, in view of Governor Wilson's stand, the Bryan forces will stick to the Jersey Governor. Many states which divided on the choice of a chairman are understood to be solid for Wilson, and it is hoped this will make a marked difference when it comes to balloting.

The Jerseymen are especially pleased with the position they have been given in the convention. They are in the very front row of seats and directly in the centre of the speaker's platform. Right back of them are the Underwood men from Alabama, and right across the main aisle there are the Champ Clark people from Missouri.

Mayor J. Thompson Baker, of Wildwood, who made such a hit in the impromptu meeting in the Wilson headquarters last night, gazed out over the walls of the hansome convention hall, read the quotations from Washington and Jefferson and Jackson, and said to Thomas F. Birch, his colleague:

"They could have used some parts of Governor Wilson's speeches in the great 1910 campaign with good effect if they were looking for quotations of vital interest and meaning."

UNION CO. MEN BUSY; THEY SEEK OFFICES

Baltimore, June 26.—Some of the Union county Wilson men see appointments to lucrative county jobs behind the activity of certain Elizabeth Democrats here in the Wilson cause. James C. Connolly and Robert H. McAdams are everywhere, busy in the cause of the Governor. No less zealous in his activity is Mayor Stein. The city attorney and the mayor are looking to the judgeship, of course, while Mr. McAdams has the prosecutorship in view.

The delegation from New Jersey stirred the Democrats gathered at the Wilson headquarters to a high pitch of enthusiasm by the singing of Wilson songs. Cards being the words were distributed and the airs were enthusiastically caught up. The most popular air is a parody on the Princeton song "Old Nassau." The words run:

Wilson, Wilson, all along the line—
Let the echo ring;
We're for Wilson shouting all the time,
Give a rousing triple cheer for Wilson.

There is one man from New Jersey who is attracting considerable attention. He came down with the delegation from Union county and is known to Democrats all over New Jersey and a whole lot more States as "Tune" Mellick. Mellick is from Somerset county. He owns a big farm and a large voice. He has a unique system of conversation. Everything he says he says three times. He has already proved himself a big feature with the Jersey Wilson men.

MISS ELLEN J. REYNOLDS.

Miss Ellen J. Reynolds, aged 72 years, who has been a resident of this city for the past two years, died last night at her home, 422 West Fourth street. She was a native of Auburn, N. Y., and since coming to Plainfield lived with her cousin, Miss A. L. Barnes. The funeral will be held at 402 Park avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate. The burial will be at Jordan, N. Y.

THE TIE THAT BOUND.

Archeologists have discovered the palace of Jezebel, who, it will be remembered, was an ancient dame of uncertain temper, mostly bad. In the palace the grubbers found more than five thousand cooking utensils, which might go to show that despite her violent outbreaks the ancient dame was a good cook and a provident housekeeper.

And this suggests a Lincoln story.

When the great emancipator was practising law in Indianapolis a client came to him and wanted to know if something couldn't be done to protect him from his wife. He said she locked him out nights, threw dishes at him and battered him up with a club. She scolded him day and night and consistently and continuously made life miserable for him.

"Have you thought of getting a divorce " inquired Lincoln.

"No, no; I don't want a divorce. Why, I wouldn't leave th' old woman for anything."

"You wouldn't! After all that abuse? And why not?"

"Because, squire, that old woman of mine can make the best flapjacks in Sangamon county!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—There are many different kinds of fools, but don't try to be all of them at once.

—Many a woman never realizes what a good husband she had until she reads his obituary.

—"How old are you?" asked the little boy of the lady who was calling on his mother. "Why, Willie!" exclaimed his mother. "You must not ask a lady a question like that. It's not polite." "Why, mamma? She isn't supposed to tell the truth."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Square Pot Boiler and Its Square Fire Pot
This boiler—by reason of its square fire pot—shown below—furnishes heat at absolutely the very lowest cost. Satisfactory heat, too—easily controllable—moderate or intense, as you like, from cellar to farthest radiator.
The square fire pot, originated and patented by us, gives perfect, hence economical, combustion. Being square cornered it clears of ashes instantly—no clogging.
The effective radiating surface is from 15% to 25% greater than in other pots of same diameter. No clinkers—a cutting bar smashes them.
Your dealer will tell you of many other vital features. Ask him about Square Pot Boilers and Furnaces and Newport Ranges.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

HERE AND THERE.

Leghorn Hats Are Popular This Summer For Dress Occasions.

The ever popular leghorn hat, lined with a darker shade, is prominent on the list of correct headgear.

White voile has found lasting favor with women of all ages. It is a material which muses little and does not require constant thought of pressing. It has to a large extent taken the place of less practical fabrics for summer gowns.

The gown which is made of two materials to give the tunic effect, yet

FRESH VEGETABLE SALADS.

THE new vegetables supply the experienced salad maker with materials for many agreeable additions to the summer bill of fare.

Nuts combined with the salad add to their nourishing qualities.

To be successful a salad must be served cold. The greens must be young and crisp and the dressing carefully prepared. The salad must be arranged in such a way as to appeal to the eye as well as to the palate.

To Stimulate the Appetite.

Cucumber Salad.—Slice cucumbers and soak in cold water for one hour. Cut some cold well salted potatoes in thin slices, using half the quantity of potatoes as of cucumbers. Mix together with French dressing.

For Jaded Palates.

Combination Salad.—Take the inside leaves of the romaine salad and line a salad bowl with them several layers deep. Then fill the middle of the bowl with sliced tomatoes, green peppers, onions and cucumbers. Cover with a French dressing, to which a dash of mustard has been added.

Attractively Served.

Asparagus Salad.—Tie asparagus in small bundles and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Remove the string. Arrange on crisp lettuce on individual plates. Cut a tomato into four rings and slip a bundle of the cooked asparagus through each ring, place on lettuce and sprinkle bits of finely chopped pimento over the whole.

A Health Food.

Dandelion Salad.—Take young dandelion leaves, wash and drain them. Then prepare a dressing as follows: Rub a salad bowl with cut pieces of garlic and leek, season with salt, pepper and a dash of mustard and mix with a tablespoonful of vinegar. Next blend with olive oil, cut a hard cooked egg into rings and add to the dressing. Toss the dandelion leaves in the dressing.

Good Form

Bridesmaids and Ushers.

The wedding procession is more brilliant where there are a number of bridesmaids. They add, however, to the expense of the occasion, since the bride is now expected to make them each a present. This is usually something to be worn at the wedding—a pair of hatpins, a fan or some small article of jewelry, says Florence Howe Hall.

The bride also invites them to a luncheon, dinner or festivity of some sort not long before the day of the ceremony. The gifts intended for them may be set at each plate, like favors, in small packages neatly tied up with white ribbon.

Sometimes the bridegroom and ushers are also asked to the dinner. This seems to us a much better plan than the giving of a bachelor dinner. Where the bridegroom asks his best man and ushers to the latter function it occasionally happens that some of the young men drink more wine than is good for them. In the twentieth century we ought to be beyond such barbarism as this. If there is a bachelor dinner the groom makes his gifts to his friends, usually scarfpins, at this time.

When the bride's health is proposed all rise and drink it standing. They then break the glasses, the most convenient way being to snap them off at the stem and throw them into the grate.

The best man is usually the groom's brother or most intimate friend. The ushers are chosen from the circle of his near relatives and closest friends, with the addition of one or more of the bride's brothers or other relatives.

In the same way a sister of the groom is included among the bridesmaids. They provide their own costumes, but the bride decides what these shall be. She should be careful to avoid choosing gowns and hats more expensive than her young friends can afford. If there is a maid of honor she wears a costume differing somewhat from those of the bridesmaids. She is always either the sister or the most intimate friends of the bride. Often, however, there is no maid of honor, the first bridesmaid acting as the bride's special attendant.

How many ushers there shall be will depend on the size of the wedding. Six are usually sufficient. It balances the bridal cortege well and also gives the bridesmaids a pleasanter time if there is one usher to correspond to each of the latter. If the bridegroom has many young friends to whom he wishes to pay a compliment he sometimes invites eight or even ten to usher at his wedding. Too many black coats in the bridal procession do not look well, however.

Politeness Worth Money.

In an article in the Woman's Home Companion on "Seeing Europe on $3.50 a Day" the author says:

In Europe a small provision on words is wise to have and not difficult. Buy a phrase book to begin with, although it will probably tell you how to say, "All's well that ends well," when you want to make out your laundry list, and it seldom takes into consideration that "If you please" and "I beg your pardon" grease the wheels of social intercourse even more in Europe than in America. They should be prefaced to every request which the grammar teaches. "Thank you" are the first words to be learned in a foreign language.

Some people are clever at picking up French or German, learning nouns from street signs, verbs from billboards and idioms from advertisements. If you have not this kind of mind learn to say "Please" and "Thank you." Nine cases out of ten the clever man will discover what you want.

Summer Hair Etiquette.

The girl who would have wavy hair finds hot irons the quickest tools at her command. If these are once used they are not so harmful as imagined, but woe betide her hair after a few months of overhot irons!

Safer and more natural is the water wave. This lasts well on some hair, even on straight hair, while with other girls it is not successful. Failure is usually due to oil in the hair.

The hair is wet and brushed back flat to the head. It is then pushed out from the forehead with a comb for about an inch and held in place with small hairpins. This is repeated until the entire face is circled. Then another section of the hair is combed up and again pinned in place, the process being repeated until the entire head is covered with a series of little ridges.

The Successful Hostess.

The first thing for the hostess to learn is to be composed. She may be frightfully nervous and anxious, particularly if she is just beginning to entertain, but she must resolutely put on a mask of composure and assume a virtue if she has it not. Nothing is of much importance excepting her own demeanor. A fussy hostess who scolds her servants, wrinkles her brows or even forgets to listen to the man who is talking to her is the ruin of a dinner. One clever mother, advising her newly married daughter on this subject, remarked that if stewed puppy dog was brought to the table she must not notice it. Few hostesses are subjected to so severe an ordeal as this, but the remark contains a good hint.

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Women's $2 and $4 Low Shoes $1.25 a Pair
Here is the shoe sensation of the year. It's the greatest women's shoe sale in the history of Bamberger's. This statement is made in calm deliberation, realizing its significance. Why, just think of women's $2, $2.50 and $3 low shoes at $1.25 a pair—and MOST of them are regular $3.00 grades! It's a sale where all the big apples are not on top. Included in this special purchase are patent colt, gun metal calf, Russian calf, black velvet and brown velvet low shoes, one and two strap pumps and strapless pumps, in the very newest styles. Every pair has Goodyear welted soles, is well made inside and out. All sizes in the lot, and we've arranged the shoes according to size for easy selections. So big is this sale that we've set apart a large section of the dress and silk goods store to accommodate the shoes—and the crowds. Extra salespeople—plenty of them will be in attendance. No mail, 'phone or C. O. D. orders filled; none on approval. Whatever you do, don't miss it. It'll pay you to buy two or three pairs. Regular $2, $2.50 and $3 women's low shoes, the pair $1.25

OUTING BRINGS JOY TO MORE THAN 150 TOTS

More than 150 tots were taken in automobiles yesterday to Boynton Beach, where a bounteous luncheon was served, under the auspices of the Charities Organization Society. Forty quarts of ice cream, several hundred sandwiches, candy galore and oranges made up the menu. Riding on merry-go-rounds, swings and other innocent amusements made the time pass rapidly.

Miss Holly and Miss Phillips had a chaperone to accompany each car to look after the children and everything passed off pleasantly. The autos that took the guests to the beach were loaned by John A. Green, Clifford D. Manning, William Abbott, Francis L. Sill, William Sanford, W. R. Townsend, H. A. Todd, W. L. Smalley, Mrs. F. G. Mead, Fred Endress, Alexander Grosset, Ernest Sharp, J. Wolff, F. L. C. Martin, Mrs. Garrigues, Alex. Milne, A. E. Force, Thompson's Garage, R. H. McCullough, Dr. F. F. Wilcox.

A. M. Griffen loaned his auto truck, which became the commissary department. Ritz contributed forty quarts of ice cream.

Miss Holly, and her assistant Miss Mabel Phillips, and the Misses Phillips looked after the luncheon at the beach. The return trip was made via Perth Amboy. The outing is one of several that will be given during the summer to poor children.

The committee feel under obligations to Mrs. Alexander Milne, Mrs. H. C. Hood, A. Friend, M. C. VanArsdale, E. A. Laing and others for their assistance which enabled them to so generously entertain the children. The committee who had the affair in charge consisted of M. C. VanArsdale, Alexander Milne, W. L. Smalley, D. J. Carney, H. W. Marshall and H. A. Todd.

—Guzzler—"I was up with the lark this morning." Wigwag—"Kept it up all night, eh?"

ADVENTISTS READY FOR BIG MEETING

Camp Conventions' Daily Program of Devotional Exercises Begin Tomorrow.

The Seventh-Day Adventists, who have pitched their forty odd tents on Randolph road, will begin their daily program of public devotional services tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The subject of the first meeting will be "Inspiration of the Bible. Is It Still the Voice of God?"

The subjects for succeeding chief meetings will be as follows:

Friday evening — "The Second Coming of Christ. Will It Be a Literal Coming?"

Saturday evening — "Prophetic Outline of the World's History."

Sunday morning at 10:30—"Signs of the Times. Is It Practical?" 3:30 p. m., a temperance rally. 7:45, "Satan's Vacation: Where Spent, When and How Long Will It Be?"

Monday evening, July 1—"The Home of the Saved. Will We Know Each Other There?"

Tuesday evening, July 2—"The Divinity of Christ. Was Divinity and Humanity Combined In Him?"

Wednesday evening, July 3—"Spiritualism. By Whom Was the Foundation Laid?"

Thursday, July 4—3:00 p. m. "Liberty. What Does the Fourth of July Mean to Us?" 7:45, "The Law of God. Were the Commandments Abolished By Christ?"

Friday evening, July 5—"The Sabbath. Which Day Is the Christian Sabbath or the Lord's Day?"

Saturday evening, July 6—"Obedience. Is It the Passport of the Kingdom."

Sunday, July 7—10:45 a. m., "The Price of Our Redemption. Could God Have Done More?" 3:00 p. m., "The Arming of the Nations. What Does It Mean to This Generation?" 7:45, "The Worldwide Message. Is Its Work Nearly Finished?"

The sermons and illustrated Bible lectures will be in charge of A. R. Sandborn, president of the New Jersey Conference. He will be assisted by Elder B. G. Wilkinson, president of the Columbia Union Conference, Rev. F. M. Wilcox, Rev. R. A. Underwood, Dr. Menkle, medical missionary from India; Rev. W. H. Saith, of Newark; J. G. Hanhardt of Hackensack; W. G. Kneeland, of Jersey City; G. W. Spies, of Atlantic City, and M. C. Whitmarsh, of Camden, N. J.

The temperance rally on the program for Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock will be in charge of a number of well known local speakers. The public is cordially invited to attend any of the meetings. No admission will be charged and good music will be furnished.

The camp colony in this city is under the supervision of A. R. Sandborn and the daily routine of the camp is as follows: A. M. 5:30, rising bell; 6:00-6:45, devotional service, 7:00, district worship; children's meeting; 9:15-10:15, conference; 11:00-12:00, sermon; 12:30 dinner.

P. M.—2:30, Bible study; 4:00-5:00, children's meeting; young people's meeting; 6:00, supper 7:30, song service; 7:45, sermon; 9:30, retiring bell; 10:00, silence.

POETRY AND BEADS AT FEMININE CAMP FIRE

An open "ceremonial" meeting of the Camp Fire Girls, to whim guests were invited, brought about 40 people to the Y. W. C. A. building last evening. The members dressed in ceremonial dress of Indian style, led by Miss Bradshaw, the guardian of the Camp Fire, gathered around the fire place and laid and lit the fire as the words were repeated,

"The camp fire burns:
Come turn away
From cares and worries of the day.
Let your hearts glow,
Your spirits show
The mystic flame of Wo-he-lo."

The roll call was answered by each member repeating the law of the Camp Fire. Honors were then awrded, represented by different colored beads. After a short talk upon the law of the Camp Fire: "Seek Beauty; Give Service; Pursue Knowledge; Be Trustworthy; Hold On to Health; Glorify Work; Be Happy," by Miss Parmelee, the general secretary, and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting written in the style of Hiawatha by Clara Hallard, the Camp Fire songs were sung while the fire died down to embers.

The members of the Camp Fire, now organized, are Myrtie Feddermann, Ellen Doughty, Marion Doughty, Edna Green, Clara Hallard, Gertrude Mair, Marion Mair, Marguerite Penny, Ethel Blazier, Edith LaRue Betty Perrine, Mary Line, Elsie Van Denburg, Marjorite Burtis and Margaret Ewart.

All girls interested in the organization of other Camp Fires are asked to meet at the Y. W. C. A. building Saturday afternoon at 3:30.

—Some people can jump from the frying pan into the fire and find the fire out.

—Mr. Blunt—"That's a beautiful photograph of you, Miss Antique." Miss Antique—"Oh, you flatterer!" Mr. Blunt—"Yes, it doesn't look a bit like you."

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

It is barely possible that Sheppard, Thorp and Ryan will be unable to compete in the Olympic games as all three are suffering from attacks of rheumatism and sprains.

The American team is at present spending two days in training at Antwerp, Holland, and will leave there tomorrow for Stockholm.

The number of entries for this year's International games is the largest ever received.

Seventeen heats and two qualifying rounds will be necessary to reduce the field of starters in the 100 meter run.

One hundred men are entered in the 200 meter, twenty-eight in the 400 meter and seventy-two in the 800 meters.

It is surprising the lack of interest being shown in the Johson-Flynn fight carded for Independence Day.

This is a great contrast to the state of affairs which existed at Reno two years ago and the present outlook does not appear very bright for the financial reembursement of either fighter.

It now looks as though Louis Scott and other American starters in the 5,000 meter race at the Olympic next month will have to smash all records in order to win over Jean Bouin, the little Frenchman, who covered the distance in 15:03 2-5 in practice recently.

But on the other hand this is just what Scott wants. He is desirous of placing the 5,000 meter mark out of reach of all foreigners.

Physical Director Ostlin, of the local Y. M. C. A., is a busy man just at present cleaning up the final details for the big safe and sane fourth of July celebration scheduled for Parker Field.

He is advertising the event in all the surrounding cities and has just made arrangements with the Newark Bill Posting Co. to distribute posters in Westfield, Cranford, Elizabeth, New Brunswick and many other towns of like calibre throughout the state.

The handsome prizes offered in this affair have been placed on exhibition in the Ritz Company's show window and present a very attractive spectacle.

SLOCUM GETS A CALL TO LINE UP WITH NEWARK

Joe McGinnity Writes Twirler to Report Today—Lou in Shape.

Louis Slocum, one of Plainfield's two promising young twirlers, received a letter from Joe McGinnity, of the Newark International League team yesterday afternoon requesting him to report at once to that team. Slocum will go to Newark this afternoon and will probably be given a workout in one of the games with the Rochester team who are now playing a series in that city. McGinnity is slack on right handed pitchers just at present and Slocum may prove a valuable addition to his team. "Lou" is at his best now and says he is in shape to "show."

While doing the bow work for the McCully Brothers team in New York last August the Plainfield phenom was signed up by Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Athletics. After traveling around with the World's champions for some time he was farmed out to the York team of the Tri-State eLague, where he remained until recalled by Mack and sent to the Winston-Salem nine. After finishing the season under the management of this orgonization he went to Scranton where he captured two out of the three games he was started in. Slocum returned to this team again at the beginning of the present season but was handed a raw deal and left of this own accord. If McGinnity likes his work well enough, he will pay Scranton for his release.

Since leaving Scranton Slocum has been playing independent week-end ball with teams of this vicinity and has greatly improved both in speed and control. Slocum is an exceptional twirler in that he is nearly as proficient with his southpaw as he is with his right wing. He has the same assortment of benders with his alternate wing but his control is not quite as good.

CARTER, OF NASSAU, WINS JUNIOR DRIVING CONTEST

As a side attraction to the Metropolitan junior golf tourney at the Plainfield County Club yesterday afternoon a driving contest and an approaching and putting competition were held. Philip Carter, of Nassau, won the former event, covering 685 yards in three drives.

F. L. Dwyer, of Montclair, was the runner up in this event, getting a total distance of 662 yards. Connolly and A. D. Prentiss, of New Brunswick, tied in the approaching and putting event with 9 each. Connolly won the event in the play-off.

MRS. ROGERS WINS IN APPROACHING CONTEST

The one day tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association was held yesterday at the Essex County Country Club and the low gross was turned in by Mrs. W. J. Faith, of Wykagyl. She went the round in 92, while Mrs. Leo F. F. Wanner, of the home club, was the winner of the net award with a card of 99, 15-84. Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of Plainfield, won the second prize with 93, 8-85.

In the approaching and putting contest Mrs. C. F. Uebelacker, of Hackensack, and Mrs. N. P. Rogers, of Baltusrol, tied with a score of nine. Mrs. Rogers won the play-off with a score of ten.

WANT GAME.

The Royal Giants would like to arrange a game for Saturday, June 29, with some good team such as North Plainfield or Dunellen.

—The "pulling" powers of Press want advs. are unknown until tried

BATTERY OF THE WINNING TEAM WILL GET WATCHES

There will be a baseball game at Wayside Park on July 4 between two picked teams, one from this city and the other from Dunellen. Those in charge of the affair has offered two watches to be presented to the winning battery.

An athletic program has been arranged for the same day at the park and will include a 100 yard dash, 440 yard dash, and a one mile flat race for boys under eighteen years of age. Watches will be awarded as prizes to the first and second man in each event. Entries for the ball team and track events should be sent to T. N. Sisty at Bound Brook or Wayside Park.

There will be public dancing in the pavilion from eight to eleven o'clock on the same evening.

TALK OF NEW $5,000 SCHOOL IN DUNELLEN

The erection of a new $5,000 school on the site of the Lincoln School was tentatively discussed at an informal meeting of the Dunellen Board of Education in the home of Theodore W. Day, last night. The present school building is inadequate; lacks sufficient accommodation for the increasing number of pupils; and has been condemned by the Commissioners of Education as insufficiently ventilated and not conforming to the fire and sanitary regulations.

The feeling prevalent in the town is said to be that such a building is urgently needed and the Board feels confident that the necessary appropriation will be forthcoming and the new school ready for occupation in September, 1913. The matter will be brought up at the regular meeting on Tuesday night.

SWACKHAMER FAVORS PROGRESSIVE NOMINEE

One of the Democrats who keenly regrets his inability to attend the convention at Baltimore is former Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, who led the Democratic minority when he was in the House at Trenton. Business pressure keeps him home. He said today:

"I trust that the Democrats will nominate a progressive and thus give the country a president who will stand for true reform and represent the dominant sentiment of the American people. If a progressive is nominated he will be elected. If a reactionary he will and ought to be defeated.

"This is no time to parley with the agents of Wall street, or wink and smile at the trust magnates. With the Republican party now openly committed to the reign of the bosses, the corporations and the special interests, it is the plain duty of the Democratic party to go before the country on a purely progressive platform with a purely progressive candidate and restore the government to the people. A party is a means to an end and each member has a duty to discharge.

"What, when our time comes does it matter whether we have fared daintily or not, whether we have worn soft raiment or not, whether we leave a great fortune or nothing at all, whether we shall have reaped honors or been despised, have been counted learned or ignorant—as compared with how we may have used that talent, which has been entrusted to us for the Master's service

"What shall it matter when eyeballs glaze and ears grow dull, if out of the darkness may stretch a hand, and into the silence may come a voice: 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'"

T. R., OPTIMISTIC, IS IN CONFERENCE

Plans For New Party Are Informally Discussed.

WAITING FOR DEMOCRATS

Colonel Looks Well and Apparently Is Ready to Plunge Into Another Hard Campaign—Expects Help From Dissatisfied Progressives at Baltimore.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 26.—Theodore Roosevelt has arranged to meet with some of his active supporters today in the movement for a third party. Mr. Roosevelt says he never felt better and that he is ready to go to work at once on the new movement. To-day's conference will be an informal talk it is declared.

There will, however, be a halt, the colonel says, in his activities until the Democratic convention concludes its labors. All preliminary conferences of the organization committee will be postponed until that time. Meanwhile it is probable that the committee will be considerably enlarged, and the Roosevelt people make no secret of the fact that they are saving places therein for progressives who may become disgruntled at Baltimore.

"About the end of next week we will have our preliminary conference," said the colonel. "Exactly when I cannot say."

In hearing the latest news from the Baltimore convention the organizer of the new party was mightily interested.

"Good," said he when he learned of the stiff fight Bryan was putting up against the conservative wing of the party. "Things there look just about as they did with us in Chicago. The progressive Democrats must have a leader."

Like His Own Experience.

The colonel feels that his example at the Republican convention will not be lost upon his Democratic brethren. He believes that, as in Chicago, he was the only man "who would and could," so in Baltimore the same need for a patriot is felt. The closeness of the vote in the fight for temporary chairman drew from him another comparison with his own experience. Asked what he thought of Murphy's stand in this matter he shook his head.

"Under no circumstances will Murphy stand for Bryan, of that one thing you may be certain," he said.

Of the organization committee, some of whose names were published, he had this explanation to make: "That these men compose only a preliminary committee cannot be emphasized too strongly. It is in no sense a national executive committee, and it is not our purpose to force it upon a convention as such. No man mentioned thereon is bound to act on the committee which the convention itself will name. This is merely a committee to take up the tentative work of organization."

The pride of his perfect physical trim was strong in the colonel as he looked over the worn out company who returned with him.

"I feel fine," he boasted, and he ridiculed the reports that he was used up and nervous over the outcome. Even in Chicago he had not been the least so, he said.

"Why, there was never any uncertainty as far as I was concerned," he went on to explain. "Indeed I was the least concerned. If the convention had purged itself of the fraudulently seated delegates and given me the nomination I was ready to take it. Otherwise I was prepared to take the step I have taken."

HILLES NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.

He Likely Will Manage Campaign of President Taft.

Washington, June 26.—That Charles D. Hilles, secretary to the president and former assistant secretary of the treasury, will be made chairman of the Republican national committee and thus manage the Republican campaign was all but officially announced by Representative W. B. McKinley of Illinois, the Taft preconvention manager, after a long conference with the president.

Mr. McKinley stated that the executive committee of nine members of the national committee will arrive in Washington next Monday for a conference with the president concerning the chairmanship. It was practically agreed by the committee before separating at Chicago that the president's choice should be recognized. Mr. Hilles is his choice.

Progressive Party In Louisiana.

New Orleans, June 26.—The organization of the new National Progressive party in Louisiana will be undertaken immediately, according to an announcement by J. Thilberger, Roosevelt delegate to the Chicago convention. A systematic campaign will be made, he says.

Flinn a Prophet.

Pittsburgh, June 26.—Home from the stirring times at the Chicago convention, William Flinn, ardent Roosevelt man and erstwhile member of the Republican national committee from Pennsylvania, heatedly declared, "Taft will be defeated."

WITH BRYAN OUT, CLARK LEADING IN BATTLE FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

Kern May Be Permanent Chairman.

CONCESSION TO BRYAN

"Peerless One's" Strength Not Underestimated.

ON RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Parker Suggests Him For Chairman---Strong Efforts Being Made to Hold Bryan Followers In Line.

Baltimore, June 26.—It was anybody's race for the Democratic presidential nomination when the national convention was called to order for its second day's session shortly after noon today. Kern, James and Culberson are regarded as likely candidates for the permanent chairmanship. Although Champ Clark leads in the race for the nomination, there is renewed talk of Governor Harmon, Governor Wilson and Mayor Gaynor of New York.

It is the purpose of the conservatives to take advantage of a weak spot in the armor of Mr. Bryan by proposing to him that Senator John W. Kern of Indiana be made permanent chairman. By making this concession they figure upon evading any danger of a bolt on the part of Mr. Bryan in the event of further defeat.

Bryan was overthrown by a vote of 579 to 510. The naming of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman was the issue on which Mr. Bryan's downfall came.

Progressives In Saddle.

The balloting demonstrated that the Democratic convention will be controlled by progressives, and the likelihood is that a so called progressive will be named for president. In the opinion of many of the Democratic leaders the situation has now narrowed down to Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson, with Mayor Gaynor of New York as a possible compromise in the event of a deadlock.

ALTON B. PARKER.

While Judge Parker and his friends were able to muster a sufficient number of votes to bring about his election to the temporary chairmanship, many radicals voted for him because they were frightened at the idea of Bryan again becoming the party's nominee. These votes, added to the 506 that were cast for Bryan, indicates that the Democrats of radical tendencies are firmly seated in the saddle.

To Champ Clark is due in a large measure the credit for the defeat of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Clark threw as much of his stength as he was able to muster against the Nebraska delegate and his old time friend. The speaker did this because he was satisfied that if Bryan carried the fight for the chairmanship he would dominate the convention and be the party's nominee.

Clark Leads In Race.

The conservatives who advanced the candidacy of Judge Parker openly acknowledge their debt to Mr. Clark, and Mr. Bryan is just as keenly alive to the hostile attitude that the speaker has assumed toward him.

What the effect of the developments will be upon the Clark book is uncertain. Many believe the speaker has placed the conservatives of the party so strongly under obligations to him that they will be obliged to throw their strength to him after the first few ballots in the convention.

If Clark can hold his present strength of about 450 delegates and New York swings to him his nomination probably will be assured. The impetus given to the Clark movement by New York's big block of delegates will, it is expected, attract more to bring his total up to the necessary 728 votes.

BRYAN NAMING KERN.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Parker Is Kind to Bryan.

Baltimore, June 26.—The feature of last night's session of the convention was the speech of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman. The crowds assembled slowly, and the convention was a half hour late in getting down to business. Even then the attendance of the public was small, less than a fourth of the gallery space being filled.

William J. Bryan did not attend. He had an engagement to attend a fraternal gathering and had some work with the resolutions subcommittee.

Judge Parker was cheered mildly as he ascended the platform from which he was to address the convention. Later on being introduced he was greeted with an enthusiastic demonstration. This was increased, and the convention showed a growing friendly feeling for the temporary presiding officer when he complimented Mr. Bryan, asked the indulgence of the convention for his late adversary and urged the convention to honor Mr. Bryan with the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions.

The session was opened by the Rev. H. D. Davis, pastor of the First Congregational church of Baltimore, who prayed for peace and brotherly forbearance and then asked the convention to join him in repeating the Lord's prayer.

"We have had a little tiff here today," said Chairman Parker, "but nothing was said to hurt the feelings of anybody."

The temporary chairman ended his speech at 9:15 p. m., and the work of making a permanent organization was quickly finished. It became evident that the delegates do not want this convention to be a long drawn out affair. When Chairman Parker announced that the standing committee would meet at 10 o'clock this morning there was a yell of protest, and a Michigan delegate shouted an objection and moved that the credentials committee meet immediately after the adjournment of the convention. Judge Parker lost the motion in the confusion and called down:

"I can't hear you."

"Oh, yes, you can," said the Michigander. "Just try a little harder. Don't keep us here a week. We have no perquisites to pay our board."

On a viva voce vote, the committees were ordered to get busy.

A motion to adjourn the convention until 2 p. m., today was knocked out. The delegates got the time set for noon and cheered over their success. The convention adjourned at 9:35 p. m.

An Analysis of the Vote.

Baltimore, June 26.—The Clark interests may be overplaying the obligation that they think they have put the anti-progressive leaders under by delivering votes to them for the election of Judge Parker. It will be observed from a study of the tabulated vote that Parker received the votes of practically all the instructed delegations to the convention except those pledged to Governor Wilson and to Speaker Clark. Of the Wilson vote Parker got little and of the Clark vote he only got about one-half.

Idaho, Kansas and Montana, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Washington and Wyoming cast practically their entire votes on the Bryan side. Iowa, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Mexico and West Virginia split nearly even, and in Kentucky, California and Clark's own state of Missouri Bryan got approximately a third of the delegates.

As indicative of the uncertainty of the whole situation, it can be stated that Murphy has issued a positive order to the New York state delegates not to adorn themselves with the buttons or badges of any candidate and not to join in the shouting for any one of them. He will tell them when he is ready to have them show his hand.

Vice presidential talk is idle at this time. That must be determined after the presidential candidate has been agreed upon by those who can control. The conservative or progressive character of the head of the ticket must determine the sort of a running mate he shall have. The section of the country from which the presidential nominee comes from must determine the section from which the man for the second place must come.

Names that are suggested in connection with the vice presidency are those of Senator O'Gorman of New York, Congressman William Sulzer of New York and Governor Dix of New York. Governor Marshall of Indiana and Governor Burke of North Dakota are urged in case the presidential nomination goes to the east. The only active candidates are Congressman Redfield of Brooklyn and Mayor Preston of Baltimore.

Others who have received some attention are Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Francis Burton Harrison of New York, ex-Governor William L. Douglas of Massachusetts, ex-Governor J. A. Montague of Virginia, Clark Howell of Georgia, Josephus Daniels of North Carolina, ex-Governor Folk of Missouri, Senator Culberson of Texas, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Mayor Gaynor.

Rules Committee Meets.

Baltimore, June 26.—The committee on rules of the national convention organized by electing Representative J. Harry Covington of Maryland as chairman. A subcommittee was appointed to prepare a draft of rules for the government of the convention. It will report today.

Mr. Baldwin of Montana offered a resolution looking to the abolition of the two-thirds rule, but to take effect at the next convention and not to apply at this convention. Mr. Baldwin said the old rule of Democratic conventions had become obsolete.

Representatives of the Ohio delegates, nineteen in number, who are pledged to Woodrow Wilson and elected at the primary, will be heard to present resolutions why the unit rule sought to be imposed upon them should not be applied in favor of Governor Harmon. Mayor Baker of Cleveland was present and made the request for the hearing.

Joseph E. Bell of Indiana was elected chairman of the committee on credentials. The commitee did not pass on any of the contested cases on which the national committee acted in making up the temporary roll. These will all be taken up today.

Convention Is Opened.

Baltimore, June 26.—The convention assembled for its first day's session with a noticeable absence of cheering. A pin point rain hurried the great crowd into the armory. The prediction of Whortleberry Skinner, a famous prophet of weather in these parts, went all to pieces and instead of there being a fine bright day for the great Democratic show it was sultry and wet. Baltimore was like a Turkish bath with a leaking ceiling.

Long before 11 o'clock early comers speckled the yellow galleries. Delegates and visitors dawdled in as if they had all the time in the world. Poor arrangements at the entrances slowed up the crowd. As they lagged in their seats they took in the decorations and the arrangements of the big hall.

Norman E. Mack, chairman of the national committee, stepped into the speaker's railed inclosure at 12:07 p. m. Mr. Mack looked around the hall and then went up and greeted Cardinal Gibbons. Then Mack escorted the cardinal into the chairman's inclosure.

Mack lifted his big gavel, crooked his elbow and came down on a table made solid for the purpose with a bang. There was some disorder, the aisles being jammed. The chairman of the national committee pushed his voice into the hubbub with, "The convention will now come to order."

Tom Smith of Tammany Hall, who has one of the finest carrying voices in the Democratic party, stepped to the front of the platform and read the call for the convention. Words shot from his lips like bullets from a gatling gun.

Then Cardinal Gibbons made the prayer.

Uproar Is Started.

The instant the appeal for divine guidance was over the uproar started again. The Bryanites were up and doing. Their cheers for the Nebraskan angered the Parker people, who shouted angrily at them. Mr. Mack again ordered the aisles to be cleared, but it was a fruitless effort. Tom Taggart began to shout orders to the assistant sergeant at arms. In an interval of quiet Smith, the reading clerk, rattled off the list of officers chosen by the national committee, and heading the list was the name of Alton B. Parker.

The band promptly broke loose with "Oh, You Great Big Beautiful Doll," and the whole convention laughed out loud. With Parker's name the battle was on. Charles F. Murphy's block of ninety from New York raised a yell for the judge. Roger Sullivan raised his bunch of fifty-eight from Illinois, and Taggart's lieutenants woke up the Hoosiers.

Bryan Names Them.

Bryan set himself for the battle. There was no smile on his face. His mouth was hard and his prominent chin stuck out as if carved in granite. There was a glint in his eye as he glanced rapidly over the massed delegation. His grenadiers commenced to cheer. Texas, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Nebraska leaped up and roared for their champion. Mr. Bryan waved a protesting hand, but he could have spared himself the trouble, for the "hooray" died out rapidly. New York, Illinois and Indiana sat as cold as ice.

Bryan's voice rang out suddenly as clear and vibrant as the stroke of a bell. He named John W. Kern, United States senator from Indiana, to oppose Judge Parker for the temporary chairmanship. But Kern's name didn't wake up the Indiana delegates. Taggart had attended to that. Mr. Bryan went on quietly to speak, holding a palm leaf fan in his right hand and gripping the rail of the speaker's box with his left. His chin was well up and forward, and his great voice reached out to every far corner of the great hall.

Mr. Bryan declared that the national committee is not supreme in the party and that as the champion of the party in previous campaigns he had a right to talk. He spoke of the enemies he had made.

After Mr. Bryan had concluded his eloquent appeal a bombshell was thrown into the convention when Senator Kern took the platform and declined the nomination. He said:

"I desire to state my reasons for not desiring to enter this contest for temporary chairman. I believe that by forty years of service to the party I have earned the right to a hearing by a Democratic convention. I hail from the state of Indiana, which will shortly present a candidate for the presidency in the person of Governor Marshall.

"I desire to take no part in the convention that will hurt Mr. Marshall's interests. I believe Judge Parker is as earnestly desirous of Democratic success this year as I am. There are 7,000,000 Democrats between the oceans. They are all looking with aching hearts toward us, waiting for the word that will mean victory."

Kern Puts It Up to Bryan.

Kern presented the name of Bryan for temporary chairman. Bryan accepted the nomination.

Theodore Bell of California took the platform. He declared that he would cast his vote for Parker. He was interrupted by spasmodic calls from various parts of the hall for Bryan.

Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of New York took the platform to reply for Judge Parker.

Congressman Fitzgerald was forced to sit down owing to constant interruptions. Bryan pleaded for order so that the proceedings would go on.

35,000 Books Saved From a Bindery Fire

Form the Basis of This

Mighty Book Sale

The thousands of books that go into the sale we begin tomorrow escaped the flames that badly damaged a big bindery,, but the books were only slightly injured by smoke and water, and in some cases the hurts are not apparent. At the time of the blaze there were stacked in this book bindery quantities of the most popular publications, issued from the presses of the biggest publishing houses.

With these books from the bindery blaze we are going to combine some publishers' remainders which will add interest to the sale, and give you wide choice of books for light summer reading, as well as heavier books with which to stock your library.

Books from Appleton, Harper Bros., McMillan Co., Winston, Houghton Mifflin Co., Hurst & Co., A. L. Burt and others of equal renown.

NOTE THIS FACT—The great depreciation in value in consequence of this fire is purely a commercial matter; the books themselves, that part of a book that is everything to a booklover, is all here. A little smell of smoke does not lessen your interest in the pretty love dialogue, nor does it make poetry less poetic, nor an epigram less witty, nor a story any less of a story.

The only way to tell you what is in this vast purchase of books is not to tell you at all—except to say:

35,000 BOOKS---OF ALL KINDS

ASSORTED INTO SIX BIG LOTS—PRICED

Good Summer reading, all of them—splendid fiction by the best authors, the values being double, triple and quadruple the selling price. There are many instances where you can buy books for one-tenth of what they were originally priced.

To add interest to the sale and give you the widest assortment of subjects and titles we have added to the purchase a number of Publishers' small lots, of popular novels, etc.

PROCLAMATION IF PIERCE LAW IS KILLED BY COURT

Trenton, June 26 (Special).—Presenting 420 new statutes and 10 joint resolutions, the "Pamphlet Laws of 1912," will be ready for distribution next week. The index was completed yesterday and the final sheets sent to the printer. It is the largest volume of State laws issued in several years, containing more than 1,000 pages.

The feature of the book will be the Pierce grade crossing law, so-called. The question of whether this bill really became a law is still pending in the Supreme Court. The measure will appear in the volume of statutes just as it is pending before the Court. It will bear the unusual title of "Assembly Committee Substitute for Senate committee substitute for Senate bill No. 14." This is the official title of the measure as it left the hands of the lawmakers. It is a novelty to print in the pamphlet laws the designation on a bill and it is only done in this case because the law is in litigation. The printed volume will also contain copies of the jurats attached to the bill and of all the stamps of certification placed upon the margin of the measure by the clerks of the two Houses.

The bill having been published as a State law, if the Supreme Court shall declare that it did not properly become a law, it will be necessary for Governor Wilson to issue a proclamation to the effect that the measure is void, and of no effect.

The volume will contain a new feature this year which will be changes in the corporate title of cities, required to be published under a law of 1911. Such changes are filed with the Secretary of State There are two published this year The title of "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Paterson" is changed to "the City of Paterson." The other change is that of "The Mayor, Clerk and Common Council of the City of Beverly" to "the City of Beverly."

CHURCH GIRLS' CLUB HOLD SUCCESSFUL BERRY FESTIVAL

The strawberry festival given under the auspices of the Girls' Club of St. Stephen's church, at the parish house last evening, turned out very successfully, considering the weather. The interior of the house was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and a profusion of flowers, the color scheme being red and white.

Louise Clarke furnished the music, and dancing was enjoyed by the younger people. Mrs. W. E. Ward, of Truell Hall, delighted all with a number of songs.

The affair was held under the supervision of Mrs. Robert H. McCready, of Denmark Road, assisted by Miss Phillips.

The proceeds realized will go to the piano fund. The committee in charge consisted of the Misses Helen Crook, Marie Bremble, Carrie Berrup and Laura Christensen. The girls of the club desire to thank all those who so willingly gave their help and assistance.

JUNIOR EPWORTH LEAGUE ON ITS ANNUAL PICNIC

The Junior Epworth League of the First M. E. church enjoyed its annual picnic yesterday, spending the day on the Pound estate, situated along Greenbrook, west of Clinton avenue. There were seventy-two children and older people in the party making the trip from the church in a special trolley car. The day was spent playing all kinds of games, paddling and sailing boats on the brook and playing baseball. At noon all sat down to a bountiful lunch and as dessert Ritz served ice cream cones. Lolly-pops were also given to the children.

Mrs. Arthur E. Crone, as superintendent of the league, was in charge and she was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. David S. Dunavan, Miss Ethel Prior, Miss Hazel Moore, Miss Zeta Voorhees, Mrs. A. P. Atwood, Mrs. Augustus Rose and Miss Marietta Cass.

HURRY ALONG!

IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY

AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $447,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

JOHN O'BRIEN, JR., MOSQUITO CHIEF

Former Health Officer Appointed Inspector by Union County Commission.

BEGIN EXTERMINATION

County Appropriates $28,000 For War Against the Skeeter and District Inspectors Are Already at Work—Elizabeth as Headquarters.

John O'Brien, Jr., formerly health officer of Plainfield, and now temporarily filling that position until his successor is appointed, has been appointed chief inspector for the Union County Mosquito Extermination Commission, with headquarters at 25 Rahway avenue, Elizabeth. Mr. O'Brien was appointed a member of the commission recently, and last week he resigned that position, it being understood that he was to receive the position of chief inspector. He was engaged in a similar work at Montclair eight years ago and is therefore familiar with the duties.

The work in Union county is now well underway. The county appropriated $28,000 for the work, but it is not expected that all of this will be expended this year. The county is divided into six districts and there are eighteen inspectors working under the direction of Mr. O'Brien.

The local inspectors are Russell Miller, of Union street, and John Kilpatrick, of the West End. They have been busy oiling catch basins, pools and other places where mosquitoes are likely to breed.

Thus far Essex and Union counties are the only ones in the state that have taken up this work, but it is expected that others will soon adopt a similar course and that in time the state will be pretty well rid of the pestiferous insects that make life so miserable.

MATTHEW MURSCO WEDS MISS HELEN V. POWERS

Miss Helen Virginia Powers and Matthew William Mursco, of this city, were married at St. Mary's R. C. church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, with a high nuptial mass. Father B. M. Bogan, the pastor, performed the ceremony. Miss Agnes DeCamp, of this city, was the maid of honor, and Lawrence P. Powers, brother of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were Frank J. Casey and Frank P. Cullen.

The bride wore a gown of white messaline with a tulle veil and she carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and orange blossoms. The maid of honor was gowned in white silk and wore a picture hat. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harry Powers, of Sunbury, Pa. Miss Mary Smith, organist of St. Mary's church, played the wedding march as the pridal party entered the church.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother in the apartments on Madison avenue, when a wedding breakfast was served. There were about fifty relatives and friends present. The rooms were attractively decorated with the season's flowers. The bride received a large collection of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Mursco left yesterday afternoon for a wedding trip. They will reside at 89 Westervelt avenue, after July 15. The bridegroom is in the employ of the Mathusek Piano Company on West Front street, and both he and the bride have many friends in this city.

TROLLEY STATION ON P. S. C. TRACT

Council May Ask Company to Build a Loop on Watchung Avenue Property.

FOR STREET WIDENING

Plans and Proposed Ordinances to Be Considered at August Meeting of City Fathers—Other Matters Considered.

The question of widening Madison avenue and Somerset street, between Front street and the borough line, and East Second street, between Watchung avenue and Church street, was discussed at a meeting of the Councilmanic street committee last night. At the last meeting of the Common Council resolution were adopted authorizing that steps be taken to make these improvements. Plans are now being drafted and they will be completed and proposed ordinances presented so that a public hearing can be granted at the regular August meeting of the Common Council.

Some time was also devoted to a consideration of trolley improvements. It has been suggested that the Public Service Corporation build a loop on its property on Watchung avenue, opposite Fourth street, thereby removing from a public thoroughfare the trolley station which is now considered undesirable. The committee has a number of other changes to suggest, all tending to improve local trolley conditions. These will be made known a little later. The company, acting upon the suggestion of Councilman F. L. Holt, has had large signs placed on the local trolleys indicating the line upon which they are operated.

The rest of the evening was devoted to considering minor street improvements. Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett was voted a two weeks' vacation to be taken at his convenience.

OVER 1,200 EXCURSIONISTS ENJOYING DAY AT ASBURY

The first of the season's weekly excursions from Plainfield to Asbury Park took place today, the outing being participated in by the members of nine churches and one chapel. The Sunday-schools represented include Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, Grace, Holy Cross, St. Stephen's, Church of the Heavenly Rest, Seventh-Day Baptist and Bethel chapel, of this city; Seventh-Day Baptist and Baptist, of New Market, and Dunellen Presbyterian churches. There were over 1,200 excursionists.

There were two sections of fifteen coaches each. The first section, which was made up of a solid vestibule train, was filled to the limit. When the second section left Plainfield there were eight empty coaches, but it was expected that at least two or three coaches would be taken by the members and friends of St. Stephen's church. It was after 8:30 o'clock when the trains got away.

AUTO APPARATUS FOR FIRE DEP'T

PROPOSITION FAVORED

Chemical Engine Being Changed Into Motor-drawn Vehicle Will Be Ready in Less Than a Month—Want Competent Driver.

The Councilmanic fire and building committee at its meeting, last night, received a proposition from the International Motor Company, of this city, to make use of a motor power combination fire engine and hose wagon on a rental basis. The apparatus was turned out by the company in the Switzerland plant and is said to be an especially fine one. Recently, it has been on exhibition in New York.

The committee considered the matter and provided the rental is not too high, it likely will be recommended to the Common Council that some agreement be made with the concern.

A report was received concerning the chemical engine which is now being changed into a motor-driven apparatus by the International Motor Company, that it would be ready in about three weeks. The work is being done at the Allentown, Pa., plant of the company. When this is installed the committee plans to dispose of four horses. The question of having a thoroughly competent man to drive the chemical engine was also discussed, it being realized that it would not do to place anyone inexperienced on the apparatus.

The committee also decided to have extension telephones placed on the first floors of the different firehouses so as to save time in case of receiving an alarm by 'phone. At present it is necessary for the men on duty to go to the second floor, unless there happens to be some one on that floor.

MORGAN T. TOWNSEND WEDS WESTERN GIRL

Morgan Taylor Townsend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Townsend, of North Plainfield, and Miss Iva M. Wright, daughter of John A. Wright, of Denver, Col., were married yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Cramer in Breckenridge, Col. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends. A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Lancaster, at Leadville, Col.

Mr. Townsend holds an excellent position with the Stearnes-Rogers Company, agents for the Ingersoll Rand Company, at Denver, and he and his bride will be "at home" in the Park Avenue Apartments, Denver, after August 1.

Elmer E. Runyon, of Madison avenue, who has been quite ill at his home for a few weeks, was reported today as being slightly improved.

FABER TRIAL IN PROGRESS TODAY

Autoist Accused of Killing Peter Murray, is Before Court.

REED DEFENDS FABER

Case Will Probably Not Be Finished Until Late This Afternoon—Chamberlain, Kiely and Dr. Lufburrow Among Witnesses.

Elizabeth, June 27 (Special).—Charles E. Faber, of North Plainfield, is on trial in the Court of Quarter Sessions before Judge E. S. Atwater and a jury, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Peter Murray, of Fanwood. Murray, who was employed by the Edison Electric Company, of New York, was fatally injured by Mr. Faber's automobile, while walking from the Fanwood station to his home on November 19, 1911. He died in Muhlenberg Hospital a few hours later.

The January Grand Jury did not indict Mr. Faber, but the May body found a bill against him. For this reason former State Senator Charles A. Reed, counsel for Mr. Faber, moved to have the indictment quashed when the latter was arraigned on June 3. The request was denied by Judge Atwater, who gave Mr. Faber the privilege of renewing the motion at the opening of the trial.

A civil suit was also instituted against Mr. Faber by Mrs. Murray, widow of the dead man, and this will be heard at the October term of court. Mayor G. W. V. Moy represents Mr. Faber in this suit, while William N. Runyon is counsel for Mrs. Murray.

Three witnesses were examined during the morning by the prosecution. They were Eugene Chamberlin, of Westfield, who, it is said, met Mr. Faber on the road the night of the accident; Chief of Police P. S. Kiely and Dr. C. B. Lufburrow. The last named testified that Mr. Murray's death was due to hemorrhage and a rupture of the kidneys. It is doubtful whether the trial will be finished before late this afternoon.

CHIEF'S AUTO IS A REGULAR HOODOO

Same Wheel Has Collapsed Twice Since New Machine Started in Service.

Chief Doane is having extraordinary ill luck with his "E. M. F." runabout. Two weeks ago when rounding a corner at Fifth street and Watchung avenue the car skidded and shed a wheel. Since then it has been in the hands of the repairer. Last night a similar calamity befell it.

In response to a telephone message that the house of Frederick Thomas, 714 Richmond street, was on fire, Chief Doane, with "Dan" Keiderling at the wheel, started off at a merry clip. When rounding the curb at Watchung avenue and Seventh street the car skidded and the same wheel collapsed. Both occupants were shaken up, but escaped without injury. "Dan" was considerably perturbed that the accident should have happened while he was at the helm, as it is the first mishap he has ever experienced in the capacity of chauffeur. Chief Doane is of opinion that the removal of the tonneau which has lightened the runabout considerably and the substitution of the box is responsible for the car's tendency to skid.

The cause of the fire was the ignition of a lace curtain which had been placed too near a gas jet. When Fire Company, No. 2, arrived the flames had been subdued, and with the exception of the destruction of the lace curtain no further damage was done.

P. O. OF A. ENTERTAINMENT.

NO PROSPECT FOR LOWER MEAT PRICES

Local Retailers Say Everyone Wants Best Cuts, Holding up Rates.

Local consumers will have to pay a cent or two more for their beef, which during the past week in New York and elsewhere has jumped to prices unknown since the Civil War. At present the prices are almost at famine rates and there does not seem any likelihood of a decrease. Scarcity of beef cattle is the reason given by packers for the wholesale advance. Lamb has also gone up and pork is expected to follow.

The prevailing prices according to quality among retail butchers are: Porterhouse, 30 to 38; sirloin, 28 to 35; roast of beef, 23 to 30; lamb chops, 25 to 35; stew beef, 18 to 25; pork chops, 24 to 26; roast chickens, 25 to 32.

Retailers in order to prevent financial loss will have to advance their prices for the higher grade of meat.

According to a local dealer there is a shortage of half a million of cattle in comparison with last year. At present the grass cattle are of poor quality and command little or no demand. Of course later he expected the better class of grass cattle to reduce the prices; but from the outlook he did not see what was going to make good beef at a reasonable figure this year.

Retailers also blame the consumers for the high prices. They say that everybody wants a choice cut with the result that butchers have difficulty in disposing of the inferior parts of the beef and they have to look to the better portions for their profits.

ARROWSMITH PROBABLY RELEASED TOMORROW

In the matter of the Liscomb estate, from which James L. Arrowsmith has been ousted as executor, and Ralph Lum, of Newark, appointed as administrator, there was a further conference today between the counsellors for the parties, and it was reported that as a result Arrowsmith would be liberated tomorrow. About three weeks ago Arrowsmith was lodged in Elizabeth jail in default of a $15,000 bond demanded by an order from the Court of Chancery. John Caswell Heine is lawyer for the heirs of the estate and Arrowsmith is represented by H. P. Davidson. Both counsellors have left for Trenton today to have the order from the Court of Chancery vacated.

PERFORMERS TO PARADE.

Permission has been secured from Mayor Moy and Mayor Clark to hold a street parade of the harmless "Injuns," who will participate in the "Indian Legend of Watchung" spectacle, through the streets of Plainfield on Friday and Saturday evenings about 6 o'clock.

DR. YOOD WEDDED TO MISS NEWCORN

3 RABBIS OFFICIATED

Ceremony at Home of Her Father Attended by 75 Friends—Miss Rose Finkelstein, of New York, Maid of Honor.

Miss Netta Newcorn, daughter of Judge William Newcorn, and Dr. Raphael Yood, of 413 Central avenue, were married at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's father, 920 West Front street, in the presence of about seventy-five relatives and friends from New York, Brooklyn, Bayonne and this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Davidson and Rev. Dr. Martine, of the Eighty-sixth street Temple, New York city, assisted by Rabbi Yood, of Boston, father of the bridegroom.

The bride was charming in an attractive gown of white charmeuse, trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. She carried white bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Rose Finkelstein, of New York, the maid of honor, wore a gown of white satin with an overdress of green chiffon. She carried pink roses. The best man was Dr. John Kline, of Bayonne.

The ceremony was performed in the conservatory, beneath a large canopy of choice flowers. The front porch was also elaborately decorated with American flags. Following congratulations, the bridal party and the guests retired to the spacious lawn where a wedding breakfast was served beneath a large tent. Afterward the young people enjoyed dancing until a late hour. The music for the wedding and reception was furnished by an orchestra from New York. The bride received a large collection of costly gifts from relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Yood left last night for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in this city, where the bridegroom has been a practising physician for the past two years. He received his academic, collegiate and medical education in England.

ATTENDED A WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Armstrong, of Duer street, have returned from Camden, where on Tuesday morning they attended the wedding of their nephew, Wynn Armstrong, and Miss Agnes West, both of Camden. The wedding took place at the Presbyterian church, Camden, the pastor officiating, assisted by Rev. Lyall, pastor of the Baptist church, that city. The bridegroom is a son of Judge E. A. Armstrong.

F. E. Smith, of Central avenue, who recently underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital, has returned home cured.

CONTESTS CAUSE HALT

(American Press Association.)

Baltimore, June 27.—In all probability the Democratic National Convention will not get down to the business of naming its presidential candidate before late tonight, or possibly tomorrow. When the convention got under way at 12:45 today, the credentials committee handed in a report on the twelve seats in South Dakota, which are claimed by both the Wilson and Clark adherents, and in order to test out the relative strength of the two, a vote is being taken on the report of the credentials committee which seated the Clark delegates. The test vote being taken is to decide whether the report of the credentials committee seating the Clark delegates shall stand. After the test vote, there are other reports of the committee to be decided, and then the work of making the nominating speeches, of which there are many, will be started.

There are ten Wilson votes at stake on the South Dakota contest, and possibly twenty-one Wilson votes involved in an Illinois factional row. Mr. Bryan is leading the battle on the floor of the Convention today for the seating of the South Dakotans, and may also take a hand in the Credentials Committee's report on the Illinois contest. He advised the South Dakota Wilson delegates not to accept a compromise by which they might be given half a vote each, which was suggested.

Baltimore, Md., June 27.—The Democratic National Convention is drawing to a close, but it will probably be tomorrow or maybe even Saturday before it is known who will be the standard bearers of the party.

The first ballot for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for the Presidency is likely to come tonight. When the last ballot will be reached and who will be named thereon are matters of utter speculation and doubt even for those in supposed control of the situation. Almost never in the history of the party has there been a roll so open and a field so evenly matched. A nomination upon the first ballot is an impossibility. And not until the drift of delegates sets in can the leaders in the two camps, conservative and progressive, frame any definite plans.

Champ Clark is still the leading candidate with a nominal strength of about 400 votes. But his position has weakened considerably in the last few days.

The progressive movement has pretty well centered upon Woodrow Wilson in the last few days. Yet the

IT LOOKS LIKE WILSON, WIRES W. L. SAUNDERS.

In response to a request from this paper for his opinion regarding the situation and the probable result of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, where he is doing what he can for Woodrow Wilson, former Mayor William L. Saunders sent the following telegram as the convention adjourned at midnight:

Baltimore, Md., June 26.
To the Plainfield Daily Press:

It looks more like Wilson tonight than at any time since the convention assembled. Every influential member of the New York delegation admits that the nominee should be a pronounced Progressive. All of the candidates who are regarded as Conservatives are eliminated because Bryan's friends are determined to stand against all who helped to humiliate him and Bryan's influence is strong enough to block any unfriendly nomination.

Clark is Wilson's only dangerous opponent. As he is a weak man New York's delegates would prefer him to Wilson but they fear he cannot carry New York. Clark's instructed delegates are likely to shift to Wilson after the second ballot. I expect to see Wilson's strength grow after first ballot.

WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS.

NEW PROVIDENCE'S BIG JULY 4 CELEBRATION

Independence Day in New Providence is to be conducted this year in a safe and sane manner. The principal celebration of the day will start at 9:30 a. m., when a parade will be held. The paraders will form at Springfield avenue and Passaic street. The line of march will be down Springfield avenue to Lackawanna Park, countermarch to South street to the Episcopal church at South street and Central avenue, then countermarch again on South street and return to Springfield avenue, where the paraders will halt in front of the Methodist church. There they will be reviewed by Mayor Thomas P. Crane and his staff.

The order of the parade, which will be in charge of Marshal Horace B. Guerin and aides, will be as follows: Mayor Thomas P. Crane and borough officials, Crescent Brass Band, New Providence Fire Department, Starry Flag Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., New Providence Gun Club, decorated baby carriages, baseball team, comic and grotesque section, Independent Berkeley Heights Italian Club, cornet band, Berkeley Heights Fire Department, mounted squad, decorated horses, carriages, and automobiles.

Following the parade, patriotic exercises will be held in the New Providence Methodist church, where Dr. Willis Fletcher Johnson will deliver the oration of the day.

In the afternoon athletic sports will be held, which will consist of ten events, the most prominent of which will be a tug-of-war between ten men of the borough and ten of the township. Baseball will be played during the day between the New Providence A. A., the Gillette B. B C., and the Berkeley Heights A. C. At night a band concert will be held at Passaic Oval, in conjunction with illustrated songs and stereopticon views.

PEDESTRIAN IS KILLED BY FALLEN LIVE WIRE

Madison, June 27.—George Hock, a teamster, of 64 Lathrop avenue, was killed yesterday morning by a live wire while on his way to work. It is thought that in passing the wire which had fallen, he kicked it. A foreigner attempted to pull the man from the wire and was thrown into the air by the shock, but received no injuries.

The accident occurred on the sidewalk in front of the Arthur M. Decker residence, on Loantaka way. Much trouble has resulted in different parts of the borough from falling wires. The wires have never been renewed since the installation of the municipal electric plant, twenty-one years ago. Several months ago the electric plant was given a general overhauling and new machinery was installed, but no attention was given to the wires except to authorize the placing underground of 600 feet of strand in Waverly place.

The Rev. C. M. Anderson will speak at the Rescue Mission tonight at 8 o'clock.

AGAIN SOLUTION OF ELLIS SHOOTING MYSTERY LOOMS

Basking Ridge, June 27.—The return to Bernardsville of Judge Thomas A. Jones, former district attorney of Nashville, is believed to mean that the mysterious shooting of Monroe F. Ellis, November 20 last, is about to be solved.

As told, Mr. Ellis was seated at the dinner table with his family in their home near here when he was shot, the bullet having been fired through the window by an unidentified person.

Mr. Ellis, who is president of the Conkling Lumber Company at Bernardsville, was in a critical condition for some time after the shooting.

All sorts of clues were followed for some time without result. Early in January last Mr. Ellis offered a reward of $1,000 for information that would lead to the arrest and conviction of his assailant. A short time after that a Bernardsville man, who said he had reason to believe he was suspected, denounced those who entertained such a notion.

Until today no further publicity was given to the case.

At the time of the shooting Judge Jones and John A. Roebling, whose home is near that of Ellis', interested themselves in the case.

It is understood that they are both at work now on some important developments and that a New York detective has been called in.

All sorts of theories as to the cause for the shooting were made public soon after the crime was committed. It was thought Mr. Ellis was shot by an enemy from San Antonio, Tex., where he lived at one time.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

Harry Houdini and fifteen other strong numbers are prominent in the complete change of bill scheduled for Hammerstein's Roof Garden, and Victoria theatre beginning Monday afternoon, July 1. Harry Houdini, the original jail-breaker and handcuff king, will head the bill. He has a box of new sensations to reveal. Manacled in every way, shape and form, he will escape from most inconceivable places. Houdini defies police chiefs, jail wardens, asylum keepers, and the public is challenged to bring regulation handcuffs, leg-irons, chains, etc., to test Houdini's power. For the Hammerstein engagement, Houdini promises feats never before attempted in public. The other numbers on a very entertaining and varied program, include McCay and Cantwell, who return from the West with new songs, dances and jokes. Joe Jackson is the biggest scream in vaudeville. His comedy antics are ridiculously funny. He may be depended upon to bring down the house. Arthur Deagon makes his last appearance in vaudeville, previous to his joining Mlle. Trentini's company. Deagon's singing voice is his principal asset. The Berrins, in a surprise musical act, have one of those dainty, novel offerings that seem to be just what the public wants. The Eight Original Texas Tommy Dancers are held over one more week. They will introduce new sensational dancing tricks. The Victoria Four are four boys with excellent voices.

Mrs. Judson Pierson, of Bridgeton, is visiting her son, Earl Pierson, of Essex street.

WILSON CHANCES SEEM BRIGHTER

CLARK SEEMS TO LEAD

HOW CANDIDATES MAY FIGURE ON FIRST BALLOT.

A nomination does not seem to be possible on the first ballot, as the delegations are divided. Unless a deal is made by the Murphy-Sullivan-Taggart combination with some of the leading candidates before the roll call the result, as closely as it can be estimated, reducing the claims of all candidates to bedrock, will be about as follows:

Clark	464
Wilson	340
Underwood	108
Harmon	48
Marshall	30
Baldwin	14

Baltimore, June 27.—With Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson in the lead and strong talk of a dark horse, the national Democratic convention assembled for its third day's session shortly after noon today. It was agreed that before midnight the nominations for president and vice president will be made.

As the vote is about to be taken Speaker Champ Clark appears to be losing strength. Woodrow Wilson is gaining ground and United States Senator John W. Kern of Indiana and Mayor Gaynor are the most promising possibilities for a compromise. Mr. Kern's hat appeared in the ring with the indorsement of W. J. Bryan. He is regarded as an important factor in the situation, but Charles F. Murphy has declined to give him New York's support.

The situation in regard to the candidates is chaotic. All that is certain is that Clark will probably enter the race with about 460 delegates and Wilson with about 340. A deadlock afid several ballots are expected.

Conservatives Lose Control.

The conservatives lost control of the Democratic convention for a time. Governor Woodrow Wilson's friends received a great boost, and Governor Harmon suffered a setback. By a vote of 565½ to 495 2-5 the convention last night rejected the report of the committee on rules, declared the unit rule imposed by the Ohio convention did not bind the nineteen Wilson delegates, and they are now free to vote for Governor Wilson. The vote came at the end of two hours' exciting debate, in which Newton D. Baker, the young reform mayor of Cleveland and progressive Democrat, pleaded his own cause effectively before the delegates. His speech was one of the pleasing features of the session, and received uproarious welcome. Baker is a protege of the late Mayor Tom Johnson.

One of the features of the evening session was a remarkable demonstration in favor of Governor Wilson. The vote followed closely the test vote by which Judge Parker defeated Bryan for temporary chairman.

The vote of New York was cast solidly in favor of the majority report. Charles F. Murphy personally announced the vote and was wildly cheered by Governor Harmon's friends and then hissed by another element in the convention. The issue involved in the contest was as to whether the instructions given by the state convention bound simply the delegates at large from Ohio or whether it applied to district delegates who were elected under instructions from their respective districts. Of the forty-six delegates from Ohio nineteen elected from congressional districts were elected under instructions to vote for Governor Wilson. The rest of the forty-six delegates, including the delegates at large, were elected as Harmon delegates.

Wilson Men Jubilant.

The state convention sought to apply the unit rule and vote the entire forty-six delegates for Governor Harmon. Mayor Baker personally resisted this effort and appealed to the national committee, which refused to consider the matter, and he then took the matter up with the committee on rules. This committee by a vote of 22 to 16 decided that Governor Harmon's friends were right and that the unit rule did apply.

The majority report was submitted to the convention by Representative J. H. Covington of Maryland and defended in speeches by E. H. Moore, insurance commissioner of Ohio and personal manager of Governor Harmon's boom, and opposed by Representative Henry of Texas, Senator John Sharp Williams, Mayor Baker and Delegate Dunn of Nebraska.

The unit rule vote was regarded as indicating an impressive development of strength for Woodrow Wilson and the anti-Bryan force. This, coupled with the Wilson demonstration, has given his stock a distinct boost.

Governor Wilson's friends contended that the action of the committee would not only give the governor Ohio's nineteen delegates, but would release delegates on other states, adding about eighty in all to his column. Wilson's opponents dispute this contention and acknowledge he may get some more delegates out of it, certainly two in Illinois. The action of the convention will apply only in states which have lawful district instructions. Even with the addition of eighty delegates Governor Wilson would be far under the necessary total of 728. His friends are elated at the favorable turn, however.

Kern's Hat in the Ring.

The appearance of Senator John W. Kern in the arena as a presidential possibility was one of the most interesting developments. Senator Lea of Tennessee went to Tom Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana, and suggested a meeting be held of the leaders and Kern be put forward as a candidate. Lea said that Senator Kern would be acceptable to Mr. Bryan. Taggart then sent for Senator Kern and suggested he confer with Mr. Bryan. Mr. Kern saw Bryan and reported back to Taggart that Bryan had advised against his becoming a candidate. Subsequently Senator Lea conferred with Bryan. He returned and said Bryan had changed his mind and that if New York state, Indiana and other eastern states would fall in behind Kern he would be glad to indorse him.

The proposition was carried to Charles F. Murphy, leader of the New York delegation, and after being considered by him Murphy said that New York state would not support Kern.

Upon the announcement of Murphy's decision negotiations along this line ceased for the time being.

Story of Night Session.

Baltimore, June 27.—Judge Parker called the night session of the convention to order at 8:30 p. m. The Rev. T. O. Crouse of the Mount Royal M. E. church, made the prayer.

The temporary chairman recognized Congressman J. Harry Covington of Maryland, chairman of the committee on rules. The single feature of his report, which varied from the usual routine, was the proposed resolution that the candidates be nominated before the platform was adopted. He spoke in advocacy of the innovation and moved the adoption of the report. A roar of yeas followed and there was not a single nay.

The rules committee chairman then reported a rule that delegates elected at primaries shall be bound by the unit rule. This started the real fight of the night session. The rule touched the state of Ohio, where nineteen Wilson men had been tied to the Harmon people by the unit rule, although a majority of the voters in their districts had instructed them for Wilson.

Mr. Covington announced that it had been arranged by him and Congressman of Henry Texas, representing the minority of the committee, to devote two hours to debate. The announcement did not please many delegates and there were loud shouts of "No!" Mr. Henry, who introduced the resolution in congress to investigate the money trust, read the minority report and gave way to Mr. Covington, who defended the unit rule as Jeffersonian doctrine. The rule was a progressive institution, he added.

Mr. Henry said he was surprised that a report should be presented by Mr. Covington forbidding a delegate to vote as his district instructed him, especially since Maryland has a law to the contrary.

"In Ohio the legislature took away from the political committees the right to name delegates, but put into the statutes the provision that they should be elected by the people of the districts," said Mr. Henry. He said further: "That convention split upon the will of the people," he said, "for this convention to reverse the will of the people would be a mockery of self government."

Peck Starts Trouble.

Henry was loudly applauded by the Wilson men. The conservatives sat quiet. Mr. Covington yielded to John W. Peck of Ohio.

Mr. Peck said the minority report was artfully drawn. The last three elections in Ohio had been carried by the Democrats, said Mr. Peck, when the crowd jeered, and he felt that he had the right to be heard. A second later he casually mentioned that "great governor of New Jersey," and instantly the Harmon speaker had started a Wilson demonstration that was greater than anything in the convention in noise and spontaneity. The New Jersey delegation began it, and it spread all over the hall except, of course, in the Indiana, Illinois and New York delegations. So stirring was the scene that Mr. Murphy, William F. Sheehan and other New York delegates stood up for a moment to take it in.

Senator John Sharp Williams, who is a Wilson adherent, was on the platform for the first time, waiting to speak for the minority report. When there was any indication that the racket might subside, and there wasn't a little sign of it, after seven minutes Senator Williams waved his slouch hat, urging the delegates to greater enthusiasm. Another Wilson man, ex-Governor Edwin S. Warfield of Maryland, was on the platform. His white hair, ruddy face and white mustache and goatee made him a conspicuous figure, and again and again he waved a large straw hat.

Behind the Texas delegation were two women in pink. They stood on the chairs. One of them waved a banner with a picture. The other had a banner with a picture of Speaker Clark, but it made no difference to "Lady Pink." She waved Champ Clark's picture and shouted "Wilson, Wilson!" The most surprised man in the hall was Delegate Peck, who had touched the oratorical match to the Wilson boom.

Big Wilson Demonstration.

Over in the west gallery a dozen unfurled a banner with the inscription, "Stanton, Va.," Woodrow Wilson's birthplace. Great was the din then. An effort was made to stop the demonstration by having the band play the "Star Spangled Banner." Everybody, the delegates and the galleries, stood. But when the band stopped only a few of the delegates sat down. Another trial was made by the band, this time with "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." It had no effect. Edward Moore, Harmon's manager, was on the platform, and he was the most disgusted man in the house, unless it was Delegate Peck.

While the demonstration was on the nineteen Wilson men in the Ohio delegation became frantic. The Harmon men sat sullen and silent. The Wilson men shouted to them, badgered them, and the Harmon men got no comfort from any one. As the Wilson demonstration slackened, Underwood's partisans suddenly sprang to their feet and began cheering frantically. An Alabama delegate tore the wrappings from a brand new two handled banner and held it up. In big black letters the crowd read: "What is the issue? The tariff. What is the answer? Underwood!"

Arthur Brisbane Enraged.

Pictures of the house leader were waved from galleries and upheld from the Alabama, Florida and Mississippi delegations.

At that moment a tall, heavy set young man in white flannels, L. B. Russell of Elizabeth, N. J., who had been standing on a bench in the press stand, as he turned round and round, waving a big lithograph of Wilson, interfered with a hard working reporter, Arthur Brisbane. Mr. Brisbane's writing arm was jogged several times and he finally got mad. He ordered the Wilson rooter to get out of the press inclosure. When white flannels refused to budge, Brisbane threw him off the bench, and a Baltimore cop yanked him the rest of the way to the main floor.

There was a row on in a second, with the whole crowd of delegates delighted at the prospects of a fight. But white flannels, cooled off, was readmitted to the press stand and Mr. Brisbane went on writing his piece. The demonstration, now degenerating into disorder, had lasted thirty-one minutes.

The unit rule was finally beaten on roll call, and the nineteen Wilson delegates are freed from Harmon instructions in Ohio.

PROFITING BY EXAMPLE.

Profiting by the result of the Chicago convention last week, the Democratic bosses, judging from last night's action at Baltimore, have decided not to aid the third party movement, started by the Republicans who were driven out of their party last week. Until the session last night the Democratic struggle looked as if were to be a duplicate of that at Chicago, except that there were no fraudulent delegates to be seated. The bosses, in their defeat of Mr. Bryan for temporary chairman, however, seem to be satisfied that they have put him out of the running as a candidate, and are now turning their attention to the nomination of a man who can win. They realize that if they do not name a progresive candidate, the voters with progressive tendencies may swing to the new party which had its start last Saturday night at Chicago, after the Republican bosses overthrew the action of over 2,200,000 voters, by seating men who were not lawfully entitled to the seats which they occupied in the convention.

With vivid recollections of the Chicago convention, the Democratic bosses, much as they hate to think of the bitter dose it means for them, are now said to be preparing to nominate New Jersey's progressive Governor. They realize that with Roosevelt in the field as an independent progressive, their only chance to win is to present the name of one with equally pronounced ideas. Mr. Roosevelt's great strength in the States throughout the middle and far west means that he will carry the Progressive Republican States in that section. The Democrats hope to carry New York and every State which is in the doubtful class, as well as the solid south, and at Chicago last week the general impression among many was that Mr. Taft would carry Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont, but little else. The Roosevelt people think that they also can carry many of the doubtful States, and if they drop the word Republican, are of the view that recent experiences in North Carolina and some of the Southern States make it possible to break into them.

The nomination of Champ Clark would be welcomed by the progressives. It is the belief of those who are high in that faction that he would be the easiest of the Democrats to beat. His followers are already said to feel that they made a mistake in helping Murphy to land Judge Parker as temporary chairman, for it shows that the speaker was not so progressive as he has been trying to make the people believe.

With all this in mind, Mr. Wilson's chances of being named at Baltimore seem to have become much brighter over night. Some of the newspapers still say that Champ Clark will be named, but others this morning showed pretty conclusively that Mr. Wilson's prospects had materially improved. The matter will probably be decided by midnight, and before the week is out the nation will know just how much support the new progressive movement will receive from the Democrats.

Unless there is a disposition shown during the next few days by the patriotic people of our city, the proposed safe and sane celebration of the Fourth planned to be held at Parker Field on Independence Day afternoon and night will have to be abandoned. Strange as it may seem in a community like ours there has been litle if any inclination on the part of the public to provide the necessary means for the celebration arranged by the Playgrounds' Commission in conjunction with a few private citizens. The program as suggested includes athletic events and a band concert and the afternoon's attractions and fireworks and a concert at night. There is no idea of charging any admission fee, the scheme being to raise the funds by voluntary subscription. If this undertaking appeals to you, send your check to any member of the Playgrounds Commission or to the Daily Press and it will be promptly acknowledged.

Senator LaFollette says he is too busy to comment on the political outlook. Suppose his time is all taken up writing the last chapter of his biography.—Elizabeth Journal.

Perish the thought, dear political organ; LaFollette will be heard from when many of those who you represent will have been consigned to political oblivion. It is recorded that when the distinguished Wisconsin Senator made one of his first speeches in Congress some of the interests' Senators left the chamber as a means of offering him an insult. As they walked out, the sterling Progressive shouted after them that they might not listen to him then but that he would be heard from when they were politically dead. His prophecy proved only too true for during the last two or three years every one of them has either read the handwriting on the wall and gracefully retired to private life or has been killed politically by his constituents.

Contributions for the Baby Camp, conducted by the City Union of the King's Daughters, will be received by this paper, promptly acknowledged in these columns and immediately transmitted to the camp committee. Already there is $22.50 in the fund. Six hundred dollars is needed to maintain the camp for seven weeks.

Dispatch from Baltimore states that whenever the name of Bryan or Wilson is mentioned in the convention hall it is impossible to keep James E. Martine from making an outburst. Do they expect the Jersey Commoner to sit quietly in his seat and cantent himself with a Chatauqua salute?

The Tammany parade will not take place as scheduled at the convention city, so it is announced. That's too bad, it would be a great object lesson for the young man in politics to behold that noble body of lofty-minded citizens.

It is with much joy that the many friends of our City Treasurer, William F. Arnold, learn that he is speedily recovering from a serious attack of rheumatism. There is no man in the community who has more friends than he.

By abolishing the unit rule, the Democrats have taken a big step forward.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The thermometer of the State Trust Company today registered: 9 a. m., 70 degrees; 11 a. m., 74 degrees; 1 p. m., 75 degrees.

TASK FOR ANDERSON.

Assemblyman W. deLa. R. Anderson, of Somerset county, has been asked to accompany the Morris Canal Abandonment Commission, consisting of one member from each Congressional district in the State, in its inspection of the property. When the physical valuation of property was made, Anderson was a member of the Railroad and Canal Committee of the House and was instrumental in the action of turning down the report of the commission appointed by Governor Wilson, which recommended the abandonment under the provisions of a bill which they suggested. Such action would apparently have given property worth $130,000,000 to the Lehigh Valley Railroad for a consideration of about $5,000,000. The commission will leave on Monday morning.

WHITEWASHED ROCK.

Washington Rock has received a fresh coat of whitewash through the efforts of Charles Debele and his son. It has been sometime since the Rock was whitewashed, the work usually being done by William Pangborn, of the borough. It is now possible to see the Rock a considerable distance.

possibility of Bryan's stepping in and making the fight for himself is very real. The enthusiastic Bryan shouters are begging, entreating the Colonel to run. And he is smiling upon them much more benighly than he did a few days ago.

There are likely to be some twenty-one nominating speeches when the convention gets to the work of nominating. Some contests remain to be decided when the session begins at noon. The nominating oratory may not begin until night. A first ballot may not be reached until midnight. No candidate can possibly have the necessary two-thirds on the first ballot. What may follow is anybody's guess. There may be balloting all night. There may be quick adjournment. In any event the early strength is not likely to be a criterion of the ultimate result unless Clark should lead from the start and go on steadily.

A Long Deadlock Looked For.

A long deadlock is the general expectation, and out of such a deadlock it is a commonplace of political history that any dark horse may come out of the dark and end in front. That is the hope which inspires such candidates as Mayor Gaynor, for example. The Mayor will have New York's ninety votes on the first ballot. But it is believed that this vote will not stay out very long.

MACK SAYS GAYNOR MAY BE COMPROMISE

Baltimore, Md., June 27.—Norman E. Mack, Democratic National Chairman, declared today that if Governor Wilson and Speaker Clark in any way become eliminated from the race for the nomination, Mayor Gaynor appears to be the leading compromise candidate. Mayor Gaynor is the only one mentioned as a compromise candidate whose chances he considers to be formidable.

"It appears now that the New York conservatives and their following must go either to Governor Wilson or Mr. Clark to nominate either," Mr. Mack said, "or the Wilson and Clark forces must combine, which is not probable.

"The only other possible outcome is a compromise and the only compromise candidate I hear about is Mayor Gaynor. There is a general conviction among the delegates that Governor Wilson can carry New York State. Some think that some of the other candidates would not be strong, but I think any good, clean candidate could carry New York State.

"Perhaps a new candidate who has not been heard much about may come forward. For some reason the Gaynor boom does not seem to be gathering any great momentum, but it begins to look as if a compromise would have to be reached to break the impending deadlock.

"The loss of twenty or twenty-three votes by the Clark and conservative forces seems to indicate that Governor Wilson is getting stronger. The vote, however, should not be estimated, as it may mean simply the drift to progressive issues and principles rather than a drift to or from a candidate."

New York, June 27.—The New York Mail says: Gaynor will undoubtedly be nominated for President unless he is betrayed by Tammany Leader Murphy. Bryan's open opposition to Champ Clark, coupled with a threat to bolt, has made the plan to nominate the speaker something like political hari-kari. Harmon has been practically shelved by the smashing of the unit rule. Underwood has been eliminated by the inability of the bosses to swing the North to him. Marshall, Baldwin and Foss are mere possibilities—not serious probabilities. There is no demand for them outside their own state.

This narrows the field to Wilson and Gaynor. Bryan is no more for Wilson than he is for Gaynor, except for the obligations incurred in the Wilson support of the Nebraskan for temporary chairman. The Murphy-Sullivan-Taggart combine is bitterly against Wilson. Their newest ally, Hearst, is hotly fighting Wilson.

MARTINE PLEADS WITH HIS POLITICAL GOD

Baltimore, June 22.—United States Senator Martine, appealing to Bryan to come out aggressively for Wilson and help swing the Clark votes to the New Jersey Governor, yesterday said, "You see how Clark in the fight over the temporary chairmanship, threw his influence against you. Now come out in the open and help swing every Progressive to the only real Progressive candidate, Woodrow Wilson."

Bryan replied, "I know what has happened. I am with you."

Wilson's stock went up some more when the tip went out that Roger Sullivan, of Illinois, and Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, would swing to Wilson before long in response to the strong Wilson sentiment in the Middle West. Congressman William Hughes, of Paterson sized up the situation this way, "Not only is Bryan out of the race for the nomination, but Clark has been killed by the showing he made yesterday when in the fight for temporary chairman he threw his influence to Parker and Wall Street. The Wilson men have now proved conclusively that Clark is no Progressive at all but a secret friend of the special interests. That will surely drive many Western Progressives to Wilson."

WILSON IS CONFIDENT HE'LL BE NOMINATED

Sea Girt, June 27.—Following a long conference with his managers at Baltimore, in the course of which he was informed on the progress of the fight going on last night in the convention, Governor Wilson is confident that he will be nominated for President. He retired early, leaving instructions that he was not to be disturbed, even if the convention reached the balloting stage and definite results were received at the telegraph office here.

Although Governor Wilson is silent on the matter of casting his fortunes with those of Roosevelt on a third party ticket in the event of the Democratic convention failing to name him as the candidate, it is taken in the camp city here that he would not consider any affiliation with the third party.

Speaking of the circulation in Baltimore of a reported agreement on his part to accept second place on the Democratic ticket, the Governor said:

J. D. MACNAB'S FUNERAL ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The funeral of James D. Macnab, whose sudden death occurred at High Point, near Barnegat, yesterday morning, will be held at the late home on West Sixth street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which Mr. Macnab was an active member, will officiate and the burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

Dr. Marcus L. Clawson, the family physician, who went to High Point, yesterday upon learning of Mr. Macnab's death, is expected to arrive in Plainfield early this afternoon with the remains. Nothing further has been learned concerning the sudden demise of Mr. Macnab. He was known to be suffering from an abcess of the stomach, and it is the opinion that this together with heart trouble caused his death. Those who knew Mr. Macnab, including the faculty and pupils of the High School, have expressed deep sympathy and sorrow over his death. He was generally esteemed and beloved by those with whom he came in contact and his place will be a hard one to fill in the school.

FOUND A METEOR.

While the lightning flashed and the thunder rolled last night, Thomas MacDonald, janitor of the North Plainfield High School, saw a luminous body flash through the air and strike the earth with a thud. Having located the spot he visited the place this morning and saw the ground furrowed up for a distance of forty feet as by a gigantic plough. Procuring a spade he started digging where the furrow ended and at the depth of four feet unearthed a meteor pyramidal in shape and weighing about four pounds. It is composed of selica, trap rock, iron nickel and sulphur. He has had it photographed and will place it on exhibition.

MOTION PICTURES.

The weekly motion picture entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. are proving a very popular diversion during the hot months and are well worth attending. The following films will be shown next Saturday afternoon and evening: "Our Country in Arms," "A Day in Washington," "Philadelphia, the Cradle of Liberty," "Wonders of Nature," "Yellowstone Park," "Three Comedy Films."

SCHOOL INSPECTOR HERE.

Herbert N. Morse, chief inspector of school buildings, visited the North Plainfield High School today and in company with the president of the Board of Education, Dr. J. H. Cooley, made an inspection of the building and will report on the recommendations ordered to be made in the matter of improved methods of heating and ventilation, for which an appropriation has been set aside.

The boys' choir of the Grace Episcopal church left in a body this morning on the annual excursion to Asbury Park. They will be met at the shore by Frederick Smith, who is choirmaster of the church, and he will assist in giving the fellows a good time. Mr. Smith has been spending the week on a fishing trip near Asbury Park and will return home either tonight or tomorrow.

W. F. ARNOLD IMPROVING.

City Treasurer William F. Arnold, who has been detained at home by illness for the past eight weeks, was able to walk about the home a little today and sit up for an hour. He was first taken ill with the grip which left him with rheumatism and later pleurisy developed. His present general condition is considered much improved.

REV. HAGEMAN INSTALLED.

Liberty Corner, June 27.—Rev. Peter K. Hageman, formerly assistant rector of the North Reformed church, Newark, was installed Wednesday afternoon as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Liberty Corner.

KRAMER BEATEN AGAIN.

Alfred Grenda repeated his win over Champion Frank Kramer last night at the Newark Velodrome, when he won the two mile national cycle championship. Kramer was pocketed in the last lap and was twenty yards behind the Frenchman when the sprint began. Kramer ran away with the one mile handicap riding from scratch.

Lincoln Clouser and son, Frank Clouser, of Camden, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. E. D. George, of 83 Duer street, North Plainfield.

TOMATOES USED WHOLE.

TOMATOES look better if they can be served whole. If they are to be used raw, scald and peel at least an hour before they are to appear on the table. Then keep them on ice until time to use.

Large firm tomatoes are the best. Choose those that are well colored. They have a more decorative appearance when served on a layer of lettuce leaves.

A Nourishing Dish.

Tomatoes and Nuts.—Cut a slice from the stem ends and scoop out the inside of ten large tomatoes. Put the pulp into a basin, add to it two ounces of butter, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, half a pound of nuts boiled and grated and season all with pepper and salt. This should be of the thickness of cream. Fill the tomatoes with the mixture and serve either hot or cold.

With Many Ingrediants.

Tomato Surprise.—Take four tomatoes of equal size, two tablespoonfuls of cold pounded fish, a tablespoonful of chopped cucumber, half a teaspoonful of minced parsley, salad cream, or, if that is not available, moisten with oil and vinegar. Cut the tomatoes in half crosswise and scoop out the centers, being very careful to preserve their shape. Put the tomato pulp into a basin with the finely pounded fish, the chopped cucumber and parsley and blend all with salad cream, or, if that is not obtainable, moisten carefully with oil and vinegar. Fill the cup with this mixture, stand each on a curled lettuce leaf on a dish and serve.

Baked Tomatoes.

Tomatoes and Peppers.—Take tomatoes of uniform size, wash them and cut off the tops. Take out the pulp and add to it enough breadcrumbs to stiffen it and a green pepper chopped very fine after the seeds have been thrown away. Season with salt, pepper, a dash of sugar and a teaspoonful of melted buttter. Put this mixture into the tomatoes, set them in a greased pudding dish, sprinkle lightly with sugar, cover and bake fifteen minutes. Then uncover and bake for fifteen minutes more.

Tomato Trifle.—Use tomatoes of equal size. Cut them in halves and scoop out the centers. In each one break a fresh uncooked egg. Dust with salt and pepper and cover each with a spoonful of white sauce, then with grated cheese. Put in a hot oven and bake till the eggs are set.

Outing Suits That Are Smart and Good Looking.

Trim looking coat and skirt models in white and pin striped serges are being made. Many of them have black or colored revers of satin or taffeta,

Pearl buttons and buckles are used on the belted designs, and the skirt and coat of one coquettish model are edged with tiny ruffles of self colored taffeta.

The white serge skirt in combination with one of the many types of loose blouses will be much in favor for outing wear. With it will be worn a blazer coat of blue and white, orange and white, red and white or green and white striped flannel.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for girls of sixteen and eighteen years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7471, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

The National Educational Association will hold its annual convention in Chicago July 6 to 12. The members will discuss educational problems which have arisen during the past year, listen to special lectures and elect officers. It is said that another woman will be chosen as president. Ella Flagg Young is the only woman who has ever held the office. There is an unwritten law in the association that forbids the re-election of a president. Miss Strachan, of New York, who has been so prominent in the fight for equal pay for equal work is mentioned for the presidency. The teachers who benefited by the new law wished to present her with a more mercenary testimonial of their appreciation but the laws of the Board of Education of New York City prevents the acceptance of money as a testimonial.

The recently organized Parent-teacher Association of Roselle may rest comfortably on its laurels for some time to come. Its efforts are bearing early and stable fruit. The Board of Education has voted favorably on its petition to open a summer school in Roselle and has appropriated $500 for that purpose.

The pupils who failed in their final examinations will be given an opportunity to make up the work and go on with their grades in the fall. Manual training, sewing, folk-dancing and games suitable to the age of the pupil, will be taught. Members of the association visited Plainfield while collecting facts to present to the Board of Education and Mr. Davis, who has charge of the Summer School, will visit us again to learn how our school and play grounds are conducted.

The Spectator, of the Outlook staff, visited a play ground in New York City and devoted one week's article to the subject. This particular play ground, which is in the vicinity of Washington Square, used to be a cemetery and one tomb is left in the center of the grassless block to commemorate the fact. It has a covered bandstand, a little canal and a cement plaisance upon which was acted the history of New York from the arrival of the Dutch to the funeral of Lincoln. The little canal served alike as the Hudson River for the arrival of Henrik Hudson, as the harbor of New York and as the Erie Canal.

Unconsciously the Spectator sums up the endeavor of Parent-teachers' Associations when he said, "One had only to look through that day's exhibit, only to spend an hour in the park that afternoon to know what it is that they are trying to do who seek to bring back to the word 'neighbor,' its ancient significance: the nighborn, those whose collective welfare is everybody's individual business, a business imminent and pressing, and pointing as far as one knows how to look. No need, then, to ask what it is all about; or to talk about educating the masses; or to use, or to think, the word 'uplift.' The word neighbor covers it all. These neighborhood houses are among the state's experiment stations in democracy. And just as private enterprises always precedes public enterprise and is a means to it, so these private expressions of, not the theory, but the law of neighborhood are making ready for neighborhood at its widest, which means democracy."

What Food Does for a Child.
(By Edith Greer.)

As children need to learn to walk, so must they learn to eat. Food not only builds a child's tissue and supplies body-heat and energy, but also promotes digestion. As arms, legs and backs require exercise for health and strength, so does the digestive tract. Upon its health and normal activity depend the vigor and growth of a child.

The digestive tract develops as does the child. A child begins life able to digest milk. When about nine months old, it acquires the power to make use of such starchy foods as gruels. It then needs to have these. By having them in moderation the child forms the habit of securely digesting these foods. It thus grows capable of eating more kinds of food as its food-needs increase. Foods new to a child need to be introduced into its diet gradually and with food that it is accustomed to digesting. Foods that a child is not prepared to digest not only do not nourish it but harm it. They require work on the part of the child to rid itself of such undigested food. It is thus that wrong food impoverishes a child's system and at the same time overworks it. It is true that improper feeding prevents growth, deprives a child of energy and opens it to disease. Children need to be spared such misfortunes, as they are, when their food-needs are known and regarded, and the needed food-habits formed.

Until 9 months: milk (pure).

From 9 months to 1 year: milk, gruel (cereal), broth (chicken or mutton).

Until 1¼ years: the same, and rice, bread, apple (baked or as a sauce).

From 1¼ to 1½ years: the same as earlier, but with the introduction of a little butter and greater variety in gruels and some variety in fruit (that must be sweet and without skin or seeds, as pared peach).

From 1½ to 2½ years: the foods permitted earlier and potato (baked), egg (soft cooked) and orange-juice.

From 2½ to 3½ years: as before but with digestible, young, fresh vegetables, as peas, beans, squash and every few days a little meat (chicken, chop, steak, roast tender).

Until 5 years: the same but with egg and meat on alternate days and light desserts, as custard, tapioca, gelatin.

A child so fed should come to its 5th year with full development for its age and strength, having escaped children's and other diseases, if the conditions of its life have been wholesome and its food has been kept clean as well as been properly selected and prepared. Such a child should have bones that are strong and straight, second teeth that are sound and will be durable. Any inherited physical weakness, such as a tendency to tuberculosis, will thus be staved. A child so cared for is active and happy, intelligent and promising. It grows in stature, in self-control and expressive power that enables it to meet the demands of its life without undue fatigue to itself or exhaustion to others.

Food needs to be frequently given to little children but not constantly. Five times a day is advised under 5 years. The first and last meal in a day need to be light; the second and fourth scarcely heavier; the noon meal should be the substantial one each day. Children over 2 years are rarely overfed. The danger to them is wrong food or food at the wrong time.

As the food of children becomes more complex, they still need to eat few foods at a time, but from day to day to be ensured variety. Milk continues an important article of diet throughout childhood. Bread, after a child can digest it, should be part of the food of every meal.

As a child's food becomes more varied, it also becomes more solid. In infancy the need is for liquid food. In early childhood the food should be finely cut. So soon as a child can, it needs to chew well the food it eats. It cannot otherwise digest solid food. Thorough mastication is necessary for general health, also from the health of the teeth, of those that are and those that are to be.

Air and water in plenty and both pure, are essential to complete utilization of the food eaten. Water aids in keeping the system free from waste-products. Air makes possible the conversion of food into body-tissue, heat and energy.

Exercise makes a child's need for food felt and prepares it to use naturally the food that its growth and life require.

Children should be encouraged to eat slowly and without excitement. Their ability to utilize food is being developed and can be easily disordered or even permanently limited. Children properly fed are not only made strong in the present but for the future. They know a healthful childhood and health with physical endurance in maturity. Throughout life proper nutrition is a health-giving agency.

CHURCH CONVOCATION SELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Atlantic City, June 27.—While in attendance at the annual missionary meeting of the Convocation of Burlington, representing one-half of the diocese of New Jersey, at the Church of the Ascension, Bishop John Scarborough, beause of feeble health, requested Archdeacon Shepperd to take the active direction of the session. At the election of officers Walter D. Robb, of Bordentown, was chosen as treasurer to succeed John Woodward, of the same town, who has resigned because of ill health after thirty years' service.

Rev. Rudolph E. Bristell, of Camden, was elected secretary; executive committee, Rev. J. F. Olmstead, Burlington; Rev. Harold Morse, Merchantville; Harvey Humphreys, Camden.

Archdeacon Shepperd reported a need of active young missionary priests to build up the struggling missions in isolated places in the State.

It was voted to extend no financial aid to any church that is unwilling to have its rector named by the bishop.

Rev. and Mrs. Royal A. Stout left today for Marlboro, this State, where they will visit relatives for several days.

Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will return tomorrow from Indiana, where he has been delivering several lectures this week.

Salient Facts About
Our Club Plan
Get Acquainted With Them

There are those who, while not possessing much in the way of tangible assets, owning no property, perhaps, preferring that others should bear that burden, like to have well-furnished homes and who take as much pride in them as the wealthiest people.

They are those who, while not having much money in hand, have a generous and STEADY INCOME which is as sure as anything earthly can be.

Situated as they are it is somewhat difficult for these people to secure a credit account, and if they could, they would not be able to pay in thirty days as charge customers are expected to pay, for all they might wish to buy when furnishing a home.

It is to these people that our HOUSEHOLD CLUB PLAN appeals most strongly, because it enables them to buy the bigger and more costly furnishings at the lowest cash price and to arrange for the payment according to their ability to pay.

THIS IS NOT AN INSTALMENT PLAN, as instalment plans are generally known, and "anybody's" credit is NOT GOOD. Only worthy persons are entitled to club membership, and they are not taxed exorbitant prices to cover the losses occasioned by selling indiscriminately as instalment houses do. It is not a plan to make more profit on goods, but to make the buying EASIER for you, and thus broaden our field of operations.

Any one who can make it plain to us that they are steadily employed, that they are sober and industrious can participate in our Club Plan. The initiation fee is normal and depends upon the amount you wish to buy.

Upon the payment of this fee you are entitled to purchase goods up to a certain amount at our regular cash prices, which are all plainly marked, and at the time of purchase you are expected to pay one-tenth of the entire bill. For instance, on $100 worth of goods you pay us $10.

After that you pay by the week or month, as suits best, whatever amounts are agreed upon. YOU PAY NO INTEREST—not a cent of it.

We confine Club accounts to the purchase of larger articles—the smaller articles in the general lines of dry goods and wearing apparel not being included in the plan.

THE CLUB PLAN is particularly advantageous to young folks just going to housekeeping, as it enables them to start in completely furnished without suffering from the financial strain that usually comes at this period of life.

THERE ARE NO EMBARRASSING FEATURES in our Club Plan—no publicity, no unexpected demands, no harsh treatment whatever. We have thousands already enrolled in our clubs and the scheme is working out to the entire satisfaction of both our patrons and ourselves—every courtesy being extended to the club members that is extended to customers running the biggest regular accounts. We invite all steady-going people to take advantage of the Club Plan of buying furnishings for the home.

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED.

Whitehouse, June 27.—The barn and contents on the premises occupied by Clarence Dilley, near Whitehouse Station, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Just how the blaze got started has not been determined. Included in the contents was a stored lot of household furniture belonging to Frederick Bush. Members of the local volunteer fire company formed a bucket brigade and prevented adjoining buildings from taking fire. The loss is about $800 and is partly covered by insurance. The property is owned by Miss Julia Pykell, of Morristown.

Peter Neuman, of the grocery firm of Neuman Brothers, has so far recovered from a recent operation for appendicitis performed at the hospital, that he expects to return home soon.

HANDSOME PRIZES FOR BIG ATHLETIC MEET

The big field and track meet to be conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at Parker Field on July Fourth, is beginning to take on the aspects of a star attraction. The prizes are the handsomest ever offered for a local athletic event, and have been made possible through the generosity of Plainfield's merchants. Too much cannot be said in regard to Physical Director Ostlin's efforts to promote the affair and he has been ably assisted in his work by Jack Fritts, captain of the Y. M. C. A. track team. Fritts and Ostlin have devoted a large amount of time gathering together the prizes which are worthy of attracting the cream of the athletic talent. The meet is sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union and Mr. Ostlin is prepared to fill out the registration and entry blanks at his office in the association building.

100 yard dash (novice).—Medals for first, second and third man. Cuff links, offered by DeMeza & Blimm for the first local man to cross the tape.

220 yard dash.—Gold medal to first, silver medal to second, and bronze medal to third. Gold cuff links, set with chip diamonds, offered by C. E. Vail, to first local man to finish.

440 yard dash.—First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. A pair of baseball shoes, offered by M. C. VanArsdale, will be given the first Plainfield man to finish.

880 yard dash.—First place, gold medal; second place, silver medal; third place, bronze medal. Leo Sloaim has offered a match-safe to the first Plainfield man home.

Ritz annual one mile run.—First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. The Ritz Co has offered a gold watch to the first local man to finish.

100 yard dash.—First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. Moraller has put up a watch fob for the first local man.

Running high jump.—First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. Schwed Bros. will award a bathing suit to the highest local competitor.

Running broad jump.—First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. Paul Collier has put up a pair of the best grade running shoes to the best local athlete in this event.

Base running.—Gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third. Fountain pen given by M. Estil to the best local man.

Three mile run.—Gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third. Powlison & Jones' footrest will be awarded the first local man to finish.

12-lb shot.—Gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third. A bookrack, offered by Gavett, will be awarded the best local putter.

Baseball throw for distance.—First prize, stick-pin offered by Hervey Doane; second prize, bamboo fishing rod, offered by Harry Dreier; third prize, fishing reel, also offered by Dreier.

FINE A WOMAN $10 FOR HORSEWHIPPING

Mrs. Tucker, of Cranford, Beat Neighbor at Liberty St. Ferry House.

Mrs. Sophie Tucker, of Cranford, was fined $10 yesterday by Magistrate Corrigan in the Tombs Court, New York, for horse-wipping Henry Armstrong, at the entrance to the Liberty Street Ferry, New York, yesterday.

Armstrong also lives at Cranford, and several days ago got into an argument with Mrs. Tucker over a boardwalk which her husband had built. Her husband died and Mrs. Tucker had attempted to tear up the boardwalk when Armstrong interfered. She called him a thief and Armstrong talked back. Mrs. Tucker demanded an apology, which Armstrong refused to make.

Yesterday Armstrong was leaving the Liberty Street Ferryhouse when Mrs. Tucker ran up to him and again demanded an apology. He again refused and she took a riding crop and struck him four times with it. Traffic Policeman Jerry McNulty witnessed the assault and placed Mrs. Tucker under arrest. When arraigned before Magistrate Corrigan Mrs. Tucker said she had whipped Armstrong on this side of the river because the penalty would be lighter.

PLACED ON PROBATION.

Elizabeth, June 27.—George Carter, a Plainfield negro who pleaded guilty on an allegation to stealing a ring and pin from Mrs. Markley, of Plainfield, by whom he was employed, was placed on probation for one year by Judge Atwater in the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday. Carter claimed that his mistress told him he could wear the jewels. Judge Atwater spoke to him on the habit of theft and warned him that a second offense would be severely dealt with.

CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP.

Much to the surprise of tennis enthusiasts, Raymond D. Little and W. M. Hall, both of New York, were defeated for the clay court championship of the United States. Little was defeated by Fred Harris, of Dartmouth College, 6-3, 6-3, while J. G. Armstrong, of St. Paul, won over Hall, 6-3, 6-8, 6-3.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Another good card for the Oval on Saturday.

Plainfield vs. New York Fire Laddies. Netherwood A. C. vs. West End A. C.

Now that Slocum has received an offer from the Newark club we have only one strike-out phenom to fall back on.

It is about time some one got wise to Freddy's ability as a twirler.

Slocum says he never felt better than at the present and will show the Newark fans the real thing along the pitching line.

Marquard traveled a pretty shaky road in getting away from his "sweet sixteenth."

The reckoning is now seventeen straight and still they are digging around after sensational records made in the time when half the male population of the village backed up the pitcher.

After much bidding by rival ball clubs, the Highlanders have finally landed Davis, the Williams' college twirler.

It seems that with Sterrett, the former Princeton captain and catcher already under contract by the Highlanders, and Davis the New York team has without a doubt the best college battery in the country.

It is impossible to compute how many aspiring athletes will be engaged in the city's big field and track meet at Parker Field on Independence Day.

The prizes are the finest ever offered for a local meet of this kind and should attract a big field.

Manager Sisty, of Wayside Park, has arranged an athletic program for July 4th.

A baseball game between a picked team from this city and one from Dunellen will be the center of attrction on the diamond. The winning battery will be awarded watches.

A track meet is also scheduled and watches will be awarded for first and second places in each event.

Craig Blair, the local Y. M. C. A. lad, who pulled a tendon in the State Association championships at East Orange Oval last Saturday, was visited by a New York specialist yesterday and is reported as well on the road to complete recovery.

By winning yesterday the Giants increased their present winning streak to eight straight victories.

Governor McDonald says that there will be no interference in regard to the Johnson-Flynn fight provided the State laws are strictly enforced. All the existing laws regarding gambling will be strictly adhered to.

Jack Johnson acknowledges that so far he has merely been playing at training but will now start in for serious business.

Catcher Frank Bruggy, who formerly did the backstop work for Bound Brook, has been given his unconditional release by the Providence club of the International League.

Jack Martin was the bright star in the Yankee's second game with the world's champions yesterday.

He made good on nine out of ten chances offered him and pounded out a two-bagger.

NEW YORK FIRE DEP'T TEAM TO PLAY HERE

The big attraction on the Oval Saturday afternoon will be the game between the New York Fire Department team and the Plainfield nine. These fire laddies have been cleaning up a number of fast semi-professional teams around the Metropolitan district and the locals will have to go the limit in order to pull off a victory. Because of his good showing made during his curtailed performance against the Lincoln Giants on the Oval last week, Frederickson will probably be sent in to stop the New Yorkers.

During their stay in this city the visitors will be entertained by Chief Doane, who will show them about the city and wind up the day's sojourn with a banquet. The preliminary part of the card for Saturday will be taken care of by the Netherwood A. C. and the West End A. C., two fast amateur teams of this city.

SHARPE CORNELL COACH.

Dr. Alfred H. Sharpe, a noted authority on football, has been engaged to coach the Cornell athletic teams during the coming year. He is a graduate of Yale and is well-known as a gridiron referee. Dr. Sharp will have entire control of the baseball and football teams and during the rest of the year will assist in coaching the basketball five.

PLAYED FROM SCRATCH.

Stuart Connolly, of Rockland, who won the Metropolitan Junior Golf Championship at the Plainfield Country Club last Tuesday, was playing from scratch instead of from a six point handicap, as was stated in this paper in Tuesday's issue.

—A man may acquire ease and plenty, but not in the order named.

YANKEE ATHLETICS ARE GIVEN GREAT SEND OFF

The American Olympic team left Antwerp at noon yesterday for Stockholm amid a magnificent farewell demonstration. Thousands of people were gathered along the water front and on the dock and the members of the team lined the bulwarks waving the Stars and Stripes while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

During their short stay in Antwerp every member of the team was in action and Mike Murphy expressed himself as highly satisfied with the results of their tryouts. Mike Ryan, who has been suffering from a slightly injured ankle, ran eight miles in his regular scheduled time and showed no ill effects of his tryout.

The manager of the Antwerp Athletic Club invited the American team to compete in an athletic carnival at Antwerp upon their return from the big games and Manager Halsin, of the American team, promised the aggregation would do so in full strength if time permitted.

FLYNN TO BE CAREFUL IN FIGHT WITH JOHNSON

Jim Flynn, who is now putting on the finishing touches for his battle for the heavy weight championship of the world with Jack Johnson, announces that he will fight a cautious battle and make the champion come to him. In their previous meeting Flynn was knocked out by the big smoke and lays the blame on his rushing tactics.

Interest in the big fight is spreading rapidly and the city of Las Vegas, where the big affair will be pulled off, is beginning to assume the appearance of a tent colony. Novel methods are being introduced to accommodate the large crowds and the National Guard armory, the opera house and commercial club rooms have been fitted up as dormitories.

SLOCUM'S CHANCE.

Louis Slocum, of this city, who is trying out with the Newark International League team, was on the field with a Newark uniform on yesterday afternoon. Slocum was accompanied on his initial trip by Tommy Mullen and warmed up on the diamond just before the game with the Rochester champions. As Lee, the only reliable pitcher now under contract by the Newark club, twirled in Tuesday's game, and McGinnity himself worked yesterday; there is a possible chance of Slocum getting into the fray today.

ROYAL GIANTS WANT GAMES.

Manager Pete Simmons, of the Royal Giants baseball team, has not as yet secured a game for either Saturday or Sunday and would like to hear from some fast amateur aggregation in this vicinity. The Giants are at present putting up a classy article of ball and would make a first-class Saturday afternoon or Sunday drawing card. They took the fast West End bunch into camp last week in the preliminary game on Crescent Oval.

CUP ON EXHIBITION.

The handsome silver loving cup offered by the Plainfield Daily Press for the winner of the Manufacturers' Baseball League contests has been removed from the Ritz Company window and is now on exhibition in the show window of the DeMeza & Blimm store on East Front street. This cup is one of the finest ever put up for athletic competition in this city and has caused a spirit of genuine rivalry among the six teams in this league.

BOUND BROOK VS. SOMERVILLE.

Manager Nick Powers, of the Bound Brook baseball team, has Somerville on his card for next Saturday. These two Somerset county nines have always been the closest of rivals and whenever they have been brought together a large amount of enthusiasm has predominated. Bound Brook will have Slocum on the firing line while Kraft will, in all probability, be his opponent.

—The secret of many a man's success isn't much of a secret.

The Scrap Book

Whistler's Fish Tragedy.

A story of Whistler's ingenuity in getting rid of a troublesome neighbor is told by A. J. Eddy in his "Recollections and Impressions" of the famous artist. While residing in Venice an elderly countess moved into an apartment immediately below that occupied by Whistler. Her noise, fussiness and goings to and fro annoyed the artist very considerably, so much so, in fact, that he made up his mind to drive her away. An opportunity presented itself one very hot day. The countess put a jar of goldfish on the balcony immediately beneath his window. During her absence Whistler tied a bent pin to a thread, caught the fish, broiled them to a turn and then dropped them back into the jar again. When the countess returned and found her goldfish dead there was a great commotion, and the next day she packed up and left, saying that Venice was altogether too hot. She declared with tears in her eyes that the sun had cooked her goldfish in their jar.

Never Say Die.

Never say die
While the light of the morning
Shines in the sky
And the grass is adorning
The earth in its freshness and rivers roll by,
But simply press onward and never say die.

Struggle and try
Every fiber and part of you.
Never say die
While there's life in the heart of you.
Let failures come thickly and darken the sky,
But still go on striving and never say die.

Never say die
While the candle is burning
Under the sky
And the darkness is turning
The earth to a dreamland where fairies flit by,
But ever press onward and never say die.

What's In a Name.

In "A Retrospect of Forty Years" William Allen Butler tells this story of Dr. William B. Sprague, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in Albany:

After the birth of one of his younger sons Dr. Sprague was for some time in doubt as to what name he should give him, and the matter, as usual in such cases, was a subject of family discussion. Late one evening the good doctor, who was a warm friend and great admirer of Ambrose Spencer, the chief justice of the supreme court of the state, knocked at the door of his eldest daughter, who had retired, and called out to her that he had decided on a name for her little brother, announcing that it was to be "Ambrose Spencer Sprague." A faint voice from within responded, "Father, think of the initials." The doctor retired, and another name had to be discovered.

Got a Cheap Shave.

I was being shaved at my favorite barber shop on Newspaper row when a stranger who was evidently short of change walked in and asked the boss if he would shave one side of his face for a nickel. The boss thought it a pretty good joke and answered in the affirmative, bidding the stranger to take a seat for a moment or so. A moment later the boss bid the stranger to take his place in the chair. After the latter had been prepared the boss asked "Which side?" "The outside," was the stranger's reply, and all hands in the shop had a mighty good laugh on the boss, who took the joke good naturedly and gave the visitor a first class shave.—Boston Post.

A Bad Shot.

A knife thrower who was performing in a music hall had a particularly attractive assistant, whose duty it was to lean with outstretched arms against a soft pine board. This board was surrounded with electric lights, which accentuated her beauty. The knife thrower would then station himself a few feet distant and hurl knife after knife at the board. These knives would just graze the skin and plunge with a thud into the board and remain quivering. It was a thrilling act, and when the last knife was thrown the young woman would be so closely hemmed in by knives that they had to be drawn out before she could free herself.

One night the pretty assistant was taken ill, and the performer's wife was drafted for the work. She was far from pretty. In fact, she was distinctly homely. She walked out on to the stage, and when she reclined against the board the pitiless lights threw into relief her crooked features, unshapely limbs and general unattractiveness. The knife thrower took deliberate aim, and a knife flashed across the room and sank into the board by her head. Just as the knife struck a small boy up in the gallery shouted with a wail:

"Good heavens, 'e missed 'er!"

AN ICEBERG'S SECRET.

One of the Mysteries of the Sea That Will Never Be Solved.

The age of an iceberg is problematic. The berg that sank the Titanic may have been forming on the coast of Greenland when Columbus crossed the sea or even before that. Then again it may have been reared by the elements since Peary's first expedition to the pole, but probably it antedated steamships by many years.

In 1841 a great berg appeared off St. John's, N. F. Its pinnacle was fully a hundred feet above the sea, and its base formed a glittering island in the middle of which, imbedded between two hills of ice, were two ships side by side. The masts were gone, but otherwise the upper works seemed to be intact. Scattered about the decks were various objects that might have been the frozen bodies of the crews. All were covered with snow.

Several old sailors approached the berg as near as they dared to and scanned the ships through powerful glasses, but could not see any name or anything to indicate their nationality or business on the seas. There were no signs of life aboard them, nothing but the motionless masses under their white coverings.

They were believed to be part of Sir John Franklin's expedition and were seen at the mouth of the harbor almost stationary for several days. Then one morning the berg was gone, and the ultimate fate of the derelicts it carried is still one of the mysteries of the sea. —Minna Irving in New York Press.

The Hamburg Stock Exchange.

The public rooms of the Hamburg boerse, subject to very mild rules conducive to good order, are open to all, with very few exceptions. Their use is definitely forbidden "to all female persons," to individuals who have been deprived of their civic rights, who are under some form of judicial restraint, who have been adjudged guilty of fraudulent bankruptcy, persons adjudged to be in simple bankruptcy, those unable to meet their obligations and such as are forbidden the use of the boerse through the decision of the court of honor.

Disguised His Vocation.

"What is your occupation?" asked the good woman as she handed out the fourth roast beef sandwich.

"I am an ex-pounder, madam. My delivery has become impaired and I find it very difficult to get a bout," answered the weary traveler.

Might Have Got More.

"I always have hard luck."

"What's the matter now?"

"I borrowed a dollar from my wife yesterday, and she had to break a five dollar bill to let me have it."—Detroit Free Press.

The Rest Was Easy.

She—I am weary of being a bachelor girl. He—Well—er—do you know I'm a bit sick of being a spinster man.—Boston Transcript.

HURRY ALONG!
IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY
AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $447,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

SON OF MARS IS GOLF CHAMPION

WON TITLE IN UTAH

Lieut. N. Pendleton Rogers, Jr.

First Lieutenant N. Pendleton Rogers, Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of East Front street, of the coast artillery corps, who has been in command of the recruiting district including Salt Lake City, since February 8, 1911, has been ordered to Fortress Monroe and will leave for that place Friday, July 5, for his new station. Lieut. Rogers expects to come to Plainfield about July 20 for a short visit with his parents.

On August 24 the lieutenant will be detailed to the artillery school for a course of instruction. Lieut. Rogers was graduated from West Point in 1907, when he was assigned to the artillery service in which arm of the service he has since remained, with the exception of the time that he was off duty because of a broken leg, the result of a coasting accident. During his stay in Utah Lieut. Rogers has been popular in local society and University club circles.

Lieut. Rogers is a full-fledged golf champion of Utah, his name having been inscribed on the State cup and having been presented with the championship tournament cup donated by D. C. Jackson. For thirteen years the lieutenant has been a devotee of the game and has played in a number of big tournaments. He reached the semi-finals in the Metropolitan golf championship tournament in 1903, which was played at Deal Beach. He won the State title in Utah from Jay Gilmer after the latter had disposed of F. E. McGurrin, six times State champion in the semi-finals. Both players put up a brilliant game in the final over the 36 hole course. Lieut. Rogers' score was 167 for the course, 83 in the morning and 84 in the afternoon. Gilmer's score was 168 for the course, his morning score being 82 and his afternoon score 86.

Lieut. Rogers will be succeeded by Captain Mack K. Cunningham of the signal corps, retired, who has been assigned to active duty, to take effect July 13 next. He has been detailed for general recruiting service and reports July 17.

Lieut. Rogers inherits his love for golf from his parents, especially his mother, who has for a number of years been a prominent figure in golf tournaments throughout the country. She is one of the few women golfers who has chosen to compete with players of the opposite sex and in every instance she has succeeded in holding her own with the best of golfers. She is probably one of the most enthusiastic players in this part of the country.

1000TH COMMUNICATION.

Several members of the local Masonic fraternity attended the one thousandth communication of Perfect Ashler Lodge, F. and A. M., at Terrace Garden, New York, last night. The third degree was conferred on four candidates by Grand Master Charles Smith, Past Grand Master Robert Judson Kenworthy, Judge Townsend Scudder, Judge John Wahle and other members of the staff. After the meeting a banquet was served. There were about 800 Masons present.

MISSING LITTLE GIRL IS FOUND IN ROSELLE

Joseph Himmelfarb, 311 New street, reported yesterday to the police that his eleven-year-old daughter had gone out for a spin on her bicycle at noon and had not returned at eight p. m. This morning a message was received from the police at Roselle that a girl of that name and answering to the description given was detained there. The father was notified and went off today to bring the truant home.

PROMINENT CITIZENS GIVE TO SAFE AND SANE FUND

Subscriptions to the fund for a fireworks display and concert at Parker Field on the evening of July 4 have been made by the following:

George P. Mellick, W. H. P. Veysey, C. W. McCutchen, Joseph Tate, M. C. Van Arsdale, Alexander Gilbert, J. W. Gavett, Duncan W. Taylor, Albert D. Beers, F. L. Holt, R. I. Tolles, A. J. Gavett, Chief of the Fire Department T. O. Doane, C. C. Randolph, Fred Endress, W. L. Gloak, H. H. Coward, M. Rimmer, A. E. Crone, H. E. Parker, H. W. Marshall, George H. Frost, LeRoy H. Gates, W. M. Sandford, Jr., G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. L. R. Williams, D. C. Ivins, J. B. Cottrell. The contributions amount to $80.

At least $225 will be needed to insure a satisfactory exhibition. It is to be hoped that the balance required will be speedily forthcoming. The success of the celebration planned for this year means a safe and sane Fourth hereafter. Contributions may be sent to H. H. Coward, treasurer at the City National Bank, or to the Daily Press.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS OF REQUIEM FOR MRS. HIGGINS

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Higgins, widow of Maurice Higgins, of West Sixth street, was held at 9 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's R. C. church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was said. Father Vincent Sciolla was the celebrant, Father B. M. Bogan the deacon and Father Daniel Hogan the sub-deacon. Following the celebration of the mass, Father Bogan made a short address in which he referred to the exemplary Christian life of the departed.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service and many beautiful floral tributes, including a pillow with the word "Mother" inscribed; a wreath from Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., a spray from Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, and other tributes from relatives and friends.

The burial was in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery, and the pallbearers were Patrick, John and Philip Maguire, Michael, John, Patrick and Cornelius Geary.

CHORAL UNION CONCERT IN A 'PLAINS CHURCH

The concert held last night at the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, under the auspices of the Young ePople's Choral Union, was enjoyed by a large audience. A number of selections were sung by the society, which were well executed and much credit is due Martin A. Kroff, who has been untiring in his work of drilling the union.

Miss Nellie Hollingsworth sang two solos, "Hope Temple," and "An Old Garden," and A. E. Horrick's "The Bird and the Rose." Miss Hollingsworth was in fine voice. Miss Margaret Jahn and Miss Ivy Hargrans played a pleasing piano duet. Miss Hatfield and Mr. Banks sang an alto and tenor duet. A violin solo, "The Rosary," was played by Donald Saunders and Whitney Frazse executed a pleasing cornet solo. The entertainment concluded with the singing of "The Heavens Are Telling," from Hayden's Creation, by the society.

The orchestral music, which was much enjoyed, was under the direction of Mr. Korff. William Ward assisted at the piano. The proceeds of the concert will be applied toward the Parish House fund.

HAND HURT IN MACHINE.

Edward Hazeton, of Bayonne, a handy-man employed by the Spicer Manufacturing Company, caught his right hand in a machine at the works last night, severing two tendons and breaking a bone. PROGRESSIVES WILL CONFER IN THIS CITY

Representatives From all Over Country Report Strong Roosevelt Sentiment.

Elizabeth, June 28 (Special).—Representative Progressives who are supporters of Roosevelt, held a conference at the home of E. A. Knapp in this city last night. There were about twenty persons present from Summit, Rahway, Cranford, Plainfield and this city. Mayor G. W. V. Moy, of Plainfield, was chosen chairman of the meeting.

The whole evening was given up to a general discussion of the situation and it was 11:30 o'clock when the conference was concluded. The purpose of it was to obtain an expression of opinion from those present as to the feeling in the municipalities they represented. These opinions showed that the Roosevelt feeling is stronger today than it was prior to or at the primaries; also that the feeling is as intense for Roosevelt, and against Taft and machine domination as it was at Chicago.

The formulation of a definite plan is held in abeyance until the state meeting to be held soon at Newark. It was decided to hold a similar conference in Plainfield some night next week, the date to be announced later.

JR. O. U. A. M. COUNCIL ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., at its meeting, last night, elected these officers for the coming year: Past Councilor, John Kriney; councilor, Harry Nolte; vice councilor, Howard R. Owen; recording secretary, Forester Hartpence; assistant recording secretary, George Laird; financial secretary, Ephraim Compton; treasurer, T. E. Currin; warden, W. S. Hinton; conductor, Martin Hinton; inside sentinel, John Kliner; outside sentinel, W. R. During the evening three candidates were initiated.

CAMP FIRE ON MOUNTAIN FOR BIBLE CLASS MEMBERS

The Men's Conference Bible Class of the First Baptist church and friends to the number of nearly one hundred, gathered on the mountains, last night, for the annual "campfire." The affair, an informal one, was the most successful in the history of the class. The men got together about 7 o'clock and after a general handshaking all sat down to an elaborate spread of good things provided by the committee comprising Walter Walker, Isaac Wyckoff and Robert Cranston.

The weather was ideal for the outing and everyone did full justice to the repast. Afterward the men enjoyed a number of short speeches. Among those who spoke were Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church; Arthur M. Harris, Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, Wilbur Randolph, Samuel Case, George H. Batchelor, teacher of the class. John G. MacLaughlin acted as toastmaster.

The speeches all had a direct bearing on the work of the class for men and the success of the organization was frequently commented upon. The whole affair was marked by genuine good fellowship and had a tendency to bring this large body of men in closer touch with one another. It was about 10 o'clock when the company departed for home.

SLIGHT OPERATION.

Isador Cossee, a bookkeeper in the employ of the Plainfield Furnishing Company, underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital, yesterday, for an infection of the hand. Mr. Cossee had picked the hand for some reason, causing it to swell and it was finally found necessary to have a slight operation. The man's general condition is reported to be excellent.

NOT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Jury Frees Faber of Criminal Responsibility for Death of Peter Murray.

OUT ONLY HALF-HOUR

Motorist Defended by Former Senator Charles A. Reed—Widow's Suit for Damages to Come up at October Term of Court.

Elizabeth, June 28.—Charles E. Faber, of North Plainfield, who was on trial in the Union County Court, yesterday and today, charged with manslaughter in the case of the death of Peter Murray, of Fanwood, was acquitted by the jury this afternoon. Faber's automobile killed Murray on South avenue last November. The case went to the jury about 12 o'clock and after a half-hour's deliberation returned a verdict acquitting the defendant. Former State Senator Charles A. Reed was Mr. Faber's counsel, while Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., assistant prosecutor, represented the state.

Mr. Faber still faces civil action, instituted by Mrs. Murray, widow of the dead man. This case will be tried at the October term of court. Judge William N. Runyon represents Mrs. Murray in this action, while Mayor G. W. V. Moy is Mr. Faber's counsel.

Upon the conclusion of the case late yesterday afternoon, Charles A. Reed, of counsel for the defendant, moved that the court direct a verdict of acquittal on the ground that the state had failed to prove that his client was guilty of "gross negligence" when Murray was run down and fatally injured on November 19 last. After dismissing the jury until morning, Mr. Reed's motion was argued. Judge Atwater announced that he would reserve decision until this morning.

When court opened this morning Mr. Reed's motion was denied and each side was then given an opportunity to sum up. This took practically all of the morning and it was 12 o'clock when the case was given to the jury.

Several members of the Brick family, whose home is near the scene of the accident in South avenue, Fanwood, testified yesterday afternoon. Among these were Bertrim Adele, Mabel and Florence Brick. They were at the scene of the accident soon afterward, it was stated. Other witnesses for the state were William Simons, of aFnwood, and Eugene Chamberlain, of Westfield.

Mr. Faber himself took the stand when the defense was opened. He declared that he didn't see Mr. Murray until his automobile struck him and the latter was in front of the car before he had a chance to stop. He added that he stopped his car about forty feet from where the injured man lay and he went back, placed Mr. Murray in the car and took him to Muhlenberg Hospital. Mr. Faber asserted that his car was going about twelve miles an hour at the time of the accident.

Mr. Reed raised the contention that Mr. Murray was dodging Eugene Chamberlin's automobile when he was struck and failed to look in the direction from which Mr. Faber's car was coming. Alexander Milne and Harold Wittke were among the witnesses for the defense.

REALTY TRANSFERS.

Among the local realty transfers recorded in the office of the county registrar at Elizabeth are the following: Mary M. Kelly to Abraham E. VanDoran, central line of East Second street, northeasterly line of Thorn's land, Plainfield, $1; John E. Dunn to Adelia Van Arsdale, West Front street, 397.13 feet, northeasterly of lands of Halsted C. Compton, Plainfield, $1.

MUSICAL SOLDIERS.

Ensign Larkin, assisted by three U. S. soldiers from Fort Slocum, will give a musical and clipping party at the Salvation Army tomorrow evening, commencing at 8:15 o'clock. Uncle Sam's "boys" will appear in their regulation uniform and a musical treat is in store for all who will attend. M. Gay will assist the quartet with his concertina.

CHIEF WALKS NOW.

An investigation proves that the accident to Fire Chief Doane's E. M. F. car was not due to any fault of the machine. It was being driven at a high rate of speed and naturally skidded on the slippery brick pavement and crashed into the curb, smashing one of the rear wheels. The wheel did not collapse as at first reported.

JURORS OFF UNTIL MONDAY.

All of the jurors now serving in the Union County Courts have been excused until Monday, there being no cases ready for trial until that time.

LABOR TROUBLE AT BIG MOTOR WORKS

Machinists at International Plant Agitating for Higher Pay—20 Out.

Labor troubles among the machinists of this city, which have just been settled by the press manufacturing companies, spread today to the International Motor Company, of 1325 West Front street. About twenty men quit work suddenly this morning following the appearance of a business agent of the union at the shops. The men say they walked out; the management of the works say that they were discharged.

Agitation for a higher increase of pay and the demand made by several fully fledged machinists, who say that they are only receiving apprentices' pay for the full rate, is stated to be the cause of the trouble.

This is denied by the company officials who state that no such condition of affairs exists and that the men who assert that they walked out voluntarily were discharged on no other ground than that of being agitators.

In conversation with a Daily Press reporter the manager said that a "few men had been discharged because they were trouble-makers" and that their loss would in no way effect or cripple the industry. Asked if he thought others would follow out of sympathy he said it was problematical.

DECISION RESERVED IN SUFFRAGE CASE

Miss Philbrook Submits Several Interesting Arguments Before Highest Court.

Trenton, June 28 (Special).—One of the points relied upon before the Court of Errors and Appeals yesterday by Miss Mary Philbrook, counsel in the Harriet F. Carpenter appeal case involving the question of the right of women to vote in this State was that the constitution of New Jersey adopted in 1844 does not fix the qualifications of voters for members of the Legislature, municipal officers, questions referred to the people, presidential electors, primary elections and elections of delegates to the National and State Conventions. Miss Philbrook argued that in the absence of any qualifications fixed by the Constitution, the right to vote at such elections belongs to the people—women as well as men. After hearing the argument the Court reserved decision.

The case was before the Court of last resort upon the appeal of Miss Carpenter from the decision against her in the Supreme Court. Miss Carpenter tried to register at the primary election last fall in Passaic Township, Morris county, and the Election Board refused to enter her name upon the registry books because she was a woman. She claimed the right to register under a provision of the State Constitution of 1776. After the Election Board's refusal to take her name she brought mandamus proceedings to compel them to register her name, and this brought the proceedings into the Supreme Court, where it was made a test case.

In the decision against Miss Carpenter handed down by the Supreme Court, Justice Kalisch gave as his main reason for denying the application of the plaintiff to register, that the phrase "All inhabitants" in the constitution of 1776 did not include women in its suffrage clause.

Miss Philbrook argued that in stating the qualifications of members of the Legislature, the Constitution declares that they shall be elected by legal voters. The Constitution, she claimed, provides that every male citizen shall have the right to vote for "officers," which does not state that they shall constitute the "legal voters" of the State. She pointed out that under the old Constitution the inhabitants, including many women, had the right to vote for members of the Legislature, and she insisted that the right still resides in the people, as in the beginning, the men and women.

She told the Court that it could not be construed that male citizens are the only legal voters, because this court has already decided that women may vote at school meetings. She claimed further, that it cannot be construed that men are the only legal voters because the state constitution cannot prescribe who shall be the legal voters for members of the Election College. She showed that the purpose of the United States constitution was to grant the power to choose the President and Vice President to a few persons in each state under the authority of the Legislature. It evidently intended that the Legislature itself should be free to exercise the power to choose the

IT LOOKS LIKE WILSON AS DEMOCRATS' CHOICE

Will New Jersey's Governor be the Choice of the Democratic National Convention for Presidential Nomination?

Clark Led on First Ballot But Jersey's Governor May Pass House Speaker When Second is Taken at 4 o'clock This Afternoon.

Baltimore, June 28.—No man can fortell the outcome of the second ballot when it is taken for the Presidential nomination by the Democratic Party in National convention assembled at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, and Congressman Champ Clark, of Missouri, have good chances, but neither will land the nomination on this ballot. If enthusiasm counts for anything, Wilson should be the choice, but not on the second nor on the third ballot. It may be that the delegates will spend the night balloting. All sorts of rumors are afloat. The tip is given "Keep your eye on Wilson—that's all."

Baltimore, June 28.—In the scenes before the roll call began today the demonstration for Governor Wilson was without doubt the greatest ever witnessed at a National Convention of either party. It began when Delaware on the roll call gave way to New Jersey and Judge John W. Westcott, one of the delegates at large from that State, made his way to the platform to place the name of Governor Wilson in nomination. That was at ten minutes after two o'clock.

Judge Westcott had just time to bow to the chair and turn to the delegates when bedlam broke. Some one proposed "Three cheers for Governor Wilson," and that was the match that started the fire. The Wilson delegates and their followers were on their feet in a flash. An effort was made by Ollie James, the chairman, to halt the demonstration at least until Judge Westcott got a chance to mention the name of the candidate in whose advocacy he had attempted to speak. It was useless though to even think of stopping the demonstration. In less time than it can be told delegates and boosters were jumping up and down, screaming hysterically, in their efforts to start a demonstration. And they succeeded, for one after another nearly all the delegations, including many who had joined in the frenzied Clark demonstration earlier in the night, had taken up the cry, "We want Wilson."

Banners, flags, signs, posters and emblems of every conceivable kind were hoisted into the air and waved vigorously, stirring up enthusiasm. The screaming and yelling increased and so did the number of banners and flags. From the balconies huge signs bearing Wilson mottoes were hung over the American flags that had been used to decorate the hall.

As the demonstration continued it was agreed that the New Jersey Governor had the best chance of all the candidates to obtain the coveted nomination. The crowd appeared to be in a state of frenzy. Mr. James, after the demonstration had lasted for more than twenty minutes, signalled the band to play, thinking that that might help to restore order. But it was no use, though the band played its loudest crashing music.

One man made his way through the hall, and mounting the speakers' platform, held aloft a live rooster. The rooster did not appear to care much for the demonstration and flapped his wings once or twice in a lazy manner. However, the crowd caught on, and hundreds started to crow in rooster-like fashion.

Courtland, Lewis, Wyoming, Schenectady and other counties in the upper part of New York State were represented by delegations of boosters who carried blue pennants proclaiming their home towns. A delegation from Staunton, Va., stretched a black cloth banner across the back of the hall on which in large orange colored letters was "Staunton, Va. Woodrow Wilson's birthplace." The Pennsylvania delegation was one of the liveliest of the leaders of the demonstrations. They waved banners on which was inscribed "Give Us Wilson and We'll Give You Pennsylvania."

Some of the boosters left the hall and getting into an automobile they hurried to the Emerson Hotel, where the painting of Governor Wilson was hung in the lobby. The painting was fifteen feet high and ten feet wide. On the painting was the declaration

CRANFORD MAN RUSHES INTO THE POLITICAL FRAY

Fred W. Park, a Cranford resident, through a lawyer in New York city, caused a sensation in the office of the secretary of State yesterday when he filed a petition nominating himself for congress in the Fifth district and insisting that he be named on the September primary ticket as a Republican, but inserted opposite his name, "Pledged to the principles of Theodore Roosevelt."

Ordinarily, such petitions are not filed until August. They must be filed thirty days before the September primaries, which come the fourth Tuesday of that month.

The quick filing of this petition has raised another interesting question, that being that the next petitioner from the Fifth district on the Republican side must place some designation opposite his name to distinguish him from Park. He cannot use the same phrase, if he is a Roosevelt man, but he can use the simple name of Roosevelt.

This petition also starts a fight in this district between congressional petitioners who prefer to uphold the hands of President Taft, and therefore is decidedly important.

DET.-SGT. FLYNN TURNS IN NEEDLESS YET USEFUL ALARM

Detective Sergeant John Flynn was the innocent cause of sending in a false alarm and calling out the fire companies last evening. He was seated at supper about 7:30 when two boys rushed breathlessly in and told him that a house was on fire. He darted ou and looking in the direction indicated by the boys he saw a tongue of flame shoot up as if from the roof of a house. Running quickly to the nearest alarm box, which happened to No. 48, at Albert street, he vigorously pulled it. Chief Doane and his staff were for a time at a loss how to locate the fire as several boxes tapped in at the same time. However, the fire apparatus was got out and hastened with all speed to Compton avenue, where is was discovered that a quantity of brush and rubbish was being burned by Halsted C. Compton. The chief arrived some time afterwards in a wagon, the fire committee not approving of the hiring of an automobile while the chief's car is under repair.

Sergeant Flynn was as much abashed as a detective ca nreally be. He expected a reproof or something in the nature of "look-well-before-you-leap admonition, and so he was a little surprised when the chief congratulated him in that he had done them excellent service in unwittingly drawing attention to the condition of the box which would be immediately attended to. Sergeant Flynn is looking for those two boys.

RALPH BINGAMAN WEDS UNIONTOWN, PA., GIRL

Miss Mabelle Campbell Witt, daughter of Mrs. Phoebe Campbell Witt, of Uniontown, Pa., and Ralph Wilson Bingaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bingeman, of East Ninth street, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Risk, of the First M. E. church, Uniontown, officiated.

Miss Nell Witt, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and L. Arthur Bingaman, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her mother. The bride wore a gown of white satin, draped with rose-point lace. She wore a tulle veil, which fell from a coronet of rose-point lace and orange blossoms to the end of the court train. She carried bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor's gown was of pink liberty satin with a Juliet cap of pearls. She carried a bouquet of maiden-hair fern and pink orchids.

The Witt home was elaborately decorated for the wedding, as was also the Uniontown Country Club, where a reception was held following the ceremony. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Bingaman were Mrs. Phoebe Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bingaman, Miss Witt, Arthur Bingaman, Mrs. James R. Barnes, Mrs. Jasper Augustine, Mrs. Jacob Black Adams, Mrs. George D. Livingstone and Mrs. Edward Snider.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bingaman will reside in New York. The bridegroom is connected with the New York offices of the Communipaw Steel Company. Mrs. Bingaman received a great many beautiful gifts from relatives and friends.

PIONEER Y. W. C. A. WORKER IS LAID AT REST TODAY

The funeral of Miss Ellen J. Reynolds, who died on Tuesday at the home of her cousin, Miss Althea Barnes, of West Fourth street, was held yesterday afternoon at 402 Park avenue. Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. The burial will take place today at Jordan, N. Y.

Miss Reynolds was one of the pioneer workers in the Y. W. C. A., being one of the first secretaries engaged by the association when it was started a quarter of a century ago. She was born at Auburn, N. Y., seventy-two years ago, and had lived in various cities in the West. She came to Plainfield two years ago, during which time she had been in failing health. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Auburn, N. Y.

BROTHER OF PLAINFIELDER DIES IN HIS N. Y. HOME

Joseph Stuyvesant Woodhouse, head of the Merchants' Agricultural Implements Company, passed away at his home, No. 229 West Ninety-seventh street, New York, yesterday after an illness of typhoid fever. He was forty-six years of age. At an early age he went into the farming implement business, and twenty years ago founded the company of which he is now the head. He was also the director of the Coldwell Lawn Mower Company, of New York.

Mr. Woodhouse was connected with many clubs and fraternal organizations in New York, among them being the New York Athletic Club, Mecca Temple and Republican Lodge of Masons. He was formerly quarter-master sergeant of the sixth company, Seventh Regiment, and a member of the Seventh Regiment Veteran's Association. He also was a member of the New York Zoological Association.

Mr. Woodhouse is survived by a widow and two sons, his father C. O. Woodhouse, two brothers, R. C., and C. O., Jr., of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Russell Dart. No definite arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

BUSINESS BUILDERS CLUB.

The first meeting of the Business Builders Club of Plainfield was held last night at the Plainfield Business College when a permanent organization was effected. These officers were elected: President, Paul H. Burns; vice president, W. R. Causbrook; secretary, A. S. Herr. James D. Kenyon, first vice president of the Sheldon School of New York and Chicago, talked on the value of scientific training in business, the benefit to be obtained by organization work of the merchants, manufacturing and professional men to the end of increasing business, increasing the efficiency of the organizations and the increase in efficiency of the individuals. Mr. Burns also spoke.

REPLEVINED GOODS.

Elizabeth, June 28.—Sergeant-at-Arms Vreeland, of the Plainfield District Court, came to Elizabeth, this morning, to replevin household goods at the home of Hannah Warwood, colored, of Spring street, for the Crown Company, of this city. When he arrived at the home he found all the doors and windows locked. With the assistance of Patrolman Talbot, an entrance was effected and the goods were removed from the premises.

TO SUCCEED—ADVERTISE.

Pennsylvania's retail coal dealers in convention yesterday "unanimously agreed that the newspapers are the best advertising mediums for the coal or any other business." One of the speakers said: "I have tried various ways of advertising to bring business before the public, but in the end I always went back to the newspapers. I tried circulars, personal solicitation and postcard methods, of bringing my name before the public, but none was so successful as the newspaper. Change your advertisement from time to time and make it attractive, and people will read it. A great deal depends upon the advertisement itself. I believe that by advertising in newspapers a man receives five times as much for the money expended than in any other way."

In these days, no business can be made a sucess unless it is given the right sort of publicity, sanely, aggressively, truthfully and persistently. The merchant, who foolishly claims that he doesn't need to advertise, has dust on his counters and cob-webs on his shelves.

Almost any kind of political news may be found in the papers now-a-days. Judging from the comment in the Newark Star, Governor Wilson is "not one, two, three" at the Baltimore convention. However, the wish is father to the thought in this case, and the people are wise to the Honorable Jim Smith's ways, and can read between the lines. It must be rather galling to Jim to be down there, and not be considered prominent enough to even have his name mentioned. There has not been a convention of the Democrats in years in the reports of which Jim has not shone, but he and his followers have been given such a trouncing by Governor Wilson that they are no longer considered of enough importance to be mentioned in the press reports. It is many a year since Jim has not controlled the delegation from New Jersey to a National convention.

Contributed editorials are a weekly feature of this paper. Appearing on successive Saturdays and written by prominent Plainfielders, they command the attention of the public generally. The topics are chosen by the contributing editors themselves who are free to discuss matters in any way they please. The purpose is to make the editorial columns on that day a popular forum where representative citizens are given the opportunity to voice their own opinions on matters they consider of interest to the community and its welfare. We take pleasure in announcing that the contributing editor for tomorrow will be Howard H. Williams, a New York lawyer, and a public spirited resident of Plainfield. He will discuss a subject of vital interest—government by commission for our municipality.

"LaFollette Out Until 1916 Fight" says a newspaper headline. Perhaps Battle Bob will still be entirely out at that time, if the action which Governor McGovern and others in his own State are planning to take against him materializes. It is said that McGovern has decided to wage a war to the death on the Wisconsin Senator in his home State, because LaFollette refused to have his delegates support McGovern for temporary chairman of the National convention at Chicago last week.

Chicago will be the metropolis of the United States in twenty-five years, Walter D. Moody, managing director of the Chicago Plan Commision, predicted in an address today before the National Press Association. He also said Chicago's indebtedness was only $25 per capita, compared with New York's $213 per capita.—Chicago News Dispatch.

Who ever heard of a Chicago man who did not begin to explain how far the Windy City is ahead of Gotham within two minutes after he was introduced?

There seem to still be a few doubting Thomases, who think the third party will not materialize in the coming campaign, but those who have talked to persons who attended that meeting in Chicago last Saturday night at which the movement was originated, have no doubt that there will be three tickets in the field. In New York State the Progressives are even going to name a ticket for Governor and all the State offices.

By virtue of the Geran law, it is the privilege of any voter to make himself a candidate for nomination. Probably few people in Union county ever heard of Frederick W. Park until they read that he had filed his petition as a candidate for the Republican congressional nomination. Now they know this much; that he is a New York lawyer and that he lives at Cranford.

Above all, the great exhibition of stolid indifference as exhibited by the New York delegates at both the Chicago and Baltimore conventions, and their dependence upon Bosses Barnes and Murphy to do their voting for them is the greatest argument for the direct primary, and the real rule of the people, that has yet been made.

Says Editor James Smith, Jr., taking a thrust at Bryan: "Among the great changes that are now pending will be the doing away of one-man power in the National political organizations." And this man knows what he is talking about for didn't Woodrow Wilson put an end to his Democratic oligarchy in New Jersey?

Count on our old friend "Tune" Melick, the "Mayor of Pluckemin," getting his name in the papers when there is anything going on. He turned up in Baltimore this week, and was run out of a hotel there before he had been in the city twenty-four hours.

The summer exodus to the seashore has begun in deadly earnest. Don't forget before going away to leave your change of address at the Daily Press office, so that you can have your favorite paper mailed to you.

If you favor a Safe and Sane Fourth, send a dollar or so the Plainfield Playgrounds Commission to help defray the expense of the Independence day celebration at Parker Field.

A careful examination of the reports from Baltimore fails to show therein any statement from Mr. Bryan that he thinks the third party idea a bad one.

The contributing editor to the Outlook has been busy of late and it seems as if it might be wise to remove him to the advertising department.

An Elizabeth ice company has just declared a fifty per cent dividend, but don't start any knocking. The money was made in real estate.

Judging from the newspaper reports this morning, they have not yet stopped "kickin' my dawg aroun'."

IT LOOKS LIKE WILSON

"Our next President."

The boosters carried the painting down the centre aisle across in front of the platform and over to one of the balconies on the side. Their willing hands lifted it to the guard rail of the balcony and held it there. The enthusiasm increased greater than ever at this and in fact it seemed as though a panic would result.

After the demonstration had lasted for one hour Mr. James again began to pound his gavel for order. The sergeant at arms went through the crowd that by this time was marching around the hall and got many of them to take their chairs. The demonstration, however, continued for ten minutes longer before the chairman could make himself heard, in order to reintroduce Judge Westcott so that the latter could formally place Governor Wilson in nomination. Judge Westcott talked for at most forty minutes, concluding his speech at four o'clock.

The closing sentence of the speech "New Jersey offers for the nomination for Presidency Princeton's school master, Woodrow Wilson," was the signal for the followers of New Jersey's Governor to start the demonstration anew.

The banners went flying in the air again and the parade around the Convention Hall was renewed. This time the delegations who were helping along in the general racket marched in bodies and carried their standards along with them. New Jersey itself led the way, followed by Oregon, Texas, Delaware, South Carolina, Missouri, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Tennessee and Puerto Rico.

Baltimore, June 28.—The first ballot, taken early this morning, in the Democratic National Convention showed Champ Clark, the leading candidate, to be lacking 296½ votes of the number necessary to elect him under the two-thirds rule. The number of votes necessary on a basis of 1,088 votes in the convention is 736.

Woodrow Wilson, the next candidate, received 324 votes, or 412 less than he needed. Wilson is in better shape than Clark, who is scheduled to lose votes when the convention resumes balloting at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Six candidates were placed in nomination in the convention. They are: Oscar Underwood of Alabama, Champ Clark of Missouri, Simeon Eli Baldwin of Connecticut, Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, John R. Marshall of Indiana and Judson Harmon of Ohio.

The result of the ballot: Clark, 440½; Wilson, 324; Harmon, 148; Underwood, 117; Marshall, 31; Baldwin, 22; William Sulzer, 2; William J. Bryan, 1; Not voting, 2.

Illinois is going to break away from Clark this afternoon if the program holds out. New York will not vote for Harmon on the second ballot. There will not be enough changes though to give any of the candidates an election. If Wilson can hold his 324, he is in command of the situation as no other candidate can get all the rest and nearly all the rest are needed for success.

The convention adjourned at 7:15 this morning after a continuous session of over eleven hours. It was an arduous session opened up with a sensation by William Jennings Bryan and working along to the wearisome tediousness of nominating speeches.

The vote by states on the first ballot: Alabama—Underwood, 24; Arizona—Clark, 6; Arkansas—Clark, 18; California—Clark, 26; Colorado—Clark, 12; Connecticut—Baldwin, 14; Delaware—Wilson, 6; Florida—Underwood, 12; Georgia—Underwood, 28; Idaho—Clark, 8; Illinois—Clark, 58; Indiana—Marshall, 30; Iowa—Clark, 26; Kansas—Clark, 20; Kentucky—Clark, 26; Louisiana—Clark, 11; Wilson, 9; Maine—Clark, 1; Underwood, 2; Wilson, 9; Maryland—Clark, 16; Massachusetts—Clark, 36; Michigan—Marshall, 1; Harmon, 7; Wilson, 10; Clark, 12; Minnesota—Wilson, 24; Mississippi—Underwood, 20; Missouri—Clark, 36; Montana—Clark, 8; New Jersey—Underwood, 2; Clark, 2; Wilson, 24; Nebraska—Clark, 12; Harmon, 4; Nevada—Clark, 6; New Hampshire—Clark, 8; New York—Harmon, 90; New Mexico—Clark, 8; North Carolina—Wilson, 16½; Harmon, ½; Underwood, 7; North Dakota—Wilson, 10; Ohio—Harmon, 35; Wilson, 10; Clark, 1; Bryan, 1; absent, 1; Oklahoma—Clark, 10; Wilson, 10; Oregon—Wilson, 10; Pennsylvania—Wilson, 71; Harmon, 5; Rhode Island—Clark, 10; South Carolina—Wilson, 18; South Dakota—Wilson, 10; Texas—Wilson, 40; Tennessee—Wilson, 6; Underwood, 6; Clark, 6; Harmon, 6; Utah—Wilson, 6; Clark, 1½; Harmon, ½; Vermont—Baldwin, 8; Virginia—Wilson, 9½; Underwood, 14½; Washington—Clark, 14; West Virginia—Clark, 16; Wisconsin—Wilson, 19; Clark, 6; absent, 1; Wyoming—Clark, 6; Alaska—Clark, 4; Sulzer, 2; District of Columbia—Clark, 6; Porto Rico—Clark, 2; Wilson, 3; Underwood, 1; Hawaii—Clark, 2; Underwood, 1; Wilson, 3.

members of the Electoral College, and therefore, would not hamper it by making the choice depend upon any clause in the state constitution which might restrict the legislative power.

If this be true, the argument continued, a State Legislature has the right to determine who shall be entitled to vote for Presidential Electors, irrespective of any provision in the constitution of a state which limits the exercise of the elective franchise to men. Continuing, Miss Philbrook said:

"If women had the right to vote under the constitution of 1776, they were therefore entitled to vote for Presidential Electors, and there does not appear to be any legislative act which has since deprived them of that right. Presidential electors are not officers of the state, and were not included in the suffrage clause of the constitution of 1844. The fact that the suffrage clause in a state constitution excludes women from voting for officers would not make them ineligible as electors of Presidential electors, because a state could not limit its Legislature in fixing the methods by which their electors are appointed."

Miss Philbrook raised a novel point that if a constitution gives to all male citizens the right to vote for "all officers," it does not mean that they shall also have the exclusive right to vote for candidates for nomination, because the right to nominate is distinct from the right to elect, and the right to vote in the constitutional provision is for the election of officers. It was shown that the courts in several states have held that primary elections are not such elections as are contemplated by the suffrage clause in the state constitution.

MARK INLAND ROUTE FROM BAY HEAD TO CAPE MAY

Trenton, June 28.—Announcement has been made by the State Department of Inland Waterways that the marking of the route of the Inland Waterway from Bay Head to Cape May has been completed. Three kinds of markings have been employed:

1. Black and white mid-channel barrel buoys where the channels are wide and deep.

2. Beacons made of painted nail kegs set at important angles. In going north or entering port at Cape May, leave red beacon to starboard and black beacon to port for the entire route.

3. Bush top cedar stakes with red or black shingles attached, similar to beacon marks, are set on both sides of the channel in the shoal waters.

To avoid the crossing of Great Egg Inlet (Longport to Ocean City) the channel has been marked via Risley Channel, Scull's Bay and Broad Thorofare. Commissioner Harry W. Schneider, in making the announcement requested that prompt notice be given to his department of the loss of beacons or buoys, giving the number of the latter if possible, as it is the purpose to replace lost markings this season.

After a week's illness, during which he was a patient at the Muhlenber Hospital, Wilbert Taylor, colored, of 213 Westervelt avenue, died this morning. The cause of death was due to heart affection. He was twenty-three years of age and the son of Caesar Taylor, a gardener. The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

AFFIRMS FRANCHISE TAX.

Trenton, June 28.—The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed a franchise tax of $200 imposed by the State Board of Assessors upon $200,000 of the capital stock of the Goldstein Fineberg Company. The court held that stock once issued remains outstanding within the purview of the franchise tax act, although owned by the corporation issuing it, until retired and cancelled as provided by the satute for the reduction of capital stock. The company claimed exemption upon $150,000 of the stock which had been assigned to the corporation by the holders.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Another big time is carded for the Oval tomorrow.

Chief Doane will escort his guests (the New York Fire Department baseball team) into the field at 3:45.

Previous to this the reorganized Netherwood A. C. will try conclusions with the peppery West End A. C. crowd.

As a little side appetizer there will be a trio of games in both the Sunday-school and Manufacturers' League.

There will be some kind of an exhibition of the National sport in every portion of the city.

The two Somerset County rivals, Bound Brook and Somerville, baseball teams, will face each other with Slocum and Kraft as the probable opposing moundsmen.

The cup offered by the Plainfield Daily Press for the winner in the Manufacturers' Baseball League, is now on exhibition in DeMeza & Blimm's show window.

Someone has just come across with a cure for distemper in dogs. What about a similar treatment (invented by an umpire) for baseball players.

The First Baptist team have won three games in the Sunday-school League.

Not very many to crow over, but the only reason they have not won any more is because they haven't played any more.

A number of local rowing enthusiasts left yesterday for the annual college races at Poughkeepsie.

Even odds are being placed on the Cornells eight against the field.

Hugh McIntosh seems to have caused Jack Johnson to hesitate by his $30,000 offer for a bout to be held in Australia within the next year.

ROYALS AGAINST DIXIES.

The Royal Giants will play the Dixie Giants tomorrow. Trainer Warrick has got the Royals going at a fast pace. On Sunday the Royals play at Kennelworth. Klein or Nelson will pitch with Jones at the receiving end.

PLAINFIELD MILKMEN BEAT ROSELLE BROTHERS

The Borden's Condensed Milk team, of Plainfield, defeated the team representing the same company in Roselle yesterday afternoon by the one-sided score of 27 to 13. The visiting team scored in every one of the nine rounds and the victory was an easy one for them.

The star plays of the game were made by J. Bohl, Conway and Martin. Conway, the midget of the victorious team, held his own both in the field and at the bat and was the popular star of the game.

Lineup:

Plainfield—Conway ss, Carhuff 1b, Curran p, 2b, Martin 2b, p, N. Bohl c, J. Bohl 3b, L. Bohl lf, Skillman rf.

CRACK FROM BALL HASN'T MADE MARTIN BAT SHY

Jack Martin, the local lad holding down short for the New York American League Club, still continues at his fast clip and was one of the three Yankees to secure a safety from Brown, the Athletics' twirler, in yesterday's game. A New York paper pays the following tribute to Jack:

"Jack Martin, who makes his home in Plainfield, N. J., who has been beaned by Walter Johnson, and who had half of his toe cut off in Chicago, is a game skeeter. There was fear expressed by his teammates that he would be bat shy, which would kill his chances of being of some use to his country as a ball player. But this did not bother Martin. He has replaced Stump at short and is doing well.

"'If I do not meet with any more accidents, they will never get me out of the game,' said Martin, 'I think I can make a success of this big league business, and all that I ask is to stay in the game and I will show Wolverton what I can do.'

FIREMEN'S TEAM WILL PLAY HERE TOMORROW

The attraction for the Oval tomorrow afternoon will be in the shape of another double bill with the New York Fire Department as the opponents of the Plainfield baseball team and the Netherwood A. C. and the West End A. C. taking care of the preliminary argument.

During their stay in this city the Metropolitan fire laddies will be entertained by a committee from the local department, headed by Chief Doane.

The lineup will be as follows:

INCREASED INTEREST IN THE LEAGUE RACE

Commercial's Defeat Last Saturday Has Brought Upset in Standing.

The defeat of the Commercial team, who led the Manufacturers' League up to the time of their meeting with the R. G. E. aggregation last Saturday, has caused a sudden burst of enthusiasm in the league. The Spicer team will lineup against the top rungers tomorrow afternoon and if they are able to take a fall out of them, and the R. G. E. keeps up their winning streak when they take the P. S. C. bunch on, the R. G. E. will place their colors at the top of the ladder. The Saurer nine will endeavor to break their losing streak and establish a mark in the won column, when they line up against the Bankers.

The league is now well under way and the games are all drawing good crowds. The contests scheduled for tomorrow afternoon are particularly strong ones and are very likely to cause a change in the league standing.

JOHNSON TAKES IT EASY, FLYNN WORKING HARD

With the fight for the heavyweight championship of the world less than a week off there is a striking contrast between the training methods being resorted to in the two rival camps. It is the popular opinion of sporting men that Johnson is due for a showing up, but on the other hand the big smoke always looks sluggish and lazy when he is in training, and this same dope was passed around before his fight with Jeffries. Johnson seems to be training up on the defense, and stalls his partners off all through his bouts. His day's routine consists of such stunts as throwing the medicine ball, an eight-round bout with two of his sparring partners, and he takes a daily run down to the city, which is about fifteen miles from camp.

Flynn's camp is about eight miles from the city and he begins his day at eight in the morning. He skips the rope, punches the bag, throws the ball, shadow boxes, wrestles and then fights his bag of sand, which weighs about 350 pounds.

Johnson is fat and don't care while Flynn is as serious as a priest

MRS. ROGERS WINS IN CRANFORD GOLF TOURNEY

Mrs. N. P. Rogers, of Plainfield, playing under the colors of Baltusrol, took the net prize in the women's tournament at the Cranford Golf Club, yesterday afternoon, when she turned in a score of 91. She not only turned in the best net score but broke the course record as well, thus bringing her spring competition to a grand close. This was Mrs. Rogers' second success of the week, as on Tuesday she won the approaching and putting contest at the Essex County Club.

In yesterday's competition Mrs. Rogers was low for both gross and net prizes, with a card of 91, 3-88. As the rules prevented her from taking more than one prize, she finally decided to take the silver loving cup offered as the net prize.

Miss Bertha Stratton, one of Cranford's foremost players, who was Mrs. Rogers' partner throughout the match, declared that she had never seen such golf played by a woman as that shown by the Plainfield contestant.

Mrs. M. Dumont, of Plainfield, finished third with a card of 112, 18-94, while Mrs. H. R. Stockton turned in 110, 5-105. Mrs. Avery, also of Plainfield, broke into fourteenth place with 125, 14-111.

SPORTS ON EDGE FOR WELLS-PALZER BOUT

Boxing enthusiasts are on the edge for the big international fight at Madison Square Garden tonight, between Bombadier Wells, the British champion, and "Al." Palzer, of New York. The winner tonight will without doubt be pitted against Jack Johnson for the heavy-weight championship of the world. The battle will go ten rounds and the betting at present favors Palzer at 9 to 10.

The two men represent two entirely different types of pugilists. Palzer is a young giant, at least twenty-five pounds heavier than the Englishman, and has a terrific punch in either hand. On the other hand Palzer is a very poor ring general, he is hot-headed and needs a check line in the shape of good seconds. He is a fine example of the finished athlete and can stand any amount of punishment, his face is hard and tough, excepting his nose, which has been operated upon twice.

Wells is a slugger of the John L. Sullivan school, and he, like Palzer, cares nothing for his opponents' body blows. He is a product of the British navy, where he met and defeated all comers, and won the British title by defeating Iron Hague in six rounds.

CHANCE FOR LOCAL ATHLETES IN THE BIG JULY 4 MEET

The entries for the field and track meet on Parker Field Thursday afternoon are coming in fast, and there will be many stars among the competitors. When seen this morning Mr. Ostlin, who has the meet in charge, said:

"In my opinion this meet will eclipse anything of its kind that was ever held in this vicinity and should bring to Plainfield the cream of the athletic world. These big competitors will in no way dim the chances of the local entrants, because every event on the program has at least one prize which has been put up for Plainfield contestants exclusively. All entries must be in my hands or bear the evidence of having been mailed before nine o'clock tomorrow evening. All post entries after this time will have to be handed to me personally and arrangements can probably be made to receive entries up to Tuesday afternoon. I have about completed the list of officials and will make it public sometime Wednesday. The field will be put in the best of condition and the track will be the fastest cinder path in this vicinity."

After this statement by a man who is running the machinery of the big affair, it seems it is now up to the local lads to get in condition in the few remaining days, and annex other prizes besides those closed to Plainfield.

BIBLE SCHOOL LEAGUE EXPECTS A BIG DAY

Line Ups on Generally Even Terms—Park Avenue Meets Leaders.

A big day is slated for the Sunday-school League tomorrow, and the three games are all between teams of like strength. The Park Avenue nine will stack up against the league leaders and the backers of the former team predict an item in the lost column for the fast going Front street lads. The Hope Chapel and Monroe teams will come together with the outcome of second place at stake. The South Plainfield team will invade the Temple Baptist territory and the latter team's chances of climbing out of the cellar seems to be at stake.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chilton, of the borough, will leave tomorrow for Asbury Park, where they will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Schomp, of 978 Madison avenue, are parents of a nine pound boy, who arrived at their home yesterday morning.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of the Bristol, left this morning in his automobile for Spring Lake to join his wife. They will return home on Saturday.

Arthur S. Giles, of West Fifth street, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Muhlenberg Hospital recently, expects to return home within the next week.

Hervey Rothberg, of this city, who was graduated from Amherst College on Wednesday, has returned home. He will take a summer course in law at Columbia University.

Irving Seevers, of Clinton avenue, who recently broke his leg by a fall from a cherry tree, continues to improve at Muhlenberg Hospital. It will be some time before he can return home.

At the Convention

News Item: When the delegates fight among themselves the tips for the bell boys, cabmen, and waiters go glimmering. This is the worst convention yet from the point of view of the tip brigade.

One thing is sure. You do not have to pay extra for service at this shop. Here your interest is safeguarded in the quality and values we give in our clothes. We give the tips. The best tip we can give you today is to see our circulars and prices in window during our mid-summer clearing sale of up-to-the-minute

Paint that Stays Painted
That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

COOLING SUMMER DRINKS.

WHEN the housewife entertains a few friends on a summer afternoon or when she wishes to allay the misery of the family on hot evenings it is delightful to know of some novel and piquant drink which may be served even in temperance households.

Where fresh fruits are available of course their juices make the nicest beverages, but where they are not conveniently at hand there are many fruit sirups that may be safely substituted for them.

A Medley of Fruits.

Banana Cup.—Take two sliced bananas, some grated pineapple, a few slices of oranges and a few cherries. Over these pour the juice of an orange and a lemon. Place in sherbet glasses and keep in a cold place until served.

A Novel Use of Tea.

Fruit and Tea Punch.—Take the juice of three oranges, three lemons, the pulp and juice of one ripe pineapple and add a pint of sugar. When the sugar is dissolved pour a quart of boiling water over one tablespoonful of strong tea and let it stand until cold. Strain and mix with the fruit, pulp and juice. Add a quart of apollinaris water and pour over ice in a punch bowl.

This With Berries.

Raspberry Vinegar.—Put three quarts of berries in a pint of best vinegar. Let stand several days, then mash and strain them. To each pint of juice add a pound of sugar and boil twenty minutes. When cold, bottle and cork. A spoonful in a glass of ice water makes a very refreshing drink.

Orange Nectar.—Take six oranges, remove the skin and all white pith and seeds. Divide into sections. Drop six heaping tablespoonfuls of sugar in a saucepan with the juice of two other oranges and some grated rind. Let these simmer until the sugar is dissolved, but not boiled.

Arrange the sections of the oranges in a punch bowl with the sirup and cold water, flavor with orange flower water and pour over the oranges in the bowl. At the last put in several pieces of ice.

CHIC STYLES.

New Touch In Millinery—Gloves In Shantung Silk.

A cock's quill made of black velvet over wires is a new touch in millinery. It has been strikingly used on a dead white milan walking hat which has a

Natural colored fabric gloves with elbow length wrists come all ready to be put on with the frock of natural linen or pongee. The hand portion of the glove is plain and strongly resembles a shantung weave of silk, while the wrists are crinkled as though they had been washed, wrung out, but not pressed. They are said to be exceedingly substantial and easily laundered.

Young girls are apt to like coats with little fancy touches, and they are being much worn this season. The one pictured has cut away fronts and with front and belt portions that give a slightly raised waist line.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for girls of fourteen, sixteen and eighteen years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7469, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

DEATHS OF COUPLE IS BLAMED ON THIEVES

Budd Lake, June 28.—That burglars may have been responsible for the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgerton, who perished in the fire that destroyed their cottage here June 6, is the belief of their son-in-law, Allan R. Knowles.

Mr. Knowles bases this belief on several circumstances. The fact that he has been unable to find in the ruins any trace of some $700 worth of solid silverware is one of these circumstances. This silverware, Mr. Knowles says, was in a bag under a couch in the living-room.

The plated silverware has been found.

Mr. Knowles says that when he arrived at the cottage the night of the fire, he noticed that the dogs which were accustomed to bark at the approach of strangers, did not do so. Mr. Knowles also says that the light usually left burning for him was not burning that night.

And, while he sat reading, before retiring he heard Mr. Edgerton sigh twice, but at the time thought he was merely tired. He thinks that the old couple were chloroformed. Mr. Knowles was not satisfied with the decision not to hold an inquest.

ALLENHURST'S "BEACH" WARFARE NOW SETTLED

Allenhurst, June 28.—Following a conference early this week between a committee of the Allenhurst Club and Arthur B. Hammond and Herbert G. Winans, manager and proprietor respectively of the Curley Hotel, peace has been declared.

It was announced yesterday that hotel patrons in Allenhurst will participate in all beach club affairs. Last year, when the club members reserved exclusively for themselves the privilege of the bathing grounds and beach club, the hotel men secured an injunction against the club. An incident in the warfare was the attendance of the hotel servants at an exclusive dance given by the beach club.

As soon as the legal machinery can be set in motion, Mr. Winans said the chancery proceedings will be brought to a close and the injunction withdrawn. The beach club affairs will be managed this year by a committee of which Mr. Hammond will be a member, as representing the Curley Hotel and "The Dunes." No one except members of the summer colony and hotel patrons will be allowed, however, to participate in any of the affairs at the beach club.

The bathing houses will be leased only to cottagers and club members, while each hotel has been allowed a block of bathing houses, the receipts from which they have agreed to turn over to the joint committee for the upkeep of the beach.

A "membership fee" of $10 per person will be claimed for the use of the beach club pavilion for the entire season, this to include entrance to all functions and the use of the bathing grounds.

LUNATIC CAUSES PANIC.

Atlantic City, June 28.—Becoming violent while on a Pennsylvania express train from Trenton to Philadelphia Wednesday afternoon, Dr. George Fletcher, a negro physician of this place, caused a panic. He was overpowered after attacking his companion, Dr. Terry, and brought here, where he was lodged in a padded cell. Dr. Fletcher, who recently was released from State Prison, became violent at Paterson this week when denied admission to a convention of negro Masons. Dr. Terry was escorting him to this city, when the attack occurred. Dr. Fletcher grabbed his friend by the throat, but Terry broke away and ran shouting through the train. Passengers bound the insane man with ropes.

AGAIN RAISES RED FLAG.

Rumson, June 28.—James M. Allgor, of "spite fence" fame, is busy putting up another fence. He began work of setting posts Wednesday in front of his Rumson road bungalow. Allgor has also raised the red flag that caused such a rumpus several weeks ago. Trouble is brewing, and unless the red flag is taken down the small boys of the borough will, it is said, haul it down the first opportunity. They were oragnized to take it down before, but Mr. Allgor took the advice of friends at Red Bank and averted trouble.

CIVIL SERVICE EXEMPTION.

Trenton, June 28.—The Civil Service Commission will hold a public hearing Tuesday, July 9, in its rooms in the State House at 12 m. on the exemption of an assistant in the department of the geological survey to carry on a series of experiments on the fusibility and fire-resisting qualities of New Jersey firebrick. The compensation will be about $60 per month and the work will extend over a period of from three to nine months.

RUNS IRON IN HIS FOOT.

Glen Gardner, June 28.—William Congle, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Congle, is suffering from a dangerous wound in his foot. With some boys of his own age he was swimming in a pond back of the old mill, and in coming out of the water he stepped on a piece of sharp rusty iron and ran it completely through his foot. One of his companions pulled the iron out and helped him home. Dr. Hunt was summoned, but lockjaw is feared.

MAN WHO SHOT WIFE WILL HIMSELF RECOVER

Long Branch, June 28.—Joseph Jonessa, the Trenton barber, who shot and killed his wife in Franklin avenue Tuesday afternoon while their three children were picking flowers, and then made an unsuccessful attempt to take his own life, will recover.

To Coroner William H. Morris, Jr., he said Wednesday that the shooting was an accident, although Mr. Morris believes the act was premeditated. The three children have been taken by relatives. Just as soon as Ponessa recovers he will be committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

FOSTER FOUND GUILTY ON WATCHMAN'S CHARGE

Trenton, June 28.—Frederick M. Foster was convicted Wednesday of atrocious assault on Milton Kurtis, fifty-five years old, a watchman. The extreme penalty is seven year's imprisonment and a fine of $2,000.

Foster was one of a party of six that drove into the canal here last January. The other five were drowned. Foster was driving and managed to escape by swimming. The others could not free themselves from the car.

In testifying Wednesday Foster said he struck Kurtis in the course of a quarrel during which the watchman taunted him with the canal fatality and called him names, but denied that he used a stick or club. He said the trouble began when his dog chased some chickens belonging to Kurtis.

The prisoner was released on bond. His counsel has not yet decided whether he will appeal.

AUTOMOBILE OVERTURNS, CHAUFFEUR BADLY HURT

Red Bank, June 28.—An automobile turned turtle opposite the Conover estate on the Middletown turnpike late Wednesday afternoon and Vincent Cassidy, the only occupant of the car, was seriously injured. Cassidy is employed as a chauffeur by Miss Helen T. Orvis, of the Hotel Loraine, New York, and lives at 543 West Fifty-first street, New York.

The man was thrown to the road and was picked up unconscious and taken to Dr. W. W. Hendrickson's office, in Middletown village. He was removed to his home yesterday morning.

According to Cassidy's story, he was taking Miss Orvis' auto to her New York home from a garage in Avon. He said that he was going at a pretty fast clip when he lost control of the machine, which jumped over a deep ditch on the side of the road and turned over on the trolley tracks of the Jersey Central Traction Company.

The auto was completely wrecked and blocked traffic on the trolley road until removed by a wrecking car.

VISIT JR. O. U. A. M. ORPHANS.

Long Branch, June 28.—State Councilor L. L. Hand, of New Egypt, accompanied by State Vice Councilor W. C. Wakefield, of Newark; State Secretary William H. Miers, of Trenton, and Past State Councilor W. B. La Rue, of Bound Brook, toured Monmouth county Wednesday, starting in at Freehold and ending at Keyport, visiting twelve of the seventy orphans of members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. who are living in private homes and maintained by the State orphans' fund of the order.

The order in New Jersey has 50,000 members, being the largest secret society in the State. Once each year an assessment of five cents per capita is levied and collected by the subordinate councils. Instead of running an orphans' home the orphans are placed in good homes and the expense met by the assessments.

BARBERS SCORN TIPS.

Paterson, June 28.—The barbers of this city are opposed to the tip, and have begun a campaign which aims to do away with tips in every shop in Paterson. All the union barbers have joined the movement, which aims to substitute for the tip a wage scale that shall place the wielders of razors and scissors above the necessity of accepting gratuities. The success of the movement depends largely on the willingness of bosses to pay their barbers higher wages. But the barbers intend to spend a year, if necessary, in gathering statistics and other data which will convince the bosses it is to their interest to increase wages.

BIDS FOR WATER PLANT.

Stanhope, June 28.—T. M. Lesher's bid of $18,997 for the construction of the new water plant was the lowest of those presented at the recent meeting of the Borough Council. The Suburban Engineering Company's bill was $19,889 and that of P. A. Hennessy $21,000. Further action will not be taken till after the election, July 5. When Council met Tuesday its counsel advised that the bids be opened in a secret meeting. When the bidders said that they would rather have it done at the open meeting, he said that it could be done as they desired, and it was.

"TUNE" MELLICK BOBS UP AT BALTIMORE

"Mayor of Pluckemin" Achieves Notoriety at Big Convention.

Baltimore, June 28.—New Jersey has the distinction of contributing the most bizarre and grotesque figure in attendance at the convention in the person of Tunis Melick, the "Mayor of Pluckemin." Mr. Melick has been immortalized by sketch and caricature in the newspapers, and ejected from at least one hotel, but his war cry is still heard wherever the crowds congregate thickest. Here is the way the Baltimore Sun describes the man from Somerset:

"Up at the Belvedere yesterday afternoon was a giant in corduroy, the breadth of whose shoulders was like into a sideboard, whose paunch was like the arc of a hogshead, whose big, broad face, under a cap like a seaman's, was decorated by a straggling mustache and beard which didn't hide the discolored snags in his mouth. He was haranguing a lot of men on the labor vote, and doing it with a voice like a fog-siren off the Jersey coast.

"In was in the bar. In one hand he held a glass containing an unfinished highball. With the other he gesticulated.

"'Can't do without the laboring man, can't do without the laboring man!' he shouted over and over and over again, his voice growing louder with each repetition. 'He's producer and consumer; can't do without him. Can't, I say!'

"His great hulk and his corduroys, the rolling movement of his immense feet, the violence of his arm in a movement which he meant to be only friendly, and of his giant paw, made him like an over-sized grizzy in a group of chattering monkeys. The other men gave him a wide circle in which to move and smiled at him."

FINDINGS OF AUTOPSY PROMPT KRUG INQUEST

Elizabeth, June 28.—Because of the finding of addition evidence, County Prosecutor Swift has ordered an inquest into the death of Albert A. Krug, the letter-carrier, who, before he died Monday night, accused Julius Aagaard of kicking him.

A jury was obtained. The members viewed the body Wendesday night and will meet in the courthouse this afternoon to take evidence. The funeral of Krug took place yesterday.

The prosecutor learned that the autopsy showed no external injury to Krug, indicating that he was not kicked. He found one witness who said the man fell over a chair after a scuffle with Aagaard. Physicians say that the internal injury that caused death could have been caused by a fall.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS EXPECT WARM CONTEST

A vigorous contest for the office of national commander of the Spanish War Veterans is forecasted at the convention to be held in Atlantic City, in September.

In this fight will be Captain C. Albert Gasser, past commander of the department of New Jersey, who is being boomed for the highest office in the organization by his friends in New Jersey, in the West and in Cuba.

Captain Gasser already has the indorsement of the State convention, which recently met in Passaic. He has the backing of Camp Mitchell, and to this was added last night the favor of Foreign Service Camp No. 26, United Spanish War Veterans.

The first will be between Gasser and Oscar T. Taylor, past department commander of Pennsylvania. The latter was a candidate last year and received many votes. He has almost the entire Keystone State back of him.

CATCH LAWYER TEARING OUT TRANSCRIPT OF WILL

Jersey City, June 28.—A man representing himself as J. Franklin Dorthy, a Plainfield lawyer, with an office at 115 Broadway, Manhattan, created a little disturbance Wednesday in the office of the surrogate of Hudson county.

He was detected tearing out the transcript of a will made by Christopher Manahan, of Bayonne, from one of the books in the transcribing room. He claimed that he had done this by accident, believing that he had gotten hold of a page of paper he was holding and which he desired to tear for the purpose of making notes. There was apparently no purpose in tearing out the page, the original will being on file in the office.

Deputy Surrogate William J. Flanagan was called in and the clerks in the transcribing room explained to him what had happened. He agreed to let the offender go after he had given his name and address.

FIELD DAY FOR FARMERS.

New Brunswick, June 28.—The State Board of Agriculture at its meeting here Wednesday appointed Carl A. Schwarze, instructor of Columbia University and a graduate of George Washington University of St. Louis, assistant plant pathologist at the experiment station here. The committee also decided to hold a farmer's field day in South Jersey for the benefit of the large number of Italian farmers of that section. Former Governor Franklin Murphy, of New Jersey, visited the farm to get some "pointers" for his farm near Bernardsville.

BRYAN NEARLY BROKE UP PARTY

NOMINATING SPEECHES

Wilson and Clark Both Get Big Ovation When Names Are Presented to Baltimore Gathering—Westcott Names New Jersey Governor.

Baltimore, June 28.—With the sunlight pouring in through the windows of the convention hall Underwood, Clark, Baldwin and Wilson had been placed in nomination for the presidency in an all night session of the national Democratic convention. Demonstrations when the names of Clark and Wilson were presented occupied, respectively, more than an hour. At 4 o'clock four more names were to be presented, Harmon, Marshall, Foss and Burke. The Democratic leaders are at sea as to the outcome of the first few ballots.

Chairman Norman E. Mack announced at 4:30 in the morning that after one ballot the convention would adjourn until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Speeches placing in nomination the respective candidates for president began shortly before midnight. W. E. Bankhead presenting the name of Oscar Underwood as the first candidate.

When Bankhead concluded his nominating speech mentioning Underwood's name the southern delegates stand on chairs and begin their cheering while the band plays "Dixie." The balconies take no part in the demonstration.

The cheering for Underwood was enlivened as two delegates carried Miss Minnie Brewer, fifteen years old, daughter of Governor Brewer of Mississippi, up and down the aisles on their shoulders.

Balconies and floors began to hiss the southern delegates into silence, and the Underwood applause ended.

Arizona, called to nominate a candidate, yielded to Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, who took the platform to place Clark in nomination.

Big Ovation For Clark.

While the Clark demonstration went on unabated, the leaders said that all nominating speeches would be made, but that balloting will not begin until the convention reconvenes this afternoon. Bearers of flags and state standards overran the speakers' platform. Champ Clark's daughter stood on the speakers' table, yelling. The convention officers seemed to have temporarily retired before the onslaught. Mr. Murphy sat down tight in the hall. The demonstration lasted more than an hour. California seconded the nomination of Clark.

Henry Wade Rogers of New Haven nominated Governor Simeon Baldwin of Connecticut.

Only a weak round of applause greeted the first mention of Governor Baldwin's name. Connecticut cheered for Baldwin. Other delegates applauded the Connecticut delegates for a few minutes. Delaware yielded to New Jersey amid great applause from the Wilson delegates and from the galleries. Cheers that started at the mere mention of New Jersey increased as Wilson banners were unfurled. Delegates stood on chairs cheering and waving straw hats. Wilson marchers paraded the aisles.

The Wilson demonstration climbed to its height when the singularly ugly picture of Wilson that hung in the Emerson lobby was lifted to the east gallery. Underneath the monstrosity was the legend, "Woodrow Wilson, the Yankee Doodle-Dixie Candidate." The Wilson cheering stopped at the end of one hour and fourteen minutes.

Wescott Nominates Wilson.

Chairman James presented Judge Wescott of Trenton, who made the nominating speech for Wilson. Judge Wescott's speech was greeted with more and louder cheers than any nominating speech preceding it. Chairman James announced privately that there will be balloting right after the nominating speeches.

Judge Wescott ended his speech by naming Wilson, and a second Wilson demonstration began.

As the nominating speeches began Clark and Wilson were clearly the most promising candidates, with John W. Kern of Indiana a possibility in the event of a deadlock and with a shadow of Bryan himself.

The conservatives in the convention were prepared to accept Clark first and then either Wilson or Kern in order to defeat Bryan's nomination.

Story of Night Session.

Baltimore, June 28.—The prospect of the nomination of a candidate for president brought to Convention hall last night upwards of 25,000 people.

For the first time delegates and visitors were gingery from the start. They began at 7 p. m., an hour before the convention was due to convene, and they yelled for everybody and everything that tickled their fancy. Bryan, coming in at a back entrance with Mrs. Bryan, was recognized and got a fine ovation. As Mr. Bryan settled into his seat back of the chairman's stand, the delegates gave him another complimentary broadside.

There was no lack of features in the preliminary hour. Mrs. Taft came in and there was applause from the few that recognized her. Senator La Follette, who seems to be pretty popular in this gathering, ducked his head in acknowledgment of the hurrah that greeted him.

At 7:45 p. m. there was just one empty block of seats in the hall, a glowing square of yellow in the black mass on the floor—New York's seats were empty. The New York delegates were at very private business just then in a room with Leader Murphy, figuring which way the cat was going to jump.

At 8:11 p. m. Chairman James called the convention to order. Then he introduced the Rev. J. Ross Stephenson of Brown Memorial church, Baltimore. His prayer lasted just one minute and a half.

Senator Ed Smith of South Carolina fought his way through the jammed center aisle and shouted that the police were keeping delegates from entering the hall.

At this Chairman James shouted: "I direct the sergeant at arms to go to the entrances and admit every delegate to this convention. And I direct the police to clear the aisles."

Bryan Starts Big Row.

Mr. James had hardly finished when there was a roar for Bryan. Mr. Bryan came to the platform. Chairman James asked for unanimous consent for Mr. Bryan to read a resolution he had prepared. There was perfect stillness, and then Mr. Bryan read the resolution.

Here is the resolution:

"Resolved, That in this crisis in our party's career and in our country's history this convention sends greeting to the people of the United States and assures them that the party of Jefferson and Jackson is still the champion of popular government and equality before the law. As a proof of our fidelity to the people we hereby declare ourselves opposed to the nomination of any candidate for president who is the representative of, or who is under any obligation to, J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas F. Ryan, August Belmont or any others of the privilege hunting or favor seeking class.

"Be it further resolved, That we demand the withdrawal from this convention of any delegate or delegates constituting or representing the above named interests."

Mr. Ryan was not in his seat in the Virginia delegation, and Mr. Belmont's place in the New York delegation also was empty. As Bryan finished there were yells of "No!" from various parts of the hall, while some delegates leaped up and acclaimed Bryan.

Senator Luke Lea demanded that any delegate who raised objection to the resolution must give his name, and Delegate Thomas J. Spellassy of Hartford, Conn., yelled back defiantly and handed his name to the chair. Spellasy made the point of order that the resolution be referred to the resolution committee. A hand to hand parliamentary fight followed. Governor Gilchrist of Florida took the stand and objected to the convention going behind the returns and interfering with the right of a state to select its delegates, rich or poor. Chairman James overruled Spellasy's point of order, and then Mr. Bryan moved that the rules be suspended and that the convention proceed to the consideration of the resolutions.

Bryan Makes Supreme Effort.

Opposition having been beaten down Bryan stepped forward and prepared for a supreme effort. He opened the debate with a savage attack on August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan and Charles F. Murphy. He did not intend that the "representatives of the predatory interests should dominate the convention, stifle the will of 6,500,000 Democrats." He spoke of "merciless despotic control of the money trust."

"I am not willing that August Belmont and Ryan shall come here with counsel," thundered Mr. Bryan, "and seek with the managers of this convention to dominate this convention. No sense of fairness or courtesy will stop me from protecting my party. I cannot speak for the delegates. You must take the responsibility. I refuse to take the responsibility."

Congressman Flood of Virginia followed Mr. Bryan. As he started Senator J. K. Vardaman of Mississippi climbed to the platform.

"In the name of the sovereign state of Virginia," he said, "I accept the insolent proposition made by the only man in this convention who would dare to make it," and there was a terrific yell.

It died away and all of a sudden broke out again. Murphy and the leaders of the New York delegation were coming up the aisle to their seats. The convention was in an uproar. Delegates and visitors were out of their seats, standing on chairs, frenzied with excitement.

The New York leaders had their heads together, and the big men of the convention were dashing here and there for hasty conferences. Senator Vardaman of Mississippi began to speak after Chairman James had forced quiet. The senator warned the Democrats that the time had come for reason and common sense to be used. The great opportunity of the party must not be lost, he said.

"The resolutions of Mr. Bryan," he continued, "contain some merit. Of that I must heartily approve." [Great applause].

John W. Price approved also of the first part of the resolutions, but he declared that Virginia was willing to assume all responsibility for the delegates she selected. Virginia was able to right her own wrongs, he added.

Bryan took the platform again, looked down at Murphy and demanded if New York asked the withdrawal of the last part of the resolution.

"Does New York refuse?" Bryan persisted.

There were groans and hisses, but no direct reply. The eyes of the thousands were glued on Charles F. Murphy, whose face showed about as much excitement as if it had been a mask of stone.

"Then," said Bryan slowly, "I reserve the rest of my time for an answer."

Ex-Governor McCorkle of West Virginia took up the fight. He had thought that the troubles of the party were over. He did not know one of the men Bryan had named. The Democratic party had never been controlled by the interests, and he does not believe today it is being controlled by Ryan, Belmont or any other financial power, "but," he added, "I appeal to all here if that resolution is not a foolish and senseless resolution.

"When it seemed that success was coming to the Democratic party," he continued, "it was sorrowful that the resolution should cause strife and discontent. I hope that this convention will have the manhood and statesmanship to vote down this resolution."

Flood Scorches Bryan.

There was a wild scene, followed by another when Congressman Flood of Virginia arose and said: "We do not ask anything of Mr. Ryan. We do not have to go to him." In ringing tones Congressman Flood said Mr. Ryan had been elected by 1,000 Virginians, as honest as Mr. Bryan ever was.

Congressman Flood said he was satisfied with the attention he had received, and the crowd shouted, "Go after Bryan." Mr. Ryan had offered to withdraw, but Congressman Flood said he would not let him and accepted the insulting proposition from the man who wants to destroy the Democratic party. Mr. Flood's speech was a scorcher, and he got great applause when he finished.

It was 9:25 p. m. when Mr. Bryan rose for his final effort. As Bryan started Lewis Nixon of New York went to the platform.

Bryan said it wasn't necessary for him to defend his own reputation as a Democrat, and a voice shot back, "And as a money maker." There were constant interruptions.

Mr. Bryan said he would withdraw the last part of the resolution, so that nobody could hide behind it, but that the delegates would have a chance on roll call to show what they thought of the first part.

Resolution Is Expurgated.

Chairman James announced that the second part was withdrawn. Voting on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the resolution began at 9:35. It required a two-thirds vote, or 725, to suspend the rules. There was wild discord as the vote of the delegations was cast.

Thomas Taggart spoke to Chairman James, who sent for a squad of police. The police appeared in the main aisle and hustled the delegates to the seats. In the center aisle, between New York and Illinois, there was a head to head conference between Murphy, Sullivan, Sheehan, Nixon and John Quinn, the latter one of Murphy's chief advisers. Then Governor Dix left his seat and began to talk with Mr. Sheehan. While this was going on the vote of states was being taken.

Suddenly Alabama, which had cast the initial vote of twenty-four against the resolution, shifted to twenty-four votes in favor of the resolution, which brought joy to the Bryanites. Roger Sullivan, chairman of the Illinois delegation, went to the platform and voted the fifty-eight delegates in favor of suspending the rules. That surprised the crowd. There was dead quiet when Virginia was called. Congressman Flood announced the vote 23½ ayes and one-half nay. The half vote was cast by Bob Tunstall of Norfolk. When New York was called Boss Murphy walked up the aisle and shouted "New York votes 90 ayes!" Virginia and New York were called out of their turn so as to expedite matters. It was apparent that the resolution was going to pass.

It was explained that Mr. Bryan, having withdrawn that part of the resolution naming Ryan and Belmont, the leaders agreed to vote for the first part of the resolution referring to the domination of the party of Jefferson by the "interests."

Resolution Is "Agreed To."

The passing of his resolution Mr. Bryan seemed to regard as the turning point in his fight against the so called reactionaries. His face beamed as delegation after delegation fell in line for the measure. "The influence of the reactionaries in this convention has been eliminated," he said. "We can now go out and win with a progressive candidate standing on a progressive platform."

At the end of the roll call several states which had not given due consideration to the campaign effect of rejecting the resolution changed their votes for it. Two states which shifted their entire vote were Colorado and Connecticut.

At 10:48 p. m. Chairman James announced the vote 899 yeas, 180 nays, and added, "The resolution is agreed to."

There was a medley of cheers and hisses.

A delegate from Indiana, Major G. V. Menzies of Mount Vernon, moved that the convention proceed to the nomination of a candidate for president, and Chairman James directed the calling of the roll of states. Senator Stone of Missouri inquired if there was any change in the rule that each speaker be allowed thirty minutes for a nominating speech. He was assured that the rule was not changed.

Story of the Day Session.

Baltimore, June 28.—Convention hall filled slowly. The hour for convening was noon. The westerners and southerners were the early birds in their seats. They were in their seats at 11:30 a. m., coatless and comfortable. Bill Stone's Missourians, a rough and ready lot of citizens; Alfalfa Bill Murray's Oklahomans, Cone Johnson's Texans, the Nebraska crowd and the Hoosiers were planted long before the folks from New York and Chicago got in. Just before noon Mrs. William H. Taft, the wife of the president of the United States, entered the hall with a party of friends and was escorted up the center aisle by Chief Doorkeeper Charles White. Mrs. Taft was obviously interested in the sights and sounds of the preliminaries.

Judge Parker rapped for order exactly at 12:46 p. m. The judge got a good deal of exercise for voice and arm before the assemblage subsided to the quiet necessary for the religious formality. This was attended to by Rabbi Schneberger, who made the opening prayer very brief.

The first business of the day was the submission of a minority report from the committee on credentials by Vance C. McCormick of Pennsylvania, who opposed the majority report brought in by Chairman Joseph E. Bell of Indiana. Mr. McCormick in speaking to the minority referred to "the Wilson-Bryan Democracy" and that was the cue for the Wilson rooters to let off a little cheering steam. The first fight of the session turned on the case of the South Dakota delegations. Ten delegates were at stake. In that state the people named Wilson delegates, but the credentials committee seated the Clark delegates.

At the very beginning of this fight it was evident that the Bryan-Wilson organization was prepared to contest every inch of the way to gain and save every delegate possible. While the last speech on the contest was being made, Wilson lithographs of a sudden showed in the galleries and a roar of cheering started. The Wilson men started out to run the convention off its feet. Every Wilson delegation, a total of at least 300 delegates, rose up and yelled their heads off as they unfurled new Wilson banners. Banners came from everywhere. Everywhere the Wilson rooters were howling like Comanches.

Clark Followers Shout.

The Clark followers started a counter demonstration. They raised a big banner with the speaker's portrait and also a map of the United States on which states carried at the primaries by Clark are inked in red and which bears the legend, "Let's Make It All Red."

The Clark people started a parade, but the aisles were practically impassable and the parade didn't get very far. The Alabamans and Mississippians cut loose with cheers for Oscar W. Underwood and lifted his picture. The Wilson shouters began to tire after twenty minutes, and the Clark forces attempted to duplicate the stunt of Mrs. John Davis, who turned a Hadley demonstration into a Roosevelt outburst.

Woman Boomer Is Lost.

The woman picked by the Clark men was Mrs. Perry Clemons of Kansas City, but she was not a Mrs. Davis. The latter was impressive of size and manner. Mrs. Clemons is slim, her face was pale and she was nervously excited. She first appeared at the head of the Missouri delegation. She carried a small banner with a picture of Clark, but she did not have the strength to keep it steady in the press, although several husky Clark men formed a protecting wedge for her.

Mrs. Clemons, small and insignificant in the crowd of shouting delegates, struggled valiantly to get the attention of the crowd. The Clark contingent tried to rush her to the platform. She got up to the steps, but the sergeant at arms and the police held her up and gently forced her back to the convention floor, where for a moment she was engulfed in the surging sea of delegates. In a moment she bobbed up and Clark huskies, coatless and perspiring, attempted to lift her from the floor above the heads of the delegates. The little woman had been cast for a role which she couldn't fill. She stumbled, grabbed for her Clark picture banner and ripped it lengthwise. She clutched for the torn part of Clark's picture, and she slid to the floor and was lost.

The Clark demonstration had petered out. The whole thing—the Wilson and Clark outbursts and the howling of the galleries—had lasted twenty minutes. The roll call of states were ordered on adoption of the minority report—that is, "aye" for Wilson, "no" for Clark.

The roll call began at 2:27 p. m. When Roger Sullivan got up to cast Illinois' vote he said: "Illinois votes 58 ayes," and the crowd roared with noisy amazement. It meant that for some reason the bosses—Sullivans and Taggarts and Murphys—were lining at least temporarily for Wilson. David

R. Francis sang out that Missouri's thirty-six votes were "no," and then the whole convention stilled.

New York was about to be called. In the hush Charles F. Murphy stood up and said, "New York, 90 ayes." There was a shout from the Wilsonites.

A solid roar of cheering followed the announcement by Judge Parker that the Wilson men had won by a vote of 638½ to 415.

Senator John Sharp Williams made a point of order that the vote of the Philippines could not be accounted because of a United States supreme court decision that the Philippines were not a part of the United States. Senator Williams, after some debate, won his point, the delegates voting to eliminate the Philippine delegates, who were excluded from sitting in the convention.

The chairman of the convention on permanent organization reported that Senator Ollie James of Kentucky had been nominated for permanent chairman. Senator Ollie was accepted with a shout.

Retiring as temporary chairman, Judge Parker thanked the convention for its patience and kindness, and then with a fine flourish of words he introduced Senator James. The senator began to speak. He handed out the kind of oratory that delights a crowd. For him, as he saw it, the sun of victory was rising from behind a thousand hills. He made them laugh, in touching on the tariff, when he roasted the Republican party for protecting "infant industries." He blamed Taft for preventing a prosecution of the harvester and other trusts.

The permanent chairman wound up his speech at 3:48 p. m., and the convention recessed until 8 p. m.

Some Platform Planks.

Tariff.—Such downward revision as will not injure the legitimate business interests of the country.

Trusts.—Strict enforcement of the criminal provision of the Sherman act. A strong declaration favorable to principle of "personal guilt" enunciated by Senator O'Gorman of New York.

Currency Reform.—Aldrich central bank plan condemned.

Delegation to Support Ohio Governor on First Ballot.

Baltimore, June 28.—The New York delegation decided long after the convention had assembled that it would support Judson Harmon for president. The poll of the delegation resulted:

The vote of the majority binds the whole delegation, and its ninety votes will be cast for Harmon.

Just how long this vote will go to Harmon remains to be seen. Nothing was said about confining it to the first ballot, but should Charles F. Murphy see fit at any time to swing it to some other candidate it would be necessary only to call another caucus and change the decision made.

COLONEL G. W. GOETHALS.

Panama Canal Engineer, Who Was Honored by Columbia University.

Colonel George Washington Goethals, chief engineer in charge of the construction of the Panama canal, was among the distinguished men honored by Columbia university, New York, at the recent commencement exercises. Colonel Goethals was given the degree of doctor of science.

President Nicholas Murray Butler spoke in glowing words of Colonel Goethals' achievements as engineer and administrator. He said that Colonel Goethals was trusted by the government of the United States with its reputation in the construction of the Panama canal between the two oceans and that he was achieving a success which raises that reputation still higher and forever connects with it the engineer's personal fame.

The degree doctor of laws was conferred upon Chief Justice White and Representative Oscar W. Underwood. The exercises marked the finish of Columbia's one hundred and fifty-eighth academic year, and the graduating class of 2,000 was the largest ever turned out from an American university.

How to Prevent Steamships From Sinking

IN an address before the Maritime Association of New York Marston Niles, for twelve years an officer of the United States navy and who at the time of his resignation held the rank of lieutenant commander, declared that it is possible for steamships to be made unsinkable by equipping them with double decks, the hollow spaces to be provided with as many small air tight metal tanks as they will hold.

Mr. Niles told his hearers that the loss of the Titanic had demonstrated the futility of all attempts to make a steamship unsinkable by building her according to the pattern which provides for a series of vertical bulkheads dividing the vessel into a number of water tight compartments.

"We ought," said Mr. Niles, "to realize that it lies beyond human power to fortify the walls of the present flotation space—the space below the water line—so strongly that in no circumstances can they be either penetrated directly or become so distorted as to cause a fatal leakage. Let us give up the attempt as hopeless and content ourselves with pursuing the vertical bulkhead system to a moderate or reasonable extent as a first line of defense.

"The ships built hereafter ought by law to be built with double decks, and the ships already built ought to have the upper spaces on each deck filled from bow to stern and from starboard to port with small rectangular, cheap sheet iron tanks of the lightest construction, bolted between and below the beams and a few inches apart from one another.

"When a ship furnished with these horizontal tanks or a ship built with doubled decks, in which the hollows are in like manner subdivided, strikes a rock or iceberg or is struck by another vessel she will subside in an orderly and expected manner and to a certain point, supposing that the present vertical compartments are too far injured to keep her afloat. If every one of these vertical compartments fills with water she has only to sink one, two or three decks lower—exactly as the architect may have provided—and then she will stop sinking."

Continuing, Mr Niles said that, properly speaking, water never sinks any vessel.

"What sinks her when she goes down," he declared, "is the way in which she is built—some way that will not let the water float her. It cannot be said too often that water is her friend, standing ever ready to buoy her up. When she floats she floats because the water is heavier than she is and crowds her out of place until vessel and water balance each other. If a ship should be rightly built a collision that would sink the present ship in forty seconds would be no more serious than loading a vessel to below the ordinary load water line, but still not lower than is absolutely safe."

Mr. Niles proposed several other measures of safety in addition to hollow decks filled with air tight tanks.

Tramps Killed on Railroads.

Frank V. Whiting, general claims attorney for the New York Central railroad, has just published the result of a careful investigation into the percentage of tramps among the persons killed by railway trains. His figures are based upon analysis of the reports of accidents resulting in the deaths of 1,000 trespassers. Of these 1,000 489 lived near the place of accident, 321 lived at a distance, and the residence of the balance, 190, was unknown. Of these 1,000, 273 left widows and children. The actual occupation of 615 was unknown. By eliminating Mr. Whiting is able to assert that 764 were plain trespassers, that 50 were hoboes and that the status of 186 was undeterminable.

—Hoax—"What about the Prohibition party in this campaign?" Joax—"Oh, as usual I suppose it will be left high and dry."

WHITE RIBBON RALLY

Mrs. Mary D. Tomlinson, President of the Plainfield W. C. T. U., Will Lecture on "Protection of Our Homes" Tomorrow Afternoon.

Declaring that this world is nearing the close of its history and that Christ is soon to return to the earth, which will mean the downfall of all nations, Pastor F. M. Wilcox, of Washington, D. C., preached a stirring sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ," at the camp meeting now being held by the New Jersey Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists at Park avenue and Randolph road, last night.

Pastor Wilcox, who is the editor of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, spoke of the hope of the church, the manner of Christ's coming, the signs showing that the Saviour's second advent is near, the warning given to men and the two classes that will be living on the earth when earth's history will close. He emphatically stated that the event would take place in this generation. Pastor Wilcox's sermon closed an enthusiastic day's services at the camp. Meetings began with the six o'clock prayer service whic was led by Pastor A. R. Sandborn, of Trenton, president of the New Jersey Conference. District meetings, in which the campers gathered in groups in particular tents, were held at 8:30 o'clock and the first business session was held at 9:15 o'clock. At the business session delegates were seated, the majority of the twenty-two churches in the conference, located in Trenton, Newark, Jersey City, Irvington, Atlantic City, Paterson, Rockaway, Perth Amboy, Bridgeton, Camden, Cape May Court House, Elizabeth, and other places, being represented. It was voted that the executive committee should name the committees on plans and resolutions, licenses and credentials, nominations, and the seating of delegates. Many plans of importance for the advancement of the denomination in New Jersey will be outlined during these meetings, officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and licenses and credentials granted to ministers and licentiates, Bible teachers and other workers in the conference.

Several of the leading ministers in the denomination are expected to attend the camp meeting. Prof. B. G. Wilkinson, of Washington, D. C., who is the president of the Columbia Union Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, which takes in the New Jersey and seven other local conferences, arrived last night. He will preach this morning. Prof. Wilkinson is also an educator, having spent several years as an instructor at Union College, in College View, Neb., and the Washington Foreign Mission Seminary in Takoma Park, Md. Others expected are Pastors R. A. Underwood, of Youngstown, Ohio; N. S. Ashton, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is educational secretary of the Columbia Union Conference; D. T. Dowsett, of Washington, D. C., secretary-treasurer of the Columbia Union Conference; A. J. Haysmer, of Huntsville, Ala., secretary of the Negro Department of the General Conference, and Prof. S. N. Butler, president of Mt. Vernon (Ohio) College.

In his sermon last night, Pastor Wilcox divided his remarks into five parts and said as follows: "I wish to divide my sermon in five parts tonight. We will first discuss the hope of the church.

"The second coming of Christ has been the hope of the church in every age. Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophecied of His coming. Job, who lived in the Patriarchal age, looked forward to the coming of the Lord as the time of his deliverance. It was the hope that sheered David, the King of Israel. Isiah, Jeremiah, Daniel, Malachi, and the apostles of the Lord all set forth the coming of the Lord as the hope of the Christian, as the time when sin should be destroyed and the everlasting reign of righteousness would be ushered in.

"Second, the manner of Christ's coming. The Bible clearly indicates the manner in which Christ will return to this earth. (a) His coming will be person, John 14:1-3. (b) His coming will be literal, 1 Thes. 4:16-18. (c) His coming will be visible, Rev. 1:10. He went away, the scriptures declare, in the clouds of heaven. His return will be in the same manner visible to all men.

TYPHOID KILLS ONE SISTER; OTHER DANGEROUSLY ILL

Miss Imogen Smith, a teacher in the New Market School, died at her residence, 315 Washington avenue, Dunellen, yesterday afternoon. The cause of her death was typhoid fever, with which she was seized shortly after the commencement exercises.

Her sister Fannie, who is also a teacher, lies dangerously ill. Miss Smith and her sister came to Dunellen from Sparta, New Jersey, a number of years ago and taught in the Dunellen school. Subsequently she went to New Market, where she taught up to the time of her illness.

She was very much respected by the community in which she lived and beloved by her pupils. The funeral service will take place at her late home on Washington avenue tomorrow at 3 p. m., and the interment will be made at Sparta on Monday.

DON'T DEAL WHERE FOOD IS EXPOSED TO FLIES

The Plainfield Board of Health has called the attention of the public to the dangers attendant on the eating of fruits and vegetables which have been exposed to flies, dust or other contamination, and at the same time has called the attention of dealers in food stuffs to the fact that the law forbids such exposure to contamination. A penalty has been provided for violation of the law.

Last summer the board waged a campaign along this line and not without results. Nearly every dealer in food stuffs adopted precautionary measures and it is the belief that they still recognize the importance of observing health rules.

CHILDREN RAISE MONEY FOR ROCK MEMORIAL FUND

A successful lawn party and sale was given by several children on the lawn of the rectory of Holy Cross church on Washington avenue, yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock, the purpose being to raise money for the Washington Rock Memorial Fund. From the sale of candy, lemonade, cake, fancy articles and ice cream $10 was realized as profit. The lawn was attractively decorated with American flags and flowers. Refreshments were served at numerous small tables. The affair was generously patronized by friends of the children and the work.

The children have become greatly interested in the movement to erect a fitting memorial at Washington Rock, and they have been much encouraged in their efforts. Those in charge of yesterday's affair were Louise Sill, Anna McCoy, Marie Sill, Emma Verschuur, Charlotte Verschuur and Elsie Verschuur.

MISS GRACE J. BURKE BRIDE OF H. H. FOSTER

Miss Grace J. Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Burke, of Ravine road, and Herbert Hastings Foster, of this city, were married Thursday night at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, officiated. Miss Elsie Burke, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Albert Milligan, of Elizabeth, the best man.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor's gown was of old rose crepe de meteor. She carried a bouquet of roses. After the ceremony a reception was held. The couple is now enjoying a wedding trip. They will reside in this city.

The bride is a graduate of the Plainfield High School. Both she and Mr. Foster are members of the Plainfield Country Club. Mr. Foster formerly resided in Elizabeth, but has lived in this city about three years. He is employed by Roger & Gallet, of New York.

CRESCENT AVE. TABLETS.

Friends of the late Dr. William R. Richards and Dr. John C. Bliss, who would like to contribute toward the bronze tablets to be erected to their memory in the Crescent Avenue church are requested to send their contributions to the treasurer of the fund, George P. Mellick, East Seventh street. In order that all persons desiring to share in this subscription may have an opportunity of doing so it is requested by the committee in charge that no subscription exceed $10 in amount. The cost of the tablets is estimated at $1,000.

DR. STEVENS ENGAGED.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Marion W. Powers, of Phoenixville, Pa., to Dr. Raymond S. Stevens, of this city. Miss Powers has been making her home in this city for some time.

INDIAN LEGEND IS MADE REAL

A PICTURESQUE SIGHT

First of Two Performances Witnessed by Two Hundred Entranced Spectators, and a Bigger Crowd is Expected to Attend Tonight.

The legendary combat between a band of White settlers and Watchung Indians was re-enacted last night on the mountainside at Watchung. The spot selected for its portrayal is said to be identical with the struggle that is supposed to have taken place in Colonial days.

On the banks of the mountain stream the story was retold in dramatic form. The tall trees, the blazing camp fires, the arcs of light that at intervals, lit up the picture presented a very pleasant tableau. Add to this the gorgeous raiments of the Indians, their thrilling dances, inimitable pantomime, the shots and yells of the combatants, and the picture was thrilling and entrancing.

The scene opened with the introduction of a number of German settlers making camp and singing one of the old homeland songs. Then warning is given of the approach of the Indians, the hasty breaking up of the camp, and the flight to the heights for security. Immediately following their departure, Deer Prong, the tribal scout, strikes their trail and later he returns and informs the tribe of the presence of the enemy. Chief One Feather assembles all his braves and a crafty plan of entrapping their victims is laid. Deer Prong lights the signal fire announcing the discovery of the settlers.

A hand to hand combat is witnessed between Deer Prong and the scout of the settlers, the latter being overcome and hurled from the cliff.

The whites are overcome and brought into camp, where they are made to run the gauntlet and the leader of the settlers is tied to the torture post. Then Wetumpka, an Indian princess, who had once saved the life of One Feather and with whom he is in love, is among the captured whites. With Indian craft she steals up and cuts the bonds of the chief of the settlers and sets him free. Then she pleads for his life, and the lives of the settlers. Her plea is successful. The Whites are spared, the hatchet is buried and the pipe of peace smoked.

Then the lands are divided, the Whites going west, and the Reds east. Wetumpka and One Feather are joined in wedlock.

Thus ends the story which thrilled and captivated two hundred spectators last night. It was capably acted, all the eighty odd performers filling their roles to perfection. The principal role of One Feather was splendidly sustained by W. deLa. R. Anderson, who is also author of the piece. Dr. M. P. E. Groszmann, who directed the performance, hoped that it would meet with the approval of the audience. The proceeds will go to the Improvement Association fund. There will be a repetition of the drama tonight. The chief characters in the piece are:

Indians: One Feather, chief of Watchung Indians, W. deLa R. Anderson; Blue Wolf, sub-chief of Watchung Indians, E. T. Canning; Deer Prong, tribal scout, Edward Bodin; Lame Dog, medicine man, John Mobus.

Indian Children: Masters Snoden, Perret, Texier, Triano, Mobus, Myers, the Misses Bartles, Eaton, Titus, Giddis.

Whites: Capt. Michelson, leader of settlers, Lewis Snoden; Wetumpka, Indian princess, Mrs. M. H. Cleaves. Men—Messrs. Leurssen, Groszmann, Herrman, Mobus, Kennedy, Hance, Moldenke, Schmidt, Gunn, Neier, Bodin. Women—Mesdames Snoden, Wheeler, Mobus, Schmidt. Children—Masters Moldenke, Myers, Mobus, Schmidt, Misses Titus, Myers.

The performance will be repeated tonight at 8:30 o'clock. A large attendance is expected.

PASTOR'S VACATION.

Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will preach tomorrow morning and evening for the last time prior to the summer vacation. His morning theme will be "Spiritual Growth," and in the evening his topic will be "A Royal Invitation."

TWO FIGHTS TAKE UP TIME IN THE CITY COURT

Rosa Lupson and Lena Gause, of Cottage place, had a scrap in that neighborhood, last night. They appeared before City Judge William G. DeMeza this morning, Gause complaining that Lupson was the aggressor and had cut her with a knife. As the extent of the wound was trifling, the Judge gave them a talking-to, and let them off on a suspended sentence.

John Burke, of 1615 Ann street, was fined $8 and costs for an assault on John Fitzpatrick, of Rock avenue, last evening. A quarrel arose between the two men on West Front street, Burke, it was claimed, being the aggressor, knocking Fitzpatrick down and kicking him.

Y. M. A. OF BOUND BROOK HOLDS FIRST BANQUET

The first annual banquet of the Young Men's Association, of Bound Brook, was held in the chapel of the Reformed church, last evening. Grace was asked by Rev. A. E. Shattuck, of the Congregational church. Rev. H. E. Green was toastmaster.

Miss Gertrude VanNeste sang two solos which were enjoyed by all. After a few words of welcome by Rev. H. E. Green, Philip Koechlein, president of the association, told of the origin and good work done by the young men who are members of the Y. M. A. Rev. Mr. Shattuck made an address. Messrs. Byer, Robinson, Hastings, Wyckoff, Kaijner and Casterlin furnished music during the evening.

About sixty-five were present: Rev. A. E. Shattuck, Rev. H. E. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Voorhees, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. SANE 4TH FUND GROWS SLOWLY

About $100 Subscribed and $125 More at Least is Needed by Committee.

COMMITTEE'S APPEAL

Send Your Subscriptions to the Daily Press and it Will Be Acknowledged in These Columns—The List of Those Who Have Helped.

The appeal of funds for an exhibition of fireworks and a concert to be given at Parker iFeld in the evening of July 4 has not received the response it has deserved. Less than $100 is now in hand, $125 more at least is needed.

The money contributed to this fund will be spent in giving Plainfield an object lesson on the proper observance of Independence Day. The general experience in cities that have but in force carefully planned celebrations of the day, with features that appeal to all elements of the community, is to the effect that riot, danger and noise have been practically eliminated. The great reduction in the total number of accidents is, if itself, a sufficient argument for the substitution of such a program for the usual "noise and fury" Fourth.

A year or so ago, the Daily Press started an agitation urging the Common Council to pass a Safe and Sane Fourth ordinance. It was unsuccessful, but there are other Fourths to come and the rapidly growing sentiment in favor of abolishing the insane type of celebration of our country's birth presages victory before long.

The number of killed and wounded by Insane Fourths during the last eight years in this country totals 37,526. Cleveland, Ohio, was the first city to officially adopt the policy of a Safe and Sane Fourth. In that city on July 4, 1908, there were 12 deaths; 93 injured and 23 fires. The following year when the reform was inaugurated none was killed; four injured, and no fires; 1910, none died, one hurt and no fires; 1911, no deaths, no injuries and no fires.

You can help the movement for a Sane Fourth by subscribing to the Playgrounds Commission fund for a celebration at Parker Field in the afternoon and the night of the night of the Fourth. Will you do it?

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT SETS ARROWSMITH FREE

James L. Arrowsmith, of West Seventh street, has been released from Elizabeth jail, where he was incarcerated for several weeks past in default of bonds of $15,000 required by an order of the Court of Chancery restraining him from leaving the country.

Arrowsmith was executor of the estate of Mrs. Sarah E. Liscomb, but on an order of court obtained by the heirs of the estate, who alleged maladministration, he was ousted and Ralph Lum, of New York, appointed administrator.

A conference took place yesterday between John Caswell Heine, lawyer for the heirs, and H. P. Dawson, counsel for Arrowsmith, with the result that an amicable settlement was affected and the order from the Court of Chancery vacated. Afrowsmith is said to have agreed to regard the $17,000 which the estate is alleged to be short is his share. He was one of the heirs.

DEMOCRATS DEADLOCKED OVER THEIR NOMINATION

Baltimore, June 29.—As the delegates to the Democratic national convention began to arrive at the convention hall shortly after 1 o'clock today there were all sorts of rumors about deals. The convention had adjourned at 3:05 o'clock in the morning with Champ Clark in a commanding lead. It looked for a time, after the tenth ballot, when Charles F. Murphy swung New York into the Clark column, as if the convention would stampede for the Missourian.

The Wilson men, however, fought hard. On the twelfth ballot, the one taken just before adjournment, the vote was: Bryan, 1; Kern, 1; Marshall, 30; Underwood, 123; Wilson, 354; Harmon, 29; Clark, 549.

Baltimore, June 29.—Early today the Democratic national convention was still deadlocked, with no likelihood of a selection being made. When Charles F. Murphy threw New York's 90 votes to Clark on the tenth ballot the situation brightened for Clark. The Wilson supporters rallied, however, and on the eleventh ballot showed a gain of 4 votes, while Champ Clark lost 2.

Efforts were being made when the twelfth ballot was called to take a recess, but the Clark men were objecting.

United States Senator Kern was being talked of as a compromise to break the deadlock.

Shift Causes an Uproar.

Baltimore, June 29.—The announcement of New York's shift to Clark threw the convention into an uproar. The Clark supporters went wild and continued the demonstration for half an hour. Charles F. Murphy was working hard to get other delegations to fall in behind Clark.

The band played the "Houn' Dawg" song, and there was no prospect of a letup. Picture men climbed to the galleries and stands and points of vantage, and their noisy flashes increased the uproar, and meanwhile Murphy still quietly fanned himself.

The Clark demonstration was followed by a wild uproar on the part of Woodrow Wilson's supporters. This occurred when a delegate from Oklahoma arose and protested against that state being obliged under the unit rule to throw any of her votes with a Tammany combination.

The chair announced the result of the tenth ballot as follows: Kern, 1; Bryan, 1; Marshall, 31; Underwood, 117½; Wilson, 350½; Clark, 556; Harmon, 31.

In the eleventh ballot the changes were few and unimportant. The leaders were talking of Kern as a compromise. Following was the result of the eleventh ballot: Underwood, 118½; Wilson, 354½; Harmon, 29; Marshall, 30; Bryan, 1; Kern, 1; Clark, 554. Wilson gained 4 votes, Underwood 1, and Clark lost 4.

New York Starts Stampede.

The crowd was having a guess. Charley White grabbed New York's hitherto immovable standarC from its socket and ran with it up the center aisle, calling out, "I'm going to put New York where she belongs, up high." When the crowd saw New York raised clear above Ollie James' perch there was a terrible yell. Standards were caught up from all parts of the floor and raised aloft in the speakers' stand.

There was a gain of 3 for Clark and a loss of 2 for Wilson from the state of Michigan on the tenth ballot. Trading was going on down on the floor, and the aisles near Murphy's chair boiled with leaders trying to interest the man with 90 votes.

At 12:18 a. m. the first break came. The New York crowd dropped Harmon. Murphy stood up and said, "Eighty-one for Clark." The instant cheering drowned him out for a minute. At 12:55 the Wilson cheering grew louder as the crowd caught sight of Bryan at the head of the middle aisle.

Murphy Cool, Hall in Uproar.

Murphy waited for a chance to announce the rest of the vote. The hall was roaring with excitement. Charley White stood close at Murphy's elbow as the jubilant Clark men massed in the aisle. Delegates were getting up all over the hall. August Belmont, a bit excited, was waving a fan to persuade the crowd to quit so that Murphy could go on.

There were four policemen around the Tammany boss, and straw hats are beginning to sail through the air. Murphy is the most imperturbable man in all the crowd. Just back of Murphy is William F. Sheehan, holding on to the New York standard. A march around the hall is started as Murphy stands, calmly fanning himself. The crowd soon becomes aware that under the unit rule all of New York's 90 votes must go for Champ Clark. What Murphy had to add to the first half of his announcement was still a mystery, but the banners of thirteen states hitherto nailed to the platform were now in the speaker's platform. Mr. Murphy had certainly enlivened the show. The effect was to stampede the convention for Champ.

Balloting Almost Continuous.

Baltimore, June 29.—The balloting had been a steady, somewhat monotonous performance all day long. Occasionally a few of the uninstructed states would shift their votes, but the changes were not great, and it was apparent from the start that the deadlock was to be drawn out for a considerable number of ballots. Five ballots were taken in the afternoon of the convention. Champ Clark had led off with 440½ votes on the first ballot, which was taken about 7 o'clock in the morning after an all night's session. Woodrow Wilson had 324 votes on this first ballot, and Harmon came next with 148. Underwood had 117½, Marshall 31 and Governor Baldwin 14. William J. Bryan started off with 1 vote, but in the course of the day failed to swell his total beyond 2.

Governor Baldwin was the first of the favorite sons to be deserted by his delegates. Connecticut's 14 divided on the fifth ballot among several candidates and continued to shift about apparently without any set purpose.

The afternoon session of the convention began at 4 o'clock, a recess having been taken after the first ballot had disclosed at 7 o'clock in the morning that no one had the necessary 725½ votes. Within two hours after the reconvening of the convention it was plain to everybody that nothing definite could be accomplished unless the leaders got together and tried to compromise.

At midnight the convention was deadlocked after having taken eight ballots. The vote on the eighth, which came shortly before 12 o'clock was as follows: Clark, 448½; Wilson, 351½; Underwood, 130; Harmon, 128; Marshall, 31; Gaynor, 1; Bryan, 1; Kern, 1; James, 1.

At a few minutes after midnight the convention was proceeding with the ninth ballot. This is said to establish a record in the matter of ballots for a Democratic national convention. The highest previous record is given as seven ballots. There then seemed to be no immediate prospect for a nomination.

Story of the Night Session.

Baltimore, June 29.—The interest in the balloting was so keen that 10,000 people stuck to their seats in the two hour recess before the night session. Many had anticipated a long drawn out session and had provided themselves with baskets of lunch. The crush outside was giving the police all sorts of trouble. Delegates and their wives were prevented from entering the hall.

The outlook was for a long session. A conference of the leaders had failed to bring about an agreement on a candidate who would be acceptable to progressives and conservatives, and the leaders were hoping to get together on the floor and bring about an agreement that would prevent a deadlock and the consequent annoyances. The talk was again of Kern as a compromise candidate. It was whispered that Bryan had given up hope of winning with Wilson and that he intended to make an effort to stampede the convention for his friend from Indiana.

Chairman James convened the delegates at 9:45 p. m. The prayer was made by the Rev. Dr. George F. Dudley, pastor of St. Stephen's church, Washington. It was one of the shortest prayers on record, just thirty seconds. Then Chairman James ordered the roll call on the sixth ballot.

A Kansas delegate hopped up and moved that it was the sense of the convention that the unit rule be abrogated. Senator James promptly recognized Congressman William Hughes of New Jersey, who pointed out that the motion was out of order, and James whacked the Kansan into silence.

The roll call proceeded rapidly. There was no change in the standing of the candidate until Michigan was reached. Here Wilson lost a vote. The vote as a whole was a sufficient evidence that the leaders had not been able to make a good dicker. New York continued to vote for Harmon. Wilson lost a vote to Underwood in North Carolina. Harmon lost 1 in Ohio to Bryan, but Ohio's vote had been shifting and varying in this peculiar way.

Wilson gained 4 in Tennessee, and there was the first cheering of the session. Clark's total was bettered 4½ votes. Nebraska corrected her vote so as to give Wilson the single Harmon vote. The result of the sixth ballot was: Clark, 445, a gain of 2; Wiltain conditions would be found in the political, the social, the industrial, and the religious world. We shall not consider tonight specifically these conditions. The signs of Christ's coming will be taken up in a later discourse.

"Fourth. The Bible declares that there shall go forth a message warning men of Christ's return. This message will be based upon all signs and indications which exist onevery hand. Joel 2:1; Rev. 14:6-7.

"Fifth. Two classes on the earth at the Lord's return. In the 13th chapter of Matthew the Saviour declares that the wheat and the tares should grow together until the harvest, and the harvest is the end of the world. To the ungodly, that day will be a day of wrath and anguish Zeph. 1:14-18. To the righteous, it will be a day of gladness and joy His children, those who have learned to love Him here, will love His appearing. We cannot separate our love for our friends from our love of their personal presence. If we love Christ, we shall love His appearing and will rejoice when He comes to take His children home.

"As we have already stated, the Bible plainly shows that there will be signs indicating that the coming of the Lord is near. These signs we believe are all taking place. Indications on every side and fulfillment of Bible prophecies prove to us that we may confidently look for the return of the Lord in this generation. We cannot, however, determine the day and the hour. This, the Bible declares, is withheld. We do not believe in setting time, but our Saviour says that when we see certain things coming to pass, then we may know His coming is near, even at the door. This condition in earth's history, we believe, we have now reached. The Saviour stands at the door. This earth's history is about to close. The kingdoms of this earth will soon give place to the reign of the Prince of Peace. May we so conect ourselves with Him and so acknowledge His rule in our lives, that when He comes He will count us worthy to become subjects of His everlasting kingdom."

Plans have been completed for a large temperance rally at the camp grounds tomorrow afternoon at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Davis Tomlinson president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Plainfield, will give a lecture on "The Protection of Our Homes." Mrs. T. C. Bodine, the State superintendent of the Evangelistic Department of the W. C. T. U., will lecture on the subject "Scientific Temperance Instruction For Our Children." A symposium will follow on the subject of "Christian Temperance, the Hope of Society." Pastor B. G. Wilkinson, Pastor F. M. Wilcox and Dr. H. C. Menkel, all of whom are from Washington, D. C., will be the speakers. Not only will the use of intoxicating liquors be condemned in the course of the rally, but the use of tobacco will be scored. Seventh-Day Adventists do not use tobacco in any form, and some of the speakers will tell of the terrible death toll that has been paid through the smoking and chewing of this weed.

MOTORIST WHO KILLED CHILD IS ACQUITTED

New Brunswick, June 29.—Chas. M. Yetter, the Reading, Pa., cigar manufacturer, who ran over and killed four-year-old Isador Fedol on George's road on May 1, while on a joy ride with W. J. Miller, Miss Annie Ganger and Mabel Trenkle, of Reading, was acquitted of manslaughter in the Middlesex County Court.

While the jury was on Yetter was served with a summons in a $10,000 damage suit, instituted in the Supreme Court by Harry Fedol, father of the accident victim.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It in Plainfield.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Plainfield residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

A. K. Mattis, 127 W. Fourth St., Plainfield, N. J., says: "I gave Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement five years ago after receiving a cure through their use and today I confirm all I then said in their favor. My cure has been permanent." (Statement given January 20, 1911.)

On August 28, 1905, Mr. Mattis said: "I was troubled for years by a dull bachache and pains in my head. I believe that my trouble was due to a great measure, to a bad fall I had. Nothing seemed to help me and when I read of the good work Doan's Kidney Pills were doing in similar cases, I got a supply at Randolph's Drug Store. Their use drove away my aches and pains and my experience gave proof of their merits."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HEATING SYSTEM
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

North Plainfield, N. J.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Borough of North Plainfield, N. J., until eight o'clock p. m. on the first day of July, 1912, for the construction of the heating system in the Somerset School, consisting of complete boiler plant, air washer, fans, ducts, coils, etc., and other accessories.

Bids will be considered only for the entire work, and a certified check payable to the order of the District Clerk, Borough of North Plainfield, N. J., to the amount of 10 per cent. of his bid must be deposited by the bidder and accompany his bid as a guarantee that in case the contract is awarded to him he will, within seven days after the notification of the order, execute the contract.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the Somerset School Building, North Plainfield, N. J.

The Board reserves and has the right to accept or reject any or all proposals, and advertise again as in its best judgment may be for the best interests of the Borough.

A bond satisfactory to the Board in amount and sureties will be required of those to whom the contract may be awarded.

Bids must be sealed and addressed to District Clerk, North Plainfield, N. J., and marked on the outside of enclosing envelope "Proposal for Heating System, Somerset School."

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, JUNE 29, 1912.

The editorial columns of this paper are conducted on Saturdays by representativ- citizens who are free to express their own views. Howard H. Williams, a New York lawyer; vice president of the Union Paper Co.; a director of the Williamsburgh City Fire Insurance Co., and superintendent of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Sunday-school, of this city, is the contributing editor for today.

THREE E'S UNDER COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

In considering the question of the advisability of adopting the Commission Form of Government for Plainfield, to reach a proper conclusion it is essential to note that the experience of those cities that have made use of this system in recent years demonstrates its advantages over the ordinary method in three respects: Efficiency; Expedition; Economy.

At the outset we find that in many places, and this is especially true of Plainfield, the municipality is working under an old charter, adopted many years ago when conditions were very different from those of the present time. In some instances such charters have been amended and in other instances they have been modified by general laws, so that it requires an exhaustive research to determine the exact rule of law applicable to any particular state of facts. Therefore the first gain in efficiency is to have a modern charter adopted in view of present day problems and designed to solve them most effectively.

By the commission plan efficiency is gained through placing the governing authority in a small body of men who are chosen by the city at large, and not by wards, at a municipal election, when national politics can have no influence and where the candidates have upon the ballot no party designation of any character. As a result the tendency is to choose as commissioners men of high character, free from party or factional control, who have at heart what is best for the entire city rather than any special portion and who consequently aim to give to the entire constituency the very best results obtainable. The number of commissioners being so small unanimity of opinion is readily achieved, while at the same time each individual assumes his burden of the responsibility. As the enforcement of laws is in the hands of the commissioners they possess unlimited administrative functions in addition to their legislative authority; they make the appropriations and watch over the expenditures; each commissioner is in absolute control of a distinct department and he is individually responsible to his fellow-commissioners and to the public for his conduct thereof.

The same reasons that make for efficiency result further in expedition. In the place of endless conferences with many members of a committee and renewed hearings by the Council, we find each commissioner can carry out any adminstrative act as soon as he makes up his own mind, and should any proposal require legislative authority, that is to say the passing of an ordinance to authorize it, he can obtain this quickly by explaining conditions to his fellow-commissioners and having their approval. Thus the routine business of the city is conducted with the promptness characteristic rather of private affairs than the usual municipal practice.

But to the taxpayer the chief benefit derived from the new order is found in economy. Everyone is familiar with the conditions that ordinarily cause waste and extravagance in public expenditures. Cities having adopted the commission plan generally make one of the commissioners a purchasing agent, or in control of purchases, with the result that supplies of every kind, both ordinary and extraordinary, are furnished to the city at prices much less than have been paid under the old plan where each department is its own buyer. Two illustrations show what can be done, one in a large matter and the other a trifling one, in this direction.

Cedar Rapids ,which is a city somewhat larger than Plainfield, divided by a river, constructed a bridge across such river a few years ago under the old government. This bridge cost $104,000. About four years later, under the new commissioners, a similar bridge was constructed at another street, practically the same in quality, which cost only $69,000. There was no corresponding change in the price of material or labor, and the difference furnished an enlightening example of economies that can be effected under efficient management. So in Trenton, the centralized purchasing system brought about great reductions in the price of supplies. The equipment for the water system had been previously purchased from a company charging 50 per cent. more to Trenton than it charged for the same articles to other cities. This difference was at once eliminated. In Trenton the commissioners have secured for the citizens a reduced rate of gas and electricity, and at the same time a better quality of both. It is true that in Trenton the tax rate has slightly advanced, but this the commissioners explain by a statement that the old budget was approximately $50,000 short of the amount required for the management of the departments, the equipment of which it was necessary to increase immediately in order to properly maanage the city's affairs, but already the commission there has accomplished definite results Open competitive bidding has been adopted for contract work city advertising has been placed on a business basis; legal advisers to city boards have gone out of existence with these boards and in their place a legal department has been established; a city chemist has been included in the personnel of officials; theaters and moving picture houses are kept under strict surveillance; all city bills are paid promptly; city business is transacted more quickly than ever before; city employes are required to devote their entire time to city work weak places in the various departments have been bolstered up; substantial assurance has been secured of an improved trolley system; automobiles have been purchased to expedite the work of several of the departments and to secure greater efficiency; and, above all, business efficiency has superceded politics.

It cannot be claimed that the commission plan per se is a panacea for all municipal ills, but it is in the nature of a return to the simple plan of a New England Town Meeting, where a few "Selectmen" are chosen annually and vested with sufficient power to act for the community during the year. While it is strange that these principles of simple organization and direct commission control have not been applied to municipal government in a greater degree hitherto, at the present rate of adoption it is probable that the commission type will soon be in use in a majority of our cities. Its strength lies, not so much in the details of the plan as in the location of responsibility and full popular control.

GREAT FOURTH DUE IN NEW PROVIDENCE

Exercises Will Include a Parade With a Sub-Division for Baby Carriages.

The plans of the General Committee and of the New Providence Athletic Association for the celebration of the Fourth of July are now practically complete, and all signs now point to the finest commemoration of the day that has ever been known in the Passaic Valley. Although the festivities will occur chiefly in New Providence Borough, they will be participated in by many members of other communities in and near the Valley, from Millington to Summit, and from Myersville to Mount Bethel.

The official celebration for the day will begin at 9:30 a. m., when the parade will start from the corners of Springfield avenue and Passaic street, march on Springfield avenue to Lackawanna Park and return via the same route to South street, then along that thoroughfare to St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal church, at the corner of Central avenue, after making the turn around the rectory they will counter-march on South street and thence out Springfield avenue to the M. E. church, where the parade will be reviewed by Mayor Thomas P. Crane and staff.

The parade will be in charge of Marshal Horace B. Guerin and aids. The order of the parade will be as follows:

First Division.

Mayor Thomas P. Crane and Borough Officials.
Crescent Band.
New Providence Fire Department.
Starry Flag Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.
New Providence Gun Club.
Decorated Baby Carriages.
Baseball Teams.
Comic and Grotesque Section.

Second Division.

Independent Italian Club of Berkeley Heights.
Cornet Band.
Berkeley Heights Fire Department.
Mounted Squad.
Decorated Horses and Carriages.
Automobiles.

Patriotic exercises will be held in the New Providence Methodist Episcopal church immediately following the parade. After the reading of the Declaration of Independence, Dr. Willis Fletcher Johnson will deliver the oration for the day. Appropriate music will be rendered by the choir and Crescent Band.

Athletic sports will be held in the afternoon on Passaic Oval. The field games will begin at 2 o'clock and consist of ten events, prominent among them being the Tug-of-War with ten men from the Borough, against ten men from the Township.

The New Providence A. A. will play the Gillette B. B. C. at 11 a. m., and the Berkeley Heights A. C. at 3:30 p. m.

Dinner will be served from 12 until 2 o'clock and supper from 5 until 7 o'clock at the M. E. church. Ample provision is being made to accommodate a large crowd.

A band concert will be given on the Passaic Oval at 8 p. m., in conjunction with illustrated songs and stereopticon views.

Editors Plainfield Daily Press:

The Dunellen scribe who reported the work of the engineers on the attempted sewer-bed on the Darling farm seems to be trying to create the impression that the people of Piscataway township are pleased to help the poor guns to finance their sewer problem. The wish is father to the thought.

Because the people here are law-abiding and didn't come out with artillery to drive the engineers off their lands, he thinks they were received very cordially. After being ordered off by Edgar L Fitch (me) the lessee of the Darling farm, the engineers persisted in their work under protest and did a great amount of damage to the growing grain.

Editors Daily Press:

Now that so many householders are planning to close their homes for the summer it is well to remind them of their duty to have their domestic animals cared for while they are away. So many heartless people are in the habit of turning these helpless creatures out to starve or be abused, while they are away enjoying themselves forgetting that there is a law against every kind of cruelty to animals.

Paint that Stays Painted
That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

FILLETS OF BEEF.

THE fillet is a strip of beef generally taken from under the section of backbone included in the rump and sirloin. It is removed whole when it is to be used for a fillet.

The short fillet is the part from the rump; that from the sirloin is called the long fillet.

The rump fillet weighs about two pounds and a half and is much cheaper than the long fillet.

The fillet has little flavor in itself and so is highly seasoned and flavored when cooked.

Broiled Over the Coals.

Short Fillets.—Broil the fillets over clear coals, taking care not to burn or scorch them. When cooked to a medium degree take from the broiler, rub well with butter, sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper, sprinkle with a few drops of lemon juice and minced parsley and send to the table.

Served With Tomatoes.

Fried Fillet of Beef.—Cut two pounds of fillet of beef into round slices half an inch thick. Sprinkle with pepper and salt. Cut the fat off the beef into pieces. Heat two ounces of butter in a frying pan and fry the fillets for five or seven minutes, then brush over each with glaze.

Place a border of mashed potatoes on a dish; lay the fillets on it with alternate slices of baked tomato and the fried beef fat. Have a piece of maitre d'hotel butter on each fillet. Fill the center with nicely cooked vegetables and pour round a little good beef gravy.

Deliciously Flavored.

Take half a pound of fillet of beef, three mushrooms, two teaspoonfuls of minced onion, half a pint of stock or water, half an ounce of glaze, a sprig of parsley, thyme and marjoram, half an ounce of butter, one ounce of flour and salt and pepper.

Wipe the meat, trim off all fat, cut the lean into square pieces. Peel and chop the onion and the mushrooms.

Tie the herbs together with fine strips of cotton. Melt the butter in a clean saucepan, add to it the onion and flour and fry them carefully a nice brown.

Add the stock and stir till it boils. Now put in all the other ingredients and simmer very slowly for one and a half hours or till the meat is quite tender.

Season carefully. Arrange the meat neatly in a hot dish. Strain the gravy over and put the mushrooms round.

Favorite and Fashionable Colors of the Summer Season.

The girl of eighteen is a very lucky individual this season. She has a range of colors from which to choose her summer attire, among which the most enchanting tints that are copies of flowers and fruit may be secured.

Every shade of azalea is greatly liked. It is a beautiful color, rich and withal dainty, and a very good choice for the mother as well as the daughter.

Midsummer is sure to mean the need for just such pretty, cool little frocks

CONVENTION DEADLOCKED

son, 354, a gain of 3; Underwood, 121, a gain of 2; Harmon, 135, a loss of 6½; Marshall, 31, unchanged; Kern, 1, a loss of 1, and Bryan, 1, unchanged.

As the seventh ballot got under way at 10:20 o'clock the floor conferences between the leaders began again. Wilson lost 1 vote to Underwood in Connecticut. There was no change in the seventh until Michigan was reached, where Wilson gained back a vote he had previously lost to Harmon. From Ohio two of Harmon's men switched to Clark. Tennessee leaned even more strongly to Clark in this ballot, and the speaker gained 3½ at the expense of Wilson and Underwood.

Charles F. Murphy received a whispered message and got up from his chair and walked rapidly out of the hall. It was said that he had been summoned to National Committeeman Mack's room in the armory, and it looked very much as if another conference was on.

The result of the seventh ballot was: Clark, 449½, a gain of 4½; Wilson, 352½, a loss of 1½; Harmon, 129½, a loss of 5½; Underwood, 123½, a gain of 2½, with the others unchanged.

There was no change in the eighth ballot until Michigan was called, when Underwood grabbed a vote from Harmon. A few minutes later Clark, who was picking up a vote here and there, snatched a vote from Wilson. Wilson took a vote away from Underwood in North Carolina, and when New York's name was called Charles F. Murphy, for the eighth time, stood up and snapped, "New York casts 90 votes for Harmon."

Story of Afternoon Session.

Baltimore, June 29.—With all the wind jamming and hooraying and skylarking out of the way the national convention reassembled at 4 o'clock for the sober business of nominating the candidates. The 1,088 weary gentlemen, still heavy eyed from the all night session, that came to nothing except the first official showdown of strength, were in their seats at the time set for convening. They sweated in the blanketing heat, for the brand of weather was the most trying of any since the sessions began. There were no cheers for anybody at the outset. It was too hot.

Naturally the delegates knew little of what was going on behind the scenes. The under currents ran too deep for them. But even the big bosses, the handful who do things, appeared to be drifting, waiting for a cue upon which to act.

Mr. James, of Kentucky, permanent chairman, called the convention to order at 4:15. The prayer was made by the Rev. Henry Wharton, pastor of the Brantley Baptist church of this city.

There was no shift in the lineup on the first ballot until Massachusetts, the nineteenth state on the list, had been reached. Then the Wilson folks got a chance to shout when Massachusetts gave 35 votes to Clark, a loss of 1, which went to Wilson, who had not received a vote from Massachusetts on the first ballot.

Then New Hampshire dropped into the Wilson column, Clark getting 7 votes, a loss of 1. After that there were breaks in several delegations.

The Wilson crowd let out a yell when Pennsylvania added 1 to the New Jersey governor's column. Every moment the Wilson folks were feeling more confident. Wilson gained half a vote in Utah and Clark 1 in Wisconsin. Clark gained a vote in Porto Rico from a delegate who did not vote on the first ballot. When the votes of Vermont were turned into the Wilson column from Baldwin the Wilson roofers whooped for a minute.

The Michigan and Tennessee delegates could not decide on the first roll call and had to be passed. The Michigan delegation was badly split. Wilson got 11, Clark 14, Harmon 4, Marshall 1. Clark gained 2 votes and Wilson 1.

The first change on the third ballot was a switch of a pair of Maine men to Wilson. There was sharp cheering. The intense feeling of the delegates was expressed by the way in which the chairmen of the delegations called out the vote. The votes of the solid compact, enthusiastic delegations were announced ringingly and triumphantly, while the vote loosely held, split delegations, was called falteringly and haltingly.

When New Jersey was called there was something for the crowd to laugh over. Ex-Senator Jim Smith of that state, who had complimented Congressman William Sulzer with a pair of votes, took them away from the Manhattan statesman and gave them to Underwood. When the clerk got around to New York the voice of Charles F. Murphy rang out like the crack of a rifle, "New York, 90, Harmon." Murphy was making them yell every time he plumped that big bunch of votes for the Ohio governor.

Ohio's family now out of the way, the roll call droned on, Wilson gaining 1 in Pennsylvania. Bryan being the sufferer. Tennessee gave Underwood a gain of 5½, and the rebel yell split the air. Clark lost 3½ here. At this time the muddled tally clerk was moved to announce Ohio's corrected vote and again got it wrong. Governor Campbell, the Harmon leader, shouted, "You have given Harmon 1 more than we claim."

Reed Pleads With Murphy.

On the fourth ballot Underwood captured 2 votes. Clark lost 2 votes in Massachusetts, which were instructed for Clark. Senator Reed, who made the nominating speech for Clark, went to the New York delegation and pleaded with Murphy to shift from Harmon to Clark. There were indications that the New York delegation had taken a vote without leaving their seats and the next ballot the 90 votes of New York would be thrown to Clark. This news was whispered among the delegates. In Michigan, Underwood, Wilson and Harmon each gained a vote and Clark lost 1. Wilson gained 3 votes in Nebraska and Harmon lost 3.

The result of the fourth was as follows: Clark, 443; Wilson, 349½; Harmon, 136½; Underwood, 112; Marshall, 31; Baldwin, 14; Kern, 2. This was the first ballot that no vote was cast for Bryan. Clark gained 2 votes, Wilson 4½, Harmon lost 4, Underwood lost 2, Marshall and Baldwin held their own.

On the fifth ballot there was a rattling surprise. Connecticut dropped the hopeless Baldwin candidacy and split up. Underwood got 9, the lion's share; Clark 4 and Wilson 1.

In a minute there were harsh words in Kansas. Men rose up and called each other out of their names. The vote had been announced as 9 for Clark and 11 for Wilson, but the chairman, A. M. Jackson, threw that vote out of the window and cast the whole block of 20 for Clark under the instructions.

But an insurrecto insisted that they now had a right to split up and vote for their personal choices. The Clark managers were all over the shop by this time. There was danger in the air. Clark's desertion of Bryan in the opening day of the convention had raised the deuce in delegations where Bryan loyalists were strong. Chairman James ordered that the resolution instructing the delegation be read. It showed that the delegation must vote as a unit for Clark until two-thirds of the delegates voted Clark had no chance. The delegation was ordered polled.

Murphy Sticks to Harmon.

A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, an ardent follower of Clark's, moved a point of order that the convention had no right to poll the Kansas delegation, but that the Kansans must check. The chairman ruled against him, and the roll was called. It showed that 11 of the delegation had come to the conclusion that Clark did not have a chance. But 11 wasn't two-thirds, and so James ruled that the delegation must continue to cast its vote for Clark.

The center aisle, by Murphy's chair, was now jammed with Clark's managers all pleading with Murphy to go to Clark. "Gumshoe" Bill Stone bent over one of Murphy's shoulders, and Senator Reed leaned over the other, and more Clark men besieged the bigger men in the New York crowd, beseeching them to persuade Murphy to drop Harmon and give New York's 90 to Clark. But Murphy was as impressionable as a clam. Again when the time came he was up, stiff as a poker, with the now familiar announcement in his metallic voice:

"New York's 90 votes for Harmon."

There was a hot tip that New York was going to Clark on this ballot, but the Tammany leader fooled 'em. There were several shifts in this ballot. The vote on the fifth ballot was Clark, 443½; Wilson, 351½; Harmon, 143; Underwood, 119½; Marshall, 31; Kern, 2. This was a gain of 6½ for Harmon, 2½ for Wilson, and a loss of 7½ for Underwood. Clark's vote didn't change.

The crowd was pleased when shortly after the result of the ballot was announced Chairman James declared an adjournment until 9.30 o'clock tonight, but the delegates who want to get home growled.

Platform Makers at Work.

Baltimore, June 29.—William J. Bryan and those who labored with him hammered away on the platform for hours. They showed up early and worked on the 1912 party principles while the convention took ballot after ballot without result. Once in awhile Bryan emerged to make inquiries as to what was going on in the convention.

The subcommittee, composed of Bryan and Senator O'Gorman, began work on the platform early. When the draft was completed typewriters were at once put to work on it.

"It is the most progressive platform ever framed in a Democratic convention," declared Mr. Bryan, with evident satisfaction. "That means that it is the most progressive platform ever adopted in this country. It is a stemwinder, and the people will respond to it."

Platform makers, insurgents as well as regulars, seemed to be satisfied with the platform.

It is the general understanding that the Bryan platform, which will undoubtedly be adopted by the convention, indorses all the latest things in popular government. It boosts presidential primaries. Taking a leaf from the Roosevelt record made at Chicago, the Bryan platform urges that newly elected national committeemen shall begin doing business on the eve of the convention.

If the Democratic party adopts the Bryan platform it will place itself on record as opposed to a second term in the presidency. Democrats think that the single term idea will prove popular.

A Rather Convincing Reply.

"Some years ago," said Mr. William P. Farrell of San Francisco, "I was making a pilgrimage to the land of my ancestors, and many times, even in the most out of the way corners of Erin, I was given proof of the quick wit of the Celt. On one occasion a fellow whom I had employed in a small town in Galway on some slight personal service persisted in addressing my as 'My lord.' I didn't like the title a little bit, and finally I called him down rather warmly.

"'Don't you call me my lord another time,' I said. 'I am simply an ordinary Irishman like yourself.'

"'Ah, your honor,' said the rascal, with an irresistible grin, 'that can't be true. There never was an ordinary Irishman.'"—Baltimore American.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

Pretty "Rose Maid" parasols of the prevailing rose shade are to be presented to those attending the matinee performance of "The Rose Maid," at the Globe theatre on next Saturday afternoon. Managers Werba & Luescher have selected this performance for souvenirs because the occasion marks the completion of the third big month in New York of this sweet enduring operetta with its rosebud garden of girls.

Converted into an open air theatre with its roof removed the Globe has become the coolest and most popular summer resort on Broadway. "The Rose Maid", attracts the gay crowds at every performance and the audience sits and laughs beneath the starry sky with the auditorium kept at an even seashore temperature by the perfect cooling plant. The matinees are thronged with children's parties to see the sextette of "Kute Kiddies" in the "Happy Family" song which has become one of the most talked about features of any musical show in town. The fascinating "Rose Waltz" is being danced in every carbaret show on Broadway and the "Jolly Good Fellows" number is whistled everywhere. In fact "The Rose Maid" furnishes exactly the sort of entertainment that summer visitors to New York delight to applaud. The male quintet of comedians springs new verses each week in their topical song "Money Talks" keeping the audience in an uproar of laughter.

"Bought and Paid For," at William A. Brady's Playhouse, presents the wholly unusual spectacle of a play that has run continuously for ten months in New York and yet "sells out" every night when the weather is cool, or even coolish. The 350th New York performance of Mr. Broadhurst's comedy-drama will be given on Monday of next week, July 1, considerably outdistancing any of the other plays of the past season. During the same week there will be a special Independence Day matinee, and the sale of seats until August is announced, with the probability that the current entertainment may run on far beyond that period. The value of the "intimate" type of theatre, which has become so fashionable in recent years, is proved by the playhouse, which, in its first season, has netted a profit of $110,000, entirely aside from the earnings of the play which is conducted as a separate undertaking.

SUGGESTS HIPPOCRATIC OATH FOR LAW PRACTICE

Newark, June 29.—A suggestion that lawyers, upon taking their bar examinations, be made to take an oath similar to the Hippocratic oath taken by doctors, was made by Dr. W. H. S. Demarest, president of Rutgers College, in the course of his address at the commencement exercises of the New Jersey Law School at Wallace Hall.

There is a need of such an oath, held Dr. Demarest, because of the temptation which besets lawyers to desert the cause of humanity in general on account of the size of the fees offered them by the few who desire to find ways in which to evade the law. A Hippocratic oath, which should cause the young lawyer to remember for all time his obligation to his fellow-man, should tend to keep the profession on a high plane, asserted the speaker, instead of making it necessary for the layman to look with distrust upon all those who follow the law.

Jacob Voehl, Sr., of Grove street, will leave July 6 for Germany to visit relatives.

STUNG BY A BEE, LOSES HIS POWER OF SPEECH

Califon, June 29.—John Bird, a farmer, about sixty years old, is in a serious condition at his home near Vernoy, as the result of a bee sting. Mr. Bird was building a fence when the insect stung him on the back of the neck. Immediately his body, hands and feet began swelling. His mouth and tongue swelled so as to render him speechless. Dr. Topkins, of this place, was summoned.

FORGER SENTENCED.

Freehold, June 29.—Walter Bennett, who recently pleaded guilty to the forging of two checks for $24.50 each on the Asbury Park and Ocean Grove Bank, was sentenced to the Reformatory at Rahway by Judge John E. Foster, Thursday. Bennett, when arraigned, said he used the proceeds of the forged checks to buy clothing for himself and medicine for his two children. Before imposing sentence, Judge Foster investigated and satisfied himself that Bennett, who is but twenty-four years old, had expended some of his means on a young woman not a member of his family. He told Bennett yesterday that other forged checks had come to light that he was believed to be responsible for, although the police had not connected him with them.

FIVE TICKETS FOR 47 MEN.

Long Branch, June 29.—Only five of the forty-seven Monmouth County Democrats who left for the Baltimore convention from Monmouth county on Monday and who are eating and sleeping on the cars, were able to secure tickets for the convention hall. As a result there is considerable grumbling. Tickets for the convention were promised to them, but the supply was not equal to the demand. The Monmouth men are having a good time, however. Former Park Commissioner Brent Good, the "boy of the crowd," who is near his seventy-fifth milestone, writes that Sheriff Beecroft is a royal entertainer and that they are living on the fat of the land and having a jolly time.

JUDGES DIFFER OVER BERTH.

Jersey City, June 29.—Judge John A. Blair and Judge Robert Carey are divided on the reappointment of John W. Hardenburgh, president of the Commercial Trust Company of Jersey City, to the Hudson County Park Commission. The question of whether or not Commissioner Hardenburgh is a legal resident of the county has caused the split. Judge Blair holds that this makes no particular difference. His colleague does not agree with him.

LEGACY FOR WOMAN.

Bayonne, June 29.—Miss Inez Coleman, of La Tourette House, a newspaper woman, has been notified that she will receive $19,000 by the will of Mrs. Lucy W. Drexel, who died last spring at her home, 103 Madison avenue. Miss Coleman was not related to Mrs. Drexel. They had long been friends.

NATHAN HALE STATUE.

Laborers In Moving It Make It Look as if He Were Being Hanged Again.

The statue of Nathan Hale, which has stood in the southwest corner of city hall park, New York, since 1893, and on the spot where the hero probably uttered his last words before he was hanged as a spy, was moved recently by workmen to make way for a new branch of the subway. The workmen placed a noose about the captain's neck, as Britishers had done to the real captain, and hauled him across the park to a position in front of the east wing of city hall, where he will remain until the excavation work is finished. Then he will be returned to his former place.

Seeing the heavy cable rope wound around the neck and tied under the chin, led one bystander to observe, "They're hanging him again."

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The world's finest fire department has nine representatives in Plainfield territory this afternoon.

They have changed their firemen's garb to that of ball players, but when so disguised they will find it hard to extinguish the local ball tossers.

Frederickson will do the home team's twirling, with his regular light backers behind him.

The games scheduled in both the Sunday School and Manufacturers' Leagues for this afternon are bound to bring forth changes in the league standing.

And just as we begin to think that the Netherwood A. C. manager looking around for a suitable epithet he comes across as the preliminary bill for today on the Oval.

America's Olympic team are now on their last leg of the long journey to Sweden and are being drilled for the opening parade.

All are in the finest possible condition and upon arriving will go into hard training for the few days that remain.

Richard Hobitzell, the crack first baseman of the Cincinnati club, says he will never play on that team again as long as Hank O'Day is the pilot.

He was benched by O'Day for insubordination and immediately resolted.

This is another case similar to that of Manager Kling's with Perdue and is only another instance of the unpopularity of a leader.

During a recent game in the American Association, George Perring, of the Columbus baseball team, and Jimmy Williams, of the Minneapolis nine, because involved in a heated argument over which could circle the bases in the best time.

They have decided to have it out in the shape of a 100-yard dash on July 11, for a side bet of $20.

The much talked of United States League has ceased to exist. The last struggle was pulled off in Pittsburg with the Chicago team as their visitors.

And the magnates say that this outlaw organization will again be started in 1913.

Just to keep the big league shake-up going Trainer Mulcahey, of the Yankees, resigned his position last night.

He will probably be succeeded by Doc Barrett, of Williams College.

Marquard is on the bill for the eighteenth this afternoon.

There will be a break before long. No fiend has turned in a new twirling record for the last twenty-four hours.

Four times the Giants have had consecutive runs of nine games each, but yesterday was the first time they have been able to pass the ninth.

They leaped it with two games over the Boston Braves thereby annexing eleven straight.

And Marquard's win of today will make an even dozen.

Transfer to Arlington avenue, please.

DIAMOND DUST.

With the anvil chorus of Detroit chanting his death knell, and Bill Donovan already scheduled to get his job at the end of this season, Hughie Jennings is getting a taste of the bitter side of baseball. It sounds rather strange to hear a man who has won three pennants for a club being accused of inefficiency and there seems to be some reasonable doubt that he is entirely responsible for the slump of the Tigers. It is one thing to control a lot of men who need their jobs to keep even with the landlady and another thing to pilot a bunch of plutocrats who own autoombiles and summer homes.

Merkle is hitting the ball with terrific force. His hits are almost all low straight drives that travel with the speed of a bullet.

It is confidently expected that the Giants will cinch the pennant mathematically on their next Western trip. If they play with anything like the success they had on the first invasion they should come back with the flag in their possession. Interest would undoubtedly suffer a decline, but it does not follow that the Giants would take things particularly easy in that event. There are several records McGraw and his players would like to attach to themselves, and this is the time to go after them.

Instead of being on the verge of quitting, as has been at times rumored, Manager Frank Chance declares that he intends to win another pennant and beat the American League champions for another world's series before he lays down his fighting togs. In fact he has not given up hopes yet of winning this year. "What if Marquard should break an arm or run over an embankment in his automobile?" exclaims Chance.

The Red Sox hold a comfortable lead in the American League and are now seriously being figured by many as the pennant winners. It is early in the race to pick winners in a field so well bunched as in the A. L. Connie Mack is not saying a word. He is just going ahead in the business of winning ball games and letting out a quiet hint to place a bet on the Athletics in the next world's series.

Speaking about pitching feats, according to the records of 1904, they have a record down in Dixie which, while it was not made in a major league, nevertheless was made under the rules and regulations of organized baseball. The record was for straight games pitched and won. In the year mentioned Baxter Sparks, who twirled for Yazoo City, in the Delta League, won twenty-one games in a row. Sparks won twenty-five games out of thirty-three games and nine of the victories were shutouts. He is now twirling in the Cotton States League, being a member of the Vicksburg team.

Chase is still being accused of not giving the New York club his best services. Very true. The great first baseman has not looked like the great ball player he is. Sickness was one thing, but the real reason for his slump has just leaked out. Now domestic troubles interfere. They have taken a great deal of the ginger out of him.

Doyle and Meyers are both strange ball players. They really enjoy making base hits and .400 batting averages. They are apt to rage mightily if their pleasure is interfered with. It is hightly improbable that opposing pitchers will even make so much as a bluff at holding them to less than two hits per day for the next couple of days. Probably won't do them much good if they do.

"LIL" ARTHUR CAN'T FIND MEN TO BOX WITH HIM

Las Vegas, N. M., June 29.—Jack Johnson today finds himself handicapped in his final training for his fight with Jim Flynn by lack of sparring partners. George Debray has a wrenched knee, Marty Cutler cannot stand the wear and tear of ten rounds daily which Johnson says he needs to get into proper shape, and Rastus Respess is too badly battered to give the champion enough ring work.

In lieu of sparring Johnson is doing long stretches of road work and declares he does not mind letting up on boxing for a few days before the fight. With the big event only six days away Johnson is being groomed to enter the ring at 212 pounds and Flynn is around the 194 mark.

PRAISE FOR YOUNG PLAINFIELD PITCHERS

The Newark Star speaks thus admiringly of some Queen City talent:

"Plainfield fans have good reason to be proud of two home-product twirlers, Louis Slocum and Freddy Frederickson. Both were sensations when playing on amateur teams by reason of their habit of running up a long string of strikeouts on opposing batsmen, and since they have been playing professional ball their success is equally marked.

"Slocum was last year signed by Connie Mack and farmed out to minor league teams after spending a short time in the Athletics' camp. He first was sent to the Winston-Salem Club, of the Carolina League, and, by pitching a no-run, no-hit game, clinched the pennant for that team. When Connie heard about the feat he immediately wired for Slocum to return to Philadelphia.

"'That's too good talent to waste in a league like that,' was his comment. Slocum was then sent to the Scranton (New York State League) club, where he finished the season with a good record and was again signed by the Scranton manager for the present season.

"Shortly after reporting for work in the spring, however, his boss found that he had too many pitchers and not enough fielders and as Slocum was receiving a big salary, it was decided to drop him and hire two outfielders for the one price. The Plainfield boy then accepted a job with the New York United States League club. When that league disbanded he was out of a job and since then has been playing semi-professional ball on Saturdays and Sundays and is in great demand.

"Manager Joe McGinnity, however has turned his attention to Slocum and will probably give him a tryout with the Tigers.

"Slocum is just 21. Until last year he played on the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. and other amateur teams Then he accepted a job with the McNulty Brothers in New York, where the major league scouts made a scramble for him and Mack's man won.

"Frederickson is two years the junior of his fellow townsman and correspondingly less experienced, but the fact that he is pitching regularly for the Plainfield team, which won the Central New Jersey League pennant last year, shows the quality of his goods.

"Like Slocum, 'Freddy' is a Y. M. C. A. product. A few weeks ago the two pitchers faced each other at Crescent Oval, 'Freddy' pitching for Plainfield and Louis for Scotch Plains. One of the biggest crowds known there turned out, realizing that the great rivalry between them would produce a great game. They were not disappointed, for both boys pitched their best and that Freddy won was no disgrace to Louis.

"Frederickson followed in Slocum's footsteps last summer, taking his place with the McNultys, and like Slocum, was hailed as a 'phenom.' Manager Durkin wanted him back this year, but he chose to play with Plainfield. 'When he is a little older,' the fans say, 'Freddy will be gobbled up by a big league scout.'

TEST FOR WESTFIELD.

The Westfield team that Eddie Flynn, former manager of the Rosevilles, is look after, will probably be severely tested in the games that have been arranged for Flynn's balltossers within a short period. Today the Westfields will play at home against the Scotch Plains aggregation, and a return contest will be decided in Scotch Plains Sunday. For the Fourth of July afternoon Manager Flynn has booked the Maple A. C. team, one of the best in West Hudson. The Saturday following the Fourth, July 6, the Westfields will meet the Dunellens. Pitcher McLaughlin, who was tried out by the Pittsburg Pirates, will twirl for the Dunellen team.

ATHLETES WILL TEST TRACK AND FIELD TODAY

Parker Field has been put in excellent condition for the Fourth of July games and a large number of local athletes are planning to put it to a test this afternoon. The Y. M. C. A. track team will be out in full force to put on the finishing touches for Thursday's meet.

Charles R. Bostwick, the former Yale coach, who has control of the playground, will be on hand and any aspiring athlete can obtain some good tips from him.

The playground commission has supplied all the necessary applications for athletic work and the field has good jumping pits, high jumping and pole vaulting, standard shots, and one of the finest cinder paths in the State.

HERE'S A NEW FISH STORY CLEAR FROM BUDD LAKE

Budd Lake, June 29.—J. A. Edgerton, of this place, has made a novel pet of a three and one-half pound Oswego bass, which is trained to eat out of his hand. The fish is held in captivity in a wire box, which is anchored off Edgerton's dock. When Al lifts the box lid, "Bob," as the bass in called, will dash to the surface of the water.

If Edgerton holds a nice, squirming worm above the water, the fish will spring up and seize the morsel. The bass disdains any hand but Al's. Under the latter's care, "Bob" has increased in weight from two to three and one-half pounds.

Edgerton caught the bass last summer. For a long time the fish refused food. After two months it was tempted by a worm dropped in its prison and fell. Late in the winter, as Al says, "Bob" became accustomed to his voice and would eat worms, bread and minnows from its master's hand.

Yesterday a youngster about the lake spied "Bob's" box open and dangled a worm on a hook over the pet. Thinking it one of his friends, "Bob" rushed to the bait. Al's timely arrival saved his pet's life. There was blood in Al's eye, and the way he impressed upon the young Isaak Walton the advisability of choosing his fishing grounds more carefully probably made a lasting impression.

ELIMINATE 5-MAN TUG FROM PROGRAM OF MEET

The five-man tug-of-war contest has been eliminated from the program of athletic events to be held on Parker Field July 4. This event was originally closed to the Manufacturers' Baseball League, but because of the nature of the contest, interest lagged, and those in charge have finally decided to omit it.

This will not in any way detract from the afternoon's program for there are thirteen other events carded and these will fill up the afternoon.

WILSON AS A BALL TOSSER.

Baltimore, June 29.—"Woodrow Wilson was a fine baseball player, but too darned wrapped up in reading to come out for practice," was the musing comment of former Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, yesterday. "Governor Wilson and I were college mates," said Glenn. "We studied and played together against rival colleges on the diamond for two years. That was at Davidson College, North Carolina. Afterward Wilson went to Princeton and I went back to the plow. Wilson was a good ball player, but he was too confounded lazy to make a star. When the team would be called out for practice, we'd have to go to his room and drag him away from a book. But, when Wilson wanted to play he was a star. He played left field, and, while he had an awkward way of running, he covered a lot of ground and was the best pinch hitter on the team. His only trouble was that he cared more for history than for 'Spalding's rules.'"

ROWING RACE TODAY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 29.—Three of the finest university eight-oared crews that ever backed up to a dory will be sent away on the stiff four-mile grind over the beautiful Poughkeepsie-Highland course this afternoon, the pick of a six-crew race that is almost certain to develop into a two-division struggle of absorbing interest. The three chosen eights are those of Cornell, Columbia and Syracuse, while the second division will consist of Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Leland Stanford. Cornell has a better crew than last year, Columbia also a stronger combination than in 1911, and Syracuse an eight so far superior to that of a year ago that it is heardly recognizable as the product of the same institution.

WELLS KNOCKED OUT.

New York, June 29.—Al Palzer knocked out Bombardier Wells in the third round of their fight last night in Madison Square Garden, Manhattan. In the first round the American was down for a count of nine and got severe punishment, the Briton being too clever for him. After this round the American succeeded in getting to Wells with his wild rushes and soon had him in difficulties, administering severe punishment to the body.

BROADWAY AND THIRTY-THIRD STREET, NEW YORK

OLD FASHIONED PICNIC AT LAKESIDE ON THE 4TH

The members of Sacred Heart R. C. church, of South Plainfield, are completing arrangements for their annual picnic on July 4. This year it will be held in Lake View Park and the occasion promises to be a decided sociable and joyous one.

John Hogan will read the Declaration of Independence. Dancing, boating, fishing, amusements and games of various kinds will form the diversions. A special orchestra has been engaged to supply the dance music. For the convenience of visitors an auto 'bus will run at intervals, afternoon and evening, between Rowley's drug store and the grounds.

—No, Maude dear; there is no similarity between buying a thing for a song and giving your note for it.

Roosevelt Spirit.

BY PERCY HAMMOND.
(In last Sunday's Chicago Tribune.)

The crowds poured like a cataract into the steep balconies as soon as the doors of Orchestra Hall were opened. While they were being seated the heroes began to appear—first, Col. Carrington, national committeeman from Maryland, then the militant Mr. Henry from California. They shook hands in the middle of the stage and there were many cheers. Grave, inward, self-controlled was the enthusiasm—no mental inebriey in this tribunal.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Longworth, and Kermit Roosevelt, with a large party, came early and sat in the third box on the right hand side of the horseshoe. Applause, polite applause for the leader's family. "Where's Hadley?" shouted some one in derision, and from the other side of the hall some one answered: "Looking for his instructions with Deneen."

A young negro in a blue jumper sat down at the pipe organ and began to play "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." Mrs. Longworth stood and motioned for the others in the box to do likewise.

Everybody stood. Everybody sang. It was not supposed that so many people knew the words of a national anthem. Such a chorus was never heard in Orchestra Hall. Full and melodious it flooded the place. All the verses were sung and then they were sung over again. The cheering after the song was over lasted five minutes. Meantime, no one had been admitted to the main floor except newspaper men and a few delegates.

James R. Garfield came in through the stage door and many people shouted the inquiry: "What's the matter with Garfield?"

Mr. Garfield having been vociferously approved, "Dixie" was sung, and "Old Lang Syne," and "Rally Round the Flag, Boys." The last chorus was another inspiring one.

Until then the enthusiasm had been staid and solid, full of volume, but with no hysteria. Then the pictorial banner of the California delegation was seen at the rear of the hall. Gov. Johnson was under it and as he marched down the aisle things were unleashed. The gathering being of a unanimous nature, there were no dissenting cries.

The shouts continued until the governor and his determined followers took their seats upon the stage, and then they started over again as several Roosevelt leaders ascended the steps—Gifford Pinchot, Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Medill McCormick. The "Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung with especial emphasis on the "Glory! Glory!"

"The ayes have it," yelled a man on the stage, quoting Senator Root, and there was more applause when an old Alabama contesting delegate turned in his seat and exhibited an immense badge reading "Steam Rolled, but Still for T. R."

Mr. Garfield rapped for order and informed the assemblage that as soon as several important persons arrived from the Coliseum the exercises of the evening would begin. Senator Clapp led his Minnesotans on to the stage, one of them bearing proudly his State's standard—significant loot from the Coliseum.

Mrs. Longworth slapped her hands and joined in the big shout. Meyer Lessner, the picturesque humorist of the California delegation, jumped on a chair, waving a Roosevelt banner and led the crowd in singing the "Star Spangled Banner." Mr. Lessner is the satirist who insists at every opportunity in calling for three cheers for Senator Penrose. Nearly every one knew the "Star Spangled Banner," too, and the song was sung gustily.

Then the delegation from New Jersey came in, also with its Coliseum standard, which ex-Governor Fort took from the man who carried it and held it aloft. Everybody on the stage began to shake hands and everybody was smiling. It was substantial, wholesome expression and there didn't seem to be a wild eyed man engaged in it or the subject of it. Cecil Lyon, the disfranchised leader from Texas, tried to tiptoe across the platform without being noticed, but the crowd caught him and spoke well of him in a loud voice. An Ohioan with the Ohio standard exhibited his trophy exultantly and the densest demonstration up to that time immediately ensued. And so it kept up—Pennsylvania, Kansas, Maryland. When Maryland was mentioned the band play the State's anthem, and there were calls for "Illinois." "Illinois" was rendered by the musicians, but no one sang it, the cause being either unfamiliarity with the words or temporary impatience with their symbolism. The Roosevelt family's spirits increased as the outbreaks did likewise, and Mrs. Longworth smiled more than she has smiled during the present proceedings.

Everything proceeded sturdily up to the grand crescendo reached after Governor Johnson's unfettering of his earnest eloquence, and Mr. Prendergast's utterance of the words: "The Greatest Living American!" At that point the feeling became an outburst with which in contrast the wildest demonstration at the Coliseum was as formal as the New York delegation's approval of a plank in the platform calling for Mississippi river improvements, or anything else, for the matter of that. It lasted until long after this reporter had departed, with the assurance from Mr. Fullerton, the baseball expert, that it had beaten all records for excitement made by devotees of the national pastime, even in their most agitated moments.

FIRST M. E. BROTHERHOOD HOLDS LAST MEETING

The Brotherhood of the First M. E. church held its last meeting for the season last night, and following a short business session, the men listened to a practical and instructive talk by Rev. Dr. Christian Reisner, of Grace M. E. church, New York, on the subject of "Aggressive Brotherhood Work."

Dr. Reisner briefly outlined what has already been accomplished in a general way by the Brotherhood of the M. E. church and then offered some helpful suggestions as to how the organization can increase its usefulness. After the address there was a social hour, during which refreshments were served.

TO ADDRESS BROTHERHOOD.

The Rev. C. E. Conover, pastor of Temple Baptist church, will address St. Paul's Brotherhood of Trinity Reformed church, tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. All men are cordially invited.
